Cover Story

Everybody's Home Town: "The people who reside in Washington have been sent here by their fellow countrymen: Farmers, scholars, merchants, professional folk, men and women from the vast expanse that is America. Others have been drawn here by the requirements of an age of big and powerful government.

"This capital is a projection of all the cities, towns, hamlets, and countryside which combine to make the United States of America.

"Every citizen shares in its virtues and vices, in its successes and failures, in its triumphs and trials, its honor and dishonor, its prestige and its responsibilities.

"America's ideals, standards, spiritual power and character combine to form a cultural mosaic known as Washington. In its complex character, the city is a microcosm of the United States."—Edward L. R. Elson.

TRIBUTE TO AMERICA

Formed in the mind of God,
Brought forth in labor,
Held in the heart of God,
Mightiest Nation.
Led by the Will of God
Onward forever.

DEAR DAUGHTERS:

Since the end of the very rewarding 81st Continental Congress, there have been many duties to occupy the time of your President General. Chief among these duties has been the furthering and executing of the plans for the President General’s Bicentennial Project—“A Gift to the Nation.”

On June 15, 1972, it was my privilege to meet with the Secretary of the Interior, the Honorable Rogers C. B. Morton, to pledge, on behalf of the National Society, the part we will play in the total restoration of Independence Hall by furnishing the Governor’s Council Chamber and the Assembly Committee Room on the long unused second floor. At this time a check for $10,000 was presented to Secretary Morton as the initial payment toward the “Gift”. Your overwhelming response to this Project during the recent Congress and since then made this ceremony most significant.

July the Fourth, the Birthday of American Independence, will be celebrated in a very special way this year. Your President General, members of the National Board of Management and other interested Daughters, will journey to Independence Hall in Philadelphia for the dedication ceremonies of the second floor restoration. Officials of the Park Service and the Department of the Interior will also be present. After this dedication, the second floor will be open permanently to the public. Some pieces of furniture and equipment, already procured, will be in place, some others simulated to give the effect of the final appearance. What better way could there be to honor those who fought so bravely and sacrificed so much for the cause of Independence than this Gift to the Nation.

Working with the officials of the Park Service has been inspiring, but there have been other duties which have also been great pleasures. Visiting and participating in graduations, award days and Board meetings at four of our schools—Kate Duncan Smith, Tamasee, Hillside and Crossnore, and the United States Naval Academy has been truly satisfying and equally inspiring.

Summer is generally a time of rest and relaxation; however, we must not forget the responsibility that is ours as members of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution. The DAR has been right on most of the important issues which face our Nation today. We must know and understand them and, as individuals, not fail to take a stand on any issue that will affect the well-being and preservation of the American Way of Life. Only by careful and true vigilance will we be able to celebrate with pride and satisfaction the Bicentennial of this great Nation.

As did those who founded these United States of America, we shall “Wait on the Lord: be of good courage...”

Faithfully,

Mrs. Donald Spicer
President General, NSDAR
What Makes Freedom Ring

Address by Lieutenant General V. H. Krulak, U. S. Marine Corps (Ret)
To the 81st Continental Congress of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution, Washington, D.C., April 17, 1972

There is nothing easier than making an average patriotic speech.

A few solid statistics on what the United States of America has achieved over the years, a portrait of the events that have marked our emergence from a wilderness to the level of greatness we now applaud, a generous wave of the flag. All of these unite to make a formula that gets across.

There is nothing too wrong with making an average patriotic speech. However, in view of the very distinguished character of this body, I would like to try and do just a little bit more tonight, and leave something behind that may stick to your intellectual ribs.

It seems to me that the citizens of the United States, including those, like all of us here tonight, who are deeply committed to enhancing its institutions, are likely to take the thing we call freedom too much for granted.

The fact is, freedom is not a self-starter.

Never, in the history of this globe has it sprung from nowhere, full-blown and robust. It has never flourished on its own.

To the contrary, freedom is a condition that needs some persistent power to bring it about, and to keep it alive.

Whether we speak of the freedom of a colonist in 1620 to worship as he chose, the freedom of a black family in 1865 to go where it chose, or the freedom of a citizen in 1920 to vote for whom he chose, there has always been some underlying power which, like a fine steel thread knitted the whole fabric of the freedom idea together.

The power that has created and preserved our great freedoms has clearly been effective, but just exactly what is it?—Where do we find it? How do we describe it? And, most important, how do we protect and nourish it?

These questions bring an old word to my mind. The word is "serendipity." I confess I had to look it up in the dictionary the first time I heard it. It comes from a work of fiction written by Horace Walpole telling about the three princes of Serendip, another name for the country we now call Ceylon.

These three princes, or so Walpole's story goes, were always stumbling across some wholly unexpected discovery when they least expected it, and while they were actually looking for something else, just like Columbus to India.

Serendipity is widely used today in scientific circles to describe discoveries that are made purely by accident, just as Dr. Fleming discovered penicillin when he ran onto some moldy bread which contaminated a routine experiment.

I thought of the word serendipity when I asked myself what ought to be some simple questions, "What really has created our great freedoms? What has caused them to endure? In short, what makes freedom ring?"

I wonder how many of you have ever asked yourself these questions. I wonder how many of you, having asked the questions, would go through the same reasoning process that I did and come out with the same answer.

I hope that you all would because, like the Princes of Serendip, I believe I have stumbled on the real answer. As a matter of fact, I am absolutely sure that I have flourishing century after century. Horatius stood at the bridge; indeed, laid down his life in freedom’s cause, and he did it as a wholly voluntary act. Your own brave forbears who stood firm at Lexington Square were there only because they believed and because they were willing to sacrifice.

Many men abandoned Washington at Valley Forge; but not everybody. Some, as you ladies know so well, stayed—voluntarily—risked their lives and their all, and they became the saviors of the Republic.

Freedom, in short, is not slogans or songs or laws or customs or programs or flags or plans or systems or projects or agendas or goals—or any of those things.

Freedom is the will of people; people who give of their resources on a voluntary basis; people who are willing to subordinate themselves to what their nation stands for, and do the job their country wants, however hard, however demanding. While all of the other factors are important in the overall, it is this voluntary quality that has made freedom ring.

All of this would be no more than a simple statement of fact, or at least of conviction, were it not that the idea of voluntary service seems to have come into disrepute in our land in the past few years. Let me give you just a simple example of how many citizens have been willing to abandon the wonderful concept of volunteer sacrifice in favor of something far less productive.

It begins with the unhappy fact that today has become the era of the outstretched palm.

There is a misguided conception that by some mysterious alchemy our government can produce money out of thin air, that all a supplicant needs to do is clamp on to a federal nipple, and then feed upon it for nothing.

But this is not the way it really is. Every penny that the federal government is able to disburse for any purpose comes directly from the taxpayer’s pocket. And the taxpayer pays a tremendous premium in overhead for everything he gets from the federal government.

For instance, there is a federal aid catalog put out annually. The current one has 1,132 pages of government agencies that exist just to regulate federal programs. There is overhead!

There are 14 agencies that do nothing but regulate education programs; 6 that administer civil rights programs, 5 that govern housing programs, 9 that relate to welfare is a prime example.

Twenty years ago we spent $5 billion a year on welfare. Just by comparison, at the same time we spent $40 billion on defense. This year we will spend $90 billion on welfare and $77 billion on defense.

The point is not so much that our security in a hostile world is being jeopardized, but that the fabric of our nation is being weakened by the burgeoning welfare trend.

12.9 million Americans are on welfare today, and every one of them has surrendered some fraction of his freedom in return for his welfare check.

The recurring complaint that one hears with respect to welfare is that freedom of action at every level is almost fatally invaded by bureaucracy. I was impressed by Governor Reagan’s State of the State Address last year when he said,

"Complex and confusing regulations make welfare virtually unmanageable... When a county welfare director has to fight in court to get information from his own employees, we have gone from the benign to the ridiculous."

This is the malady which has infected our nation as it approaches its 200th birthday. And it is a sad thing because, with every federal bequest, however small, there comes a measure of federal control or federal regulation. Such federal intervention inevitably affects the basic initiative of the recipient—whatever he is, whatever he does.

The whole trend runs counter to the exciting idea that has characterized the United States since 1776.

It challenges the wonderful dream the world has come to know as the American way of life, because it is hard to believe you are truly a free man when you are a slave to a welfare check and to all the bureaucracy that goes with it.

Our parents and grandparents did not suffer from this disease. They volunteered to solve their own problems. They did not lean on Uncle Sam. They were workers who were prepared to sweat. They didn’t even know the meaning of antiperspirant.

Within just a hundred years their initiative increased our life expectancy by approximately 50 per cent. Their ingenuity cut our working day by a third, while doubling our per capita output. And their efforts were voluntary; not regimented and not subsidized.

Our energetic parents put their hearts into giving us a healthier world than their own parents found. Because of them we no longer have to fear epidemics of smallpox, typhus, flu, diphtheria, scarlet fever, measles or mumps. Polio is no longer a medical factor, while TB is almost forgotten. And the research and effort were largely voluntary.

Our parents, and most of us, too, lived through America's greatest depression. Many of them knew what it meant to be hungry. And they knew, too, the precious virtue of standing on their own two feet and working their way out of trouble. In 1930 they fought poverty as men, not as creatures on a dole. They didn't trade their dignity for a handout.

Because of their resourcefulness and initiative we have more leisure time today. We are able to travel, and to appreciate more distant places. We have more of a chance to follow our life's ambitions.

They did not wait for someone else to do all this for them and for us, nor did they ask for a subsidy. They volunteered to pick up the load.

These are the people who voluntarily fought man's largest war—in freedom's cause.

They are the people who delivered the world from the tyranny of Hitler—in freedom's cause.

They are the people who, when it was all over, had the compassion voluntarily to spend billions of their own dollars to help their former enemies rebuild their homelands—in freedom's cause.

They created thousands of colleges and high schools, trained and hired tens of thousands of better teachers. They made higher education a reality for millions of youngsters, where once it was only the dream of a wealthy few.

And they did it on their own without the participation of 165 national education programs and 14 regulatory agencies.

The fact is, the generation that immediately preceded us made more progress by their voluntary initiative and by the sweat of their brows than in any previous era. If our generation can make as much progress, the United States will be a wonderful place to live.

But it will not be easy. Certainly, we won't do it by sitting back and saying that subsidy and bureaucracy are the name of the game today, and that we want our share of the loot.

Because, really, there is no loot. It is just John Q. Public's money, and the more that is given away at the top, the less that is left in the pocketbook at the bottom.

The more that is accepted as subsidy, the less freedom and initiative are left to the recipient.

And the key point is this; the man who is willing to be enslaved by a system—any system—is not likely to volunteer to stand up and fight for his right to be free.

That is today's problem. The idea of volunteering to do something on your country's behalf—or even on your own behalf—is not popular today and nothing could make that fact plainer than the economic examples I have given you.

I believe that it is far past time for Americans to relearn the precious truth that freedom can only ring as a product of personal dedication, personal commitment, personal sacrifice.

Freedom will ring if Americans resolve to emulate the commitment of Abraham Lincoln who had the courage to declare that a land that tolerated slavery had no right to exist as a nation, and then had the guts to do something about it.

Freedom will ring if we emulate the personal commitment of the little Chicago shop owner who, when confronted by a group of looters, stood voluntarily in his shop doorway and said they would have to kill him to enter his store.

It will ring if we really understand the spiritual and patriotic commitment of the chaplain who brought it all together with the words, "Praise the Lord and pass the ammunition."

It will ring if we follow the example of the dedicated people assembled here tonight; of you who constitute the Daughters of the American Revolution which itself is the very embodiment of the volunteer patriotic ethic.

Ladies and gentlemen, the people in all of these examples had one thing in common: they didn't have to do what they did, all of them could have taken an easier route. But they chose the harder way.

They prove to us beyond doubt, that the words of our anthem which say, "Let freedom ring" are not realistic, because freedom will not ring by itself.

You cannot let freedom ring. You have to make it ring. It is time for Americans all across the land to stand up and recognize this before it is too late. It is time for us to put our necks out in the cause of preserving our personal independence and personal initiative. These are treasures that defy valuation. They have made the United States of America the envy of the world for two centuries, and their protection is in your hands.

The National Society Regrets to Report the Death of:

SARAH CORBIN ROBERT (MRS. HENRY MARTYN, JR.) on May 1, 1972. A member of the Peggy Stewart Tea Party Chapter, Annapolis, Maryland, Mrs. Robert served as President General 1938-41, and as Treasurer General 1935-38.

DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION MAGAZINE
ON APRIL 22, Mrs. Donald Spicer, President General, and national, state and local DAR officers, and government officials, attended the ceremony dedicating a marker at the grave of Mrs. Donald McLean, President General 1905-1909, in Mount Olivet Cemetery, Frederick, Maryland. The placing of the marker was the joint project of the Maryland and New York DAR Societies. The Frederick Chapter hosted a brunch at the Officers' Club, Fort Detrick, following the dedication.

In May, the President General attended board meetings at Crossnore School in Crossnore, North Carolina, and Kate Duncan Smith DAR School in Grant, Alabama. (Mrs. Spicer was the featured guest at a number of events in the vicinity of National Headquarters during the month.)

In June, Mrs. Spicer was a guest at the Sons of the American Revolution Congress in Indianapolis. As early summer official state visit by the President General was scheduled on June 24, to West Virginia.

The President General's Project for this administration was enthusiastically endorsed by an overwhelming vote at the 81st Continental Congress. The Project, a “Gift to the Nation”, is to furnish the Committee Assembly Room and the Governor's Council Chamber on the second floor in the restoration of Independence Hall, Philadelphia. Late in April, Mrs. Spicer went to Philadelphia to attend the “May Daze” luncheon of the Eastern District Juniors of Pennsylvania. While there, she saw the completed restoration of the two historic rooms, which had been accomplished since her previous visit; and set in motion the mechanics for furnishing the rooms. On the railing which separates the exhibit from viewers, there will be an explanatory sign, describing the historical function of the room. Below that there will be a statement that the room was furnished by the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution 1972-1974. This will be an additional public recognition which had not been expected.

HALF A MILLION DOLLAR BEQUEST MADE TO NSDAR: “This has never happened to the Society before!” was the excited comment when word of a $490,000 bequest to create a medical scholarship fund became known. Under provisions of the will of the late Frank McCleary, Nevada rancher who died in 1970 in Boise, Idaho, the scholarship fund will be administered by a newly-created Frank McCleary Medical Scholarship Fund-Mary Ball Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. (Mr. McCleary's mother was a member of the Mary Ball Chapter in Tacoma, Washington.) Scholarships are “…for worthy students of high scholastic standing and character, who are citizens of the United States of America, and engaged in the study of medicine at medical schools, universities, and colleges.”

There are five trustees, one representing the National Society DAR. The President General has appointed Mrs. Ned L. Hiatt, Jr., Vice President General, of Anacortes, Washington, as the National Society trustee.

CONSTITUTION HALL SCENE OF RECORDING SESSIONS: The Washington National Symphony returned to Constitution Hall for six sessions to record an album of music for world-wide release. Equipment valued in the hundreds of thousands of dollars was flown from London and installed in the Hall by London Decca Records for multi-track stereo. In requesting the Hall, officials said that they considered the acoustics of Constitution Hall superior to any other hall in Washington. They plan to be back next year. (Somerville)

JUNE-JULY 1972 607
81st Continental Congress

On Sunday, April 16, 1972, all Daughters attending the Continental Congress were invited to a Museum Reception immediately following the Memorial Service. Featured at the Reception was the "lost" copy of the Declaration of Independence which was brought to Washington from Texas through the efforts of Mrs. Ford Hubbard (above), State Regent, and Mrs. Walter King, Curator General. This broadside is the 16th and last found copy of the July 4 edition printed on July 4, 1776, by Joseph Dunlap of Philadelphia. This only privately owned copy was loaned by the owners, Ira G. Corn, Jr., and Joseph Driscoll. During the afternoon, Richard Bates (below), world-acclaimed composer, conducted the National Gallery Orchestra in music of the time of the American Revolution and the early days of the Republic.

Introduced during the recent Congress were two items designed to commemorate the forthcoming Bicentennial. Above, Mrs. Spicer is presented with the sculptor's original models of the Bicentennial Medal by Mr. William Trees Louth, President, The Medalllic Arts Company, New York. Pictured with them are Mrs. Richard Denny Shelby, in charge of Bicentennial Sales, and Mrs. Robert Lacy Jackson, National Chairman, Bicentennial Committee. At right, Mr. Frederick Haviland, Vice President of Haviland, Inc., presents the Haviland commemorative bonbon dish to Mrs. Spicer.
Col. Albert Schoepper, director of the United States Marine Band since 1955, was especially honored by the National Society on Opening Night of Congress. Col. Schoepper was presented with an award in recognition of his retirement in April from the Marine Corps. He is the first Marine musician to obtain the grade of Colonel in the Band's 172-year history.

Victor H. Krulak, a distinguished soldier and newspaperman was the principal speaker on Opening Night. Below, the retired Marine Corps Lt. Gen. and head of Copley News Service, is pictured with the President General. His topic was "What Makes Freedom Ring."

Mrs. Michael Haddock, Regent of the Independence Bell Chapter, District of Columbia, (right) was selected as the Outstanding Junior Member. Here she is congratulated by Mrs. Leo L. Phillips, Jr., Vice Chairman in Charge of Contest, Junior Membership Committee, as the National Chairman, Mrs. Donald J. Gonchar, looks on.
The featured speaker for the traditional National Defense Night, Tuesday, April 18th, was Representative Philip M. Crane of Mt. Prospect, Illinois. Pictured with him are Mrs. Henry Stewart Jones, National Chairman, National Defense Committee, and Mrs. Wendell Sawyer, Chairman, President General's Reception Room. His subject was "Blessings of Liberty."

Young women who serve as Pages at the Continental Congress are traditionally honored at a Ball on Tuesday evening following the Congress session. The theme for this year was "Pages Ball Goes Hollywood." Pictured below is the "Leading Lady," Carol Wood of Philadelphia, selected by a drawing. She is presented the Victory Trophy by Mrs. Curtis Campagne, member of the Ball Committee.

Lt. Col. Hazel W. Johnson, Army Nurse Corps, was the recipient of the 1972 Dr. Anita Newcomb McGee award for the Army Nurse of the year. This award is given annually by the National Society in memory of Dr. McGee who served the National Society as a Vice President General and was founder and organizer of the Army Nurse Corps during the Spanish American War. A native of Malvern, Pennsylvania, Col. Johnson is presently assigned as a project officer to the Medical Materiel Development Division of the Army Medical Research and Development Command.

"A for America," composed by Rolande Young Schrade, a nationally known composer and pianist, was chosen by the National Society as one of its Bicentennial commemoratives. The song was introduced by Mrs. Schrade on Tuesday evening during Congress. Mrs. Schrade left, is shown with Mrs. Spicer and Mrs. Jackson. She is a member of the Mary Washington Colonial Chapter, New York City.
To promote the aims and purposes of Good Citizenship, the National Society yearly sponsors a contest in high schools throughout the country to pick the girl who exemplifies these qualities. She is chosen by vote of her fellow students and by her teachers. This year’s winner, Blythe Mickelson, Rolling Hills, California, is presented a silver bowl by Mrs. John C. Stapel, National Vice Chairman, DAR Good Citizens Committee. Miss Mickelson also received a $1000 scholarship. She was sponsored by the El Redondo Chapter, Redondo Beach, Calif.

A $490,000 bequest to create a medical scholarship fund was announced during the 81st Congress. Under the provisions of the will of the late Frank McCleary, Nevada rancher, the check was presented at the Thursday morning session by Mr. Frank Loveland of Nevada. The terms of the will and codicil provide that the scholarship will be administered by a newly-created Frank McCleary Medical Scholarship Fund-Mary Ball Chapter, DAR, Tacoma, Washington, of which Mr. McCleary’s mother was a member. Pictured with Mr. Loveland are (I. to r.): Mrs. Ned L. Hiatt, State Regent, Washington; Mrs. Spicer; Mrs. F. A. Paul Ziesmer, Treasurer General; Mrs. Frederick Griswold, Jr., Recording Secretary General.

On behalf of the Student Loan and Scholarship Committee, Mrs. Spicer, presents to Randall Shrock the DAR American History Fellowship. The Fellowship is for $2000 per year which may be extended to a possible four years for a total of $8000. Mr. Shrock, sponsored by the Capt. Abraham Hite Chapter, Kentucky, is a second-year graduate student working toward his Ph.D. in American History at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

The two DAR owned schools were represented by Rebecca Chandler from Kate Duncan Smith, DAR School, Grant Alabama (center), and Mark Williams (left) and Larry White from Tamassee DAR School, South Carolina. Assembled members of the National Society are always delighted by the reports of these enthusiastic young people.
To abolish unreasonable and unfair discriminations against women is a worthy goal. No one believes more strongly than I that discriminations which society makes against women in certain areas of life ought to be abolished and they ought to be abolished by law in every case where they are created by law.

To stop discriminations against women we are considering Constitutional amendments which would abolish all legal distinctions between men and women. Therefore, the question to be resolved by the Senate is that: Should all laws which treat men and women differently be abolished and should the Federal government and the State legislatures be forbidden by the Constitution to pass any such legislation in the future?

Before we abolish all legal differences in the treatment of men and women to reach the admittedly unfair discriminations which do exist against women, I believe that we should consider the following questions:

1. What is the character of the unfair discriminations which society makes against women?
2. Does it require an amendment to the Constitution of the United States to invalidate them?
3. If so, would the Equal Rights Amendment constitute an effective means to that end? In other words, would the ERA reach areas in which the Congress does not really want to act?

It is the better part of wisdom to recognize that discriminations not created by law cannot be abolished by law. They must be abolished by changed attitudes in the society which imposes them.

One of the recurring myths that surround the equal rights for women amendment is the allegation that all women are for the amendment. This is not so.

How Would the ERA be Interpreted

If the Equal Rights for Women amendment is approved, I believe that the Supreme Court will reach the conclusion that the ERA annuls every existing Federal and state law making any distinction between men and women however reasonable such distinction might be in particular cases, and forever robs the Congress and the legislatures of the fifty states of the Constitutional power to enact any such laws at any time in the future. I am not alone in entertaining this fear.

When the so called Equal Rights Amendment was under consideration in 1953, Roscoe Pound of the Harvard Law School and other outstanding scholars joined one of America’s greatest legal scholars, Paul A. Freund of the Harvard Law School, in a statement opposing the Equal Rights Amendment upon the ground that they feared that this devastating interpretation might be placed upon it if it should be adopted. This statement made these indisputable observations:

"If anything about this proposed amendment is clear, it is that it would transform every provision of law concerning women into a constitutional issue to be ultimately resolved by the Supreme Court of the United States. Every statutory and common law provision dealing with the manifold relation of women in society would be forced to run the gauntlet of attack on constitutional grounds. The range of such potential litigation is too great to be readily foreseen, but it would certainly embrace such diverse legal provisions as those relating to a widow’s allowance, the obligation of family support and grounds for divorce, the age of majority and the right of annulment of marriages, and the maximum hours of labor for women in protected industries.

"Not only is the range of the amendment of indefinite extent, but, even more important, the fate of all this varied legislation would be left highly uncertain in the face of judicial presumably, the amendment would set up a constitutional yardstick of absolute equality between men and women in all legal relationships. A more flexible view, permitting reasonable differentiation, can hardly be regarded as the object of the proposal, since the fourteenth amendment has long provided that no state shall deny to any person the equal protection of the laws, and that amendment permits reasonable classifications while prohibiting arbitrary legal discrimination. If it were intended to give the courts the authority to pass upon the propriety of distinctions, benefits and duties as between men and women, no new guidance is given to the courts, and this entire subject, one of unusual complexity would be left to the unpredictable judgments of courts in the form of constitution decisions.

"Such decisions could not be changed by act of the legislature. Such a responsibility upon the courts would be doubtless as unwelcome to them as it would be inappropriate. As has been stated, however, the proposal evidently contemplates no flexibility in construction but rather a rule of rigid equality. This branch of the dilemma is as repelling as the other."

After analyzing in some detail the laws whose validity might be jeopardized by the equal rights amendment, the statement concluded with these observations:

"The basic fallacy in the proposed amendment is that it attempts to deal with complicated and highly concrete problems arising out of a diversity on human relationships in terms of a single and simple abstraction. This abstraction is undoubtedly a worthy ideal for mobilizing legislative forces in order to remedy particular deficiencies in the law. But as a constitutional standard, it is hopelessly inapplicable. That the proposed equal rights amendment open an era of extreme confusion in constitutional law is a certainty." . . .

Specific Areas Affected by the Equal Rights Amendment

Time and space preclude me from an attempt to picture in detail the constitutional and legal chaos which would prevail in our country if the supreme court should feel itself compelled to pass upon the equal rights amendment the devastating interpretation feared by these legal scholars.

For this reason, I must content myself with merely suggesting some of the terrifying consequences of such an interpretation.

While the amendment would affect all areas of our society, I will mention only a few of the specific areas including: the military, the criminal law, privacy, domestic relations, and protective labor legislation.

Military

The impact of the ERA on the military will be massive.

The congress and the legislatures of the various states have enacted certain laws based upon the conviction that the physiological and functional differences between men and women make it advisable to exempt or exclude women from certain arduous and hazardous activities in order to protect their health and safety.

Among federal laws of this nature are the Selective Service Act, which confines compulsory military service to men; the acts of congress governing the voluntary enlistments in the armed forces of the nation which restrict the right to enlist for combat service to men; and the acts establishing and governing the various service academies which provide for the admission and training of men only. There is no question that these laws will be abolished. As professor Paul Freund of the Harvard law school said, "And so women must be admitted to West Point on a parity with men; women must be conscripted for military service equally with men. . . ." Professor Phil Kurland of the Chicago law school agrees.

The position of the justice department and the defense department is that women will be subject to the draft. In a letter to senator Bayh dated February 24, 1972, the general counsel for the defense department, J. Fred Buzhardt, dealt with some of the problems which would be caused by the ERA in the military. Mr. Buzhardt said:

"Further, there is the possibility that assigning men and women together in the field in direct combat roles might adversely affect the efficiency and discipline of our forces.

"On the other hand, if women were not assigned to duty in the field, overseas, or on board ships, but were entering the armed forces in large numbers, this might result in a disproportionate number of men serving more time in the field and on board ship because of a reduced number of positions available for their reassignment.

"If this amendment allowed no discrimination on the basis of sex even for the sake of privacy, we believe that the resulting sharing of facilities and living quarters would be contrary to prevailing American standards. . . .

"Even if segregation of living quarters and facilities were allowed under the amendment, during combat duty in the field there are often, in effect, no facilities at all, and privacy for both sexes might be impossible to provide or enforce." . . .

A very complete analysis of the ERA's effect on the military was compiled in the Yale Law Journal in April 1971. The significance of this article that Congresswoman Griffiths has said that the article "will help you understand the purposes and effects of the Equal Rights Amendment" and Senator Bayh has called it a "masterly piece of scholarship." Thus, the supporters of the amendment feel that it will have the following effect on the military and I agree with them. No clearer or more unique history of legislative intent can be presented of the amendment and the military because both the opponents and proponents agree on the amendment's effect in this area.

Significant excerpts from the Yale Law Journal which is supported by the amendment's proponents are as follows:

1. "The Equal Rights Amendment will have a substantial and pervasive impact upon military practices and institutions. As now formulated, the Amendment permits no exceptions for the military."

2. "Women will serve in all kinds of units, and they will be eligible for combat duty. The double standard for treatment of sexual activity of men and women will be prohibited."

3. "Neither the right to privacy nor any unique physical characteristic justifies different treatment of the sexes with respect to voluntary or involuntary service, and pregnancy justifies only slightly different conditions of service for women."

4. "Such obvious differential treatment for women as exemption from the draft, exclusion from the service academies, and more restrictive standards for enlistment have to be brought into conformity with the Amendment's basic prohibition of sex discrimination."

5. "These changes will require a radical restructuring of the military's views of women."

6. "The Equal Rights Amendment will greatly hasten this process and will require the military to see women as it sees men."

7. "A woman will register for the draft at the age of eighteen, as a man now does."

8. "Under the Equal Rights Amendment, all standards applied through (intelligence tests and physical examinations) will have to be neutral as between the sexes."

9. "The military will clearly have sufficient time during the period after ratification to make the minor adaptations, such as the expansion of gynecological services, necessary to comply with the statute."

10. "First, height standards will have to be revised from the dual system which now exists."

11. "The height-weight correlations for the sexes will also have to be modified."

12. "Deferment policy "could provide that one, but not both, of the parents would be deferred. For example, whichever parent was called first might be eligible for service; the remaining parent, male or female would be deferred."

13. "If the rules continue to require discharge of women with dependent children, then men in a similar situation will also have to be discharged. The nondiscriminatory alternative is to allow both men and women with children to remain in the service and to take their dependents on assignments in noncombat zones, as men are now permitted to do.""

14. "Distinctions between single and married women who become pregnant will be permissible only if the same distinction is drawn between single and married men who father children."

15. "Thus, if unmarried women are discharged for pregnancy, men shown to be fathers of children born out of wedlock would also be discharged. Even in this form such a rule would be suspect under the Amendment, because it would probably be enforced more frequently against women. A court will therefore be likely to strike down the rule despite the neutrality in its terms, because of its differential impact."

16. "Under the Equal Rights Amendment the WAC would be abolished."

17. "Women are physically as able as men to perform many jobs classified as combat duty, such as piloting an airplane or engaging in naval operations ... there is no reason to prevent women from doing these jobs in combat zones."

18. "No one would suggest that ... women who serve can avoid the possibility of physical harm and assault. But it is important to remember that all combat is dangerous, degrading and dehumanizing."

19. "Male officers are provided a dependents' allowance based on their grade and the number of dependents ... The Equal Rights amendment will recognize "the husband of a female officer ... as a dependent."

20. "Athletic facilities will also have to be made available to women personnel."

Criminal Law

Because of different physical characteristics, and health considerations, and other reasons, legislatures have adopted some criminal laws which apply to only one sex or the other or treat men and women differently in some degree. Because the Equal Rights Amendment will forbear any legal distinctions between men and women, all existing and future criminal laws of this nature would be nullified.

As in several areas, a good review of the types of laws that will be changed by the ERA was discussed in the April 1971 issue of the Yale Law Journal. This article has been cited with approval by the proponents of the ERA and the statements which I have excerpted should constitute a good example of what we could expect after passage of the act in the area of criminal law. The excerpts from the Yale Law Journal are as follows:

1. "Courts faced with criminal laws which do not apply equally to men and women would be likely to invalidate the laws rather than extending or rewriting them to apply to women and men alike."

2. "Courts will most likely invalidate sodomy or adultery laws that contain sex discriminatory provisions, instead of solving the constitutional problems by extending them to cover men and women alike."

3. "Seduction laws, statutory rape laws, laws prohibiting obscene language in the presence of women, prostitution and 'manifest danger' laws ... Equal Rights Amendment would not permit such laws, which base their sex discriminatory classification on social stereotypes."

4. "The statutory rape laws, which punish men for having sexual intercourse with any woman under an age specified by law ... suffer from a double defect under the Equal Rights Amendment."

5. "To be sure, the singling out of women probably reflects sociological reality ... Likewise, in this society, the bad reputation and illegitimate child which can result from an improvident sexual liaison may be far more ruinous to a young woman's psychological health than similar conduct is to a young man. But the Equal Rights Amendment forbids finding legislative justification in the sexual double standard ... ."

6. "Adultery laws also contain sex discriminatory provisions which would be impermissible under the Equal Rights Amendment."

7. "Courts may be expected to hold that laws which confine liability for prostitution to women only are invalid under the Equal Rights Amendment."

8. "Just as the Equal Rights Amendment would invalidate prostitution laws which apply to women only, so the ERA would require invalidation of laws specially designed to protect women from being forced into prostitution."

9. "A court would probably resolve doubts about congressional intent by striking down the ... (Federal White Slave Traffic—Mann Act)."

Domestic Relations Laws

The common law and statutory law of the various states recognize the reality that many women are homemakers and mothers, and by reason of the duties imposed upon them in these capacities, are largely precluded from pursuing gainful occupations or making any provision for their financial security during their declining years, to enable women to do these things and thereby make the existence and development of the race possible, these state laws impose upon husbands the primary responsibility to provide homes and livelihoods for their wives and children, and make them criminally responsible to society and civilly responsible to their wives if they fail to perform this primary responsibility. Moreover, these state laws secure to wives dower and other rights in the property left by their husbands in the event their husbands predecease them in order that they may have some means of support in their declining years.

If the Equal Rights Amendment should be interpreted by the Supreme Court to forbid any legal distinctions between men and women, it would nullify all existing and all future laws of this kind.

As with the military, a good analysis of what the amendment will accomplish in the area of domestic relations was set out in the Yale Law Journal which has been fully endorsed by Congresswoman Martha Griffiths and other proponents of the ERA. As I have stated earlier, no clearer legislative intent can be presented because I agree with the amendment’s proponents that the ERA will have the following effects.

Significant excerpts from the Yale Law Journal which is supported by the proponents of the ERA in the area of domestic relations are as follows:

1. "The Equal Rights Amendment, continuing this trend, would prohibit dictating different roles for men and women within the family on the basis of their sex."

2. "Thus, common law and statutory rules requiring name change for the married women would become legal nullities."

3. "These states could conform to the Equal Rights Amendment by requiring couples to pick the same last name, but allowing selection of the name of either spouse, or of a third name satisfactory to both."

4. "The Amendment would also prohibit the states from requiring that a child's last name be the same as his or her father's, or from requiring that a child's last name be the same as his or her mother's."

5. "In ninety percent of custody cases the mother is awarded the custody. The Equal Rights Amendment would prohibit both statutory and common law presumptions about which parent was the proper guardian based on the sex of the parent."

6. "Physical capacity to bear children can no longer justify a different statutory marriage age for men and women."

7. "Mere estimates of emotional preparedness founded on impressions about the normal adolescent boy and girl are based on the kind of averaging which the Equal Rights Amendment forbids."

8. "The Equal Rights Amendment would not permit a legal requirement, or even a legal presumption, that a woman takes her husband's name at the time of marriage."

9. "A court would do away with the rule that refusal to accompany or follow a husband to a new domicile amounts to desertion or abandonment."

10. "A husband would no longer have grounds for divorce in a wife's unjustifiable refusal to follow him to a new home."

11. "The traditional rule is that the domicile of legitimate children is the same as their father's. The Equal Rights Amendment would not permit this result."

12. "In all states husbands are primarily liable for the support of their wives and children. The child support sections of the criminal nonsupport laws could not be sustained where only the male is liable for support."

13. "The Equal Rights Amendment would bar a state from imposing greater liability for support on a husband than on a wife merely because of his sex."

14. "Two different systems have been adopted in the United States for distributing property rights within a family—the community property system and the common law system. As both systems currently operate, they contain sex discriminatory aspects which would be changed under the Equal Rights Amendment."

15. "Under the Equal Rights Amendment, laws which favor the husband as manager (of community property) in any way, would not be valid."

16. "All states except North Dakota and South Dakota give women a nonbarrable share in her husband's estate, but a number of states fail to give the husband a corresponding legal claim in his wife's estate. The discriminatory laws would either be invalidated or extended."

17. "A court could invalidate (many grounds for divorce) without doing any serious harm to the overall structure of the states' divorce laws. These are pregnancy by a man other than husband at time of marriage, nonsupport, alcoholism of husband, wife's unchaste behavior, husband's vagrancy, wife's refusal to move with husband without reasonable cause, wife a prostitute before marriage, indignities by husband to wife's person, and willful neglect by husband."

18. "Like the duty of support during marriage and the obligation to pay alimony in the case of separation or divorce, nonsupport would have to be eliminated as a ground for divorce against husbands only."

19. "The laws that grant a husband a divorce because at the time of marriage he did not know his wife was pregnant by another man would be subject to strict scrutiny under the unique physical characteristics tests."

20. "The Equal Rights Amendment would not require that alimony be abolished but only that it be available equally to husbands and wives."

21. "The laws could provide support payments for a parent with custody of a young child who stays at home to care for that child so long as there was no legal presumption that the parent granted custody should be the mother."

22. The ERA could require "for maintenance to be paid from one spouse to the other if the spouse seeking maintenance lacks sufficient property to provide for his reasonable needs and is unable to support himself through appropriate employment."

Right To Privacy

I believe that the absolute nature of the Equal Rights Amendment will, without a doubt, cause all laws and state-sanctioned practices which in any way differentiate between men and women to be held unconstitutional. Thus, all laws which separate men and women, such as separate schools, restrooms, dormitories, prisons, and others will be stricken. Also, men and women will be thrown together with no separation on the grounds of sex in the military.

The proponents of the ERA mention that the Constitutional right to privacy will protect and keep separate items such as public restrooms; however, this assertion overlooks the basic fact of constitutional law construction: The most recent constitutional amendment takes precedence over all other sections of the Constitution with which it is inconsistent. Thus, if the ERA is to be construed absolutely, as its proponents say, then there can be no exception for elements of publicly imposed sexual segregation on the basis of privacy between men and women.

Even assuming the very unlikely result that privacy will allow segregation of the sexes in places like the military, Fred Buzhardt, General Counsel of the Defense Department, mentioned the physical impossibility of providing this always in the military. Mr. Buzhardt said:

"Even if segregation of living quarters and facilities were allowed under the amendment, during combat duty in the field there are often, in effect, no facilities at all, and privacy for both sexes might be impossible to provide or enforce."

Professor Paul Freund of the Harvard Law School testified about this matter before the Senate Judiciary Committee in 1970. After stating that the amendment would be absolute, Professor Freund said that it would follow that the ERA "would require that there be no segregation of the sexes in prison, reform schools, public restrooms, and other public facilities."

Professor Phil Kurland, Editor of the Supreme Court Review and a Professor of Law at the University of Chicago Law School stated before the Judiciary Committee:

Senator Ervin. The law which exists in North Carolina and in virtually every other state of the Union which requires separate restrooms for boys and girls in public schools would be nullified, would it not?

Professor Kurland. That is right, unless the separate but equal doctrine is revived.

Senator Ervin. And the laws of the states and the regulations of the Federal government which require separate restrooms for men and women in public buildings would also be nullified, would it not?

Professor Kurland. My answer would be the same.

As Professors Freund and Kurland indicate there is no qualification of the ERA for the privacy of women just as there will be none for the draft or protective labor laws.

A few examples in our society where the privacy aspect of the relationship between men and women would be changed are:

1. Police practices by which a search involving the removal of clothing will be able to be performed by members of either sex without regard to the sex of the one to be searched.

2. Segregation by sex in sleeping quarters of prisons or similar public institutions would be outlawed.

3. Segregation by sex of living conditions in the armed forces would be outlawed. This includes close quarter living in combat zones and foxholes.

4. Segregation by sex in hospitals would be outlawed.

5. Physical exams in the armed forces will have to be carried out on sex neutral basis.

There are, of course, numerous other examples which flow from the absolute nature of the Equal Rights for Women amendment.

The Radical Effect of the Equal Rights Amendment on the American Social Structure

... Professor of Neurology at the Yale Medical School, Dr. Jonathan H. Pincus, has asked the following question: "Is the Equal Rights Amendment to be the Tonkin Gulf Resolution of the American social structure?"

In a statement in opposition to the ERA, Dr. Pincus goes on to answer his question in the affirmative, and in his discussion he sheds some real light on the radical changes which will be made in our social structure.

At the present time in all states husbands are primarily liable for the support of their wives and children but, as Representative Griffith's approved article in the Yale Law Journal states, "The ERA would bar a state from imposing greater liability for support on a husband than on a wife merely because of his sex." Dr. Pincus is very concerned about the effects of this removal of a husband's responsibility. Dr. Pincus said:

"It seems to me that the removal of legal responsibility from a man for supporting a family, giving the family a name and protecting his daughters from the sort of influences the U.S. Army might have in store for them before marriage is likely to have some effect on the manner in which men relate to their wives and children and vice versa; those traditional ties will be weakened."

Dr. Pincus feels that "a solid happy family life is the foundation of mental health and happiness," and as to the effects of the ERA on this family life, he goes on to state:

"I would predict that the Equal Rights amendment and many of the other goals of its proponents will bring social disruption, unhappiness and increasing rates of divorce and desertion. Weakening of family ties may also lead to increased rates of alcoholism, suicide and, possibly, sexual deviation."

Whether or not one agrees with the predictions of Dr. Pincus, I believe he is asking very genuine questions which should be discussed before the Constitution is amended. Before we begin tinkering with the very subtle mechanisms of family relationships and social responsibilities, should we not consider that we might in fact be passing a Tonkin Gulf Resolution of the American social structure?

While I believe that any unfair discriminations which the law has created against women should be abolished by law, I have the abiding conviction that the law should make such distinctions between them as are reasonably necessary for the protection of women and the existence and development of the race.

I share completely this recent observation by Mr. Bernard Swartz: "Use of the law in an attempt to conjure away all the differences which do exist between the sexes is both an insult to the law itself and a complete disregard of fact."

The late Justice Felix Frankfurter, in an eloquent statement in the New Republic magazine many years ago put it a different way. Justice Frankfurter said:

"Only those who are ignorant of the nature of law and of its enforcement and regardless of the intricacies of American constitutional law, or indifferent to the exacting aspects of woman's industrial life, will have the naivete or the recklessness to sum up woman's whole position in a meaningless and mischievous phrase about 'equal rights'."

Let us consider for a moment whether there be a rational basis for reasonable distinctions between men and women in any of the relationships or undertakings of life.

When He created them, God made physiological and functional differences between men and women. These differences confer upon men a greater capacity to perform arduous and hazardous physical tasks. Some wise people even profess the belief that there may be psychological differences between men and women.

To say these things is not to imply that either sex is superior to the other. It is simply to state the all important truth that men and women complement each other in the relationships and undertakings on which the exis-

COMMENDATION OF J. EDGAR HOOVER, DIRECTOR
FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Whereas the Federal Bureau of Investigation, under the leadership of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, is the Nation's most respected law enforcement agency; and
Whereas the Federal Bureau of Investigation has performed great services to the Nation over the years not only in fighting the criminal and the subversive, but also by preserving the rights of the citizen; and
Whereas Mr. Hoover has devoted his life to the Federal Bureau of Investigation and has worked tirelessly for the people of this Nation; and
Whereas the Federal Bureau of Investigation has always operated on the highest principles of personal integrity, honesty and ethics; and
Whereas recently the Federal Bureau of Investigation has become the target of a smear campaign designed not only to remove Mr. Hoover from his position as Director but also to destroy this great agency;
RESOLVED, That the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution reiterate their wholehearted support of Mr. Hoover, personally, and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

—Resolution passed by the 80th Continental Congress, NSDAR, April 1971.
JOHN WALLACE (Bedford, Ind.) celebrated American History Month in the Crystal Ballroom of the Greystone Hotel with a guest dinner meeting and an outstanding patriotic program presented by Stalker School Historical Society under the direction of Mr. Jay Wilson. Their program, "Thunder Over the Land," a prelude of the momentous events that led to the outbreak of hostilities between Great Britain and the North American Colonies. Beginning with the ending of the French and Indian War by the Treaty of Paris, 1763, most of the major events are emphasized, up to and including the stand at Lexington and Concord by Massachusetts militiamen, 1775. Out of the ashes of the rebellion was born the greatest nation the world has ever known. The birth of the United States came about due to the different ideologies of two different peoples of two different lands. Love of freedom and liberty brought into being a new nation; a nation whose ideals and principles has served as a model for all freedom loving countries and peoples for some hundred years.

Little Hoosier Junior members of county and city schools total 627 members with 110 members in this Stalker School Historical Society under the direction of Mr. Jay Wilson. Their program, "Thunder Over the Land," included Good Citizens Award winner, Jane Richardson and her mother, Mrs. Charles Richardson, also Fredrick Landstrom and his mother, Mrs. Fred Landstrom, Sr. Fred won the American History Essay Contest winner on "How My State Acquired Its Name." Miss Pamela Worrel was Good Citizen's Chairman and Mrs. Emma Hendricks was American History Month chairman for the chapter.

WARRENSBURG (Warrensburg, Mo.). Anna Ewing Cockrell (Mrs. Francis Marion), first State Regent of the Missouri State Society, was honored with a memorial service and marker dedication October 1, 1971.

Mrs. Cockrell was State Regent from 1891 until her death Jan. 6, 1894. She was the wife of Senator Francis Cockrell of Warrensburg, Mo. and the great-granddaughter of Robert Ewing, a revolutionary soldier from Virginia.

Fort Kearney: (Kearney, Neb.). The centennial year of Arbor Day which was originated by J. Sterling Morton of Nebraska City was commemorated by the Fort Kearney Chapter on April 22, 1972.

In recognition of Arbor Day and in memory of Margaret Cammann, a 50-year member of DAR, the Chapter planted a Norway Maple tree in Harmon Park. Pictured here is the tree with the tree are (from left) Mrs. Al Dobberstein Jr., Vice Regent; James Harvey, Park Superintendent; Mrs. Emmett Saltzgaber, Chairman of conservation; and Mrs. Paul H. Long, Regent.
CANTON (Canton, Ohio) plays an important role in the semiannual naturalization ceremony for new citizens of Stark County. On Feb. 25, 1972, 36 people from 17 countries became new citizens of the U.S.A. in an hour long ceremony presided over by Dorothy Patterson Sayre, Canton Chapter member, and chairman of the American Citizenship Committee of the Stark County Bar Association. Following the presentation of Colors by a joint service Color Guard, the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag and the invocation, the Oath of Citizenship was administered by a deputy Clerk of Courts.

Welcomes were extended by one of the 5 judges of the Court of Common Pleas who were present, the Hon. Wm. R. Quinn; by the President of the Stark County Bar Association, Samuel Kruglak; by the Chairman of the Board of Elections, Carl F. Wise; and by Safety Director Frank Burnosky. House flags were presented to each by the Canton Repository, carnations by the court, flag books by John Stark Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution, and citizenship manuals and desk flags by Canton and Massillon Chapters, DAR. Refreshments were served the new citizens by Canton Chapter DAR assisted by the World Fellowship Committee of the Y.W.C.A.

The total ceremony was televised by the German Television Network—ARD of Hamburg, Germany, and Washington, D.C., for a fitting finale to a documentary film which this network is preparing on the various ethnic groups in America and how they adapt to the American way of life. After considerable search for a ceremony which was exceptionally impressive the network was referred to Stark County as being outstanding.

Approximately 250 people were in attendance including the Louisville, O. high school choir who sang a number of patriotic songs, and several girl scout troops. The responses from four of the new citizens reflected the feelings of all when they stated what a privilege it is to be a citizen of the United States of America and how happy they were to reside here. Maria Sera, formerly of Hungary, stated, "I shall work the rest of my life for this country and pledge you I'll do my best as a citizen."

FOUR WINDS (Arnett, Kansas) is happy to announce the institution of a regularly scheduled DAR radio program. This program has been presented monthly since September of 1971 arousing empathy and interest in the NSDAR, to a growing body of listeners. Four Winds goes on the air the third Wednesday of each month over KOFO, Ottawa, Kansas station, the Garnett Hour, beginning at 1:15 p.m. You may hear it on 1220 AM or 97.5 FM on your dial.

The subject most frequently presented is our National Defense taken from the "National Defender" and given fearlessly and spiritedly by our own members. Our overall topics are chosen from "What the Daughters Do." Informational subjects are offered such as: Our National Committees' Activities; State Conference Report; DAR Schools; the American Flag; American History; reports from DAR Magazine, and many others. The material is accepted very favorably by the public, and increases our stature in the state. All our members have studied to become radio speakers in behalf of our beloved DAR.

NEW ORLEANS (Louisiana). On February 29th, the Conservation Committee of the New Orleans Chapter gave a 15-foot Live Oak tree to the City of New Orleans for the Audubon Park. Audubon Park extends to the Mississippi River. The Riverview section atop the levee is being developed for recreation and picnicking. It includes a roadway, parking bays, open space for flying kites, and is a popular weekend site for bicyclists. The view of the river with its interesting and varied traffic attracts many river watchers.

Mrs. William A. Payne, Chairman, and Mrs. James M. Patterson, Co-Chairman, of the Conservation Committee raised $80.00 from contributions of members for this project. The presentation was made to City Councilman Peter H. Beer for the City and to Mr. William R. Pohlmann, Jr., deputy park superintendent, by Mrs. Benjamin B. Mathews, Chapter Regent. Also participating in the ceremony were Mrs. Tom W. Dutton, Chaplain, Miss Lisa Huggins, President, and Mrs. Clyde G. Huggins, Senior President of the Philippe Duc d'Orléans Society of the Children of the American Revolution which is sponsored by the New Orleans Chapter, and other members of the Chapters.

JEPTHA ABBOTT (Ardmore, Pennsylvania). On February 18th, members of our Chapter gathered in the Reception Room of the Academy of Music in Philadelphia, to honor Dr. Eugene Ormandy, Conductor of the Philadelphia Orchestra. Dr. Ormandy is one of our outstanding naturalized citizens, having brought honor to Philadelphia and our Country, as well as other parts of the World.

Mrs. William G. Martin, Chapter Regent, introduced Dr. Ormandy, and Mrs. James F. Hutton, past Chapter Regent, made the presentation of the Americanism Award and Certificate.

Mrs. Joseph Valery Wright, Honorary State Regent of Pennsylvania, past Vice President General, and past Chapter Regent, also participated in the ceremony, as did Mrs. Samuel W. Wilson, South Eastern Director. A Reception followed the ceremony.

Our Floral Fantasy Luncheon held at the Overbrook Country Club in March was a huge success. The party was sponsored by our Junior Committee to raise funds for our DAR scholarships at Ta masse DAR School and Kate Duncan Smith DAR School. The luncheon went with a Fashion Show with our members serving as models. Mrs. John A. Ward, III, served as Chairman, assisted by Mrs. George M. Ahrens, Mrs. Francis A. Brady, Mrs. Baldo M. Carneccia, Jr., Mrs. Charles K. Gobby, Mrs. Vernon J. Klippi, Mrs. Michael J. Knight, Miss Marie M. Martin, Miss Maelyn Stradley, and Mrs. Gordon E. Wright.

On June 15, the Jeptha Abbott Chapter in cooperation with GimBEL'S Store presented the United States Army Band in a concert "Under the Stars" at the Mall at King of Prussia. This area is adjacent to Valley Forge where many of our ancestors spent the winter of 1777-1778.
This was to honor the Bicentennial and the observance of Flag Day as well as other patriotic dates. There was a display of flags and Colonial figures in a tableau.

WAUKEGAN (Waukegan, Ill.). Mrs. Maude E. Coulson, was the mother of State Sen. Robert E. Coulson (R. Waukegan) and a direct descendant of the first settler of Lake County, Capt. Daniel Wright.

Mrs. Coulson, direct descendant of William Techumseh Sherman, was the Organizing Regent of the Waukegan Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Waukegan, Illinois, and a charter member of the League of Women Voters. She died March 12, 1971 at age 90.

MEXICO MISSOURI (Mexico, Mo.) is 66 years old and has had a very fine record of which we are very proud, including one State Regent, Mrs. W. W. Botts, now deceased and several State Officers and Committee Chairmen. Our greatest need now is new members.

We have had very interesting programs this year. We received the Blue Ribbon Award on our Program Book and the Honorble Mention on the Honor Roll. In observance of Missouri Sesquicentennial, a guest reviewed “First Ladies of Missouri” by Jerona East Giffen.

Our Bicentennial program “America Sings as History is Made” was ably done by Miss Elsie Ward and Mrs. Guy Pitts with the assistance of Cadets from the Missouri Military Academy. The music took members from the Revolutionary War to the Vietnam War.

We observed Flag Day with a Tour of the Churchill Memorial Library and Luncheon at Fulton, Missouri.

We made a monetary gift to the Audrain County Medical Center this year to help Landscape the Extended Care Facilities. At Christmas time we sent gifts to the Veterans at Jefferson Barracks, St. Louis, Missouri and Gifts of jewelry and sweaters to the Indian Schools. Each year we continue giving the Good Citizen Awards, American History Medals and ROTC Award at the Missouri Military Academy and Mexico and Centralia High Schools. The C.A.R. Society is most helpful in making Spot announcements on our Local Radio Station. Mrs. H. F. Randolph, a member of our Chapter, is Missouri State Corresponding Secretary of the C.A.R.’s.

Memorial Services were held for four deceased members and DAR markers were placed at their graves.

MARY PENROSE WAYNE (Fort Wayne, Indiana). On a very cold and windy, but sunny day, November 7, 1971, in Prairie Grove Cemetery, Mary Penrose Wayne Chapter proudly participated in the dedication of a bronze marker placed on the grave of a daughter of Revolutionary soldier, Samuel Mansfield, fifer, Third Maryland Line.

Elizabeth F. Cameron, Regent (now deceased), Florence M. Trader, Chaplain, Margaret C. Johnson, Treasurer, take part in the Mary Penrose Wayne dedication.

Sarah Mansfield Connett was born in Huntington County, Pennsylvania in 1793 to Samuel and Charity Boyles Mansfield, and migrated to Athens County, Ohio with her parents. She married Isaac Connett there in 1817, and they were the parents of seven children, all born in Athens County. The entire family lived for a time in Putnam County, Ohio. Then, in 1852, Isaac and Sarah moved to Wayne Township, Allen County, Indiana with the families of two of their sons, Edward and Isaac, Jr. Isaac Connett died in 1856, and Sarah died November 22, 1876.

Mrs. R. Richard Cameron, Regent, gave the introduction to the services, and a short history of the Mansfield and Connett families was read by Mrs. Arthur H. Johnson, Treasurer, and great-great granddaughter of the Connetts. Mrs. Frank Trader, Chaplain, aided the Regent in the dedication service, and forty-five descendants of the pioneer couple joined in the responses. A flag was presented and placed on the marker by Daniel Wayne Mitchell, 4th great grandson, and his sister, Barabara Ann, placed a wreath on the grave. The entire assembly, including the 4th and 5th grandchildern, pledged Allegiance to the Flag. Pictures of the proceedings were taken by Mr. R. Richard Cameron, husband of the Regent.

LOUISA ST. CLAIR (Detroit, Michigan). Mrs. Norman L. Parker, past Regent, presents a new trophy to leader Drill Sotg. Marva Harris, of Mackenzie High School, the girls best Drill Team, at the Brodhead Naval Armory. This is the first year a trophy was awarded.

Mrs. Parker suggested such an award after watching several girls drill team during the Chapter’s DAR ROTC medal award to Detroit ROTC units last year. This year 14 citywide high schools competed in this new marching drill team.

STAR FORT (Greenwood, South Carolina) met March 16 in the lovely rooms amid the beautiful surroundings of the Greenwood Woman’s Club whose architecture is typical of the “old south.” Mrs. George Marshall, Jr., Regent, presided. Mrs. Charles R. Sanders, Jr., program chairman, presented members of The Old Ninety Six District Chapter as special guests, and who gave the program with Mrs. Butler Derrick, Jr. depicting stories and showing colored slides of the old homes and tours of Edgefield, S.C. Mrs. A. C. Cobb was also presented as a guest. She will soon be confirmed as Organizing Regent of a new Chapter in Hodges, S.C. sponsored by Star Fort Chapter.

A special tribute was paid to Mrs. N. Gist Gee, Chapter Librarian for fifteen years, a sixty-year DAR member, and past Regent of the Chapter. Mrs. Gee was honored with a gift certificate to purchase additional books for the DAR Library which is located in one section of the Greenwood County Library. The Star Fort Chapter has established one of the finest collections on regional history of Colonial and Revolutionary times, and the upcountry of South Carolina. This has been

BICENTENNIAL PROGRAM FILE ENLARGED

The winning 1972 Bicentennial Programs will be added to the special Program File, plus several other selected programs of unusual merit. A complete list of new additions will soon be available through this page. A complete list of ALL Bicentennial programs, as well as the entire Program Catalog, may be ordered by writing the National Program Office, NSDAR, 1765 D St., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20006. Cost 50¢ (Make checks payable to "NSDAR").

FOCUS—1976 REPRINT!

Due to the demand for the Bicentennial Guidebook "FOCUS"—1976, a reprint was authorized of a second printing of 2,000 copies. Appreciation is made for the interest in securing the guidebook and for the many bouquets this publication has brought. We are advised by the American Revolution Bicentennial Commission, a number of State Commissions, and many non-DAR sources that this booklet is well organized and full of information. This is our purpose, and we trust that the helps therein contained will provide some of the impetus for a truly meaningful Bicentennial commemoration.

North Carolina State Society, Mrs. W. Dillon Chambers, State Regent, has made arrangements to erect a monument at Valley Forge commemorating the nine North Carolina Regiments who fought there with General Washington. A bronze marker will be set in a boulder of North Carolina granite. Completion and dedication of this fine Bicentennial project is expected by early summer.

Ye Old Newton Chapter, Collingswood, New Jersey, developed a wonderful historical project based entirely on local history for use in the elementary schools of that city. Titled "Colonial Collingswood" the activity includes full manuscript tracing early history and peoples, places and events. Seventy-two color slides illustrate the story which is delightfully prepared for young students. Already used with success, this project is skillfully prepared by Mrs. Charles A. Walter, New Jersey State Historian. This fine project truly promotes the historic-educational objectives of NSDAR.

NSDAR COMMEMORATIVE BONBON DISH AND MEDAL

Please remember that the extremely popular Bicentennial Bonbon Dish and the Bicentennial commemorative Medallion are still available. The price of the Bonbon is $11.00; the price of the Medal, $7.00. This includes the cost of postage and handling. Order directly from Mrs. Richard D. Shelby, P. O. Box 38, Beulah, Mississippi 38726. Make checks payable to "USA Bicentennial Committee."
MINUTES
NATIONAL BOARD OF MANAGEMENT
Regular Meeting, April 15, 1972

The regular meeting of the National Board of Management of the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution convened in the Board Room of Memorial Continental Hall, Washington, D. C., at 9:30 a.m., Mrs. Donald Spicer, President General, presiding.

The invocation was given by the Chaplain General, Mrs. Clarence Whitfield Kemper, followed by the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, led by Mrs. Lyle Johnston Howland, First Vice President General.

The Recording Secretary General, Mrs. Frederick Griswold, Jr., called the roll. The following members were recorded present: National Officers - Executive Officers: Mrs. Spicer, Mrs. Howland, Mrs. Kemper, Mrs. Griswold, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Heiser, Mrs. Ziesmer, Mrs. Westbrooke, Mrs. Morriss, Mrs. Lempenau, Mrs. King, Mrs. Dick; Vice Presidents General: Mrs. Hamm, Mrs. Stapel, Mrs. Bain, Mrs. Mettilach, Mrs. Spousta, Miss Malmstead, Mrs. Goldsborough, Mrs. Bryant, Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Woolley, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Kleintert, Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Rudy, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Maughan, Mrs. Parr, Mrs. Campbell; State Regents: Mrs. Privett, Mrs. Gwinner, Mrs. Gwinner, Mrs. Dodson, Mrs. Kaump, Mrs. Goldsborough, Mrs. Bryant, Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Woolley, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Kleintert, Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Rudy, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Maughan, Mrs. Parr, Mrs. Campbell; State Vice Regents: Mrs. Jurgeleit, Alaska; Mrs. Hunter, Nebraska.

The First Vice President General, Mrs. Howland, took the chair, and the President General, Mrs. Spicer, read her report.

Report of President General

Miss Ruth Dean of the Evening Star interviewed the President General on her proposed project the morning of February 3rd and a very fine article appeared later in the month in that newspaper.

The morning of February 4th, the wives of the President's Commission on Personnel Interchange visited the Museum Gallery and Period Rooms. Upon completion of their tour, the President General greeted them in her office.

Sunday afternoon, February 6th, she attended the initial free concert given by the United States Air Force Band in Constitution Hall. This was also the 25th anniversary of the Band and the program included Arthur Godfrey as its guest artist. The concerts continued each Sunday afternoon thereafter and concluded on March 26th with a salute to the 30th anniversary of the Inter-American Defense Board. Our Treasurer General attended all of the programs but one as the unofficial representative of the National Society.

The Delaware State Conference in Dover on February 18th, was the first stop on your President General's six-week, twelve-state official spring tour. Upon her arrival, she attended the Memorial Service at Christ Church and later the Informal Social Hour held in the Governor's Mansion. That evening, she was the guest at dinner of the State Officers Club, Miss Anna Frazer, President.

The State Regent, Mrs. William R. Money, called the conference to order the next morning and the President General gave her formal talk, "DAR Vision-Past, Present and Future." She returned to Washington late that same afternoon in a blizzard.

Sunday afternoon, February 20th, she emplaned for Biloxi and the Mississippi State Conference, Mrs. James R. Peaster, Jr., Conference Chairman, hosted a supper party in honor of the State Regent that evening.

On Monday, she was a guest at the State Board luncheon which was followed by a tea hosted by the Biloxi Chapter. The opening session took place that evening following the State Officers Club dinner.

Tuesday morning, February 22, it was a pleasure to attend the JAC breakfast, preceding the morning session. The National Defense luncheon followed. At the conclusion of the afternoon meeting the out-of-state visitors were taken on a tour of Biloxi to see this historic city. After the Conference banquet, it was interesting to listen to the reports of the Chapter Regents.

The President General enjoyed the American Indians breakfast and the business session which brought to a close this State Conference.

She spent that night in Seattle, Washington, before leaving the next morning for Orcas Island and the Washington State Conference, Mrs. Ned L. Hiatt, Jr., State Regent. The State Officers Club dinner was that evening followed by the formal opening of the Conference. A reception in her honor concluded the evening. The next morning, February 25th, the President
General gave her informal talk and spoke briefly about her proposed project. The session preceded the National Defense luncheon which was interesting and pleasant. At the banquet that evening, the President General was the speaker.

She attended the Awards breakfast the next morning as well as the Conservation luncheon—both were informative and enjoyable. She emplaned for Los Angeles that afternoon. On this trip, she had the most unusual experience of going in and out of Orcas Island on a two-engine Piper Cub and a single engine Cessna then transferring to a 747. The final portion of the trip to the Disneyland Hotel was by bus through a dense fog.

The morning of February 27th, the President General was a guest of the California Court of Assistants of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Reception and Brunch and that afternoon she attended the Beta Sigma Phi reception. In the evening, she joined the State Officers Club at their dinner.

Following a press interview the next morning, she attended a reception and luncheon of the Daughters of Founders and Patriots at Knotts Berry Farm. Later the group was taken on a tour of the Independence Hall Replica at the Farm. The State Conference was called to order by the State Regent, Mrs. LeRoy Conrad Kaump, that evening. A reception concluded the evening.

Tuesday morning, February 29th, the Past and Present Chapter Regents Association invited the President General to join them for their Leap Year breakfast. Business sessions continued throughout Tuesday and Wednesday. At the banquet Wednesday evening, the Colonial Debutantes were presented to the State Regent and the President General.

Friday the President General left for San Diego where she spent the weekend before leaving for Asheville the morning of March 6th to attend the North Carolina State Conference. That evening she attended an informal dinner with members of the State Board and others. The Conference was officially opened by the State Regent, Mrs. W. Dillon Chambers, the afternoon of Tuesday, March 7th. A press conference had been arranged for the President General the next morning.

The Conference Awards luncheon that day was delightful, as was the tea at the Governor’s Western Residence later in the afternoon. The informal dinner for DAR Good Citizens, National and State Officers was pleasant and so was the musical program that evening.

She emplaned for Memphis and the Tennessee State Conference the afternoon of March 9th. Later, the State Regent, Mrs. Ray W. Mettetal, opened the Conference. A reception honoring the President General and State Regent concluded the evening.

The Youth breakfast was held Friday morning and it was a joy to be in attendance. Business sessions were scheduled for the rest of the day and the Regents banquet was held that night.

The President General attended the American Indian breakfast Saturday morning, March 11th, and the business session which followed. That afternoon she was the guest of honor at a reception given by the Zachariah Davies Chapter at Davies Plantation and the overnight guest of the State Vice Regent of Tennessee, Mrs. Joseph C. Matthews.

She emplaned for New Orleans and the Louisiana State Conference Sunday afternoon, March 12th, and joined the Honorary State Regents and Officers Club at their dinner.

The next morning she attended the State Officers Club breakfast. Later in the morning she addressed the Women’s Auxiliary, New Orleans Chamber of Commerce, on “DAR in the Community.” The opening session of the Conference was called to order by the State Regent, Mrs. John A. Luster, that evening.

The President General left for Columbia to attend the South Carolina State Conference the morning of March 15th. Upon her arrival she joined the State Officers Club at their luncheon which was followed by a tea at the Governor’s mansion. The State Regent, Mrs. C. Mower Singley, called the Conference to order that evening. The President General was a guest at the Tamassee luncheon which followed the morning session.

She spent the weekend in Columbia before emplaning for Jacksonville late in the afternoon Sunday, March 19th.

Following the State Officers Club dinner the evening of March 20th, the State Regent, Mrs. Harold R. Frankenbemg, formally called to order the State Conference. Tuesday morning, March 21, the business sessions began, followed by the National Defense luncheon. Brief greetings were brought both to the luncheon and to the banquet that evening. It was inspiring to hear the many excellent reports given during the sessions.

The Georgia State Conference was held in Columbus, Miss Martha Ansley Cooper, State Regent.

The President General arrived in time for a press conference which had been arranged for her the morning of March 23rd. That was followed by the luncheons of the State Officers Club and the Chapter Regents. Although she could not attend, the President General stopped by to greet both groups. The State Regent called the meeting to order the next morning. The DAR Schools luncheon was, as always, most enjoyable and informative, as was the Chapter Regents banquet that evening.

Miss Amanda A. Thomas, DAR School Chairman, drove the President General to Athens to attend the Alabama State Conference, on the 25th. While in Athens, she was the house guest of President and Mrs. Sidney E. Sandridge of Athens College.

The State Regent, Mrs. John Blevins Privett, gave a dinner in honor of the President General upon her arrival.

The next morning the State Regent officially called the conference to order. The President General was the guest of the Junior Membership Committee at their luncheon, which followed.

Press, radio and television interviews were arranged for her the next morning.

She left for Houston the morning of March 29th to attend part of the Texas State Conference, Mrs. Ford Hubbard, State Regent, presiding. That evening the President General was the speaker at the banquet. The next morning a press conference had been arranged for her and she was the guest of the State Regent at a luncheon which was followed by a tour of Bayou Bend, former home of Miss Ima Hogg. The President General was the overnight guest of Mrs. Hubbard before leaving for Washington at noon on the 31st of March.

At each of these State Conferences, the President General gave her formal address “DAR Vision—Past, Present and Future”, either at a banquet or at the opening event. The informal talk or workshop was presented during the business sessions.

The President General cannot adequately thank all of those involved in making her official visit so pleasant. The reports she heard, the social functions arranged for her pleasure, as well as the many press, radio and television interviews arranged were deeply appreciated. Each State Regent and conference committees are to be commended and congratulated.

The enthusiastic response given her proposed project was heartwarming.

The President General was the speaker at the 80th anniversary luncheon of the Mary Washington Chapter on Saturday, April 1st, which was a delightful occasion.

Monday, having been away from the office and her desk for six weeks, she immediately began work on the mass of correspondence awaiting her attention. Also, there were a number of last-minute items attendant to the 81st Continental Congress to which she had to give her attention.

On Saturday, April 8th, she was a guest of the American Pen Women at their breakfast.

The President General and her Executive Committee attended the American Farm Bureau Federation dinner the evening of April 10th.

The following members represented the National Society when it was not possible for the President General to attend personally:

Mrs. Eloise T. Jenkins, State Regent, District of Columbia DAR, at the 50th Annual Ceremony in celebration of the birth of President Lincoln, Military Order of the Loyal Legion of Mrs. Charles Carroll Haig, Past Treasurer General, accompanied by Mrs. Joseph H. Jordan, Assistant to the Public Relations Director, at the National Parks Centennial Banquet, March 1st.

Mrs. Walter E. Ward, Vice President General, District of Columbia, Mrs. Eloise T. Jenkins, District of Columbia State Regent, Mrs. Martin A. Mason, District of Columbia State Vice Regent, Mrs. Joseph C. Lambert and Mrs. Helen T. Markwith, at the 1972 Department of State Foreign Policy Conference, March 28-29.

Mrs. F. A. Paul Ziesmer, Treasurer General, at a reception for “Little Smokey”, Department of Agriculture, by the Forest Service, March 29.

It is with great sadness that the President General informs you of the passing of Mrs. B. Harrison Lingo, who was a member of the Special Events Committee and Chairman of the Press Books. She was a devoted member for 40 years.

The first year of this administration has passed rapidly but it has been a very fulfilling one thanks to the loyal support of each of you. You have made it possible to reach new heights and in so doing allow us to widen our horizons for the next two years.

ELEANOR W. SPICER,
President General.

In response to the messages that had come from the field about “the wonderful job she had done as a history teacher”, Mrs. Howland presented to Mrs. Spicer, on behalf of the members of the Executive Committee, a silver History Medal.

The President General resumed the chair and the First Vice President General, Mrs. Lyle Johnston Howland, read her report.

Report of First Vice President General

Since last Board meeting this officer has been busily engaged with the Handbook and Personnel matters.

Reminder cards were sent to National Officers and National Chairmen, either asking for new material, if material in the 1969 Handbook was still current, or if they wished the editor to revise material. Material is coming in slowly but considerable headway has been made in getting it ready for printing.

As I am also Personnel Chairman, much time has been given to reviewing rules and regulations under which this committee operates. This has necessitated considerable correspondence.

A Washington’s Birthday luncheon of Caughnawaga Chapter, Fowlville, N.Y. had to be cancelled because of a severe blizzard and rescheduled for the following Monday. Despite the fact that two days intervened it was still impossible to get out of Rome, as roads leading to the Thruway were still blocked.

A meeting on March 9th with Skenandoah Chapter, Oneida, N.Y., was a very pleasant day. This chapter entertains the American History Essay winners at a movie in the morning, courtesy of the Theatre and then at lunch. Parents of the students attended. The finalists read their essays “How My State Got Its Name” and were awarded silver medals. The semi-finalists were given bronze medals.

This officer was the speaker at the Central New York Round Table with Owahgena Chapter as hostess, Cazenovia, when she spoke on “Going Forward with DAR.”

MARJORIE S. HOWLAND
First Vice President General.

The Chaplain General, Mrs. Clarence Whitfield Kemper, presented her report.

Report of Chaplain General

Your Chaplain General has enjoyed a busy spring, since last we met. Keeping up with an increasing correspondence demands many desk hours, and the preparations for the Breakfast and Memorial Hour, on the morrow, means many more hours. I trust that all goes smoothly.

I have participated in a number of memorial services in my area and have endeavored to help all who have appealed to me for assistance.

Will the State Regents take to their states, or pass on to the incoming Regents, the word of the Program Contest for 1973. They must have a religious note: Be Church, as well as Chapter, adapted for presentation and utilize the talents of the Junior or C.A.R. groups as much as possible.

I have received a number of entries for the 1973 Contest—one done in original poetry, one a loved old poem, dramatized by children.

We all need to live truer to our Christian convictions and inspire our fellows.

Your Chaplain General has enjoyed and found stimulation in her work.

Thank you Madam President General.

LORNA OWEN KEMPER,
Chaplain General.

The Recording Secretary General, Mrs. Frederick Griswold, Jr., read her report.

Report of Recording Secretary General

The minutes of the February Board meeting were prepared for publication in the DAR Magazine and proofread. Minutes and verbatim transcript were recorded and indexed.

The amendments to the Bylaws proposed by the National Board of Management and the proposed adoption of the President General’s project were prepared for distribution to the chapters.

Motions adopted by the Board were typed and copies were sent to the other offices; also typed for the statute book and indexed.

Minutes of the Executive Committee meeting have been written; copies sent to each member of the committee; copied for the permanent record and indexed. Rulings affecting offices and committees were typed separately and delivered or mailed.

Notices of the two Board meeting s in April were mailed to the members of the National Board of Management. Members of the Executive Committee were notified of the meeting of that committee.

Letters were mailed to National Officers, State Regents and Committee Chairmen, requesting advance copies of their full reports to the Continental Congress for printing in the Proceedings.

All necessary letters were written to the candidates for election at the 81st Continental Congress.

Since my last report to the Board 3,653 membership certificates and one commission have been prepared and mailed to members.

Madam President General, it has been a privilege to serve as a member of your Executive Committee, under your capable leadership.

This report would be incomplete without an expression of my appreciation to the Corresponding Secretary General, Mrs. Wakelee Rawson Smith, for having assumed my duties at the February Board meeting, when I was unable to attend.

My special thanks also go to the staff who have carried out efficiently all functions of my office.

ENID HALL GRISWOLD,
Recording Secretary General.

The Corresponding Secretary General, Mrs. Wakelee Rawson Smith, read her report.

Report of Corresponding Secretary General

During the short period since my report to the Board on February 1st, 1,938 orders have been processed and filled during January and February. Proposed Amendments to the Bylaws were mailed—total 3,043.
A total of 108 scholarship letters were answered relative to Medical Training, Occupational Therapy, Nursing and American History Fellowship.

From March 1, 1971 to March 1, 1972, 21,755 pieces of official mail were sent out from this office, exclusive of free materials, orders, and hundreds of letters answered.

I attended the White Breakfast of the General Henry Dearborn Chapter and the Washington Birthday Tea of Chicago Chapter and presided as President of the Illinois State Officers Club at its Annual Board Meeting, Meeting and Dinner. Was present at all sessions of the Illinois State Conference and took part in the Memorial Service; was also the speaker for the luncheon of 535 honoring the DAR Good Citizens girls. I attended the Wisconsin State Conference as the guest of Mrs. Earl Janikowsky, State Regent, and was a special guest of Mrs. Lester LaMack, Past Vice President General, where I spoke briefly on Membership. I was the guest of the Texas Society State Conference with Mrs. Ford Hubbard as my hostess, and was the speaker at the General Luncheon. In addition, I attended several local chapter meetings.

JANE FARWELL SMITH,
Corresponding Secretary General.

The Treasurer General, Mrs. F. A. Paul Ziesmer, presented her report.

Report of Treasurer General

Madam President General and Members of the National board of Management:

I hereby submit the Summary Statement of Current and Special Funds for the fiscal year ended February 29, 1972, and the supporting schedules thereto.

RUTH W. D. ZIESMER,
Treasurer General.

A. The Current Fund balance at February 29, 1972 included 574,896.80 received for 1972 dues which are not available for use in operations until March 1, 1972. In addition approximately 41,093.50 in dues and fees had been received from applicants and will not be available for operations until the applicants are admitted to membership.

B. The total of the Current Fund and the Unrestricted Special Funds represent those funds which are readily available for Society use. Other Special Funds listed on the following page are derived from bequests, gifts, etc., and are restricted to school contributions, Scholarships, books for library, museum purchases and other special purposes. These restricted Special Funds are merely held as an accommodation. The Golden Jubilee, Investment Trust, and Julia C. Fish Funds are shown above only to the extent of income received which is available for general use. The principal portion of these three funds are shown as restricted funds on the following page.

National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution
Washington, D.C.

We have examined the financial statements of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution listed below:
Statement of current and Unrestricted Special Funds (Page 1) for the year ended February 29, 1972
Statement of Restricted Funds (Pages 2 and 3) for the year ended February 29, 1972
Supporting statements of current fund cash receipts and disbursements (Pages 4 to 6) for the year ended February 29, 1972
Schedule of investments (Pages 7 and 8) as of February 29, 1972
Statement of cash receipts and disbursements of the Trustees, National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution Pension Trust Fund (Page 9) for the year ended February 29, 1972

Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included confirmations from depositaries and custodians of cash and investments held at February 29, 1972, and such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The financial statements have been prepared generally on the cash receipts and disbursements basis and therefore do not purport to present the results of operations as they would appear had generally accepted accrual basis accounting principles been applied. Cash receipts and disbursements do not include dispositions and acquisitions of securities, respectively, except for gains or losses thereon.

In our opinion, the aforementioned statements and supporting schedules present fairly the cash balances and investments at February 29, 1972 and the information set forth therein for the year then ended on the basis indicated which is consistent with that of the preceding year.

The Registrar General, Mrs. Edward Lynn Westbrooke, read her report.

Report of Registrar General
Your Registrar General remained in Washington the week following the February Board for work in the office.
The Office of the Registrar General has been exceedingly busy since the February Board, processing applications. Your Registrar General and the office have been burdened with correspondence we have tried to acknowledge; explain and solve problems, and in many cases, referred to another office for reply. This office strives to provide prompt and courteous service at all times.

When writing the office of the Registrar General, members are asked to be as brief as possible, give explicit information desired; and if it pertains to an application, the name of the applicant and chapter are necessary. All data should be accompanied with a notation stating the exact application to which it relates.

The office of the Registrar General has the list of new admissions ONLY. Any questions pertaining to total membership or any changes in membership, should be directed to the Record Room of the Treasurer General's Office. Our office does not record deaths, resignations or transfers.

A concentrated effort to diminish the backlog of Record Copy will be made immediately after Congress. Delay in supplying copies of open papers of members has been due to circumstances beyond our control.

The October Board of Management approved a motion to allow a Xerox copy of an application to be submitted instead of a typed second original. Although photocopies are legally acceptable, it was deemed desirable to amend the Bylaws to clarify the acceptance of a photocopy. This proposed amendment was offered by your Registrar General because the courts accept a Xerox as an original. A photocopy of the original typed application eliminates elements of error in the typing of the second original. Future applicants would find the tedious process of completing applications easier and it is the wish of the Registrar General to simplify and expedite this procedure whenever possible.

In March, the Genealogical Division attended a lecture at the National Archives. The speaker was Mr. James D. Walker, Specialist for Genealogical and Local History. His lecture was titled, "Sources in the National Archives." Afterwards, Mr. Walker took the group on a tour of the building that included the Library, the Search Room and the new Microfilm Center.

The week preceding Congress, your Registrar General located used file cabinets of the finest quality at one-third the price of new ones.

The week immediately following Congress, the office will be engaged with the Post-Congress Volunteer Genies, who will examine supplementals. My deep appreciation to these dedicated ladies for devoting their time, talent and money to the work of the National Society. All supplementals received prior to Feb. 12, 1971 have been examined.

My sincere thanks to my staff for making possible the following report since February Board: Number of applications received, 1,651; Number of applications verified, 2,175; Number of supplementals received, 438; Number of supplementals verified, 270; Papers returned unverified: Originals, 0; Supplementals, 0; New records verified, 210; Permits issued, 1,053; Letters written, 4,746; Postals written, 2,010; Photos—Papers, 2,133; Data—Pages, 137.

GILBERTA WOOD WESTBROOK, Registrar General.

Mrs. Westbrooke moved that the 2,175 applicants whose records have been verified by the Registrar General be elected to membership in the National Society. Seconded by Mrs. Ziesmer. Adopted.

The Organizing Secretary General, Mrs. Wallace Bryan Heiser, read her report.

Report of Organizing Secretary General

Your Organizing Secretary General herewith submits the following report from February 1st to April 15th:

It is with regret that we report the death of Mrs. Gladys Harwell Maxwell, Organizing Regent for Rockdale, Texas, who was confirmed on October 16, 1971.

Through their respective State Regents the following members at large are presented for confirmation as Organizing Regents:

- Mrs. Cammie Lois Aldridge Peterson, Barrington, Illinois; Mrs. Leota Bradford Pfingston, Capitan, New Mexico; Mrs. Angeline Rogers Cobb, Hodges, South Carolina; Mrs. Mildred L. Baker, Rockdale, Texas; Miss Delila Mildred Baird, Rotan, Texas.

The following Organizing Regency has reached the end of one year and reappointment is requested through her State Regent: Mrs. Shirley Bellows Hughes, Lovingston, Virginia.

The following Organizing Regency has expired by time limitation: Mrs. Reta Somerville Brown, Glenville, West Virginia.

The following chapter was automatically disbanded on April 12, 1972: Palestrello, Wallingford, Vermont.

The following chapter is presented for official disbandment: Captain Jonathan Oliphant, Medford, New Jersey.

In March, your Organizing Secretary General was a guest of the Illinois Daughters at their State Conference in Chicago where she spoke at the DAR Youth Committee's Luncheon on the subject "A Vision of the Future." She also attended her own State Conference in Toledo. During the year she has been guest speaker at several Ohio chapters.

Marian Rowe Heiser, Organizing Secretary General.

Mrs. Heiser moved the confirmation of five organizing regents, reappointment of one organizing regent, disbandment of two chapters. Seconded by Mrs. Hiatt. Adopted.

Mrs. George Albert Morris, Historian General, read her report.

Report of Historian General

The Archives Room is gaining in popularity thanks to the Museum Docents and the uniting efforts of Mrs. Mollie Somerville who gives interesting talks about the documents on display. Much helpful information is given in answer to inquiries from both public and private institutions.

The work has been completed on the accessioning of the 300 items from the Museum. We have two beautiful new cabinets which arrived in time to take care of the overflow.

There were several items of special interest: A receipt for a $10 contribution to the "Proposed Monument to George Washington"; Centennial Badge (1776-1876) displaying a likeness of George Washington on woven silk; a Thanksgiving Day Proclamation by John Hancock, 22 November 1781.

This officer was most pleased to give a certificate of special commendation to Mrs. J. L. Lasiter, Jr., Regent of Old Bute Chapter, Henderson, North Carolina for her outstanding performance in the field of local American History and her dedication in working with the youth in her community.

Distribution of American History supplies follows: 3,532 Certificates of Award; 13,490 History Month Stickers; 13,405 Certificates of Appreciation; 127 Spot Announcements; 289 History Month Posters; 1,927 Bronze Medals and 435 Silver Medals.

Your Historian General was honored to attend and speak on the early history of our Society at the Michigan and Maine State Conferences.

MARIETTA W. MORRIS, Historian General.

The Librarian General, Mrs. Bertram James Lempenua, read her report.

Report of Librarian General

Reports from 48 states indicate a high level of activity on the part of chapter and state librarians.

All requested books have been supplied by the following thirty states: Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Connecticut, District of Columbia, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Mississippi, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Oklahoma, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, and Virginia, with Kansas first to complete the list.

Examination of the questionnaires discloses outstanding library activities in the following states:

Arizona—Purchased the first $100 Life Membership, "Friends of the Seimes Microfilm Center Committee."
Arkansas—Indexed and microfilmed the state's oldest newspaper—an 1838 "The Washington Telegraph."
California—$477 and 603 books donated to local libraries.
Colorado—Books given to local libraries. Cemetery records copied.
Florida—Each chapter has its own genealogical project.
Georgia—1000 hours indexing and $3,049.15 spent on local work.
Iowa—Extensive indexing at chapter level.
Kansas—Maintains a state DAR Library with genealogical assistance in western Kansas where such data is otherwise unavailable.
Kentucky—Added a new room, a reader and a copier to John Fox Library.
Louisiana—Moving State DAR Library to center of state, a more accessible location.
Massachusetts—Genealogical books given to local libraries and schools.

Michigan—Microfilmed Revolutionary pension files; 10 chapters indexing.
Mississippi—Travelling library maintained; $559 spent for genealogical material given to local libraries.
New Mexico—State project is indexing marriage records.
New York—Extensive indexing, cataloguing and copying cemetery inscriptions.
Oklahoma—Establishing DAR sections in local libraries.
South Carolina—Moving State DAR Library to Capitol for central location; 7 chapters maintain genealogical material for research.
Texas—27 chapters engaged in genealogical indexing.
West Virginia—Establishing genealogical divisions at local libraries with volunteer assistance for researchers.
Wisconsin—Compiled and published "Wisconsin Society DAR in Review 1892-1971."

Wyoming—30 hours weekly service given at local library.
In addition to the foregoing, a number of states reported indexing at local levels; 42 states reported a total of $2,550 expended for contributions or books sent the DAR Library; 29 states reported $11,833.64 spent for library work at state level, and 29 states showed total contributions for re-binding in the amount of $1,304.

During the past year the Library received 798 books, 175 pamphlets, 33 manuscripts, 144 microfilm rolls and 6 charts; 187 books were rebound.

Fees from the photocopy machine aggregated $4,821.25 during the period.

A detailed tabulation of contributions and activities at state level will be published in the Proceedings. Time does not permit it to be read here. However, gifts to the Library for microfilming will not be shown therein, as all such contributions are deposited in a joint account under the jurisdiction of the Librarian General and Registrar General for the benefit of the Seimes Microfilm Center. As previously reported, all chairs for the Center have been donated, and cabinets have been authorized to store all microfilm in the Center, including that formerly kept in the Library.

In mid-February the Church of the Latter Day Saints completed microfilming all published and unpublished material in the Library. Now being received are cartons of microfilm, supplied in return for filming privileges.

By order of the Executive Committee the original copy of the 1860 Census was presented to the Alexandria Library of Alexandria, Virginia, when no purchaser was found. The Census was replaced by a refilmed clear copy now available.

Results at national level are achieved only through work done at chapter and state level, and the Librarian General is deeply grateful for the enthusiasm and dedicated efforts reflected in the reports. She has attended all meetings of the Executive Committee, the Finance Committee, the Membership Committee, and the National Board of Management. With others of the cabinet she attended the Yorktown Ceremonies last October. It is a rare privilege to work under the outstanding leadership of our President General, and the Librarian General looks to the future with keen anticipation.

MARY CARSWELL PEMPEUA, Librarian General.

Congress will be invited to a Special Museum Event. This will give everyone an opportunity to view our special Display of Artifacts Relevant to the Revolutionary War Period. We are especially grateful to Mrs. Ford Hubbard of Texas for procuring the “lost” copy of the Declaration of Independence and to Mrs. David Hobin, New Jersey State Museum Chairman, for her outstanding contributions.

We are happy to announce that all slides and postcards have been received and that the new brochures are now on sale. We urge that each State Regent push the sale of these items within her own State. They offer an excellent presentation of our beautiful property and will serve as a fine source of program material.

Great improvements have been made in several State Rooms and we continue to urge that these rooms should develop along regional lines. We extend congratulations to Mrs. Earl James Helmbrick, State Regent of Maine, for her outstanding accomplishments. New acquisitions in the Maine Room include a reverse portrait on glass of George Washington attributed to William Matthew Prior, a New England itinerant artist born in Maine, and a portrait of Benjamin Stone, an early Maine citizen who was lost on the U.S. sloop Wasp, in 1814. This painting was brought to us in the handbag of our Librarian General, Mrs. Bertram James Lempenau, from its former home in Topeka, Kansas.

The National Chairman of Friends of the Museum, Mrs. Harry H. Hoopes, reports a total of 18 Life Memberships and contributions toward the purchase of the Monroe chair. Contributions toward this project were also made at the State Conferences of Tennessee and Florida which the Curator General was privileged to attend.

It was her pleasure to address the Commodore Perry, the Adam Dale, Fort Assumption, Stones River, Captain William Lytle, and Colonel Hardy Murfree Chapters and to attend the George Washington Luncheon of the Nashville Regents Council and the Andrew Jackson Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution. She joined the President General in Jacksonville and accompanied her on her trip to Atlanta, en route to Columbus, Georgia.

Mr. George U. Baylies of Scarsdale, New York has presented to the Museum a handsome silver tankard in honor of his wife, the State Regent of New York. The tankard is the work of Eric Mausson Schmidt between 1675 and 1686. We welcome Mr. Baylies as a Museum Benefactor.

Miss Elisabeth Donaghy, our Director-Curator, is the recipient of a scholarship by the American Association of State and Local History to attend a Museum Seminar in Denver, Colorado next month. This is a tribute to her work here, at Winterthur and in other Museums and brings great honor to us.

The professional cataloguing of the Museum Gallery and State Room Collections has just begun. This program has replaced Museum air-conditioning on Honor Roll. We plan to carry forward this work with additional temporary and volunteer help under Miss Donaghy’s supervision.

Appreciation is expressed to the Museum staff, to Mrs. Briggs J. White, Chairman of Museum Docents, to Mrs. Tompkins Parker, Chairman of the Art Critics Committee, and to Mrs. Malcolm Matheson for her outstanding work as Chairman of Special Events. The reception this Sunday is the fourth major event of this year. Mr. Richard Bales will present a concert of Revolutionary Period music through the courtesy of Mrs. Matheson and her committee.

We regret the death of Mrs. B. Harrison Lingo, a long-time member of the Special Museum Events Committee, who will be greatly missed by all who have shared her warm hospitality, kindness, spirit of cooperation and deep love for our DAR Museum.

Sarah M. King, Curator General.

REPORT OF BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS COMMITTEE

Since the February first Board Meeting, this officer has helped four chapters celebrate Washington's Birthday and was speaker for one luncheon meeting. She attended the Texas State Conference which was honored by a visit from the President General, Mrs. Donald Spicer.

Response to the request for locating graves of soldiers of the Revolution has been most enthusiastic and the largest number for any one year has been reported, 513 newly located graves in twenty-two States and Canada.

HATTIE MAY E. DICK,
Reporter General to the Smithsonian Institution.

Mrs. Stanleigh Swan, Chairman of Buildings and Grounds Committee, read her report.

REPORT OF REPORTER GENERAL TO THE SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION

In this first year of the Spicer Administration, your chairman is pleased to report that many necessary improvements and repairs have been accomplished.

The entire block of buildings owned by the National Society is now architecturally lighted at night as a part of President Nixon's program to make the city safer and more beautiful. Such lighting has been installed in front of all government and historic buildings facing Washington's Ellipse. At the same time, twelve light fixtures were provided and attached to the outside walls on the North and South sides of Constitution Hall. The lighting program was developed and will be maintained by the Federal Government.

A preliminary survey, at no cost to the National Society, has been made for the air conditioning of Memorial Continental Hall, the Administration Building and the remaining areas of Constitution Hall.

Tentative plans have been made for a suitable and adequate work shop for the buildings. There is a great need for equipment necessary for the repairing of furniture and the construction of various items.

A Day and Night Steam and Electric Hot Water Heater, greatly needed for several years, with a capacity of one hundred, fifteen gallons and a one hundred, fifty gallon per hour recovery now provides adequate hot water for the buildings.

As greater insurance for keeping pigeons from nesting on the eaves, a preliminary estimate has been obtained for electrifying our buildings. We still continue necessary “bird proofing” as a precautionary measure.

New electric lines have been run from the Electric Room in Constitution Hall to the exit lines in the Administration Building. The old lines have been grounded.

All broken steam lines in the sub-basement of the Administration Building and in the boiler room, Constitution Hall, have been repaired.

Men on the DAR staff continue to guard the buildings, and it is felt that we have ample protection by utilizing our own personnel.

Memorial Continental Hall:

Our painter, a full-time employee, has completed the painting of the basement, second floor and third floor hall corridors, as well as the stairwells and ceilings.

The New York, Maine and Virginia State Rooms have been painted.

The Library Offices and the Lineage Research Offices have acquired new drapery hardware, with draperies rehung. New wash basins have been installed in the two microfilm rooms in the Library.

The Banquet Hall Kitchen has taken on a completely new look. New sinks and counters with garbage disposals have been installed; also new work space with laminated maple counters. A complete painting of both kitchen and pantry, a new floor and new curtains, are an inspiration to those committee members and staff who work there during Executive Committee and National Board of Management luncheons.

The foyer room off the Pennsylvania Lobby has a new coat of paint and a telephone shelf has been constructed.

Administration Building:

Our painter has completed painting of the basement, second and third floor hall corridors, as well as the basement Receiving Room.

The Treasurer General’s Office Suite has been renovated completely: paint, wallpaper, three chandeliers installed, new drapes, carpeting, new desk and three chairs reupholstered.

The Office of the Registrar General has acquired a new air conditioner; sofa and two chairs reupholstered; new drapes in the process of being made.

Bookcases have been made and installed in both the offices of the Registrar General and DAR Magazine.

Presses for binding computer membership record books have been made and installed.

A new water cooler was purchased and installed in the office of the President General.

Replacement of hot water lines located inside the walls extending from the President General’s Offices to the Accounting Office has been effected. Also larger heating units and cut off louvres for the heating plant for the President General’s Office have been installed.

A new radiator was purchased and installed in the office of National Defense as were window shades.

A new paint job has been accomplished in the Public Relations Office and new drapes, reupholstered sofa with new desks and chairs to be purchased will change the outlook of this third floor area.

Constitution Hall:

One section of the wall housing the National Society, Children of the American Revolution has been replastered and painted.

Four dressing rooms, stage entrance, the pit under the stage, corridors and floors in the basement have been painted. The completely renovated Press Area and the Press Reception Room wear an aura of friendliness with fresh paint, rug, new drapes and three new ceiling light fixtures.

The Executive Kitchen has been converted to use as a storeroom for unused typewriters, furniture and such.

The offices of the Managing Director of Constitution Hall, the Assistant Manager and Business Office have been redecorated completely. A fresh coat of paint, new drapes and carpeting with new signs overhead greatly improve this location.

The back corridors of Constitution Hall have been painted. In the President General’s Reception Room, the floor has been sanded and two coats of Fabulon applied. Four chairs have been reupholstered and new window shades appear at all windows, which have been painted.

The Powder Room in the Pages’ Lounge wears a new coat of paint as does its storeroom closet, and a new drape shade appears at the window of the Powder Room. Of the one hundred-sixty lockers purchased and installed, seventy-three have been paid for by contributions from various chapters, State groups and individuals. The plaques are in place on those so purchased.

Constitution Hall grossed $158,904.20 for the period March 1, 1971-February 29, 1972 as compared to $209,328.00 for the period March 1, 1970-February 28, 1971. In spite of the loss of business from the National Symphony Orchestra, whose final Orchestra Concert was played Friday, June 18, 1971, and the Washington Performing Arts, played on Sunday, December 12, 1971, the above figures reveal that Constitution Hall is still a source of income for the National Society.

Madam President General, it has been a privilege and a pleasure to serve our National Society under your leadership.

FRANCES G. SWAN, Chairman.

Miss Amanda A. Thomas, Chairman of the DAR School Committee, read her report.

Report of DAR School Committee

From January 1, 1972 through February 29, 1972, a total of $86,241.90 has been received in the office of the Treasurer General for Tamasee and Kate Duncan Smith DAR Schools. This amount includes payments on pledges of $6,552.36 for the Seimes-Thomas Classroom Building.

The State organizations contributed as follows to these schools:

This is an outstanding financial report covering a two-month period. Each State organization, including France, participated. For this committee money has one value, and that is producing good, sound education for children enrolled in our schools. We believe Kate Duncan Smith and Tamassee DAR Schools provide this education. Operating costs of these schools have risen, and are rising. The financial report presented today indicates Daughters of the American Revolution are alert to this problem and have responded generously.

AMANDA A. THOMAS, Chairman.

Mrs. James Andrew Williams, Chairman of the DAR Magazine Committee, read her report.

Report of DAR Magazine Committee

The DAR Magazine Committee is charged with the responsibility of promoting the objectives of our National Society through its pages, since 1892 the oldest publication of its type in the world in continuous existence. We were challenged this year to improve a superb publication and to increase a record circulation. We have had a very good year. We believe that we have met the challenge.

One year ago Magazine subscriptions numbered 51,300; today the total is 54,685, an historic high. Last year the percentage ratio of subscriptions to membership was 55; today that figure is 58%. Two-thirds of the chapters in the National Society met Honor Roll point 7. Our Magazine is in 5,291 libraries. You will be pleased to know that a copy of the April DAR Magazine is prominently displayed in the library of the National Press Club here in Washington. (Our Editor was recently invited to membership in the club.)

By a ruling of the National Board last October, the DAR Magazine printing contract was awarded to the firm of Judd and Detweiler, Washington, D.C. Their work is of the highest quality and is recognized and appreciated by all readers of the DAR Magazine.

Our subscribers are very generous in their praise of the Magazine’s content and appearance. Another George Washington Honor Medal Award was received from Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge. Two new departments have enhanced the value of the Magazine, “Junior Exchange,” introduced in March, and “Bicentennial Focus,” a page which began in October and will appear regularly during the Bicentennial Era.

In March 1972, a list of chapter subscriptions was sent to every Chapter Regent in the National Society.

We are most fortunate that the Magazine Editor, Circulation Manager and Staff are able, imaginative, and professional. We are very appreciative of their dedication and accomplishment.

I am particularly pleased to report a sound financial situation, due to the outstanding subscription total, the splendid work of the Magazine Advertising Committee and Staff, and competent Each of you is to be commended for promoting the Magazine. Only by reading and studying it can our members be informed and only when the DAR Magazine enjoy national prominence will the National Society truly create an informed public opinion. Please join with me in continued enthusiastic support of these efforts, for “Where there is no VISION, the people perish.”

DOROTHY THOMPSON WILLIAMS, Chairman.

Mrs. James Edward Clyde, Chairman of the DAR Magazine Advertising Committee, read her report.

Report of DAR Magazine Advertising Committee

The Slogan adopted by the DAR Magazine Advertising Committee for the past year, “This is Today—Let’s Top Yesterday” has inspired the members to reach a revenue higher than any previously recorded. For this twelve-month period the revenue is $113,499.04.

This Committee was not instituted to break records, of course, but the challenge of competition has given an incentive to State and Chapter Chairmen, and an impetus to our National Vice Chairmen, whose enthusiastic approach to the State Chairmen in their Divisions has been greatly responsible for this report. To them, to the State and Chapter Chairmen and the State Regents, the National Committee expresses deep appreciation. The quality of advertising has remained of the highest, covering all phases of our Society’s work, Historic, Patriotic and Educational. An increased awareness of our Heritage has been evident. It is especially gratifying to note that although many Magazines are in difficulty, the DAR Magazine, owned, edited and supervised by a woman’s organization, stands at an all time high in revenue, content and subscriptions. Pride in this achievement belongs to each member.

All 50 States and the District of Columbia were most generous in their advertising, with one half page coming from England. Honor Roll credit, point #8, was achieved by 2480 chapters. Number of chapters participating in the program was 2525, leaving 417 chapters not participating. Special thanks go to the Junior Membership Committee for the lovely back cover ads in color, giving a revenue of $1,800.00.

CHAPTER AWARDS FOR THE HIGHEST AMOUNT OF REVENUE: 1st, $35 to Abigail Hartman Rice Chapter, District of Columbia, a previous five-time National Winner; 2nd, $20 to New Iberia Chapter, Louisiana, which won this same prize last year; 3rd, $15 to Bayou Lafourche Chapter, also Louisiana.

For the twelve-month period, $9,573.37 advertising commission was paid to the Chapters.
For the three-month period covered by this report to the Board, we thank the following States:

THE HEREDITARY REGISTER OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA is the sole authoritative reference to the nation's patriotic and hereditary societies, their national officers and prominent members. In its emphasis on family, The Register provides for The United States a reference similar to Burke's Landed Gentry of Great Britain.

The Register has two major sections. The first section contains the histories, purposes and objectives, current national officers with dates of office and emblems of the societies listed above. These American societies were founded over a period of 330 years commencing in 1637 with the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts and continuing through 1967 with the founding of the Order of the First Families of Mississippi.

The Register includes not only the

From the Desk of the National Chairman:

This committee was created June 4, 1913, under the name of Genealogical Research. The name was changed to Genealogical Records Committee in 1932.

The function of the committee is to copy, prepare in proper form, and place in the DAR Library, information of genealogical value from unpublished sources.

Each Chapter is asked to copy or abstract all of a certain type of record in its county, until gradually all types have been copied or abstracted. All records copied (unless a complete, indexed, bound book) are sent to the State Chairman for compiling into proper form, indexing and binding. Each Chapter and State Society is requested to maintain a list of all records sent by her Chapter or Society to the National DAR Genealogical Records Office. Microfilm records must give the number of pages on the reel.

Types of records to copy:
- From Courthouses: Marriage records, wills, deed, probates, court order books, tax lists, and town council minutes (1775-1783).
- From Churches: Marriage, birth and death records found in parish registers, vestry minutes or session books.
- From Cemeteries: Tombstone inscriptions, burial records.
- From Private Sources: Bible records, diaries, letters of genealogical interest to aid in family research.

The Grandparent Project of recording the earlier portion of a member’s application paper, (starting with a grandparent and ending with the Revolutionary War Soldier) has been reactivated, as of February 1, 1972. Copying of these records will not be counted for Honor Roll. Two index files are being prepared for the use of this project—one file will be by grandparent names and the second file will be by the Revolutionary War ancestor. Copies of these records may be obtained from the Genealogical Records Committee Office for one-dollar each. Instructions for preparing the source records to send to this office, (including the Grandparent Project), are obtained for ten-cents from the Genealogical Records Committee Office.

KENTUCKY DAUGHTERS

Invite you to visit
KENTUCKY'S FLORAL CLOCK

Spring, Summer, Autumn, Winter! Time never stands still around the State Capitol in Frankfort where the Floral Clock is the unofficial chronometer for the State, its great hands measuring off minutes a foot and a half at a time. It stands high in the air over a pool which Kentucky visitors have turned into a wishing well. Coins tossed into the pool go to Kentucky's Child Care agencies and to a scholarship fund. The Garden Club of Kentucky is co-sponsor of the clock with the Commonwealth. Changing seasons see beautiful plantings to fit the time of year.

Ordering the Insignia

The National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution and our Official Jeweler, J. E. Caldwell Company, have agreed on the Triplicate Order Form for ordering Insignia Items of DAR in the future. We feel that it will be beneficial to all of us. This new method should entail less paper-work, communications all around, and each of us will have a record of what is ordered, authorized and processed.

These TRIPlicate ORDER FORMS will be sent to EACH CHAPTER REGENT and EACH STATE REGENT during the summer. Members-at-Large should request their Insignia items through the Office of the Registrar General. DO NOT SEND MONEY for any items desired. You will be billed accordingly by the Caldwell Company. New List Pricings are available from either the Caldwell Company or the Office of the Corresponding Secretary General.

INSTRUCTIONS ON THE TRIPlicate ORDER FORM

1—Chapter Regent fills out the Triplicate Form
2—Chapter Regent sends the Original and 1 copy to the NSDAR, Office of the Registrar General for authorization
3—Chapter Regent retains the 2nd copy for her Chapter's files
4—Be sure that you have the DAR member's name correct, her address, her National Number and her Ancestor's Name.
5—The Original is kept at the Office of the Registrar General and upon authorization of the member's request for an Insignia Item—the copy is sent to the J. E. Caldwell Co., who then is able to properly fill the order, and more promptly.

This 'change in ordering' will be effective as of July 1, 1972. Do look for the Triplicate Order Forms, further clarification of "Instructions" there-in, and the Insignia Committee's Packet Letter this Summer.
You are cordially invited to visit our beautiful Capitol. Built in Frankfort in 1909 it is among the finest in the United States. The building has generous length and breadth, closely resembling the National Capitol. Terraced walls and an unusual front pediment add the finishing touches to its magnificence. The Dome is a reproduction of the Tomb of Napoleon.

White Hall

White Hall . . . home of Cassius Marcellus Clay, was one of the grand estate houses of post-Civil War Kentucky. Rich in remembrance of one man's war in defense of his principles, it preserves for future generations the ideals of individual freedom championed by the "Lion of White Hall."

Cassius Marcellus Clay was born in the older section of the house, and he died in the same bed 93 years later.

White Hall is a composite of two architectural styles that were artfully combined over 100 years ago into one structure. Green Clay, Cassius's father, a Revolutionary War veteran, built the first portion of the house and called it Clermont, in 1799. Clermont, Georgian in style, had its front entrance toward the Kentucky River.

White Hall is open for tours daily, except Mondays, from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m.

FINCASTLE CHAPTER
Louisville, Kentucky

Honors the memory of

Mrs. Eugene E. Pendergrass
(Lula Briscoe)
Regent 1961-1963

With affection and appreciation for her devotion to DAR, and the fine contribution she made to Fincastle Chapter and to the State Society. Mrs. Pendergrass was the organizing President of the Chapter Regents' Club of Kentucky and, for many years, was Chapter Chairman of the Committee for locating and marking the graves of Revolutionary Soldiers.
Centre College of Kentucky has long been one of the nation's highly regarded colleges of liberal arts. Its reputation is based on sound foundations. The College has been noted over the years for a strong faculty; its alumni have distinguished themselves in many fields; and its setting in a cultured community of Kentucky's famed Bluegrass area has been a major asset.

During the settlement of the United States west of the Alleghenies, the demand for educated leaders made itself felt early. While the Revolutionary War was still being fought, Presbyterians were laying the groundwork for a college in Kentucky County of Virginia.

In 1780 the Virginia Assembly set aside 8,000 acres for this "seminary of learning." Three years later the Board of Trustees held its first meeting at Crow's Station. Instruction in Transylvania Seminary began in 1785, near Danville, but in 1788 the institution was moved to Lexington. By 1794 the Presbytery, alarmed by the secular philosophies invading public institutions, determined to establish a more Christian school at Pisgah, Kentucky. This school, Kentucky Academy, opened in 1795. Donations to the new college included gifts from John Adams and George Washington. In 1798 the two colleges were united. The Board was to contain a majority of Presbyterians.

By 1818 it was obvious that the Presbyterians had relinquished control of the Board and so in 1819, Presbyterian leaders determined to organize a new college, under the control of a self-perpetuating Board of Trustees. Isaac Shelby, who had served as Kentucky's first governor, became the first chairman of the Board. Centre College of Kentucky opened its doors in the fall of 1820. In spite of difficulties and crises, including at least five wars, the college has never failed to carry on its academic work.

Modern surgery had its birth in Danville, Kentucky. It was here on Christmas Day, 1809, Dr. Ephraim McDowell successfully performed the world's first major abdominal operation by removing an ovarian tumor from Mrs. Jane Todd Crawford of Greensburg, Kentucky. The McDowell home, where the operation took place, is now a national shrine and open to the public seven days a week.

America’s foremost handweaver

For 50 years, untold pieces and yards of luxurious fabrics have been unwinding from the Churchill hand looms, each bearing the personality of the designer and weaver.

When one holds a “CHURCHILL HANDWOVEN” piece, a ladies STOLE, Shawl, CAPE, MAN’S TIE or a LEISURE THROW, one beholds the miracle of the weaver craftsman.

When you drive into the Capital City of Indianapolis, you will know that you are in the state of the boyhood home of Lincoln, for there you will find a statue, only a little more than three years old, of Lincoln as a young man, with bowed head appearing moodily to peer into the shimmering reflection of the pool at his feet, and book in hand. He stands in front of the modern, functional State Office Building adjoining the State House. President Abraham Lincoln lived in Indiana from age 7 to 21. President Lincoln's mother is buried in Indiana and the exact site of the Thomas Lincoln cabin home is marked near Lincoln City, Indiana. The statue above is facing east—toward Washington, D.C. The statue was sculptured by David K. Rubins, head of John Herron Art School's sculpture department and an artist of international reputation, winner of the Prix de Rome and Paris Prize in Sculpture.

“A SAFE PLACE TO SAVE
OR BORROW MONEY SINCE 1890”
The story of Mariners' Church began in 1819 with the arrival in Detroit of Julia Anderson with her husband, Colonel Anderson, and her sister Charlotte Ann Taylor. It is of interest that Col. Anderson earlier commanded the artillery in defense of Detroit in the War of 1812.

 Appropriately, the Andersons and Miss Taylor arrived by the Walk-in-the-Water, the first steamer to ply the upper lakes. With money left by her sister, Julia Anderson's will instructed her administrators to build a stone church on Woodward Avenue at Woodbridge Street, the site of her former home. The word "stone" came to involve Mariners' in more of Detroit's business life than Mrs. Anderson may have intended. Even in 1849 stone churches were expensive buildings and the amount of money left was NOT sufficient to build and endow the church. Consequently, the first floor of the building was rental space and the church was on the second floor. Mariners' played host and landlord to two eminently respectable tenants: The Detroit Bank and the United-States Post Office. As commerce moved north, so did the tenants. In later years, Bob-Lo bound excursionists were halted on their way to the steamer by the peanut vendor's cheery whistle.

 In 1955 Mariners' made the headlines in national newspapers and magazines by being moved "en masse" 880 feet due east and relocated in Detroit's new multi-million dollar Civic Center. The site chosen for the relocation has a most appropriate history. The old Indian Council House originally occupied the site and was the building in which St. Paul's Episcopal Church (now the Cathedral) was founded, and where the first Episcopal services in Michigan were held.

The west entrance to the Church is from the Civic Center Park; the north entrance (Jefferson Avenue) is through the Rand’s Memorial Tower, the gift of William C. Rands, Jr., in memory of his parents. High in the tower is the Brotherhood Bell, gift of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scripps Booth. A copy of the inscription cast into the bell is on the west wall of the tower room.

In the Narthex are the log book and case. The plaque above the case is the introduction to the Log of Mariners’ by George Washington Stark (1884-1966), former Senior Warden of Mariners’ Church, Historiographer of the City of Detroit, and President of the Detroit Historical Commission. The log, case, and plaque are the gifts of the Historic Memorials Society in Detroit. The Log of Mariners’ contains the names of all who contributed to the restoration of the Church after its relocation in 1955 and the extensive program of further renovation in 1970.

Located in the gallery is the magnificent Helen Calder Memorial Organ, a gift of her husband Ralph and dedicated in February, 1966.

Above the Altar is the Rands Memorial Window. The Cross at the Altar is in memory of Sparkman Deats Foster, admiralty lawyer. The Rose window above the organ is the Browning Compass window which has the Four Evangelists at the major points. The other windows and additional memorials in the church are, upon examination, self-explanatory.

On the south side of the church is the American Flag, a copy of the “Star Spangled Banner”. Next to it is the flag of the City of Detroit. The three gold fleur-de-lis with the white background is a replica of the one carried by Cadillac. At the rear is the British flag of the series of 1760, the flag the British flew over Detroit.

From front to back on the Gospel (north) side are the flags of the Episcopal Church, the Diocese of Michigan, Mariners’ Church and the (old) Canadian Flag. The upper quadrant of Mariners’ flag is a Galilean fishing boat, while in the lower quadrant is the Christian symbol of hope, the anchor, upon which is superimposed the three crosses of Good Friday, a reminder that the first regular Lenten noonday services in America began in Old Mariners’ in 1877.

On March 11, 1971, the Michigan Committee for Historic Preservation joined with the Historic Preservation Advisory Council to place Old Mariners’ Church on the National Register of Historic Places.

MICROFILM READERS AT BURTON HISTORICAL COLLECTION

Mrs. Harold M. Hastings (Polly) is a past Regent and fifty year member of the Louisa St. Clair Chapter, Detroit, Michigan. Polly's mother, Grace Franks, was an early member of the Chapter and her family Michigan pioneers.

Mrs. Hastings is featured before the two motorized microfilm readers recently presented to the Detroit Public Library's Burton Historical Collection by the Chapter. These microfilm readers are in great demand for magnifying miniature print to readable size. The Chapter has also ordered the beginning of the Revolutionary Pension files to be used with these readers.

DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION MAGAZINE
PIETY HILL CHAPTER
Birmingham, Michigan

MRS. JOHN F. SAEFKE

Piety Hill Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution of Birmingham, Michigan presents its Regent, Mrs. John F. Saefke, third generation DAR. Her grandmother, Mrs. Charles F. Bathrick was a former State Regent and Vice President General and her aunt, Mrs. Carleton C. Patterson was the Organizing Regent of Piety Hill Chapter.

Piety Hill was organized with twelve members in 1935 and by its first anniversary had twenty-three members. Present membership is one hundred ninety-six (196) with one Life Member, five Fifty Year members and twelve Junior Members.

Piety Hill was the name given the property of the first settler by him, John Hunter in 1818 and the whole area became known as such until 1832. Some say it was so-named because the people were puritanical and pious (there were many churches on the Hill), in direct contrast to its surrounding neighbors...Detroit to the South and Pontiac to the North, considered so wicked it was called "Hell Hole." In 1832, when the townspeople could not agree on a name for this beautiful town on a Hill, a young man of eighteen placed a sign over the Hunter Foundry where he worked, reading "Birmingham." He said he came from Birmingham, England and that the Piety Hill area was so beautiful it reminded him of home. The name was adopted.

The Chapter gavel and sounding block in use today was presented to the Organizing Regent by the Vice Regent. It was hand-hewn by her husband from beams used in building a house and barn in 1825 from oak trees over 100 years old which were cut down to make way for the buildings.

For the past 22 years Piety Hill has held Antique Shows to raise money to further the aims and goals of the National organization...historical, educational and patriotic.

Chapter efforts have been successful in the week long flying of the American and Michigan Flags during Constitution Week (17 through 23 September) by the City of Birmingham.

A student loan scholarship fund has been established at a University nearby; Good Citizens are honored each year and we sponsor an American History Month essay contest...a Mobile Unit for Blood was given to the Detroit Center in 1944...at present we have volunteers at a nearby veteran's hospital...numerous plaques and grave markers have been placed...one at the site of the original Hunter House...Michigan Week finds our Chapter dispensing hospitality with cookies, coffee and DAR literature on Heritage Day in the foyer of a local department store.

Memorial Pines are given to the memory of each deceased member. These trees are planted by the State of Michigan to reforest burned out lands throughout the State.

The original Hunter House was recently presented to the City of Birmingham, which purchased land to move it onto a permanent park setting. We have contributed to its restoration, given an American flag to be flown there and plan an historical marker on it this year.

Michigan's immediate past State Regent, now a Vice President General, is a Piety Hill member, as is our present State Registrar, and we have members of our Chapter serving on National and State committee levels.

As Regent of Piety Hill I am proud of its accomplishments; and all of its members want to share it with all of you Daughters out there.

Old Bethpage village restoration, located in the center of Long Island, New York, is a re-created pre-Civil War farm community of over two dozen historic buildings. The village preserves and interprets the activities and traditions of rural America from household tasks to crafts such as blacksmithing and farming. It is part of an active program by the Nassau County Museum to increase awareness of our American heritage.

Regents’ Round Table, District X, Long Island, N.Y., presents Old Bethpage village restoration in honor of Mrs. Arthur E. Hauser, Past Director, District X.

Mrs. Carl Kietzman, National American Indian chairman, who was guest speaker at the breakfast.
Chairman of Col. John Robins' decoration committee for the breakfast was Mrs. Lamar Speake, who, working with Mrs. Alfred Stevens, Mrs. Charles Long, Miss Frances Price, and Mrs. Ollie Camp, had made the canoes, drums, teepees, and Indian dolls for table decorations. Place cards for the head table featured "Indian" faces made from walnut shells. Four of the hostesses appeared at the breakfast in 'Indian-type' dress. There their attractive costumes and clever decorations prompted many favorable comments. We hope the American Indian Breakfast will become traditional at Alabama State DAR meetings.—Helen Mabel Bowling McKnight.

DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION MAGAZINE
A Work That Preserves Our National Heritage and Belongs in Every American Library

The American Archives is easily the best available collection of documents relating to the events of the three tumultuous years immediately preceding the American Revolution. It offers a wealth of historical papers which constitute a minute documentary record of the formative years of our nation.

In addition to the correspondence of many of the Founding Fathers, such as Washington, Adams, Patrick Henry, and John Jay, this inexhaustible work contains a number of splendid facsimiles of important manuscripts, including one of the finest reproductions ever made of the Declaration of Independence.

Over 18,000 pages in length, the American Archives forms a priceless part of our heritage and an invaluable acquisition to any library, public or private.

"An invaluable storehouse of material.... Nowhere else can the scholar find so rich a quarry out of which to dig material."—Henry Steele Commager

"The American Archives are still indispensable to every student of the American Revolution."—Dictionary of American Biography

tence and development of the race depend.
The physiological and functional differences between men and women empower men to beget and women to bear children, who enter life in a state of utter helplessness and ignorance, and who must receive nurture, care, and training at the hands of adults, throughout their early years if they and the race are to survive, and if they are to grow mentally and spiritually. From time whereof the memory of mankind runneth not to the contrary, custom and law have imposed upon men the primary responsibility for providing a habitation and a livelihood for their wives and children to enable their wives to make the habitations homes, and to furnish nurture, care, and training to their children during their early years.

In this respect, custom and law reflect the wisdom embodied in the ancient proverb that God could not be everywhere, so he made mothers. The physiological and functional differences between men and women constitute the most important reality. Without them human life could not exist.

For this reason, any country which ignores these differences when it fashions its institutions and makes its laws is woefully lacking in rationality.

Our country has not thus far committed this grievous error. As a consequence, it has established by law the institutions of marriage, the home, and the family, and has adopted some laws making some rational distinctions between the respective rights and responsibilities of men and women to make these institutions contribute to the existence and advancement of the race.

It may be that times are changing and more and more women will leave the home to compete in the business and professional community. However, I would like to call the Senate's attention to the remarks of Professor Phil Kurland of the University of Chicago Law School on this point. He said:

"Times have changed in such a way that it may well be possible for the generation of women now coming to maturity, who had all the opportunities for education afforded to their male peers and who had an expectation of opportunities to put education to the same use as their male peers, to succeed in a competitive society in which all differences in legal rights between men and women were wiped out. There remains a very large part of the female population on whom the imposition of such a constitutional standard would be disastrous. There is no doubt that society permitted these women to come to maturity not as competitors with males but rather as the bearers and raisers of their children and the keepers of their homes. There are a multitude of women who still find fulfillment in this role. In the eyes of some, this may be unfortunate, but it is true. It cannot boast no label of equality now to treat the older generations as if they were their own children or grandchildren. Certainly the desire to open opportunities to some need not be bought at the price of removal of legal protections from others." . . .

DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION MAGAZINE
The membership of the DAR is many times greater than the 20,000 of the SAR, as you probably know. The Sons of the American Revolution refuses to believe that these figures indicate that American men are less patriotic than American women. We prefer to believe that our numbers are fewer because many eligibles are unaware of our existence.

The aims and principles of the SAR are quite identical to those of the DAR, so a stronger SAR automatically means an even stronger DAR. We therefore request that you bring the SAR to the attention of your qualified husbands and relatives. Descriptive material is available from the National Society, SAR, 2412 Mass. Ave., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20008.
A BOOK EVERY FAMILY NEEDS! It supplements the record pages of the Family Bible—68 pages for recording all IMPORTANT family events: Weddings, Births, Deaths, Church, School, Occupation, and Military Service Records, etc.; pages for brief records of 4 generations of ancestors and 5 of descendants, with 8 extra pages ruled for longer ancestral lines and other vital facts so hard to recall later. Ample space for data of very large families. It fills a long felt want and with your notations will be a priceless possession: vital information when needed.

Earn money for your DAR budget: box of 6 at $3.50 each PP; box of 12 at $3.35 each PP; box of 18 at $3.25 each PP. Sell at $4.50 each. Immediate shipment. Specify color.

AMERICAN (Washington, D.C.) had the grave of Isaac Carter in Augusta, Perry County, Mississippi, a Revolutionary War soldier, marked by John Rolfe Chapter of Hattiesburg, Mississippi, September 10, 1971. This is the first marker ever placed in Perry County.

Isaac Carter served in the North Carolina militia, 10th Regiment. His two brothers, Matthew and Thomas were also in the Revolutionary War. It is said that all three served in Gen. Francis Marion's campaign and were mustered out of the army from Sumter District. Isaac Carter moved to Mississippi, Perry County, in 1808.

The impressive ceremony was conducted by the Chapter Regent, Mrs. H. H. Bell, assisted by the Chaplains, Mrs. H. A. Haas, and Mrs. J. M. Frazier, immediate past Regent and now State Chaplain. Other state officers present were: Mrs. Max Pharr, Vice Regent; Mrs. Elbert Ward, C.A.R. Senior State President; and E. Alexander Currie Jr., SAR president.

After the grave ceremony, DAR members and about fifty Carter descendants were entertained at a tea given by Mrs. B. T. Robinson and her daughter Mrs. T. J. Dukes at the New Augusta home of Mrs. Robinson—Olivia F. Schmidt.
