Re-landscaping of the grounds at National Headquarters was a project proposed by the Administration of Mrs. Frederick Groves in 1959. In June of that year, the Executive Committee, with Mrs. Ashmead White as President General, approved the presented plan. Working in conjunction with the Conservation Committee (Mrs. John F. Baber, National Chairman), the Buildings and Grounds Committee (Mrs. George B. Hartman, National Chairman) was given the responsibility for the project.

The first phase of the three-year plan concentrated on the C Street side of the buildings. A presentation and dedication ceremony was held on April 21, 1960 to commemorate this completed phase.

The second phase, and the most ambitious, was the creation of the Memorial Garden within the walled enclosure on the D Street side of the National Headquarters complex. Designed as a living memorial to ALL DAR MEMBERS, the Garden has a fountain surrounded by assorted plants and shrubs. Dedication ceremonies were held on April 20, 1961.

DEAR MEMBERS:

For those of you who were unable to be with us at the 88th Continental Congress, I would like to share with you my Opening Night remarks:

As I look over this vast audience, I am keenly aware of two strong and compelling emotions—first, a deep sense of gratitude for this manifestation of your interest, loyalty and devotion to our National Society by your very presence here tonight; secondly, the knowledge that the prestige and respect that the DAR holds as the largest women’s patriotic and hereditary society in the world is unequaled.

I also would like to add that I am so pleased, as I have traveled to the western part of our country, that there are many of those members here who have never attended Congress before, and I bid them a very special welcome, and I greet you all very warmly.

The keynote of this Congress is “Building for Our Future”—not only the future of our Society but of our beloved country. Building for our future manifests itself in many ways, not only in physical building, but also, and more importantly, building good citizenship. This we strive to accomplish through all the important work of our many service committees.

Eighty-nine years ago eight far-visioned women formed a new society and received a charter as co-partners with our government and named it the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution. Today, over 207,000 members in more than 3,000 chapters are evidence of their faith. The Constitution of the United States of America is our pattern and our design in all respects harmonizes with its precepts, and our Society is a recognized force in teaching the value of the American way of life.

The thrust of this Administration is not only public relations—one of our top priorities—but it is also seeing that our young people in the Society are being given higher positions of responsibility. These young people need us and we most assuredly need them. They stand ready to serve their National Society in any capacity with loyalty and devotion.

The Children of the American Revolution, whom you will meet a little later this evening, are also bright rays of hope throughout their formative years in this organization and as they enter the ranks of the DAR. Their futures are being molded as they grow to maturity and join together with us as they leave the C.A.R. and enter the DAR and SAR.

All of us as devoted members have a deep and abiding faith in our National Society, and a responsibility to help strengthen it where needed, help make it more viable and help it grow in service to others to meet the ever-increasing challenges of today. Thus, this Administration’s motto of “Strength, Leadership and Growth.”

The work of the National Society is ever expanding and its potential is endless and could well be likened to a popular song, “How Deep is the Ocean, How High is the Sky.”

Tonight I ask you to think on these words of Frederick Brown Harris, Chaplain of the United States Senate in 1965: “For the radiant dream we call America, let us vow anew in our private lives and in our service to others on this and every day to live more nearly as we pray.”

A TAPESTRY OF SERVICE

As you know, the final theme of this Administration is “A Tapestry of Service.” This theme seems especially significant since our official seal, adopted in 1891, depicts a woman at a spinning wheel who could well be starting to weave a tapestry of the history of the National Society.

Each thread in this tapestry is represented by a faithful and devoted member who has given, or is giving, service to our National Society, and has done her part in achieving the outstanding accomplishments which have marked the growth of our beloved organization.

Think of the immensity of this tapestry with over 600,000 members represented, and envision the potential for it to become even larger as we pursue our service in the many years to come in the life and history yet to be woven.

Faithfully,

Mrs. George U. Baylies
President General, NSDAR
Address

BY KATHARINE GRAHAM
CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD,
The Washington Post Company

The 88th Continental Congress of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution, Wednesday, April 18, 1979

Let me start by confessing that until Mrs. Baylies called me last year, I'd never even dreamed of performing on your stage. But I'm delighted to be here. And it's fitting for me to follow the discussions of what social workers would call your outreach programs because a desire to reach out is what brings us together today.

For instance, I gather that many of you want to improve the public image of the DAR. I can sympathize with that because I am concerned about the public image of the press. And some of our concerns are similar. We sometimes feel caricatured and maligned. We know we're more diverse and less dogmatic than our critics think. We'd like to be universally liked, but would settle for having our purposes and problems better understood.

Many of you may think your image problems rest mainly with us—the press that refuses to portray you as you really are. That feeling is not unique; a business leader once told me that in every story he knew something about, he could find something we'd gotten wrong.

Well, we do make mistakes, and have probably made some in covering the DAR. Try as we may, and we try very hard, we can't escape from occasional errors of fact or emphasis. We sometimes recycle old news too long; it's probably time to stop bringing up Marian Anderson and leave that episode to the history books.

But we do try to describe you fairly—and believe me, that can be harder than troting out the stereotypes again.

For instance, looking back through our coverage of your last several conventions, I found many references to the DAR's "new image"—from 1972, when several members first wore pantsuits to the White House, through last year, when the Post story featured your first black member and the fact that one-third of your members are under 35.

Yet these stories also noted that your programs and policies have not changed much. That doesn't astound me; I don't assume, for instance, that every woman who wears pants is a supporter of ERA. But what should a reporter make of the blend of change and constancy in your ranks? What old factors and what new ones should she emphasize in painting a fair word-portrait of this large, dynamic group?

It's challenging. And the fact that reporters face such problems every day does not make them much easier. Because human judgment and perspective are so involved, different journalists are bound to see you differently. And arguments about the results can go on forever, because there is no one right answer and no dictator to impose a single version of events.

That can be very frustrating. But it's a frustration that you can thank your ancestors for—because it stems from the freedom of the press that they fought so hard to attain.

You may think this battle has succeeded all too well, so that the press has grown too strong and unmanageable. That is an image I'd love to dispel. In fact, what I want to suggest to you today is just the opposite—that the press, by and large, is more capable and less abusive of its freedom now than in the past, and that the real concern today should be the new and serious attacks that threaten to erode our liberty—and are already having some damaging effects.

Those are large assertions. To get some perspective, let me go back to basics—to the original meaning of freedom of the press.

This principle, which we think of as so established, was a revolutionary idea at the start. Indeed, it was subversive, immensely and perpetually threatening to authority. The colonial rulers apprehended this. Sir William...
Berkeley, governor of Virginia, wrote to Charles II in 1671:

I thank God, there are no free schools for printing ... for learning has brought disobedience, and heresy, and sects into the world, and printing has divulged them, and libels against the best government. God keep us from both.

But the Almighty did not oblige him. The idea that government could not suppress the truth gained currency as early as 1735. A New York weekly had printed impertinent news about the governor's personal life. Its printer, a German immigrant named John Peter Zenger, was arrested for publishing "many things tending to raise factions and tumults, among the people of this province, inflaming their minds with contempt of his majesty's government, and greatly disturbing the peace."

Zenger's reports may have done just that. But a jury acquitted him of libel because what he printed was true.

From then on, as the colonies got more restive, the printers grew more inflammatory and contemptuous of the crown. A good example was the Boston Gazette, run by some of Sam Adams' radical friends. At one point the Gazette revealed the military secret that British troops were about to be quartered in Boston. Then it got and printed some of the governor's private letters that attacked some leading citizens. That kicked up a storm that forced the governor to leave. The Gazette bid him bon voyage by calling him "a scourge to this province, a curse to North America, and a plague to the whole empire."

You might call that zealousy in a good cause. But the Tory papers were just as unrestrained. Moreover, the incentive did not stop at the end of the war. The opposition press subjected George Washington to a continual torrent of insults and abuse. Our first president's letters are full of complaints about the press. And in the first draft of his farewell address, Washington wrote that the press had "teemed with all the invective that disappointment, ignorance of the facts, and malicious falsehood would invent ..." But instead of responding to this "virulent abuse," he wrote, "as heretofore, I shall pass over them in utter silence."

Washington took that paragraph out of his final draft. But he did cancel most of his newspaper subscriptions when he retired.

In short, the founding fathers knew all the faces of the press—the most splendid and the most scurrilous. They knew what license the printers could take with liberty. They knew they were proclaiming freedom not just for truth, but also for rumors and lies; not just for eloquent debates about national governance, but also for the most reckless partisanship and vulgarity.

It is no wonder that John Adams wrote near the end of his life, "If there is ever to be an amelioration of the conditions of mankind, philosophers, theologians, legislators, politicians, and moralists will find that the regulation of the press is the most difficult, dangerous and important problem they have to resolve. Mankind cannot now be governed without it, nor at present with it."

That sums up a strain that runs throughout our history—the recognition that a free society must have a free press, coupled with hand-wringing about the excesses and frailties of that press.

Sometimes official patience has run out. In 1829, for instance, a woman publisher here was convicted as a common scold. But on the whole, for about two centuries, American authorities have confined themselves to grumbling about the press—and running against it from time to time.

The wisdom of this has been amply proved. I don't need to give you a long list of examples of how an independent, inquisitive press has served the country by checking government and uncovering injustices. And I think you will grant that the press today, for all its faults, is much more fair and self-disciplined than many of those early printers were.

Thus, it's startling to find us now under a new round of attacks that I regard as distinctive and ominous. The blows are coming not from private citizens or lawmakers, but from the courts—the very guardians of law and liberty. And they are striking not just at one paper or one story, but at the very foundations of the free press.

For the first time since the revolution, reporters and news companies are being forced to go to court, time and again, to defend their autonomy and ability to gather the news. For the first time, the courts—including the Supreme Court—are defining the First Amendment in ways that undermine our freedom and invite more litigation and laws.

Without getting bogged down in particular cases, let me mention four areas of concern and what's at stake for us—and for you.

First, there's a troubling trend toward secrecy in the courts. Various judges around the country are sealing records, hearing witnesses in private, closing pre-trial proceedings, and even trying to seal criminal trials. All this directly contradicts our commitment to open justice as a safeguard against injustices. It keeps us—and you—from finding out whether citizens are being treated fairly and how judges are using their power.

For the same reason, I'm concerned about the Supreme Court decision that local officials may limit our access to institutions such as jails. Again, you can bet that the places and records most likely to be closed are the ones that most deserve public scrutiny.

Second, the courts are attacking another basic element in news-gathering: our ability to keep some sources of information confidential. This issue has been well publicized because reporters have gone to jail for refusing to disclose a source. But it has been misunderstood—partly because we talk about it in misleading terms.

We speak of the reporter's privilege to keep certain information confidential. This issue has been well publicized because reporters have gone to jail for refusing to disclose a source. But it has been misunderstood—partly because we talk about it in misleading terms.

We speak of the reporter's privilege to keep certain things secret, as if it were a private claim for our profession. But this issue really involves two public interests or claims. One is any person's ability to tell us sensitive things—about a crime, a scandal, a social problem or whatever—without fearing that we will reveal his identity and expose him to harm. The second is the public's ability to find out about those hard and hidden matters that various forces want to suppress.

Obviously, if we cannot protect these sources, we—and you—won't be able to find out what they know. Some people are already shying away from us because they fear that the pressures are getting so great that reporters might yield.

Granted, there could be a conflict of public interests here, if the information withheld by a reporter was vital to law enforcement or to assuring a defendant a fair trial. But head-on clashes of that sort are very rare. Most of the demands on us are lawyers' fishing trips or attempts to get something that is peripheral or could be gained in some other way.

Some courts are quick to rule out unjustified requests. Others are not so wise. Last year the New Jersey courts ordered Myron Farber of The New York Times to turn over all of his notes on a murder case—without making the defense attorney justify that sweeping demand or specify what he was looking for.

Of course Farber refused. The defendant was acquitted anyway—but Farber spent 40 days in jail and the Times paid $285,000 in fines. You can imagine how that makes other news companies pause—or censor themselves, as the Sacramento Bee did last year by deciding not to print a story because it wasn’t worth the possible legal struggle and costs.

There’s an even more arbitrary way for officials to disrupt our news-gathering. Instead of demanding information, they could simply come and rummage through our files.

That’s the third problem on my list. It may sound like a pre-revolutionary grievance that the Bill of Rights resolved. But last year the Supreme Court ruled that police may get a warrant to search a newsroom for evidence bearing on a crime—a crime committed elsewhere, by somebody else.

This decision is so broad that it threatens every innocent person’s privacy. But it is doubly threatening for the press. I shudder to think what might have happened if the government had had that power during the Watergate years.

The administration and congressional leaders are now trying to bar such searches on the federal level by law. Even if they succeed, the decision will remain as an invitation to local authorities to meddle with the press—and as a frightening sign of this Supreme Court’s attitude.

There is one final problem that greatly concerns me now. It is in many ways the toughest—and, unlike the others, it has been precipitated by the press itself. This is the clash between two principles: the right of the press to publish freely, and the government’s power to protect national security. This encounter has been caused by the Progressive Magazine’s determination to print some sensitive material about how a hydrogen bomb works.

I have not read the article and don’t know what the writer, Howard Morland, has produced. I do know that the controversy would have been very different if the magazine had just printed his piece as speculation. Instead, the Progressive’s editors submitted the article to the government—in order to find out if it was accurate and to be sure it wasn’t classified. And to everyone’s sorrow, they learned that the government regards it as accurate, highly classified, and dangerous to publish because it could enable some nations to develop H-bombs more quickly than they otherwise might.

The government’s arguments have proved to be strong. They persuaded a federal judge in Wisconsin to take the unprecedented step of restraining the Progressive from publishing the article. The question is: what now? Should the magazine yield and agree not to publish the parts of the article to which the government objects? Or should it appeal the decision and ultimately seek a Supreme Court ruling on whether the press may be restrained even in this kind of case?

I believe that if a door is opened for advance judicial scrutiny of material to be published, that door would be impossible to close—and the press in the future would find itself restrained from publishing more and more for lesser and lesser cause. So I do not think an appeal, which would probably be lost, would serve the interests of a free press. Therefore, this may be—and I don’t say this lightly—a case in which the wisest course would be for the Progressive to declare that it has made its point, and retreat.

I have gone through these controversies at such length to illustrate three thoughts that I would like to leave with you. First: freedom of the press, like any other liberty, can never be secured once and for all. It must be advanced and defended constantly—with wisdom as well as vigilance.

Second: these are everyone’s problems and battles, not just those of the press. What is at stake is our ability to serve and sustain a free society.

Finally, the solutions are not always neat or comfortable. Sometimes there are no lasting or acceptable solutions at all. More often than we like, we may come out roughly where John Adams did, feeling that it is hard to function with or without the press. But that very lack of resolution should be encouraging, for it ensures that information, opinions, and arguments will keep flowing freely through society. And that, after all, is what our revolution was about.

DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION MAGAZINE
HIGHLIGHTS OF THE 88th CONTINENTAL CONGRESS: Speakers were: General Robert H. Barrow, Assistant Commandant of the Marine Corps, Opening Night; Senator Jake Garn of Utah, Tuesday evening; and Mrs. Katharine Graham, Chairman of the Board, The Washington Post Company, Wednesday morning. The Augustin G. Rudd Award presented to Kate Duncan Smith DAR School; the Army Nurse of the Year Award to Colonel Patricia M. Miller, Chief, Army Nurse Corps Career Activities, Office of the Surgeon General.

NATIONAL DAR GOOD CITIZEN 1979: For the first time a young man was selected for this honor: Alexander K. Mandych of Dover, New Hampshire. The New Hampshire State Legislature passed a resolution congratulating him "on this high honor" and commending him "for the splendid qualities of leadership, scholastic accomplishment and patriotism which he has demonstrated and for the distinct honor and prestige he has brought to the State of New Hampshire."

PRESIDENT GENERAL'S PROJECT: Wednesday evening, April 18, of Continental Congress, nine State Regents were presented with 100% certificates for participation by their States in this Project. They are to be congratulated. Some Chapters have been led to believe that this Project has been completed financially—THIS IS NOT SO! You are reminded that the eight new offices must be furnished and there are still many Chapters that have not contributed their share thus fulfilling one of the Honor Roll requirements.

FOLLOW UP TO PRESIDENT GENERAL'S EUROPEAN TRIP: Luncheon was given in honor of President General by Mrs. Maurice H. Bulpitt, State Regent of England, and members of Walter Hines Page Chapter. Among outstanding events was private tour of the American Embassy residence, as well as the American Embassy and seeing the changing of the Guard at Buckingham Palace. In Paris, she attended meeting and reception of the Rochambeau Chapter and installed newly elected officers of Louis XVI Chapter at its meeting and reception. Space does not permit a detailed account of her stay in France but she had a private tour of the residence of American Ambassador to France as well as many points of historical interest in both countries, finalizing her trip with a visit to Nice on the French Riviera.

PRESIDENT GENERAL'S CALENDAR: May 28, she presented the DAR award at the United States Air Force Academy; May 30-31, she attended the meeting of the Board of Trustees at Tamarac DAR School; June 5-7, she chaired the meetings of Executive Committee and Special Meeting of the National Board of Management.

PRESIDENT GENERAL'S NEW ADDRESS: After July 1, 1979, her address will be Embassy Square Apartment Hotel, 2000 N Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., 20006.

NEW EXECUTIVE GRANDCHILD: Johnathan Wilson Heddings, grandson of Mrs. John S. Biscoe, Treasurer General, was born May 31, 1979. Congratulations!

ART SHOW IN LOBBY OF CONSTITUTION HALL: The First Annual Leukemia Society of Greater Washington Art Show and Sale took place June 22-23. The President General serves as an Honorary Member of the Board.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA ROTC AWARDS: For the first time, ROTC medals were presented by the DAR at Howard University. The Army ROTC, March 30, to Cadet Captain Patricia Waddell; the Air Force ROTC, April 26, to Cadet Colonel Willie Green.
In the Declaration of Independence, Thomas Jefferson wrote: "... Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed." In The American's Creed, William Tyler Page used almost the same words about the United States of America: "... a government ... whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed." Between these two quotations from the eighteenth and twentieth centuries is a similar one from the nineteenth century. In the Americana Collection of the Daughters of the American Revolution at their headquarters in Washington is a letter dated April 25, 1884, written by Susan B. Anthony on National Woman Suffrage Association notepaper, and imprinted on the heading is this sentence—"Governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed: the ballot is consent." In 1920, Miss Anthony’s lifelong efforts to secure the right to vote for women culminated in the ratification of the 19th Amendment to the Constitution giving nationwide suffrage to women: "The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex.

The United States government will honor the famous suffragist on July 1, 1979, when it will issue between three hundred million and five hundred million new one dollar coins bearing the profile of Susan B. Anthony. This is the first time in our history that the likeness of a woman, other than a mythical figure, has been used on a circulating U. S. coin. Last summer, the respective chairmen of the House of Representatives and Senate Banking Committees invited the NSDAR to make a statement expressing the Society’s preference for the image to be put on the proposed new coin. The Society suggested Susan B. Anthony.

The new coin is smaller than a half dollar but larger than a quarter. The eleven-sided inner border on both sides of the coin will make the new dollar readily distinguishable by touch as well as sight. (The reverse side shows the symbolic eagle of the Apollo II landing on the Moon.)

The profile head of Miss Anthony on the new coin shows her hair parted in the center, combed down over the ears, and taken up loosely at the nape of the neck. (The same hairstyle appears in photographs taken at various times of her life.) A brooch pin and the collar of her dress are also shown. Miss Anthony usually had a red silk shawl around her shoulders. During her lifetime, this shawl was so closely identified with her that a story is told about it in connection with a banquet given in Washington in her honor. For this special occasion, Miss Anthony had a new white silk shawl. Upon seeing this, a member of the press sent her a note reading: "No red shawl, no publicity." A messenger was sent to fetch the red shawl.

The new coin is the most recent honor in a series of varied representations of Miss Anthony in marble, bronze, and even paper—on a U. S. postage stamp. It had been proposed that Miss Anthony be included with the sculptured likenesses of George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Abraham Lincoln and Theodore Roosevelt on the Mount Rushmore National Memorial when the famous sculptor, Gutzon Borglum, was working on the mountain. One reason why Congress failed to authorize this was probably because those depicted were all presidents of the United States! However, the sculptor also said that there was not enough solid rock on the mountain for any except the four figures then under way. Each colossal face is about sixty feet from chin to forehead.

Those who advocated including Miss Anthony felt that a woman deserved the honor as representing her sex among the four men. The pertinent facts about Susan B. Anthony, who became a legend in her own lifetime, are fairly well-known. One such fact, which illustrates the private side of her character, is in the DAR records. Miss Anthony filled out the pages of her “Application for Membership” in the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution in her own hand—the application was approved on October 18, 1898—and after giving her birthplace, the Town of Adams in Berkshire County,
NELL ANTHONY
of the DAR

Massachusetts, she added the date: February 15, 1820. When she joined the Society, application forms did not have a place for the birthdate: a lady’s age was considered her private affair. (Some forty years would pass before a DAR application form provided space for this information.) However, when Miss Anthony joined the Irondequoit Chapter of DAR in New York she was seventy-eight years old and apparently she was proud of her longevity.

On February 23, 1900, a few days after her eightieth birthday, Miss Anthony was the guest of the DAR at the Society’s Continental Congress. The following is excerpted from the record of that morning’s session.

PRESIDENT GENERAL [Mrs. Daniel Manning of New York]. We have present with us today on the stage Miss Susan B. Anthony and Mrs. [Carrie Chapman] Catt. If it is the wish of the house, we will set aside our regular order of business, and have the pleasure of listening to these ladies for a few moments. [Great applause].

MISS ANTHONY. President General and Daughters of the American Revolution: I am glad for the third time to be present with you, and this time I am with you as a full-fledged honorary [i.e., life] member of the Irondequoit Chapter in the city of Rochester, in my own home. [Applause.] And I consider it no slight honor to be thus honored in my own city. But, women, I want to give you, in my moment, a little bit of ancient history. I want to say to you that you are to-day occupying the very same advanced ground which we, who were so persecuted, ridiculed and maligned fifty years ago, demanded [applause], simply the privilege of public utterance. You must remember that at that time there were no associations of women of any sort—not even missionary associations of women. Women helped the men in these associations; women helped the men in the temperance and all of the other forms of associations. That is to say, they were members, and they collected the money, secured enough to pay the men who did the talking, [laughter] but the women themselves must not talk. . . . because [they] belong to an inferior and disfranchised class. . . . So I beg of you, women, study not only what your Revolutionary fathers did for the liberties of this country, but put yourselves in a position to be able to maintain the liberties for which they fought and which they established in this country. . . . And so I beg of you, women, think not only of the past, but think how you can make this Nation as much greater and grander in the future as it has been greater and grander in the past, than any other government on the face of the globe. [Applause.] Thank you, Madam Chairman, I will yield to Mrs. Catt.

PRESIDENT GENERAL. I have the pleasure of introducing to the Congress Mrs. Catt.

MISS ANTHONY. I want to just say to you that this young woman [Mrs. Catt] has just been elected, not to fill my chair, but to fill the chair of the National Woman’s Suffrage Association. Therefore, she is my successor, and stands where I have stood for the last fifty years. [Applause.]

Susan B. Anthony died on March 12, 1906. Her admonition to fellow DAR members to put themselves in a position to be able to maintain the liberties for which their Revolutionary fathers fought and which they established in this country was taken to heart by the Daughters of the American Revolution. Today, in a leaflet entitled Important DAR Policies there is this sentence: “The DAR is interested in preserving and maintaining our Constitutional Republic, and does urge its members individually, as good American citizens, to be informed and vote.”

Proceedings of the Continental Congress.
Before examining the details of the SALT II Treaty, it is important to discuss the demand of the treaty proponents that we consider it in isolation, apart from everything else going on in the world today. The treaty advocates ask that there be no linkage between SALT II and Soviet adventurism in other countries around the world or even the Russian use of Cuban surrogates in Africa. The treaty proponents want us to consider SALT II in an international vacuum.

This theory is not realistic in the present political or military context. We must look at SALT II as one facet of our overall relationship with the Soviet Union. We must examine how SALT II relates to the strategic military balance, to the potential of the giant Soviet nuclear arsenal, and to the unilateral military decisions made by the United States and by the U.S.S.R. over the last decade.

I guarantee that, when SALT II reaches the floor of the U.S. Senate, the debate will not be confined to the provisions and the technicalities of the treaty. We should have a full-scale debate on our foreign policy and our military policy, and we should have a thorough review of the vast military buildup the Soviet Union has been engaged in over the last ten years.

At the end of World War II, the United States had a greater military might than any country in the history of the world up until that time. We had more than twelve million men under arms. We were the only country that possessed the atomic bomb. We had the greatest navy in the world and a tremendous air force. Not one single country or any group of countries could have challenged us if we had chosen to conquer the world.

History shows that we did not choose to use our military superiority for world conquest or aggression. To the contrary, we disarmed rather rapidly. Within a year after 1945, our army, navy, and air force had drastically dwindled. We cut back military defense spending dramatically.

As a result of this unilateral disarmament, we were unprepared five years later in the Korean War. Our enemies took advantage of our disarmament.

The Defense Budget

From some sources we hear complaints that our military budget today is too large. It is in excess of $130 billion and that is, indeed, a great deal of money. But that is not a relevant statistic unless we examine our defense spending in terms of what kind of defense it is purchasing, and in comparison with what our enemies are spending.

Look at our defense budget as a percentage of our Gross National Product. Not only the fiscal 1980 budget, but the fiscal 1979 and 1978 budgets, are less than five percent of the total productive capability of the United States. Our defense budget has not been that low since our disarmament before the Korean War started. Our defense spending today, when viewed as a percentage of our total output, is less than we were spending in the years before Pearl Harbor.

Let's look at our defense spending as a percentage of our total federal budget. This year, the defense budget is less than 25 percent of the federal budget, the lowest level in several decades. Finally, we must consider the impact inflation has had on the military budget. The same number of dollars simply will not buy the numbers of planes, tanks, or weapons systems that they did only a few years ago. So our military budget is not large; it is dangerously small in terms of what kind of defense it will buy.
have been doing. It is estimated that the Soviets are outspending us 35 to 40 percent per year. Of course, those are only estimates because we have no way of knowing exactly what the U.S.S.R. does in its closed society. I visited the U.S.S.R. with some of my Senate colleagues earlier this year, and I've never been in any place so depressing and oppressive. The party line comes from everyone I talked with, without any deviation whatsoever.

It is important for Americans to realize that, even if the Soviets were spending the same amount of money on their defense budget that we are, they would still be outspending us almost two-to-one in terms of research and development and procurement of new weapons systems. This is because of our very expensive all-volunteer military. We must spend at least 55 cents out of every defense dollar for personnel—for salaries, fringe benefits, housing, retirement, re-enlistment bonuses, and educational programs. I am not criticizing any of these programs; I am simply reporting the facts as they exist.

The Soviets need spend only 25 cents out of every defense dollar for their personnel. So, even if the two superpowers had defense budgets equal in funds, the Soviets would still be outspending us almost two-to-one in strategic systems. And the Soviets have been doing this for years and are continuing to do so.

Each year, that additional amount spent on weapons is added to the additional amount spent the year before. No civilian organization can exert any control whatsoever on the demands of the military; what the generals and admirals want, they get. The Soviets keep spending more and more on research and development without limit. The Soviets keep adding new weapons systems without any budgetary limits whatsoever. That is all very different from the situation in the United States.

The Soviets know practically everything we do. I sat on the Armed Services Committee for two years and I watched the Soviet KGB agents sitting in on our hearings. We conduct open hearings in which we discuss the most detailed military plans as we approve line-item budgets. The Soviets know exactly how many planes and how many ships we are building. They know exactly what our five-year shipbuilding program is. The Soviets can also learn a great deal about our so-called “top-secret” briefings by reading the Washington Post and the New York Times.

Is There An Arms Race?

In the face of the tremendous Soviet military buildup, what has the United States done? Since the late 1950s, our military strategy has been based on the Triad—a three-legged defense consisting of land-based intercontinental ballistic missiles, long-range manned bombers, and sea-launched ballistic missiles. The theory was that the Soviets would not dare to attack us because they could not knock out all three legs at the same time. The Triad was a sound strategy and worked well for many years, but let's see what has been happening in recent years.

In 1967 the United States made a unilateral decision that we would not deploy more than 1,054 intercontinental ballistic missiles (1,000 Minuteman missiles, and 54 Titans). At that time, the Soviet Union had roughly 500 ICBMs. The United States stopped building more missiles after listening to the counsel of some like Paul Warnke who said, “If we want to stop the arms race, we must stop, and then the Soviets will follow suit.”

What happened is very interesting. It's now 1979. We held to our conviction and still have only 1,054 ICBMs. Most of them are still sitting in their silos getting older and needing rejuvenation. We closed down our Minuteman missile line production and now have no production team and no immediate capability to build missiles. Yet the Soviets now have more than 1,400 ICBMs.

The Soviets continue to operate four ICBM production lines. They have developed five new generations of missiles. All we have is a proposed new ICBM called the MX about which a decision has been delayed again and again. Even if our President decides to build the MX, it could not be deployed before 1985, and maybe later. The SALT process itself is used as an excuse for not continuing to have a strong U.S. strategic deterrent.

Look at what our country has done with the manned bomber leg of the Triad. We cancelled the B-1. Even apart from the great capabilities of the B-1—and I am completely convinced it should be built—shouldn't our President at least have asked the Soviets for something in return for our decision not to build it? Couldn't our President at least have said to the Soviets, “We will try to slow down the arms race by cancelling the B-1 if you will stop building your Backfire bomber?” But our President did not do that. The Soviets continue to build their Backfire bomber at the rate of two or three a month and eventually will have more than 400 deployed.

Despite what you hear, the Soviet Backfire does have the capability and the range on one-way trips to hit 80 percent of the United States and then land in Cuba. The Backfire can be refueled in the air in order to make round trips from the Soviet Union. I do not feel reassured when the State Department tells me that the Soviet Union has verbally assured us that the Backfire will not be used to hit the United States.

How naive can we Americans be? When we know positively that the Soviets have broken their written treaties over and over again, how in the world can we rely on a verbal promise that they will not refuel the Backfire bomber in the air?

Our B-52 cannot reach the Soviet Union without being refueled, either. Besides, the B-52 bomber is an old aircraft. It is developing wing problems. It needs reskinning and new engines. Many of the crews who are flying the B-52 were not born when it became operational. And no matter how much money we spend on a B-52, it cannot be turned into a B-1.

The B-52 simply does not have the capabilities of the B-1.

The third leg of the Triad is our submarine ballistic missile fleet. We are now starting to produce a new submarine called the Trident, but it will not be fully operational in any numbers until the mid to late 1980s. Before then, our present Polaris and Poseidon submarines will have reached the end of their service lives. We will be taking submarines and missile launchers out of service more rapidly than we are building Tridents.

If the Soviets continue their massive strategic buildup, they will acquire a war-winning capability. That means they would have the ability to wipe out most of our Minuteman missile force, thereby eliminating a great deal of our ability to retaliate. The Soviets know full well that the United States will never strike first.

Of course, the United States has always responded, as we did after Pearl Harbor. But let's not kid ourselves. In the nuclear-space age we wound this grievous inequality by SS -18s. Paul Warnke, the Administra-tration spokesman for SALT II, de-

The Treaty Provisions

Let us examine the provisions of the SALT II Treaty. There are many areas of grievous disadvantage to the United States. Let’s look at the Soviet SS-18, a gigantic missile with six to seven times the throw-weight of our Minute missile. Since the United States has no missiles anywhere near the size of the Soviet SS-18, the Administration asked the Soviets in 1979 to limit their force to 150 SS-18s. The Soviet SALT negotiators said no, they want to keep all 308. So the Administration compromised at 308. Don’t you think we should have gotten the Russians to split the difference? Or reduce their number by 10, or 15? No, we simply accepted their terms. Over and over again in the SALT II negotiations, the Administration accepted the Soviet numbers.

Under the terms of the SALT II Treaty, we also allow the Soviets to have ten warheads on each SS-18. Ten times 308 is 3,080 warheads in that one missile system. Each one of those warheads could potentially have the explosive power of one million tons of TNT equivalent. (The bombs dropped on Hiroshima and Nagasaki had only 17,000 tons of TNT equiv-and this vast number of 3,080
I would like to see an arms control agreement that makes deep cuts in the nuclear weapons of both sides. But it is not in the interests of the United States to approve this SALT II Treaty.
SALT II should be substantially amended or defeated by the U.S.
Senate.

In January 1979, Brezhnev told six
U.S. Senators, of which I was one, that, if the United States defeats the SALT II Treaty, we “would be sending both countries back to the ‘cold war’ days of the 1950s, but it would be far more serious and more dangerous.” That is simply untrue. We did not fall off the edge of the earth in June 1978 when SALT II was first supposed to be signed, or in October or in December.

The treaty proponents are now saying, “Don’t worry if SALT II has some bad features in it; we’ll fix those in SALT III.” That’s the same line
we heard about the defects in SALT
I. But those defects were never reedied and the Soviets exploited every possible loophole and poorly drafted provision.

The treaty advocates also argue that, if we defeat SALT II, we will injure the President’s ability to negotiate and conduct foreign policy. If that were true (which, of course, it is not), there would be no point in having a Senate: we could get along with a body that would go through the motions of rubber-stamping whatever the President did. This is not a matter of personalities, but of the institutions of the American constitutional republic. The U.S. Senate has the duty to “advise and consent” and has equal power with the President in the making of treaties.

Not only do I think that the rejection of SALT II would not injure the President’s ability to conduct foreign policy, I think it would enhance it.
Unfortunately, there is, at present, a perception that we will allow our-

ities and Verification

We showed our good faith in signand living up to SALT I, even though we could not verify compliance by the Soviets. We know that the Soviets repeatedly violated SALT
I with the SS-19, the anti-ballistic missile radars, SA-5 radar testing, ABM-X-3 mobile radars, and encryption of telemetry. Several Administrations have deliberately suppressed the violations of SALT I so that they would not injure prospects for SALT
II. The Soviets exploited every possible loophole in SALT I and thereby achieved strategic superiority, which is very useful as a political tool. Most countries gravitate to the side of the nation they perceive as the stronger.
Using this superiority, the Soviets are now casting the shadow of their power over many areas of the world: Angola,
Afganistan, Iran, Ethiopia, South
Yemen and Vietnam. Even Western

New Hampshire

Two beautiful spring-like days brought the daughters to the New Hampshire State Organization, NSDAR, 78th State Conference, March 28 and 29, 1979, at the Holiday Inn, Manchester, N. H.

Serving as hostess chapters were: Molly Stark Chapter, Mrs. Melvin E. Watts, Regent; Molly Reid Chapter, Mrs. Harland Brown, Regent; Colonel Samuel Ashley Chapter, Mrs. Louis G. Smith, Regent; Eunice Baldwin Chapter, Miss Thaida Gruenler, Regent; and Matthew Thornton Chapter, Mrs. Walter F. Jaquith, Regent.

The first session began Wednesday morning with the procession accompanied by the pianist, Mrs. Elliott Warner. The conference was opened by the State Regent, Mrs. Raymond F. Gerrish. Mrs. Edward G. Wood, State Chaplain, gave the invocation. Mrs. Carl A. Chase, State Flag Chairman, led the assembly in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. Mrs. Richmond Hoyt, State Americanism Chairman, led the American's Creed. The National Anthem was led by the State Vice Regent, Mrs. Kenneth G. Maybe. Miss Mary Louise Fernald, State Corresponding Secretary, read a message from the President General, Mrs. George Upham Baylies.

The State Regent introduced Mayor of the City of Manchester, Mr. Charles R. Stanton. Mr. Stanton welcomed the conference to the city and praised the activities and services of the DAR, particularly to the young people, and gave special tribute to Molly Stark Chapter of Manchester. The management of Holiday Inn also bid us welcome. The State Regent introduced the State Officers and distinguished guests. Among the distinguished guests were Mrs. Forrest Lange of Portsmouth, N. H., Past Curator General; Mrs. Joseph Tiberio, Massachusetts State Regent; and Mrs. Ruth Jackson, Connecticut State Regent.

The business session of the morning was devoted to the reading of reports of the state officers, the report of the finance committee, the first reading of the resolutions by the Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, Mrs. Jason C. Sawyer, and the reading of some reports from the State Committee Chairmen. Other reports from State Chairmen and Chapter Regents were continued over into the afternoon session.

New Hampshire's 50-year members were honored at the luncheon Wednesday noon, and each one presented with a yellow carnation. Mr. Charles Diversi, from the Office of Child Support Enforcement Services, Division of Welfare, was the luncheon speaker. He told about the functions of his office whose chief job was to obtain support from those responsible.

A Memorial Service was held at 4:00 p.m., under the direction of the State Chaplain; Mrs. Wood, and assisted by Mrs. Harold E. Johnson, Honorary State Regent.

The banquet Wednesday night honored the State DAR Good Citizens. They and their parents were introduced by Mrs. Kenneth G. Maybe, State Good Citizens Chairman. The three good citizens were: Alexander Mandych, first place, sponsored by Margery Sullivan Chapter; Deborah Clarke, second place, sponsored by Molly Aiken Chapter; and Ellen Chandler, third place, sponsored by Mary Butler Chapter.

An excellent group of lady barbershoppers called, "The Circle Singers" entertained us following the presentations made to the Good Citizens. Melvin E. Watts, curator at the Currier Gallery of Art in Manchester, discussed "Patriots and Processions" as the banquet speaker.

The American History Luncheon, Thursday noon, honored five of our young people. Mrs. Ronald L. Rush, State Chairman Student Loan and Scholarship Committee, introduced Miss Robin Ann Shaka, State Winner of the DAR College Scholarship.

Mrs. Wendell E. Pratt, State Chairman of American History Month, introduced the State Essay Winners: Robin Cranage, 5th Grade, sponsored by Anna Stickney Chapter; Christopher Frank, 6th Grade, sponsored by Capt. Josiah Crosby Chapter; David Thurber, 7th Grade, sponsored by Elise Cilley Chapter and Pam Gauthier, 8th Grade, sponsored by Exeter Chapter.

Mrs. Pratt proudly announced that the 7th and 8th Grade State Winners were also the winners in the Northeastern Division. (Since our State Conference, we have been notified that David Thurber, 7th Grade, has become a winner in the National Contest.) The students read their essays. Certificates and silver medals were presented to them by the State Regent.

The State Regent introduced the luncheon speaker, Mr. Richard Whittemore, Headmaster of Hillside School for Boys in Marlborough, Mass. The New Hampshire daughters help to support this DAR-approved school.

Miss Marjorie Pray and Mrs. Evans Edwards were elected to the Attic Commission at National Headquarters. The State Regent, Mrs. Gerrish, was endorsed as a candidate for Vice President General.

Mrs. Kurt Winters, Keene, N. H., issued the invitation to hold the Fall Conference September 12, 1979, at the Ramada Inn at Keene. The 78th State Spring Conference was adjourned with the singing of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."—Lucy C. Pratt.

Hostess Chapters were Captain John Joslin, Captain Job Knapp, Captain Samuel Wood and Boston Tea Party.

Distinguished guests were Mrs. John D. Milton, Honorary State Regent of Florida; Mrs. Richard Creedon, State Regent of Illinois; Miss Nannie l'Anson, State Regent of Maryland; Mrs. James Anderson, State Regent of Pennsylvania. Honorary Massachusetts State Regents present were Miss Gertrude Mac-
Peek, Mrs. George S. Tolman, III and Mrs. George C. Houser. The March 22 afternoon session was called to order by the State Regent following the Processional and Ritual. Reports were given by the State Officers and the C.A.R. State President. At a Tea and Reception music was rendered by Miss Sarah Russo, Flute and Mrs. Donald Ciocca, Piano.

An evening Conference Banquet preceded an Historical Fashion Show under direction of Mrs. Frederick E. Dick. State members were models.

Mrs. Anthony A. Barbara, State Chaplain, conducted an impressive service in loving remembrance of departed Daughters on Friday morning.

Awards and reports were given by District Directors and State Chairmen.

Events planned for benefit of Hillside School in Marlborough were a “Beefathon” and a “Strawberry Heaven.” Mrs. Gerald Creaser announced plans for a Strawberry Recipes Cook Book and a Festival on Hillside Day in June.

Mrs. Alvin R. Stafford, State Chairman, sponsored a Dish Garden Contest with prizes for outstanding gardens among those to be sent to Veterans’ Hospitals.

Luncheon Guest Speaker Mr. Anthony Athanas related his experiences as an Albanian immigrant. Stressing the work ethic he spoke of success being measured by obstacles surpassed.

Fifty-Year Members were honored by Mrs. Robert H. Lubker, Assistant State Treasurer, with special recognition to Seventy-Five Year Member Mrs. E. F. Barrett, who is 102 years old. Members of from fifty to sixty-six years included:

Mrs. Augustus Barton, Jr., Mrs. Ralph E. Crocker, Miss Jennie Holbrook, Mrs. C. Raymond Crook, Mrs. George F. Berry, Mrs. Herbert F. Perry, Miss Ruth Jacobs, Mrs. Eugene F. Fish, Miss Blanche Partridge, Mrs. Grace Quinn, Miss Helen Bullock, Mrs. William L. Mitchell, Miss Marion Decrow.

Mrs. William M. Burrows, State Chairman, read the Resolutions for adoption, preceding the Benediction and Retiring of Colors.—Elizabeth L. Paradise.

Indiana

The Seventy-eighth State Conference of the Indiana State Organization was held Oct. 2-4, 1978 at the Atkinson Hotel in Indianapolis, with Mrs. Richard O. Creedon, State Regent, presiding.

The highlight of the conference was the dedication of the restored herb garden and grape arbor at the home of President Benjamin Harrison and wife, Caroline Scott Harrison. The Indiana Daughters were honored to have Mrs. Raymond F. Fleck, Historian General, as speaker for the dedication. Following the dedication service, the State Chairmans Association hosted a reception in the Harrison Home in honor of Mrs. Fleck. Other out of state guests attending the conference were Mrs. Catherine C. Clark, State Regent Louisiana; Mrs. Gabriel O. Saavedra, State Regent Mexico; Mrs. Eldon A. Behr, State Regent Michigan and Mrs. Harry Schmidt, National Vice Chairman Junior Membership, East Central Division.

Honored Indiana Daughters attending were Mrs. Roscoe C. O’Byrne, Honorary President General; Mrs. Thomas Martin Egan, Vice President General; Honorary State Regents present were Mrs. Wayne M. Corey, Past Historian General; Mrs. John G. Biel, Past Vice President General; Mrs. John J. Schaler; Mrs. Maxwell M. Chapman, Past Vice President General; Mrs. Thomas Werner, Past Vice President General and Mrs. Floyd H. Grigsby.

Following the Tuesday morning Processional and ritualistic opening, the State Regent called for reports from the State Officers and State Chairmen. During the business session, Mrs. Richard O. Creedon was endorsed unanimously as candidate for Vice President General in the next National Election.

Activities through the conference included the Active Regents Club Luncheon, Junior Members Dinner, State Officer’s Club Dinner, Bus Reunion Breakfast, Junior Membership Luncheon, District Director’s Breakfast and American Indians Luncheon. Mr. Gary Wagoner from Bacone College was the speaker for the Tuesday Luncheon.

Mrs. Joseph A. Eskridge, State Chaplain, conducted the impressive Memorial Service Tuesday afternoon in memory of our departed members. She was assisted by the District Directors, Mrs. Ferrel C. Speer, Mrs. M. Hugh Miller and Mrs. Hubert R. Bruce.

The State Regent, Mrs. Richard O. Creedon, presided Tuesday evening at the former Banquet which was attended by many special guests and members. The program “Today C.A.R., tomorrow DAR” was presented by Miss Nancy Griffin, State President of the Indiana C.A.R. Following the Banquet, Mrs. M. Hugh Miller, Central District Director, and Chapter Regents from her District hosted a reception in honor of the distinguished guests.

The Business of the Conference continued through Wednesday afternoon. To close the meeting the assemblage sang “God Bless America” and “Blest be the Tie That Binds.” The colors were retired and the Seventy-eighth Indiana Daughters of the American Revolution State Conference was adjourned by the State Regent.—Phyllis Jamison.
OCOEE (Cleveland, Tennessee) has been busy the past year carrying out the Society’s objectives: historical, educational, and patriotic. On May 28, 1978 the chapter marked the grave site of Daniel Horton, Sr., Revolutionary soldier, buried at Horton’s Cemetery, in nearby McMinn County. Many members of the Horton family joined in the dedication, including three little girls of the eighth generation who participated in the ceremony.

When the chapter made awards to local winners in the American History Essay Contest and the high school seniors from four high schools who received good citizenship awards, it was thrilling to see, in the large audience of parents and teachers present, the pride and satisfaction shared by all.

Mrs. Frank T. Manly and Mrs. Herbert Carroll, members of Ocoee Chapter, are director and secretary, respectively, of Cherokee District, TSDAR. Mrs. Manly’s ballad, “A Ballad on Daniel Boone,” won honorable mention in the current Evelyn Cole Peters Poetry Contest. In 1977 her poem “Landmarks” won first place. Mrs. Harold Underhill, chapter delegate to Continental Congress, serves on the Credentials Committee. We assisted with the State Conference in Chattanooga in March.

We are working on Grandparent Forms, hoping to complete our part of this project soon. Continuing projects include help for our DAR schools, building the Genealogical File (vertical) at Cleveland Public Library, distributing Flag Codes to local grammar school students, gifts to veterans and nursing home patients. Mrs. E.L. Ross, Regent, presented a family history to the NSDAR Library. Programs have been good and well-attended, one of the most interesting being on American Heritage, which included a display of priceless quilts and handiwork. Mrs. Aubrey C. Gaskin was chairman. The chapter continues to add new members to the roll, and interest in DAR is growing.

MARIA JEFFERSON (St. Augustine, FL) the state’s second oldest DAR Chapter, in our nation’s Oldest City, sponsored two outstanding patriotic events in 1979. Both achieved generous radio and newspaper coverage, and both were open to the public. A Colonial Tea, honoring George Washington’s Birthday, was held during American History Month in the picturesque gardens of the historic pre-Revolutionary Llambias House. As our annual fund-raising activity, a nominal donation was requested for admission. Members in colonial costume greeted and served several hundred guests. A trio of Boy Scouts posted the Colors, and all joined in singing our National Anthem.

Our gifted vocalist member, Ina Joe Skinner, entertained with patriotic songs, accompanied by the melodious music of our antique chapter organ. A sales table, laden with Chapter donated articles and attended by costumed C. A. R. members of our Don Pedro Menendez Society, was flanked by a huge Disney-style plywood painted elephant, hand-crafted for the occasion by one of our members. Our “White Elephant” sale was a profitable and popular feature of this colorful event.

A Chapter first was our January Patriotic Luncheon featuring guest speaker Dr. John L. Grady, nationally acclaimed patriot, author and lecturer. The affair was held in the stately Flagler Room of the Ponce de Leon Lodge. Among the 170 guests privileged to hear Dr. Grady’s dynamic message were our State Vice Regent, Mrs. John Marshall Buckner, representatives of nine visiting DAR Chapters and many local civic organizations. This program effectively advanced public awareness of the high and worthy patriotic goals of our DAR.

GENERAL HENRY LEE (Lake Village, AR). Lucy Bagby Seale (Mrs. D. Walter), a forty-seven year member of the chapter, was named 1978 Woman of the Year in Lake Village at the Leides Night Banquet of the local Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. Seale was the sixth chapter member of General Henry Lee Chapter within the past six years to be so honored by the citizens in the towns of McGehee, Dermott or Lake Village, Arkansas.

Lucy was named “Woman of the Year” because of her many years of service in civic, study and patriotic organizations. She is a devout member of Emanuel Episcopal Church, and is a teacher of a Primary class. She has served as a member of the choir, as church secretary and served on the Vestry for many years.

At the presentation of the award, which was received for her by a friend because Mrs. Seale is very ill in a Greenville, Mississippi hospital, it was said that it was not qualifications or position this woman had, but “her heart and very being.” She has lived a dedicated life doing the little things nobody else thought of doing for others. She never expected praise or reward.

In General Henry Lee Chapter, Lucy Seale has served for years as secretary and as scrap book and press chairman. She never sought the limelight or honors, which probably explains why the only pictures to be found of her are one made when she was a beautiful young lady and another with a group of officers at the chapter’s fiftieth anniversary tea when one of us had to find her to get her in the picture.
TUSCARORA (Binghamton, N.Y.) was hostess at a joint luncheon meeting with the Binghamton Chapter Sons of the American Revolution at the Fountains Restaurant on February 17th. Eighty-one members, prospective members, and guests thoroughly enjoyed the NSDAR film "Home and Country."

Gladys B. Fiori (Mrs. James V.) received a standing ovation when Mr. Edward R. Meddaugh, Past President of the Binghamton Chapter SAR, presented her with the SAR Medal of Appreciation from the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution. The certificate reads: "Gladys B. Fiori, a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, has been awarded The SAR Medal of Appreciation in grateful recognition of her outstanding service to the Sons of the American Revolution."

Gladys is a Past Regent of Tuscarora Chapter, and is currently serving as a member of the New York State Resolutions Committee, and is New York State Chairman of the Friendly Fund Committee.—Genevieve P. Frost.

LYNCHBURG (Lynchburg, Virginia). Our 70th year has been a fine one: The birthday celebration began in May when we marked the grave of Robert Alexander II in Gladys, Virginia. Several members of his family joined the Lynchburg Chapter members for the service. The spirit of that lusty individual was hovering over us when a cloud burst forced us from the private cemetery to the drawing room of nearby "Shady Grove." This historic house was the home of a former regent, Mrs. H.H. Dotson. It had been built for Alexander Spottwood Henry, the son of Patrick Henry and his wife Pauline, the daughter of Dr. George Cabell, who had built "Point of Honor" in Lynchburg. "Point of Honor" was the birthplace of Mary Virginia Ellet Cabell, the only daughter of Dr. George Cabell, who had built "Point of Honor" in Lynchburg. Gladys B. Fiori, a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, has been awarded The SAR Medal of Appreciation in grateful recognition of her outstanding service to the Sons of the American Revolution."

We are now looking forward to the coming years to see the Past coming closer to the future—our best birthday present.

On April 14, 1910 the first motion was made to take up the work of marking the site of the first house in Lynchburg, Feryman's Cabin, erected by John Lynch in 1757. This endeavor required much work when a cloud burst forced us from the private cemetery to the drawing room of nearby "Shady Grove." This historic house was the home of a former regent, Mrs. H.H. Dotson. It had been built for Alexander Spottwood Henry, the son of Patrick Henry and his wife Pauline, the daughter of Dr. George Cabell, who had built "Point of Honor" in Lynchburg. "Point of Honor" was the birthplace of Mary Virginia Ellet Cabell, the only President Presiding of the NSDAR.

The flag pole, plaque and Insignia cost $1064.00. The school whose students come from six school districts and two counties is one of finest new vocational schools in Washington State. The project was activated by Mrs. Norroid S. Hazen, Flag of the U.S.A. Chairman, when she discovered the plans at the school for flag and pole had been deleted. The Elizabeth Ellington Chapter is a leader in its community for patriotic education and scholarships.

The DAR Insignia is implanted in the cement base with a bronze plaque of the donor chapter. The Flag was given by the Honorable "Norm" Dicks, US Representative, and has flown over the National Capitol.—Nell Hazen.

MARY ISHAN KEITH (Fort Worth, Texas). The 50-year Club in the State of Texas was organized at our Conference in El Paso on March 14, 1979, with the following officers elected: President—Mrs. Karl E. Wallace, Sr.; Vice-Pres.—Mrs. Bernie C. McCrea; Sec. Treasurer—Miss Katherine Reynolds. As each member registered she was pinned with a gold ribbon in recognition of her GOLD Status. Mrs. Wallace welcomed the members and guests. Mrs. Robert Lacey Jackson, Chaplain General, gave the invocation, and blessed the meeting.

MISS MULLINS was elected Honorary State President of the Texas 50-Year Club in recognition of her 60-years membership.

The highlight of the delightful occasion were the 37 unique handmade dolls created by a committee from the Rebecca Stoddert Chapter of El Paso, led by Mrs. Owen Vowell, Chairman, and her committee. Each of the committee designed and executed her own creation. All officers and distinguished guests were presented a doll whose name was printed on the bottom and the name of the creator. Mrs. George U. Bayles, President General, was delayed and could not attend the breakfast but Mrs. Vowell had a special doll for her which was presented later at the morning session of the conference.

It was a wonderful display of imagination and talent on the part of these gracious ladies. To them and to Mrs. William Burgett, Chairman and Mrs. Wallace H. Brucker, Co-Chairman of the Conference, we give our deep thanks and appreciation.

WILLIAM DAWES (Rockville Centre, N.Y.) celebrated American History month throughout February.

A month long exhibit of artifacts, which illustrated and celebrated the changing American way of life, was displayed in the public library.

Mr. Edward J. Smits, Director of the Nassau County Museum, speaker at the monthly meeting, gave a review illustrated with slides showing the rich diversity of Architectural styles found in Nassau County from the Colonial era to the present day.

William Dawes participated with ten other chapters in a very well attended Memorial Service which was held in a church that has been declared a Historical Landmark. Two junior members were flag bearers and a coffee hour followed the service.
ALEXANDER MACOMB (Mount Clemens, MI) presented two fifty-year pins this last year. Mrs. Carolyn Cross received hers in May and in November one was pinned on Mrs. Pearson McWethy.

This year has seen the completion of an interesting project begun under Mrs. C. Bernard McGhee, past Regent, and completed when Mrs. H. Amesbury Powell, Regent, accepted the deed to the Cannon Family Burying Ground in Macomb County.

The 0.996 acre terraced plot contains a large central monument and is surrounded by a hand-carved one hundred year old picket fence, still well preserved. It was the scene of impressive ceremonies in 1928, when the General Richardson Chapter, assisted by members of Alexander Macomb, Fort Pontchartrain, and Louisa St. Clair Chapters, erected a monument and plaque at the gravesite of a “Real Daughter,” Mary Fuller Cannon, a Michigan pioneer whose father and grandfather fought in the battle of Bunker Hill.

In 1976 Mrs. Milton Penzie was contacted by the Cannon family, who asked Alexander Macomb Chapter to accept responsibility for the perpetual care of the cemetery. After obtaining permission from the President General to proceed, a committee headed by Mrs. Edward Wiatr and including Mrs. Pearson McWethy, Mrs. Frederick Soule, and Mrs. Clarence Vernier, began work on the legal and financial negotiations. Their petition to the State History Department resulted in the cemetery’s being placed on the Michigan Cultural Resources List. Legal transactions included a new Trust Agreement naming the Chapter as Trustee, and a court order transferring the Trust Fund to a Mount Clemens bank.

In 1948 Irving Cannon, octogenarian caretaker, asked, “Who will give “God’s Acre” loving care when I am gone?” In 1979 the answer is—the Alexander Macomb Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution.

KUILKA (Shelbyville, Illinois) dedicated a bronze plaque, mounted on the Courthouse, honoring Revolutionary War Soldiers known to be buried in Shelby County. The public dedication was on Veteran’s Day. Patriotic music by members of Shelbyville High School Band, under the direction of Mr. Marvin Cobmeyer, immediately preceded the “Presentation of Colors” by American Legion Roy Vanderpool Post #81 Color Guard. While church bells were heard ringing in the distance the traditional “Moment of Silence” at eleven o’clock was observed and invocation was offered by the Reverend Robert Weathers, minister of the Nazarene Church. Kaskaskia Society, Children of the American Revolution, Katy Turner, President, led the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, followed by the National Anthem. Chapter Regent, Mrs. J. L. McCain, welcomed those in attendance and presided at the ceremony of dedication by Kuilka members with Mrs. Philip L. Turner, Sr., Chaplain. Accepting the plaque, Sheriff Robert Collins responded on behalf of Shelby County. The program concluded with benediction by Lantz Turner, C. A. R. Chaplain, and the “Retiring of Colors.”

The soldiers named on the plaque are ELIJAH BIGGS, JOHN JENKINS, and OBADIAH WADE, all buried in Wade Copeland Cemetery, Richland Township; JOHN COCHRAN, Cochran Cemetery, Ash Grove Township; and ISAAC WAGONNER, Whitfield Cemetery, Whitley Township, now in Moultrie County—this area was Shelby County when he died and Kuilka Chapter had placed a Revolutionary Soldier’s plaque on his headstone some years ago.

Along with honoring these Revolutionary War Veterans, and because these cemeteries are not now located along frequently traveled highways, we hope this project will prove to be a service to the public as interest in patriotic, historic, and educational research continues throughout the country.

GREYSOLON du LHUT (Duluth, Minnesota) was organized October 19, 1895, so the 83rd anniversary of its founding was celebrated at the October 1978 meeting. Members especially honored were a former Regent and member of 65 years in DAR, Margaret G. (Mrs. E. M.) Gaylord, and 50-year members, Harriet M. (Mrs. H. J.) Coleman, a former Regent of Mesabe Chapter, and Maud A. (Mrs. Victor) Holman, a former Regent of Claude Allouez Chapter.

Outstanding accomplishments through the years include various markers in the vicinity, and the beautiful Tiffany stained glass window in the Public Library, depicting the landing of Daniel de Greysolon Sieur du Lhut on June 27, 1679. Greysolon du Lhut Chapter is named after this Captain of the famous Royal Guard, whose commander was Louis XIV, called “King of the Voyageurs,” for his diplomatic firmness with both Indian and white men, who both trusted and respected him. A marker was placed by our Chapter where he crossed “Little Portage,” between Lake Superior and St. Louis Bay, almost exactly the location of Duluth Ship Canal. The city of Duluth honors this fine man, after whom the city is named, with the Sieur du Lhut Tricentennial.

At the close of Constitution Week, a Braille Flag was presented to the Duluth Lighthouse for the Blind Open House and Dedication Ceremony, by Miss Laura Bardon, past Regent and Mrs. Maude Gibson. Mrs. Gibson was later interviewed about the subject over a Duluth radio station.

Greysolon du Lhut Chapter continues activities on NSDAR and state levels including: Receptions for New Citizens, led by Mrs. Margaret Swanberg; the Good Citizen Programs in Duluth High Schools jointly with the Daughters of Liberty Chapter.

Continuing the inspiration of Daniel de Greysolon Sieur du Lhut and other early voyageurs, our Chapter held a meeting with a luncheon served by a contributing church group, and a presentation and tour in the Seafarer’s Mission Complex in Duluth.—Maude Phelps.

HERITAGE OF FREEDOM, (Houston, Texas). The 8th and 9th grade history students of Second Baptist School, Houston, Texas, and their teachers, Miss Doris Herrin, combined efforts to make American History Month truly memorable for both their school and Heritage of Freedom Chapter. Pictured are (1. to r.): Miss Herrin, Patrick Fitzgerald (William B. Travis), Craig Forrester (Thomas Jefferson) Kerri Leer (Betsy Ross) and Grand Kennedy (Francis Scott Key).

The play, a multi-media presentation, was written and directed by Miss Herrin, a member of Heritage of Freedom, and given before the student body at our February meeting. A reception followed which was given by the students for the members of our chapter!

The presentation made American History Month a very special time for all who saw, as well as participated in it.

COLONEL JAMES McCall (Washington, D.C.). Among the highlights of the 78th Annual State Conference of the District of Columbia State Society (March 12-13) was the Awards Ceremony on the second day of the Conference.

The DAR Good Citizens Committee honored six high school seniors who were accompanied by members of their families and faculty members. They were presented Good Citizen pins and Certificates of Citizenship by Mrs. Arthur Sanders, State Chairman, DAR Good Citizens. The winners honored were: Miss Denise Ellen Roach, Georgtown Visitation Preparatory School—First Place; Mr. Timothy Gerard Givens, St. Johns College High School—Second Place; Miss Patricia de Ferrari, Immaculata Preparatory School—Third Place; Miss Robin Denise Lancaster, St. Cecelia’s Academy; Miss Valerie Lynn Swain, Immaculate Conception Academy; and Miss Karen Lorraine Bowie, St. Anthony High School.

A letter received by the Good Citizens Committee State Chairman from the Principal of one of the participating schools, after State Conference stated in part: “Thank you so much for inviting us each year and giving a bond to our school winner. I know what this means to the students because I, too, was awarded the DAR Medal when I was in High School. Thank you for all you do for the youth of Today.”

SAVANNAH (Savannah, Georgia). For our annual National Defense Program, the chapter took great pleasure in accepting the invitation of Colonel Lee Tigh, Commander Division Support Command, at Hunter Army Air Force Base (in Savannah, Georgia) to meet at Hunter and take a guided tour of this Military Base.

We met in the 24th Infantry Division Support Command Dining Facilities. Col. Tigh was introduced, after which he addressed our group. As Col. Tigh was called away, the Officers who assisted him then took us on a tour of the barracks; after which we boarded a bus and saw part of the extensive airfield.

Here we saw different types of aircraft and were allowed to board and examine one of the large transport planes and the Commander’s personal helicopter. It was interesting to us to learn that the enormous transport was to leave the next day with men and supplies for a training mission away from the United States.

We left the planes and rejoined Col. Tigh where the “Rangers” were in combat training. We stopped briefly to watch these soldiers in simulated hand to hand fighting. From observation, we feel that if the enemy should ever encounter one of these men we are confident that our Country would be well defended.

This was indeed a most informative, educational, and rewarding experience for the large group who attended and it was certainly a highlight of our programs for the year.—Mahla Wilson Lee.

BORDERLAND (Fayette County, WV) observed its 50th anniversary at a luncheon, at which time three of the charter members (still active in the chapter) were honored.

MATINECOCK (Flushing, NY). In the autumn the chapter’s American History Month Essay Contest Chairman, Miss Mary Bromham, visited 21 schools in the Flushing, Bayside, Whitestone area, left photostat copies of the “Rules of the Contest” sent to us by National Headquarters. The topic this year was “Travel in the Colonies” and the students responded to the subject with varied and interesting accounts. The schools actually participating numbered twelve, and the results were in the hands of the judges (Miss Wilmot, Miss Kingman, Miss Bromham), by January 10th. First prize and second prize winners at each grade level, 5th through 8th, were finally selected. All first prize essays were forwarded to the state chairman for further consideration in the nation-wide contest.

The principals of the schools, and the children together with their parents and other family members, were invited to luncheon at the Bowne Street Community Church Hall on February 9th. They came in considerable numbers, including grandparents and some fathers who had “taken the day off from work” to see their children honored. Two principals also took time from their busy schedules to attend. The tea committee had provided an abundance of delicious food for the informal luncheon.

Don Thompson, Superintendent of Washington Birthplace National Monument, welcomed the guests.

An honor guard from Boy Scout Troop 255 assisted in the wreath laying ceremony. Scout first class George Townsend was bearer of the American flag, scout second class Bobby Coffey was bearer of the Troop Insignia flag. Senior patrol leader John Gouldman presented the colors. Scouts Richard Headley and Robert Townsend formed the rest of the guard. Scoutmaster Gene Gouldman and assistant scoutmaster Carl Lee Willett led the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag.

DAR American history essay winners were presented medals and awards.

CHANTILLY (Montross, Virginia). Each year the chapter honors the birthday of the first president of the United States, George Washington, by placing a wreath at the monument at the entrance to Wakefield Plantation where George Washington was born February 22, 1732.

Sometimes there is a snowstorm, sometimes rain or mist, and at other times it is cold, clear and sunny. This year the ceremony took place in a blinding snowstorm.

Mrs. Howard J. Schleireth, Regent of Chantilly Chapter, and Mrs. Robert Walker, Chairman for American History Month, placed the wreath at the foot of the monument. Mrs. William Hutt, Chaplain, gave the invocation prayer, and Mr.

Mrs. Davis, the Regent, opened the luncheon meeting by asking the group to rise and remain standing during the invocation led by the Chapter Chaplain, Mrs. Frank Dessert, and the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and the American's Creed led by the Flag Chairman, Mrs. Charles W. Parrott.

Mrs. Jonathan D. Hawkins, Program Chairman, introduced Dr. Thomas Lane, Minister of Music at Bellevue Baptist Church, who presented a program of patriotic songs. His accompanist was Mr. Larry Luton, pianist.

Mrs. Allen D. O'Brien presented the featured speaker, Mrs. Richard D. Shelby, First Vice President General, whose subject was "America the Beautiful."

Following the inspirational address by Mrs. Shelby, the Chaplain dismissed the group with prayer. —Robbie Hawkins.

ONEONTA (Oneonta, New York). As a chapter in a community sporting two colleges, it comes naturally that Oneonta Chapter should have a healthy interest in DAR schools. As these schools are too far away for most members to visit, the program committee decided to do something about "bringing the mountain to Mahomet." Richard A. Whittemore, headmaster of Hillside School for Boys at Marlborough, Mass., readily assented to Regent Edna Tripp's request to bring the Hillside story to Oneonta. In January he and his wife Alice, also a DAR member, arrived in Oneonta despite frigid weather.

In addition to a vivid description of the Hillside concept of education, Mr. Whittemore showed slides of the boys engaged in the many activities of the school, after which there was an active question and answer period.

Traditional learning techniques in a structured environment are furnished by a small faculty to about 60 boys in grades 3 through 8 on the 300 acre farm-campus. The school cooperates with the local YMCA in a summer camp program on the school campus.

Boys who have not done well in their past school environments or who are from bad home situations are admitted to the school according to need, regardless of ability to pay. The quality of education at Hillside is such that some boys are pushed ahead one or two years when they reach high school, and many have gone to college with special grants from interested individuals or foundations. In order that each boy may feel good about himself, everyone has an equal chance to participate in all activities, and each has his daily chore to perform, ranging from cleanup jobs to farm work.

The Daughters of the American Revolution began contributing to Hillside support in 1925 and is still the major contributor. In these inflationary times, more support is constantly needed. Oneonta Chapter members left the meeting firmly resolved to give additional help to this worthy cause. —Mary K. Witherbee.

ABRAHAM CORYELL (Vinita, Oklahoma) climaxed American History Month by presenting Medals of Honor to two outstanding Vinita citizens at the February meeting of the Eastern Trails Historical Society. The criteria for presentation of the medal is outstanding community leadership and service, trustworthiness, and patriotism.

Mrs. Annabel Southern is current president of the Eastern Trails Historical Society and took the lead in planning one of the four outstanding Oklahoma observances of National Historical Preservation Week in June, 1978. She was Bicentennial Chairman for Craig County, Oklahoma, spending five years planning and carrying out the observance. Events were held which appealed to all types of citizens, one of the events being a Community Church service in the park, which continues being held every August. She kept comprehensive scrapbooks about the Bicentennial observances and has presented them to the Library-Museum Archives.

O.B. Campbell, former "Vinita Daily Journal" newspaper editor, wrote a history, Vinita I.T. in observance of the town's centennial in 1971. Proceeds were given to the Chamber of Commerce to be used for the city's observance of the centennial. Since that time two other books, Mission To The Cherokees (Dwight Mission) and Tales They Told have been published and the proceeds given to the Oklahoma Presbyterian Men's organization and to the Eastern Trails Historical Society. Mr. Campbell was the prime mover in the establishment of the Eastern Trails Museum and Historical Society. He has collected personal histories of area residents, communities, and businesses, and regularly publishes historical articles in the Vinita and state newspapers.

Officers presenting the Medals of Honor to the honorees were Mrs. H.R. Nix, Regent, Mrs. C.W. Jenkins, Vice Regent, and Miss Etta Lee Stevens, Chaplain of Abraham Coryell Chapter. An honored guest at the presentation was Mrs. F.E. Dunn of Cleveland, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State Chapter's Green Country District Director.

MARY WASHINGTON (Washington, D.C.) held its National Defense Luncheon in the Banquet Room of NSDAR Headquarters on Tuesday, November 14th, 1978, with Miss Dorothy Vernon Dillion, Regent, presiding. A buffet was served, and the tables and the room were beautifully decorated with fall flowers and foliage.

The guest speaker was Major General George J. Keegan, Jr., USAF (Ret.). The General had been featured speaker at the 86th Continental Congress in 1977, when he received a standing ovation following his address.

The Chapter was honored to have as its guests the D.C. State Regent, Miss Alice H. Wilson, and some of the State Officers and Committee Chairmen, and a number of the Honorary Stage Regents, as well as the President of the D.C. Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, Mr. Timothy Bennett, the 2nd Vice President, Admiral Frank Mitchell, and the immediate past President, Mr. Peter A. Dixon, and members.

Sponsoring the National Defense Luncheon was Mrs. John G. Reading, Vice Regent and National Defense Chairman of the Mary Washington Chapter. Participating in the program were the State Chairman of National Defense, Mrs. Francis B. Merkle, and Vice Chairman, Mrs. E. Morgan Pryse. Defense literature was available for distribution.

The event was an outstanding one for the Mary Washington Chapter.

PITTSBURGH (Pennsylvania). On Tuesday, October 24, 1978, members of the immediate past President, Mr. Peter A. Dixon, and members of the Mary Washington Chapter were gratified to be present at the replacement and re-dedication of the Henry Heth tablet which had been removed from the Highland Park area where it had been dedicated in 1914; it is hoped that the new location may make it more accessible to public viewers. The tablet was removed and replaced through the courtesy of the Pittsburgh Parks and Recreation Department.

The ceremony to dedicate the new park, located at Heth and Hampton Streets in the Morningside section, was very meaningful, and included the salute to the Flag of the United States of America, Invocation, and music by St. Vincent Band. After an address by Mayor of Pittsburgh, Richard J. Caliguiri, and responses by other members of the Department, the Daughters were introduced. Following the dedication and benediction, music by the school band concluded the program.

The Henry Heth tablet reads thus:

In memory of Henry Heth of Winchester,
Virginia
Captain of an Independent Company for service at Fort Pitt and on the Frontier, from October, 1777, to January, 1782, whose estate covered 400 acres of land between this point and East Liberty called Heth’s Delight.

This tablet dedicated by the Pittsburgh Chapter DAR 1974

COLONEL THEUNIS DEY (Midland, Texas). The Valentine theme was used for the February meeting of the chapter when husbands and friends of members were guests at a dinner held in the Midland Country Club. The occasion made the setting for the presentation of a “surprise Valentine,” the Medal of Honor of the National Society, to one of the husbands. This high award was bestowed on John P. Butler for the part he has played during more than fifty years in building the history of the outstanding growth of the fabulous Permian Basin petroleum industry and its related cultural and civic benefits. The Chapter Regent, Mrs. Walter C. Hubbard, III, was more than officially affected by this presentation as her close association with the Butlers extends back to her college days when she was a classmate of the Butlers’ daughter, Jane, at Goucher College, Baltimore.

From the time “John P.” arrived in Midland in 1927 to take a bank teller’s position in the First National Bank of Midland to the present the recipient of the high award has taken a constant active part in promoting development, such as: charter member of the first permanent mission-parish of the Episcopal Church; Lions Club; hospital board; Permian Basin Petroleum Museum, Library and Hall of Fame; served terms as President of Chamber of Commerce; Mayor Pro-Tem, City Council—and too many other activities to list.

His interest in the National and State Societies, DAR, has been of long duration. His wife has been a member almost fifty years and was Organizing Regent of the Colonel Theunis Dey Chapter in 1966. There were 28 Organizing Members (as a second Midland Chapter) and now the membership has grown to 62. The loyal support of DAR projects generously given over the years was a part of the contributions to the community and country that were listed as recommendations for the Medal of Honor.

RHEA-CRAIG (Sweetwater, Tennessee) gave special recognition to three “senior” members, Mrs. C. L. Clark, Mrs. O. K. Jones, and Mrs. E. B. Heiskell, on June 3, 1979.

The chapter was organized and confirmed on June 3, 1931 at a luncheon given by Mrs. C. L. Clark. Due to the interest and efforts of Mrs. Clark, Organizing Regent, the chapter name, Rhea-Craig, was selected to honor two of her ancestors.

These ladies have continued in the leadership of the chapter and devotion to the objectives of DAR. Rhea-Craig Chapter feels that it is uniquely honored by their lives of service and wishes to pay a special tribute of appreciation to them.

COLONEL AARON OGDEN (Garden City, NY), The 50th Anniversary of the Chapter was observed with a gala luncheon for 124 members and guests in the Cherry Valley Club.

The Regent, Mrs. Montague S. Burgess, presided at the festivities.

Highlights of the Chapter’s 50 years of Community Service were presented by Mrs. Ralph A. Musil, Chairman Good Citizens Committee, who compiled historical data on the Chapter. A bound copy was given to each person attending the luncheon. Highlights were the Chapter visits to Ellis Island to help immigrants with Americanization studies; Chapter serving USO Club suppers in Hempstead under direction of Mrs. Kenneth C. Rich mond, still a Chapter member; annual recognition of Good Citizens from local and neighboring High Schools; and establishment of a Genealogical and Patriot’s Shelf in the Garden City Public Library.

Special recognition was accorded Mrs. Dow, Charter Member, whose daughter, Mrs. Robert T. Deane, and granddaughter, Miss Sandra Deane, members from Allison Park, Pennsylvania, attended the celebration. Also given recognition were the Chapter’s 50-year members: Mrs. Willard F. Van Riper, Mrs. Claude G. Williams and Mrs. Harry M. Wingle.

At the conclusion of Mrs. Tapp’s address in which she emphasized the importance of increased DAR membership and the success of the DAR-owned schools, Mrs. Burgess presented the State Regent with a check of $300, a gift of the Chapter toward the Reception Room of the Jeannette Osborn Baylies Home Economics Building at the Kate Duncan Smith DAR School at Grant, Alabama which was established in 1924. This room is the New York State Project honoring Mrs. Tapp.

Report of President General

The President General's official 1979 Spring Tour of State Conferences was to have included fourteen States, but an unscheduled snow storm forced her to abandon plans to attend the Maryland State Conference in Pikeville February 19-20, Miss Nannie Armistead l'Anson, State Regent. February 19 Washington experienced the worst storm it had had in twenty years. However, the President General was able to leave the City on the 21st for Mexico City to attend the Mexico DAR State Conference, Mrs. Gabriel O. Saavedra, State Regent.

February 26-28, the Kentucky State Conference was held in Lexington at the Hilton Inn, Mrs. Thomas Burchett, State Regent.

March 1-3, the Illinois State Conference was held in Chicago at the Drake Hotel, Mrs. Roland C. White, State Regent.

March 4-7, the Oklahoma State Conference was held in Oklahoma City at the Lincoln Plaza Inn, Mrs. Oather E. Van Meter, State Regent. Prior to the beginning of the State Conference it was a special treat for the President General to attend church services at Bacone College and to have a tour of the campus. She spoke briefly to the Oklahoma Legislature on the DAR and was presented with a Citation.

March 7-10, the Louisiana State Conference was held in Baton Rouge at the Sheraton Hotel, Mrs. Catherine Clem Clark, State Regent.

March 11-13, the New Mexico State Conference was held in Tucumcari at the PowPow Motel, Mrs. Margaretta Lotti Bodwell, State Regent.

March 14-15, the Texas State Conference was held in El Paso at the Downtown Holiday Inn, Mrs. Georgia B. Edman, State Regent.

March 15-18, the Utah State Conference was held in Salt Lake City in the Gold Room of Distinctive Catering; Mrs. Franklin D. Maughan, State Vice Regent, presided for the State Regent, Mrs. Donald Hagemeyer. On Sunday, before leaving for Idaho, the President General had the pleasure of attending a concert given by the Mormon Tabernacle Choir, which was most enjoyable.

March 18-20, the Idaho State Conference was held in Cœur d'Alene at the North Shore Convention Center, Mrs. Reed Walton, State Regent.

March 20-22, the Washington State Conference was held in Seattle at the Edgewater Inn, Mrs. Samuel Walker Griffin, State Regent. A short tour was arranged of the Boeing Aircraft Company manufacturing facility so that she could see the new United States of America Command Post airplane.

March 22-24, the Oregon State Conference was held in Portland at the Red Lion Motor Inn, Mrs. Thomas B. Brand, State Regent.

March 25-27, the Nebraska State Conference was held in York at the Camelot Inn, Mrs. Charles J. Sanderson, State Regent.

March 28-29, the New Jersey State Conference was held in Tinton Falls at the Hilton Inn, Miss Eunice F. Brown, State Regent.
Following the New Jersey State Conference, the Chairwoman of the Honor Roll Committee, Mrs. Henry A. Klie, accompanied the President General on her trip back to Washington, which was made in Mrs. Klie's car.

The friendliness and gracious hospitality exhibited by the members in every state she visited was a source of strength and much happiness to the President General. Throughout this Tour she was interviewed by members of the news media in virtually every State and made several television appearances, thus carrying out one of the top priorities of her administration—public relations. The intense interest of our members, whether in a smaller State or larger one, was shown through the excellent reports of the Chapter Regents and Chairmen. They are striving very hard to make the organization a viable one in their local communities and are certainly succeeding. She wishes to thank each State Regent as well as members of their Conference Committees, who made these Conferences so outstanding.

The 4th of February the President General and four other members of the Executive Committee spent several days at a private home on Sea Island, Georgia, as the guests of the Librarian General, Miss Martha A. Cooper. This was a welcome respite prior to the President General's Spring Tour. During this visit they were entertained at a lovely luncheon by members of two of the local Chapters, Fort Frederica Chapter, Mrs. Albert Fendig, Sr., Regent, and the Brunswick Chapter, Mrs. A. H. Reu, Regent. The President General was also interviewed by the Editor of the local newspaper.

The State Regent of England, Mrs. Maurice H. Bulpitt, and her husband were at National Headquarters during February and it was a pleasure for the President General to visit with them and discuss briefly plans for her official visit to England in May. A representative from Ammi & Co. met with the President General and the Treasurer General, Mrs. John S. Biscoe, for the purpose of discussing a plan for handling the orders of States for American Flags and DAR Banners. Details on ordering should be ready for a mailing to the Chapters in the early summer.

The Franklin Mint will be ready to send out a promotional mailing in May to all members advising them of the colored sculptured glass bottles depicting aspects of the lives of Colonial American women, which was endorsed by the National Society last year.

Preliminary meetings were held with members of the Leukemia Society of the Greater Washington area relative to the Art Show which will be held in the lobby of Constitution Hall in June. Originally this Show was to have taken place the end of March, but after much consideration, it was decided to postpone it until early summer.

While in Chicago, the President General was interviewed by Studs Terkel, author of "Working" and "Hard Times." He is now working on a new book to be entitled "American Dreams, Lost and Found." The interview centered on the President General's early dreams and hopes.

On April 13, the President General and members of the Executive Committee attended the Dedication Services of the marking of the grave of Mrs. Robert V. H. Duncan, Honorary President General, at Pohick Episcopal Church in Virginia.

While the President General was on her Official Tour, the following members represented the National Society:

Mrs. James L. Robertson, Vice President General from the District of Columbia, who, on February 12 attended the Commemoration of the 170th anniversary of the birth of President Abraham Lincoln and placed a wreath on behalf of the National Society at the Lincoln Memorial; on March 2, she attended the opening of the Annual United States Savings Bond Campaign at a "Take Stock in America" breakfast at the Madison Hotel, and on March 9, she attended a briefing at the Salgrave Club on the SALT Talks by the Committee on the Present Danger.

Mrs. Coray H. Miller, Organizing Secretary General, on February 22, accepted the Freedoms Foundation 1978 Principal Award in the Non-Profit Publications Category for the DAR Magazine on behalf of the National Society, at Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge. Mrs. James D. Eastin, Chairman, DAR Magazine Committee, accepted a like award for the Editor of the DAR Magazine, Miss Mary Rose Hall. On March 22, the Organizing Secretary General attended the "End of an ERA" dinner at the Shoreham Americana Hotel.

Mrs. Benjamin W. Musick, Reporter General, on March 11, attended the inauguration of Dr. Pasquale Dean Chavers, as President of Bacone College at Muskogee, Oklahoma.

March 27, Miss Marjorie R. Shortley, District of Columbia State Chairman, Conservation Committee, attended a briefing at the Department of Agriculture on the release of the draft report on the assessment of the renewable resource situation on the nation's forest and range lands, which will be submitted to Congress in 1980, and on April 10 she attended an in-depth session on this same issue.

Mrs. Eldred M. Yochim, State Regent, Virginia DAR, on April 13, attended the commemoration of the occasion of the 236th anniversary of the birth of Thomas Jefferson and placed a wreath on behalf of the National Society at the Jefferson Memorial.

This report cannot be complete without expressing my deepest appreciation to Miss Jean Jacobs, Administrative Secretary to the President General for all she has done not only in her regular duties which have become more complex, but the great amount of work before and during the upcoming Continental Congress.

I also want to express my gratitude to Mrs. Joyce Nelson, Assistant Administrative Secretary and Miss Lianne Siccardi, both of the office of the President General.

The President General would like to read a letter from the consulting engineer relative to the President General's Project. It should lay to rest the rumors which seem to be going around concerning this project. Some misleading statements have been made relative to this project which I would like to clear up. Once again, I must remind the members that the President General is the spokesman for the Society and any such statements, before release, must be made by or cleared with the President General or her office.

"Dear Mrs. Baylies:

"This letter will provide you with a status report and a review of the major problem creating the lack of progress on the Courtyard Addition.

"As you recall, Chas. H. Tompkins Co. was the low bidder with a price which was within the confines of our budget. The contract was initiated with the completion date to be in March of 1979. The contractor, in accordance with the specifications, submitted the necessary documents to obtain a building permit in October, 1978.

"By mid-November, 1978, all the required reviewing agencies had approved the documents with the exception of Zoning. Zoning has approved same on November 13; however, this approval was rescinded based on an interpretation of the zoning ordinance (which had been revised in September, 1978). Whether or not the Zoning Department ruling would have been the same based on the original ordinance is open to conjecture. At any rate, it was not until January 19, 1979 that the District Government (in spite of constant pressure from the contractor and this office) notified us officially that we would have to go before BZA. This procedure required public notification 30 days in advance of the public hearing, et al.

"To make a long story short, the earliest hearing we could obtain, in spite of everything your attorney and our office could do, was March 21st (originally we were notified it would be March 14). This public hearing I requested an immediate vote on the application by the Board. They conceded and..."
unanimously voted to approve the application.

“The Permit Department will not issue a building permit until written confirmation is obtained from BZA. We were assured that we would have expeditious confirmation of the March 21 hearing. Twenty-one days after the hearing has not produced this “expeditious” confirmation; however, we are informed that written notification is imminent.

“This office can only apologize for the situation since nothing we have done has had any effect on streamlining this bureaucracy. I know how much it meant to you to have the construction of the Courtyard Addition completed by the 1979 Annual Congress. I feel certain had a permit been issued back in November, your membership would have been welcomed by a completed facility by this time.”

This letter is dated April 11, 1979, and signed: Goodwin H. Taylor, Consulting Engineer, Alexandria, Virginia.

JEANNETTE OSBORN BAYLIES, President General.

The President General, Mrs. Baylies, resumed the chair, and the First Vice President General, Mrs. Richard Denny Shelby, read her report.

Report of First Vice President General

Following the February Meeting of the National Board of Management, the First Vice President General remained in Washington and worked in the National Headquarters Building on Saturday and Sunday.

She then joined Mrs. Baylies, Mrs. Meyer and Mrs. Miller to fly to Jacksonville, Florida, where we were met by Miss Martha Cooper and Mrs. Fred Miller, who drove us to Sea Island, Georgia, for a most enjoyable holiday. Miss Cooper had extended an invitation to the members of the Executive Committee and made the arrangements for this most enjoyable time. Mrs. Fred Miller was our gracious hostess and planned an historic tour of the Island, including a visit to the Museum.

Fort Frederica Chapter, Mrs. Albert Fendig, Sr., Regent, and Brunswick Chapter, Mrs. A. H. Reu, Regent, were joined by the Earl of Camden Chapter and St. Andrews Parish Chapter in honoring members of the Executive Committee with a lovely luncheon.

It was a pleasure for this officer to be the speaker on National Defense, at Madame Hodnett Chapter, Cleveland, Mississippi, Mrs. Bobby McArthur, Regent, on February 15. On February 16, the First Vice President General and her husband were guests of Mrs. Jerome Hafer in Greenvlile, Mississippi, for the Junior Auxiliary Ball. Mrs. Hafer, a longtime member of the Rosalie Board, was crowned Queen. The next day, Mrs. James House, Jr., accompanied this officer to Memphis, Tennessee, where the First Vice President General was guest speaker of Commodore Perry Chapter, Mrs. Charles Davis, Regent, for the George Washington Birthday Luncheon.

The Mississippi State Conference was held in Biloxi February 20-22, Mrs. Monroe T. Thigpen, State Regent, presiding. The First Vice President General appreciated being an honored guest and enjoyed this outstanding Conference.

On March 5, this officer flew to Raleigh, North Carolina, where she was met by Mrs. H. C. Bradshaw, State Vice Regent. We drove to Pinehurst for the Annual Conference of the North Carolina Society, Miss Martha G. Robinson, State Regent, presiding. It was the First Vice President General’s pleasure to be the Conference Banquet speaker.

The California Conference was held March 12-16, with Mrs. Robert Lee Sperry, State Regent, presiding. It was a privilege to be the guest speaker at the Conference Banquet.

On March 13, Mrs. Robert Sperry, Mrs. Benjamin Musick and this officer were interviewed by Kenny Scheerer of Radio Station KFBK and Miss Katherine Fehr of the Sacramento Union. On March 15, Mrs. Leroy W. Coffroth, Conference Chairman, and Mrs. Robert G. Danieli, Jr., drove the First Vice President General to the studio of KXTV to be a guest on the A.M. Show with Jean Lamont. The DAR was the first of three segments on her hour long morning show. Mrs. Danniel deserves much credit for excellent Conference publicity. In addition to the successful Conference, Mrs. Musick and this officer enjoyed a tour and luncheon in Old Sacramento as guests of Mrs. Coffroth and Mrs. James D. Smith.

On March 21, this officer flew to Des Moines, Iowa, and attended the delightful Iowa State Conference, Mrs. Clayton Conrad, State Regent, presiding. This officer was honored to be the Conference Banquet speaker.

Then this officer drove to Mountain Home, Arkansas, with Mrs. Edwin Gregory, to attend the enjoyable State Conference of the Arkansas Society, Mrs. James H. Stevenson, State Regent, presiding. The First Vice President General was privileged to give the Opening Night Address.

This officer drove to Jackson on April 4, to visit Mrs. Joseph H. Box overnight. On April 5, Ralph Humphreys Chapter honored the State Regent of Mississippi, Mrs. Monroe T. Thigpen; Mrs. Max Pharr, Vice President General; and the First Vice President General with a beautiful tea in the home of Mrs. Caleb Dortch. Mrs. Box, Regent of Ralph Humphreys Chapter, graciously received guests from the Central Area of Mississippi.

She joined other Executive members and members of the John Alexander Chapter to attend the unveiling of the DAR marker at the grave of Mrs. Robert V. H. Duncan, Honorary President General, at the Pohick Episcopal Church in Northern Virginia, April 13.

Pre-Congress activities included entertaining the Executive Board of the Executive Club for Breakfast and presiding as President for the Executive Club Dinner on Friday Evening.

The First Vice President General came to Washington a week in advance of this Board meeting and Continental Congress to attend Personnel and Executive meetings.

Under the direction of the Personnel Committee, the Personnel Director has continued the task of bringing our personnel administration into conformance with good management procedures and official guidance. Foremost among our efforts have been intensified steps to rid the Society of dependence on expensive commercial agencies in our recruiting; we have made encouraging progress and have paid no fees for new employees since my last report. Up-dating of job descriptions has continued and provides an essential first step in determining proper office staffing levels and the economical utilization of our personnel. This latter, in particular, will continue with intensified effort. We will try to enhance the working conditions of our staff to the maximum that our resources permit.

Recognition for faithful service and active participation is given to the members of the Personnel Committee. My appreciation for cooperation and efficient service is extended to Mr. Richard Moore, Personnel Director, and Mrs. Louise White, Secretary.

PATRICIA W. SHELBY, First Vice President General.

The Chaplain General, Mrs. Robert Lacy Jackson, read her report.

Report of Chaplain General

The Chaplain General directed details of the 88th Continental Congress Memorial Sunday Events which included the Easter Brunch in the Mayflower Hotel Grand Ballroom, Memorial Service at DAR Constitution Hall, a wreath laying at the Founders Monument and observance of the 50th Anniversary of the Monument, a Pilgrimage to Arlington National Cemetery and the Tomb of George and Martha Washington at Mount Vernon, Virginia, for the purpose of giving Tributes and placing wreaths. The Chaplain General has been capably assisted by members of the Memorials Service Committee, Mrs. Richard P. Taylor, overall coordinator and Vice Chairman, Mrs. Curtis F. Campagne and Mrs. Bérand Van Remselaer. Final planning session with Mrs. Taylor was scheduled for April 12th. On Thursday, April 12, this officer visited Arlington Cemetery to attend to military procedures connected with the wreath laying. On April 14, Pages will be “briefed” on Sunday special duties. All details are in readiness. The Pilgrimage will conclude with a privately-conducted DAR tour at Mount Vernon, courtesy of Mount Vernon Ladies Association. The Chaplain General’s project of Easter lilies for the Memorial Service received a most gracious response. The platform of Constitution Hall will be a scene of floral elegance (for the Memorial Service), bedecked by 125 Easter lily plants, in full bloom, placed in a semi-circle in front of the podium. Appreciation is expressed to all who made possible the lovely floral tributes.

The March issue of the DAR Magazine carries the article “In Memoriam” written by the Chaplain General, with the aid of Miss Jean Jacobs who researched unpublished data for background information. The article briefly traces the development of NSDAR Memorial Services and Pilgrimages since the first Service, held in 1892.

Printouts of all State deaths were mailed to State Chaplains, providing complete and accurate listings for their information and use.

As a member of the Personnel Committee, the Chaplain General attended to duties assigned to her.

Letters of condolence, and many get-well notes were sent, when appropriate.

The Chaplain General was honor guest and program guest at the New Mexico and Texas State Conferences. She regrets not being able to accept all invitations.

On April 13, she assisted with the “Good Friday” program for the Executive Club. On that date also, she had the honor of assisting in ceremonies at Pohick Church Graveyard marking the grave of Honorary President General, Marion Moncure Duncan.

Gratitude is expressed to Miss Jean Jacobs for her assistance in handling many details in preparation for the Memorial Sunday events.

SARAH B. JACKSON, Chaplain General.

The Report of the Recording Secretary General, Mrs. Paul G. Meyer, was filed.

Report of Recording Secretary General

The minutes of the February 2, 1979 National Board meeting were prepared for publication in the DAR Magazine and proofread. Minutes of the verbatim transcript were recorded and indexed. Amendments to the Bylaws proposed by the Bylaws Committee and approved by the National Board of Management, were prepared for distribution to the Chapters.

Motions adopted by the Board were typed and copies sent to the other offices; and they were also typed for the Statute Book and indexed.

Minutes of the Executive Committee meeting of April 12, 1979 have been written; copies sent to each member of the Committee; copied for the permanent record and indexed. Rulings affecting individual offices and committees were typed separately and delivered or mailed.

Notices of the two Board meetings in April were mailed to the members of the National Board of Management. Members of the Executive Committee were notified of the meetings of that committee.

Letters were mailed to the National Officers, State Regents and National Committee Chairmen requesting advance copies of their full reports to the Continental Congress for the upcoming 1979 Congress Annual Proceedings.

All pertinent letters were written to the candidates standing for election at the 88th Continental Congress as well as letters asking these candidates to notify this office of the names of their nominator and personal teller.

Routine correspondence and requests for research have been promptly cared for.

Since this officer’s last report to the National Board of Management which met February 2, 1979, 1,355 Certificates of Membership have been prepared in this office, of which 1,317 were mailed to new members.

Following attendance at the Executive Committee meetings and the National Board meeting in February, this officer accompanied the President General and other members of the Executive Committee to Sea Island, Georgia, where they were entertained by Fort Frederica Chapter, Mrs. Albert Fendig, Regent; and Brunswick Chapter, Mrs. A. H. Reu, Regent.

This officer was a guest at the February meeting of the Big Cypress Chapter, Naples, Florida; Mrs. Mabel S. Kerting, Regent. She was unable to accept late invitations due to the serious illness of her husband.

In closing, appreciation is expressed to members of the staff in the office of the Recording Secretary General: Mrs. Laura Van der Slice, Administrative Assistant; Mrs. Helen Ball, Miss Isabel Allmond and Mrs. Floy Swanson, our excellent Verbatim Reporter.

SARAH-JANE L. MEYER, Recording Secretary General.

Mrs. Carl William Kietzman, Corresponding Secretary General, read her report.

Report of Corresponding Secretary General

This report covers only a two-month period, January and February 1979. A total of 1,817 orders have been processed and filled. Proposed amendments to the Bylaws were mailed—making a total of 3,206.

A total of 211 letters were answered relative to membership. A packet was sent to each giving the necessary information, and their names were turned over to the respective State Regents.

A total of 28,059 pieces of mail were opened in this office during the year.

From March 1, 1978 to March 1, 1979, 16,513 pieces of official mail were sent from this office, in six mailings, exclusive of free materials, orders, and numerous letters answered.

It was the sad duty of this office to notify the members of the National Board and the National Chairmen of the death of Mrs. Henry Allen Ironside, Honorary Vice President General from Georgia on March 8, 1978; and Mrs. Frederick B. Ingram, Honorary Vice President General from Texas on September 10, 1978.

During the week of Congress a literature table will be located in the corridor of Constitution Hall. We hope that you will take advantage of this convenience, which will save you and the National Society postage.

Your Corresponding Secretary General attended the February Executive and National Board meetings.

In February she was a guest at the Sara de Soto Chapter in Sarasoto, Florida and at a Boca Ciega Chapter tea in St. Petersburg. In March she was a guest of the Ohio Society at their State Conference, and was the opening night speaker at the Florida Society State Conference.

L. ANN RUTH KIELTZMAN, Corresponding Secretary General.

The Treasurer General, Mrs. John S. Biscoe, presented the following membership report as of February 28, 1979:

- Deceased: 1,263
- Resigned: 63
- Reinstated: 133
- Total Membership: 208,659

Mrs. Biscoe moved that 133 former members be reinstated. Seconded by Mrs. Stark. Adopted.

Mrs. Biscoe presented the report of the Treasurer General.

Report of Treasurer General

Receiving and recording dues and contributions has kept the Accounting Office very busy. Disbursements were made to complete and close out our Fiscal Year, February 28, 1979. This requires precise and accurate procedures to assure your monies being disbursed as intended.

Interest rates have increased steadily and we realized $192,685.47 in short term investments. This is more than $70,000.00 over the previous year and has helped to alleviate the anticipated net loss. However, we have no guarantee that these high interest rates will continue.

The Membership Office which handles all changes in membership, strives to get those changes back to the Chapters as soon as possible. But, may we emphasize that no member transferring be taken from a Chapter roll or added to a Chapter roll until notice has been received from the Treasurer General's Office that the transfer has been completed. The first mailing has gone out for those members whose dues are delinquent. The second mailing will be sent out following congress. A member may resign only if dues for the current year are paid. Dues are payable before December 1.

The Credentials were again compiled on the Computer, saving many hours of work. In addition the Computer has compiled the membership; deaths, resignations and delinquent members. This was all done through the efficient work of the Coding Department and the Key Punch Operators.

Notification has been received that Mrs. Charlotte Anderson has left $25,000.00 unrestricted to the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution. A like amount has been left to Kate Duncan Smith and Tamassee DAR Schools.

Madam President General and Members of the National Board of Management, I hereby submit this Summary Statement of Current and Special Funds for the Fiscal Year which ended February 28, 1979, and the supporting schedules thereto.

RACHEL M. BISCOE,
Treasurer General.

JUNE-JULY 1979 683
Mrs. Martin A. Mason, Chairman of the Finance Committee, read her report.

Report of Finance Committee

The Finance Committee presents for your consideration the 1979-80 budget. It is with reluctance that we present a deficit budget. This is necessary because of increased expenditure, part of which is due to necessary payroll increases. We have a large office staff of about 160 employees. We are competing with the United States Government for personnel. Although we have tried to bring our pay scale up, we are still in the low bracket in comparison to other employers. All other costs have risen steadily.

Investment of our reserve funds at the present high rate of interest should provide some additional income, but interest rates are unpredictable so this cannot be counted on indefinitely. We therefore present this budget for your approval.

Chairman.

The Report of the Auditing Committee and the Auditor's Report were read by Mrs. Leo W. Utz, Chairman of the Auditing Committee.

Report of Auditing Committee

The Auditing Committee met on Thursday, April 12, 1979, in the Lafayette Room, Constitution Hall. The representative of the Auditor, Mr. Edward J. Burns, Jr., met with the Committee composed of the Chairman, Mrs. Leo W. Utz; Mrs. E. Adams Denham, Vice Chairman; and Mrs. David C. Nimmer. The Chairman of the Finance Committee, Mrs. Martin A. Mason, and Miss Ann Dressler, Administrative Assistant, Treasurer General's office, attended the meeting.

The annual report of the Auditor, Burns and Buchanan, Certified Public Accountants, Washington, D.C., was reviewed. ALBERTA T. UTZ, Chairman.

National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution
Washington, D.C.

We have examined the financial statements of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution listed below:

- Statement of Current and Unrestricted Special Funds (Page 1) for the year ended February 28, 1979
- Statement of Restricted Funds (Page 2 and 3) for the year ended February 28, 1979
- Supporting statements of Current Fund cash receipts and disbursements (Pages 4 to 6) for the year ended February 28, 1979

Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included confirmations from depository and custodians of cash and investments held at February 28, 1979, and such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The financial statements have been prepared generally on the cash receipts and disbursements basis and therefore do not purport to present the results of operations as they would appear had generally accepted accrual basis accounting principles been applied. Cash receipts and disbursements do not include dispositions and acquisitions of securities, respectfully, except for gains and losses thereon.

In our opinion, the aforementioned statements and supporting schedules present fairly the cash balances and investments at February 28, 1979, and the information set forth therein for the year then ended on the basis indicated which is consistent with that of the preceding year.

Report of Registrar General

Genealogy is worthless and of no value unless authentic. To be authentic proof is necessary of birth, marriage and death. To protect this Society and your lineage it is essential that this proof be submitted or anyone could obtain a copy of your application, use the short forms and be admitted as a member on your line and you might never know it, if birth and marriage proof is not required. I'm sure you do not want this or anyone using your line that is not eligible to do so.

We have requests every day for copies of members' application papers which were admitted on a short form with nothing on it but names. It is very hard and disappointing to try and fill out an application paper for a daughter, granddaughter, or niece and have to provide proof for her when you thought we had it. Had we required this years ago you would only have to provide your own birth and marriage proofs. Remember, you can obtain birth records through many sources such as schools, churches and vital records.

Please, State Regents, this office would appreciate your notifying Chapter Regents through your newsletters, State Bulletins or District meetings, to work on sending in applications for membership before December. When over 3,000 Chapters with over 200,000 members' dues arrive in the Treasurer General’s Office, it is almost an impossible task to get mail processed in time for this office to receive the applications four weeks before the deadline. Many of you have written regarding Honor Roll. Members accepted at the February Board are always counted for the present year, 1978-79. Members accepted at the February Board cannot be held over for 1979-80 Honor Roll.

According to our Bylaws we regret we have to return 204 application papers to Chapter Regents which have been held over two years and on which we have received no additional information from the applicant or Chapter.

Additional file cabinets have been purchased and all data is now filed. This took our genealogical staff four full days. We lost four days with the snow and while this may not mean too much to some departments it cuts down the number of applications verified by four or five hundred papers.

Our ancestor card file of over 100,000 names has been checked, and all cards have been put in correct position. This has taken hours of the staff’s time but it had to be done as cards had been misfiled.

New application forms are now available and the Step by Step Instruction Sheet is enclosed with every application paper along with the work sheet. Please remember to always include the remittance blank from the Treasurer General’s Office with the application or supplemental, otherwise the application is held up until the Accounting Office can make out this form for you.

In our record copy department we have sent out over 5,000 photocopies of papers not counting data since the February 1979 Board.

Our Volunteer classes continued to be a big help on examining Supplementals. We have had 31 volunteers from 14 different states this year. We have a large number registered for the three-week class in June.

This office is deeply grateful to Mrs. Retha Mehan for taking over as Staff Assistant at the request of Mrs. Marion Butler who asked that she be relieved of part of the responsibility. The Registrar General’s office with a staff of 32, works under constant pressure and tension because of the workload and inability of the Society to meet government salaries. It is only through dedication to our Society that approximately 20% of the employees stay. We have had a turnover of 21 people this year, most leaving for higher salaries than we can afford to pay them. It is very hard to put out the required work of this office when we are constantly training people. This officer truly appreciates the dedicated workers who have remained, and the cooperation of the Personnel Committee.

It is my pleasure to submit the following report of the Registrar General’s office. Since February 2, 1979 National Board meeting all application papers submitted prior to February 1, 1979 have been examined.

All supplementals received prior to February 1, 1979 for established ancestors have been examined.

All supplementals received prior to January 1, 1978 for new ancestors have been examined.
The last National Number is, 637,132; Number of Applications received, 1,571; Number of Applications verified, 1,541; Number of Application papers pending for which additional proof has been requested, 1,422; Number of Supplemental papers received, 666; Number of Supplementals verified, 945; Number of Supplemental papers pending for which additional proof has been requested, 750; Papers returned unverified: Applications, 11; Supplementals, 121; Duplicates Returned, 1,991; New Records verified, 124; Permits issued for insignia, 2,165; Letters written, 4,397; Postals written, 721; Photocopies: Papers, 5,329; Data, 122.

ELIZABETH COX WHITE, Registrar General.

Mrs. White moved that the 1,541 applicants whose records have been verified by the Registrar General be elected to membership in the National Society. Seconded by Miss Johnson. Adopted.

The Organizing Secretary General, Mrs. Coray H. Miller, read her report.

Report of Organizing Secretary General

Your Organizing Secretary General is pleased to present the following report covering the period between the February National Board Meeting and this date.

Following attendance at the February meetings of the Executive Committee, National Board of Management and Personnel Committee, this officer accompanied Mrs. George U. Baylies, President General, and members of the Executive Committee to Sea Island, Georgia. Arrangements for the visit were made through the courtesy of Miss Martha A. Cooper, Librarian General.

Soon after returning home it was a pleasure to attend the American History Month meeting of the Wyoming Valley Chapter, Mrs. Bruce Postupak, Regent, held at the Wyoming Historical and Geological Society, Wilkes-Barre.

This officer and her husband were guests at the Thirtieth Annual Awards Presentation, Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge, which was held at the Philadelphia Marriott Hotel. It was a privilege to represent Mrs. George U. Baylies, President General, and accept, on behalf of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution, the Principal Award for the DAR Magazine in the Non-Profit Publications Category. Mrs. James Easton, National Chairman of the DAR Magazine Committee also attended the Awards Presentation and accepted the Principal Award for the Editor of the Magazine, Miss Mary Rose Hall.

It was a delightful experience to be a guest of the Oklahoma Daughters at their State Conference, Mrs. Oather E. Van Meter, Regent, and be the speaker for the Youth Awards Luncheon. This officer and Mrs. C. Edwin Carlson, Curator General, were met in Tulsa by Mrs. Benjamin Musick, Reporter General, and Mrs. Delmas E. Martin, and while there were entertained by Mrs. John Olshock, Mrs. E. D. Hamilton, and Mrs. Wallace W. James. It was a special pleasure to visit Bacone College, attend the church service, have lunch at the cafeteria, and make a tour of the campus. The following day a reception was held at the Governor’s Mansion with Governor and Mrs. George Nigh in attendance.

It was most enjoyable to attend the well conducted conferences of the Georgia State Society, Mrs. Jonathan W. Fox, Regent, and the Wisconsin State Society, Mrs. Roland A. Wernecke, Regent. Your Organizing Secretary General was speaker at the Opening Meeting of the Wisconsin State Conference. The courtesies extended and the warm hospitality of the members were greatly appreciated by this officer.

It was a privilege to represent Mrs. George U. Baylies, President General, at “The End of An ERA” dinner at the Shoreham Americana Hotel, Washington, D. C.

This officer was pleased to be an honored guest of the Constitution Chapter, District of Columbia, Miss Anna Mae Caron, Regent, at a Distaff Reception in honor of the National and State Officers at the District of Columbia Chapter House, Tilden Gardens.

Accompanied by her husband, this officer was guest of the Pennsylvania State Society, Children of the American Revolution, at their 31st Annual State Conference held recently at the Yorktowne Hotel, York; Miss Stephanie Heydt, President; Mrs. Samuel S. Wilson, Senior State President.

The Scranton City Chapter, Mrs. Paul Hyland, Regent, celebrated its 71st Anniversary with a luncheon at the Scranton Club where this officer was an honored guest.

The work load in the Office of the Organizing Secretary General continues to increase and additional responsibilities have been assumed. This office now verifies endorsers on all applications and supplementals before they are sent to the Registrar General’s Office for processing. All correspondence in connection with this verification is handled by this office. Since December 18, two thousand four hundred seventy three (2,473) applications and fifty-nine (59) supplementals have been completed and verified with one hundred fifty-one (151) letters written.

Interest in the organization of new chapters continues with forty-nine (49) Chapters being organized as of March first and newly authorized “Certificates of Admittance” issued to these chapters. Four Chapters are ready for confirmation today. Three other chapters are also ready for confirmation, but additional time has been requested to enable more applicants to join and be included as organizing members. A total of 22 chapters are in the process of being organized; eight chapters are in the process of being disbanded. Total chapters March first, 3,094. Chapter Charters issued, 20, Organizing Regents appointed this year 31, Organizing Regents reappointed three, Chapters Authorized two, Location Changes two, Name Changes two, Extension of Time one.

We are pleased to report two Overseas Chapters are being confirmed at this Board meeting: Louis XVI Chapter, Meudon, France, Comtesse de Morelos, Organizing Regent; and William Buckley Chapter, Caracas, Venezuela, Mrs. Frank Stewart, Organizing Regent.

Permits have been issued authorizing the purchase of 60 Chapter Regent’s Bars, 448 Chapter Bars, 602 Ex-Regent’s Bars, one Seventy-five Year Pin, 234 Fifty Year Pins, 227 Twenty-five Year Pins, and 644 miscellaneous Pins.

Orders for Certificates have increased with the following being issued this year: 1,502 Twenty-five Year, 639 Fifty-Year, and one Seventy-five Year Certificate.

The Chapter Regent’s Book has been updated as has been the official catalogue of membership, this being a continuous process.

Chapter officer forms are coming in at a rapid pace, and this officer is most grateful to the State Regents for advising their members of the urgency of having these forms returned by May 15, whether or not there is a change in officers this year.

Special thanks go to the personnel of this office Mrs. Pierce Acord, Administrative Assistant, Mrs. Michael Hudson, Miss Sheila Povlish, Mrs. Rosa E. Rivera, and Mrs. Thad Wolfe, Clerk Typists for their invaluable service in carrying out the duties of this office as well as their excellent cooperation with this officer.

Through their respective State Regents the following members at Large are presented for confirmation as Organizing Regents: Mrs. Janet Cook Kalka, Magee, Mississippi; Mrs. Shirley Boyce Goerlich, Whitney Point, New York; Mrs. Nancy Ingram Schaitel, Federal Way, Washington. Through the State Regent the following member at Large is presented for reappointment as Organizing Regent: Mrs. Joliette Wheeler Graham, Marion, Virginia.

Through the Units Overseas Chairman the following member at Large has presented her resignation as Organizing Regent: Mrs. Jo Ann Touchstone, Iran.
The stateRegent of Missouri requests the name change of the Mary Hemstead Lisa Chapter to Mary Hempstead Lisa. The following chapters are presented for official disbandment: Poweshiek, Grinnell, Iowa; John Cleves Symmes, Montgomery, Ohio. The following chapter has met all the requirements according to the National Bylaws and is now presented for confirmation: William Buckley, Caracas, Venezuela.

Betty B. Miller, Organizing Secretary General.

Mrs. Miller moved the appointment of three organizing regents, reappointment of one organizing regent, resignation of one organizing regent, one name change, official disbandment of two chapters, the confirmation of one chapter provided necessary message of organization is sent by 4:30 P.M. from place of origin. Seconded by Mrs. Boone. Adopted.

The Historian General, Mrs. Raymond Franklin Fleck, read her report.

Report of Historian General

Continuing excitement and activity are taking place in the Historian General's office: Since the February Board meeting, permission has been granted to place 112 markers, including graves of Revolutionary Soldiers, Daughters and Real Daughters of Revolutionary Soldiers, members, and Historic markers. Reports of markers placed total 304 including soldiers, Real Daughters, members, State Regents, and historic sites.

A February Newsletter was sent to all State Regents and State Historians.

Orders for American History Month supplies totalled 44,031 items. A total of 5,790 schools participated in the American History Essay Contest—a total of 69,322 essays. Most important—efforts to proclaim February, American History Month. Congressman Dawson Mathis, of Georgia, has introduced H.J. Resolution 219 designating February as American History Month and we must write as individuals and call our Congressmen urging them to support this Resolution. There is a time limit. Act now!

Many hours of typing, proof reading, work with the printer, work at the press plus urgent phone calls, made completion of the book Historic and Memorial Buildings a reality. The color photograph of Memorial Continental Hall honors Mrs. of the book Historic and Memorial Buildings a reality. The color photograph of Memorial Continental Hall honors Mrs. Mollie Somerville, Historical Researcher, Mrs. and Mrs. Edward J. Norris, Vice Chairman in Charge of the American History Month Essay Contest.

The outstanding item to report for this period is the publication of a new brochure of the NSDAR Genealogical Library. It is in color and contains many interesting facts about your Library. Appreciation is expressed to Mrs. Mollie Somerville, Historical Researcher for her assistance and work on the brochure. The brochure is free and may be ordered from the office of the Corresponding Secretary General.

It is regretted that the Tattle Tape System has not been installed at this time. The Finance Chairman asked that this expenditure be reviewed to determine whether it was justifiable. The value of the books which have been taken from the Library in the past should justify the cost of the System as a preventative measure for the present and future.

As reported, bequests made to the Library in the past have been reviewed. Following this review two recommendations were made: (1) for the installation of an air conditioning system for the comfort of patrons and staff members working in the Library and for preservation of Library books; and (2) construction of a stairway from the floor of the Library to the balcony, which would open the balcony to use by patrons. It was decided, for financial reasons that neither of these requests were feasible at this time.

It should be noted in passing that the Library pays part of the salary of Library personnel from monies received through past bequests made to the Library and also that all funds sent in to the Library go into the Current Funds-Library account. Because of the recent illness of the Librarian General it is regretted that there is no report on the volunteer genealogists. Following up on professional rebinding of books, the Staff Librarian has recently had 500 books changed from such backs as corrugated brown paper to bindings befitting the valuable books.

The inventory of books and manuscripts planned when assuming office two years ago is still in the preparatory stage.
The two professional Librarians will have been on duty one year this October—so October 1, has been set as the target date for completion of this inventory and it is hoped that in my next report we can give an accurate account of both books and manuscripts housed in our Library.

Appreciation is expressed to Mrs. Eloise Jenkins, Chairman of the Buildings and Grounds Committee, for the improved physical appearance of the Library.

Mrs. Ethel Jenkins takes pride in the efficient Library Staff for their courtesy to patrons and the work accomplished. Appreciation is also expressed to members of the National Society who have made contributions to the Library.

MARTHA ANSLEY COOPER,
Librarian General.

Report of Curator General

In many parts of the country the weather was quite severe this winter. Washington received her share with a near blizzard which started the night of February 18 and continued until the afternoon of the next day leaving 23 inches of snow. A lot of snow fell on ice remaining from a previous storm on the roof of Continental Hall. When the snow began to melt, the ice still remained. The drains remained clogged and the water seeped into the walls of some of the Period rooms. Texas, New York, Pennsylvania, North Carolina, Missouri, Kentucky, and Maryland had various amounts of damage to wallpaper, furniture, upholstery, and floors. Some of the paper could be treated. Other paper is to be removed, cleaned and then replaced. Experts for this type of work are undertaking this repair. Fortunately the Fine Arts Policy we carry will cover all the expense of the damage.
As a result of the recent exhibit, “The Frugal American Housewife: The Kitchen in 19th Century America,” over 100 requests have come in for an exhibit booklet and/or inventories used. We were able to fill the orders for inventories but not for a booklet, since one was not published.

Pictures were taken by the Maryland Center for Public Broadcasting of the above mentioned exhibit and programmed early in February over Baltimore’s Channel 22.

Two new exhibits which study decorative motifs of the Neo-Classical Period, 1790-1835, are ready for viewing:

1. “George Washington: Image for the New Nation” deals with the popularization of our first President through a study of the decorative arts embellished with views of George Washington.
2. “A Basket of Flowers” treats another favorite decorative motif of the Neo-Classical Period. Most of these baskets are simple symmetrically posed arrangements of flowers. Of particular appeal are the decorations found on the handles of silver spoons and ladles. The basket also appears on Chinese export plates for both the American and English markets, and on glass tumblers made in Germany or Bohemia, which were extremely popular in America. Included are needlework examples. We invite you to visit the exhibits on the north and south balconies of the Library, which were ready for your coming to this Congress. The public viewing begins April 23 and will continue through July 31, 1979.

A total of 330 press releases have gone out locally and all over the United States to newspapers, magazines, museums, sightseeing tours, associations, and individuals. The new Museum brochure which is receiving many favorable comments is inserted in each. The addressing of envelopes for mailing is done by the Computer Room, through gummed labels, thus saving the Museum staff valuable time by not having to type addresses. Our thanks go to Linda Hatfield, the Computer Room Programmer for this help, and also to the Printing Office personnel which duplicates the pages.

The restoration of the portrait of Mrs. Adlai Stevenson, Past President General, 1893-95 and 1896-98 has been completed at a cost of $900 and will hang in the Illinois Room during Continental Congress. Illinois has purchased recently a lovely Pittsburgh strawberry-diamond cut decanter, ca. 1830-35.

New postcards for Vermont, New Jersey, Virginia, Ohio, and the Oklahoma kitchen have been printed and will be ready for purchase in the Museum Gallery on Tuesday of next week.

The search continues to find suitable brass urns to replace the two that disappeared from the Kansas Chapel.

Two more steel storage cabinets for the textile storage area have been ordered and will be placed with the other two which are in use.

Several important accessions have been received and are listed following this report with the donors’ names.

The Friends of the Museum Fund has made possible the purchase of a green and gilt painted card table with Neo-Classical decorations, made in Baltimore, ca. 1830. It has been repaired and the gilt touched up and has been placed in the Maryland room.

The loan of two exhibit cases and an English porcelain sauceboat has been granted by the Executive Committee for December 1978, a review of “Double Woven Coverlets,” and “The Frugal American Housewife.”

The Curator, Jean Federico, and the Registrar, Diane Fagan Affleck, attended the Conference on Historic Upholstery and Drapery sponsored by the Decorative Arts Society at the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston and at Sturbridge Village, Massachusetts, March 22, 23 and 24. The Conference featured the use of period upholstery and drapery and was attended by 200 curators and specialists in this field. It is important that the Museum staff be informed of new techniques and programs in the museum world.

Intern Peggy Scholley continues to catalogue needlework wallets and shawls.

Karen Wallace, Educational Programmer, attended two museum workshops—one at Gunston Hall, Virginia and the other at the Hagley Museum in Delaware. Both workshops treated issues of museums and their relations to schools, handicapped audiences and program evaluation.

The “Animal Hunt,” a Museum Gallery self-guide, is a new activity. The student, equipped with pencil and drawing board, explores the decorative arts collection seeking out and drawing animal motifs from eagles to dragons. Also, a new slide program “For the Fun of It” is now in circulation. Slides of dolls, toys, and games from the New Hampshire attic are selected to examine changing attitudes toward childhood from Colonial times through the 19th century.

Since the New Year, 1,780 students have participated in our programs. Recently in the “Earning a Living” program, a young girl named Amy Carter played the role of an 18th century Blacksmith. Given the choice of playing the role of an embroi-

Special subject tours have been requested by a number of interested visitors due to the ever widening and good publicity about our varied collections.

Students from Mount Vernon College studied “Problems of Period Room Installations” and students from the University of Maryland had a special lecture-demonstration on the history of women’s clothing in America. The National Archives Associates and the Arlington House docents had a lecture-demonstration on Chippendale and Neo-Classical furniture presented by the Curator.

The faithful docents continue to give generously of their time and talents in showing our varied and valuable collections to our visitors.

The Museum staff never lacks for want of something to do. Every day brings a new challenge and each performs his and her duties ably. Once again I’m happy to express the Curator General’s special thanks to Jean Federico, Curator; Karen Wallace, Educational Programmer; Diane Fagan Affleck, Registrar; Virginia Austin, Administrative Assistant who keeps my mail coming to Connecticut when I’m not in the office; Mr. Cato, Curator of the Museum Gallery; Ted Holliday, Museum Aide; and Jane Cyphers, Docent Coordinator.

Following the February National Board Meeting, the Curator General spent time in her office until her return home on February 7. She attended the Connecticut State Council Meeting and Luncheon on February 14 and returned to Washington on February 18 expecting to attend the Maryland Daughters State Conference in Baltimore, February 19th through the 21st, where she was to speak on the Museum. The blizzard which started on Sunday evening as she neared Baltimore found her car completely marooned Monday morning, and likewise, she was marooned in her apartment until Thursday when she was able to have her car dug out so she could return to Connecticut.

March 2nd she attended the Esther Stanley Chapter meeting and on March 3rd she flew to Tulsa, Oklahoma with the Maryland Daughters State Conference in Baltimore, February 19th through the 21st, where she was to speak on the Museum. This has been a busy office since the February Board. 2,468 Honor Roll Certificates have been prepared, ribbons placed and forward to Headquarters. It would be a great help to this office if all due dates were observed so that the material would reach the office as the proper time. A total of 1,846 Welcome Cards were presented, to new citizens. Report of the Recorder General

This has been a busy office since the February Board. 2,468 Honor Roll Certificates have been prepared, ribbons placed and forward to Headquarters. It would be a great help to this office if all due dates were observed so that the material would reach the office as the proper time. A total of 1,846 Welcome Cards were presented, to new citizens. Much confusion is caused by the Americanism and the Mission orders over 25. A total of 1,846 Welcome Cards were presented.

of Honor Awards. This office fills the orders only when instructions are fully carried out upon the recommendation of the National Chairman. May this office suggest that Chapters, State Chairmen and State Regents check carefully the applications. Duplication of awards are to be avoided as this detracts from the effectiveness of the program. The rules and regulations are carefully spelled out in the DAR Handbook.

The use of the Conservation Medal has been reactivated. This award is given for outstanding work in the field of conservation. Candidates for this award will be given serious consideration by the National Chairman before approving presentation of this award.

The DAR Good Citizens Program has been of great interest, especially since the admission of boys for participation. A total of 10,265 DAR Good Citizens awards (Pin and accompanying Certificate) have been given this year. It should be noted that 2,539 additional certificates were requested which reflects too much waste in the program. Certificates may be given only in company with a DAR Good Citizen Pin, and the cost is included in the price of the pin. All of this requires careful recording and mailing procedures. The National Chairman is working on a new brochure to be presented to schools and other individuals who request information concerning the program.

One of our most worthwhile programs for our youth is the NSDAR Scholarship Program. It is becoming more popular. A total of 6,717 requests for applications for the Caroline E. Holt and Occupational Therapy Scholarships were filled by our office and 492 completed applications were reviewed by the National Chairman and finalists were reviewed by the Board. Unfortunately, many applicants do not follow instructions and do not submit all of the necessary items which necessitates the disqualification of the applicant.

My grateful thanks to my own State, Oklahoma, for the dedication of the Conference in my honor. California Conference was most enjoyable and informative. My deep appreciation is expressed for their Honorarium in my honor to Tamassee. It was with humble thanks, that I accepted for Tamassee. I regret that I could not accept the many gracious invitations extended to me.

DAR School contributions for the 2-month period from January 1, through February 28, 1979, tabulated for the National Chairman, was $84,088.73 For Tamassee and $102,897.62 for Holt. For Tamassee, the increase of 1,881 or 3 1/2 percent. We still need an increase in subscriptions of approximately 3,000 to reach the high total in 1976 of 58,744.

The computer printout of subscriptions by Chapters as of March 1, 1979 has been mailed to all Chapter Regents. These reports should be checked by the Magazine Chairman and any corrections sent to the Magazine Office prior to August 1, 1979.

Your Magazine Staff has been extremely busy these past three months with the preparation of one of the largest April issues in several years and with the May issue which will be even larger. Miss Deborah Carr is the new Advertising Manager due to the resignation of Miss Betsey Himmel who did an outstanding job for us.

It was a pleasure to represent the DAR Magazine at the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge Awards Ceremony on February 22, 1979, to accept on behalf of our Editor, Miss Mary Rose Hall, the 1978 Principal Award in the Nonprofit Publications category. This is the third time in four years that the Magazine and Miss Hall have received this Award. We are most fortunate to have such an outstanding staff, including: Mrs. Florence Chocchia, Circulation Manager.

During this last year of this Administration it is still possible to reach our goal of an increase of 10 percent in subscriptions if we double last year’s figures.

Betty A. Eastin, Chairman.

Mrs. Bernie Chesley McCrea, Chairman of the DAR Magazine Advertising Committee, read her report.

Report of DAR Magazine Advertising Committee

A total of 758 Chapters from 20 States and the District of Columbia, in three divisions, supplied revenue totalling $53,315.00 for the March, April and May issues. This is an increase of $6,950.00 from the same period last year.

We would like to commend everyone for their observance of deadlines. Within the last three months there has been a decrease in the amount of late ad copy, which has helped the staff enormously in completing their work on time. The increase in the amount of four-color ads has been a source of pleasure for all our readers. We continue to receive unsolicited new advertisers and have received praise from several large advertisers, both for our work and for the response of the members.

We remind everyone that co-op lists must be included with the ad copy and must be on a separate sheet of paper. They must list every chapter involved and how much each contributed toward the ad. The Magazine Advertising staff is entirely dependent on these lists to insure proper credit to the chapters involved.

If an ad has been run before, please include the issue and the page on which it appeared with your ad copy. This will not only help the staff but will save money too.

We have a new Advertising Manager: Deborah Carr. She handles art work and layout for Advertising. Lee Rose still takes care of the correspondence, bookkeeping, and Honor Roll.

Great News: we will have a new “Ad Answers” ready by June. This will be arranged according to type of ad and will have step by step instructions on the correct way to submit every ad from individual chapter ads to state co-op ads. We expect that the members will find this helpful in their work. All information and forms are available at any time from the Magazine Advertising office. Please write!

This Chairman sends personal thanks, each month, to the State Chairmen whose states have sponsored that issue. The following States provided revenue for the March, April and May issues:

Report of DAR Magazine Committee

Our goal this year was to increase subscriptions by 10 percent. On March 1, 1979, the total subscriptions were 55,797—an increase of 1,881 or 3 1/2 percent. We still need an increase in subscriptions of approximately 3,000 to reach the high total in 1976 of 58,744.

Restoration work must be started for preservation.

The granite near the base structure of Constitution Hall is deteriorating. Restoration work must be started for preservation.

In order to properly care for our lovely grounds it has been necessary to put this maintenance under contract with a professional nursery. The past two winters have increased immensely the cost of upkeep of the grounds. Our Conservation Chairman included in her July 1980 letter the following:

"As maintenance of the lawns around our buildings is always necessary, let us put our two cents in for Building for Our Future! Please include ‘Maintenance of NSDAR lawns’ in your chapter budget this year.”

Please remember this project and contribute 100%. These are your Building and Grounds. They need your help!

Two HMI Spotlights were purchased and installed in the Projection Booth in October for rental to lessees of Constitution Hall. The total cost of $4,200 will soon be realized as of now.

Estimates are being prepared to clean and repair the damaged wall paper in the period rooms.

A settlement of $3,458.75 has been accepted from Liberty Mutual in settlement of claim for water damage to our building in July caused by negligence of the roofing company.

Two new air conditioners were purchased for the National Defense offices. The oversized set was moved to the Banquet Hall to replace the worn-out one. Two hundred and twenty volt lines had to be installed to take care of the overload in the National Defense offices, Banquet Hall, C.A.R. Board Room, Clerks Dining Hall and Baylies Center. The electric system is old and before long will need to be replaced.

Fluorescent light fixtures are being installed in all ground areas of the buildings. These will give better light and save on electricity.

The following areas have been painted: (1) both corridors of the Administration Building including corridors leading to Constitution Hall; (2) All six dressing rooms of Constitution Hall. These rooms are also used for exhibits during Continental Congress.

The following proposal to make repairs to several areas of Continental Hall caused by water damage is covered in full by our insurance company:

"AD ADMINISTRATION"
Let's get more than ever before!

BERNIE C. McCREA, Chairman.

Mrs. Eloise Jenkins, Chairman of the Builders and Grounds Committee, read her report.

Report of The Buildings and Grounds Committee

The severe winters of the past two years have caused much damage to our buildings and grounds. Washington was paralyzed by two storms in February which forced closings of the building for a total of four days. Due to the loyalty of our maintenance supervisors, who made it to the building, the damage was lessened. Mr. Frank Douglas attended ground removal and Mr. Joe Mageau cleared all the roofs.

The following proposal to make repairs to several areas of Continental Hall caused by water damage is covered in full by our insurance company:

the returns are $1,950.

Receipts for 173 events held in Constitution Hall for the year 1978-79 grossed $208,017.87 which is a five year high.

The accomplishments of this Committee are due to the outstanding talents and hard work of the Vice Chairmen. Appreciation also goes to the maintenance staff, business office and manager of Constitution Hall for their loyal support.

ELOISE T. JENKINS, Chairman.

Mrs. Maughan moved that the motion tabled in February 1979 be taken from the table. Seconded by Mrs. Woodyard. Adopted.

The motion reads: That the Continental Congresses of 1981 and 1982 be held in Washington, D.C., in the month of May, as that was the month in which the Second Continental Congress convened in Philadelphia in 1775, the exact dates to be determined by the President General and the Manager of the Hotel.

Mrs. Martin moved to amend by striking the date and inserting that Continental Congress convene during the week in which April 30 falls, this being the date of Washington's inauguration. Seconded by Mrs. Maughan. Adopted.

Mrs. Jackson moved to strike out "1982" from the motion to change the date of Congress to the week in which April 30 falls. Seconded by Mrs. Thomas. Lost.

Mrs. Biscoe moved that the original motion, as amended, be tabled. Lost.

The original motion, as amended, was adopted.

Mrs. Harry Jamison, Chairman of the DAR School Committee, presented her report.

Report of DAR School Committee

Contributions received in the Office of the Treasurer General from January 1, 1979 through February 28, 1979 totaled $186,-986.35. Individually, Tamassee School received $84,088.73 and Kate Duncan Smith School received $102,897.62. Also, two additional pledges have been received. However, funds for the Home Economics Building (a National DAR School Project) named in honor of our President General, are not being received as we had hoped. The four classrooms are still available . . .

We urge all of you to help us complete this building during this Administration . . . We have a long way to go, financially, but we can do it! If the newly elected State Regents or a member of her "official family" would accept a classroom as their State Project . . . and, if those of us who have contributed would try to give just a little more, we can accomplish our aim and the Home Economics Building will be paid for "on time" (April, 1980), and we can all feel a great sense of accomplishment.

You are reminded too, that all utilities are paid from the General Fund and both Schools report the need for money.

Repair to existing buildings for both Schools continue and must be kept current. Our regular employees do routine maintenance but work requiring skilled or licensed labor such as electrical, plumbing, painting of buildings, etc., is done by outside contractors.

Because of the present day financial problems, of which the Administrators are keenly aware, as most of us are, they have voluntarily agreed to declare a moratorium on future con-

JUNE-JULY 1979
Dear Daughters,

In announcing our associated candidacy for election as officers of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution, we feel it is necessary and desirable to declare as our primary objectives, loving enlightened leadership and fiscal responsibility.

It is our intention to bring forth the issues which we feel are vital to the health, growth, and prosperity of our Society. We will communicate with you through advertising in the DAR Magazine, thereby serving the dual end of informing our members and supporting the magazine.

It is our belief that you deserve the opportunity for a democratic selection of your leadership based on an organized presentation of the candidates and the issues.

We pledge to you that we will not assume new major projects but rather that we will strengthen the support of those in existence.

We promise responsible, effective, and economical management by National Officers who are active in the daily business of our Society.

We solicit your support and vote because we think that we can and will provide the kind and quality of leadership you want and that our Society requires.

To these ends we have dedicated ourselves.

The Arms Museum was built on Wick Avenue, in Youngstown, Ohio, in 1905, the home of Wilford and Olive Arms. In 1961 Mrs. Wilford P. Arms left her home “Greystones” to the Mahoning Valley Historical Society to be an historical museum in memory of her parents. Within the Museum’s stone walls two hundred years of local history unfold, interpreted by trained guides.

The rooms on the first floor display the Arm’s family possessions which include furniture, silver, china, linens, glassware, oriental rugs, portraits, and objects d’art.

The lower floor exhibits pioneer farm and household tools, implements and utensils, antique toys, Indian relics and the Fellows Gun Collection.

Exhibits on the second floor present a visual history of the settlement of the Mahoning Valley in chronological sequence. The Benjamin F. Wirt Historical Collection is displayed on the second floor. This collection reflects the discriminating taste of a cultured gentleman.

TAKE PRIDE IN YOUR HERITAGE

JUNE-JULY 1979
Thomas Alva Edison Birthplace — A National Historic Landmark

Thomas Alva Edison, the youngest of seven children, was born in this home in Milan, Ohio on February 11, 1847. The lot was bought by his mother in 1841. Shortly thereafter, this three story home, planned by Edison’s Father, Samuel, was built on the side of the hill overlooking the busy and flourishing Milan Canal.

Although young Edison had only three months of formal schooling, he was a very inquisitive boy. Stimulated and encouraged by his Mother, Nancy, who was a teacher before her marriage, he learned rapidly on his own.

This house, sold in 1854 when the family moved to Port Huron, Michigan, was acquired by Edison himself in 1906. After his death in 1931, his wife and daughter opened the birthplace as a memorial and house museum. In 1947, the house was restored to its original appearance and, to insure its permanent preservation, the Edison Birthplace Association Inc. was formed.

Thomas Alva Edison’s inventions and contributions to our society are well known to all. There’s no doubt that he altered the lifestyle of the entire civilized world when he introduced the incandescent lamp in 1879. His birthplace is a living memorial and tribute to the memory of this remarkable man.

These two pages sponsored by thirty chapters of the Northwest District of Ohio.
Edison Chandelier, St. Paul's

Thomas Alva Edison presented this red and yellow brass chandelier to St. Paul's United Methodist Church, Tiffin, Ohio, in 1884. The church was the first public building to be wired for electricity during construction.

The entire year, 1979, has been designated the "Centennial of Light" — during which time a series of special public events will not only mark the 100th anniversary of Thomas Alva Edison's invention of the incandescent lamp, but also honor his enthusiasm for invention and innovation.

Although Edison held more than 1000 varied patents, most historians will agree that his major contribution to the world was his development of the first electric generating station which made his electric light bulb practical.

Shortly before he died at the age of 84, he wrote, "I have lived a long time. I have seen history repeat itself again and again. I have seen many depressions in business. Always, America has come out stronger and more prosperous." It was Edison's many useful and unique inventions which made much of this strength and prosperity possible.

The Miami University women's residence hall known as Old Oxford College, in 1976 was entered in the National Register of Historic Places. The building actually has been listed in the Register by its original name, The Oxford Female Institute. It was made a Caroline Scott Harrison Memorial by the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution, in 1929. The proposal for inclusion of the building in the Register was promoted by the Oxford Caroline Scott Chapter, NSDAR. Oxford Female Institute was organized in 1849 by Dr. John Witherspoon Scott who had been on Miami University faculty 1828 - 1845.

Caroline Lavina Scott was born in Oxford, Ohio, October 1, 1832, daughter of Mary Neal and John Witherspoon Scott. Under the influence of her father who promoted higher education for young women, she was graduated from the Institute in 1852. She married Benjamin Harrison, the 1852 Miami graduate, who was to become 23rd President of the United States.

Caroline Scott Harrison became the first President-General, National Society Daughters of the American Revolution, while First Lady of the Land.

An insight into life as it was lived on the frontier can be gained by visitors to Lincoln Boyhood in Indiana, where the National Park Service maintains the Lincoln farm as it was when young Abe was growing into manhood.

The Environmental Study Area, a part of the original Thomas Lincoln Farm, is for the enjoyment of everyone. Here you can walk the same land which Abraham Lincoln walked as a boy, and study the elements in his surroundings that helped shape the young boy into the great man he became.

formative years — from age 7 to 21 years

Nathan Hinkle, Muscatatuck, Lost River, Major Abraham Owen, Lone Tree, Cradle of Liberty, Fort Vallonia, General Charles Scott, General Thomas Seeks Village, Nineteenth Star, General Francis Marion, Colonel Augustin de Miriam Benedict, General James Cox, Dr. Manasseh Cutler, Jonathon Jennings.
On the frontier almost everyone practiced at least two, if not many more, professions. Thomas Lincoln was first a farmer and second a carpenter and house-joiner. Beyond these he was also a cooper who made barrels or casks and a wheelwright who made wagon wheels and sometimes wagons. He was known for his fine craftsmanship and cabinet work done with tools which, though crude by today’s standards, were said to be “the wonder of the neighborhood.” Like all good neighbors in this rugged land, he helped others construct their houses and build the Little Pigeon Church.

Located in the backyard in close proximity to the cabin were a number of things important to the frontier family. A grindstone was used to sharpen tools; an ash hopper placed in a corner was used to make lye by pouring water over wood ashes and collecting the substance that dripped from the bottom. This lye was then mixed with fat to make soap through a formula which called for six bushels of ashes plus fifty pounds of grease to equal one tub of soap. A large kettle was always available for rendering lard, making soap, doing the wash and dying homespun yarn, as seen here being done by Mary Conen and Sharon Wertman.

You're invited to visit the elegant home of Caroline Scott Harrison, first President General of the NSDAR, and her husband, Benjamin, the 23rd President of the United States. Built in 1875 and restored by the owner the Arthur Jordan Foundation, the memorial has much to offer those interested in antiques, art, history or decorating. Most of the furnishings are those used by the Harrison family. There is a large collection of watercolors and handpainted china done by Mrs. Harrison who was a talented artist. Gowns and jewelry which belonged to the ladies of the Harrison family are displayed along with many personal items of the era. Many mementoes from the presidential campaign and the White House years are displayed. Conducted tours daily.

We thank the Indiana DAR for the recent reconstruction of the Harrison grape arbor and herb garden as a memorial to Caroline Scott Harrison.

WEST VIRGINIA DAUGHTERS

The Webster home of the Jarvis family, built in 1854 by Granville E. Jarvis

Anna Jarvis was born in the upstairs room on the left. General George B. McClellan used the lower right-hand room as his office in May and June, 1861.

Tentative plans are for the home to be furnished with pieces from the period of Anna Jarvis' birth in 1864. The home is scheduled to be open to the public during specific months of the year.

ALL ABOUT FAIRFIELD BAY

Fairfield Bay is a 12,000-acre total living resort, recreation and retirement community located on the north shore of 40,000-acre Greers Ferry Lake, which is recognized as one of the cleanest lakes in the United States (Source: U.S. Army Corps of Engineers) and is the third largest lake in Arkansas.

Greers Ferry Lake, formed by a dam on the Little Red River, is 50 miles long and is surrounded by over 343 miles of unspoiled shoreline. Development on the edge of the lake is strictly prohibited, leaving its shores uncluttered and natural.

As a total living, recreational community, Fairfield Bay is the realization of what the world would be if we had a little more to say about it. Think of a community that's safe, uncrowded, where the air is clean... a community with all recreational facilities built in.

Where days are filled with healthy activities and time moves along at a gentle pace.

Fairfield Bay offers you a permanent home or a home away from home, where it's easy to make close, personal friends.

Above all, Fairfield Bay was developed for the pleasure and enjoyment of both its property owners and residents. With easy access to lakes, rivers, forests, scenic and tourist attractions, there is an endless stream of exciting things to do and places to visit.

But the Bay adds still another dimension to the Ozark way of life - sports.

The Bay's championship 18-hole golf course is challenging and well groomed. The pro shop caters to the golfer's every need and provides rental carts. Fairways wind around and through the forested mountains to plush carpet-grass greens.

Tennis gets emphasis at the Bay, too, with a newly created Tennis Academy, where professional instructors hold teaching clinics on six courts adjacent to the Racquet Club.

The Fairfield Bay Marina opens the crystal clear fun of Greers Ferry Lake. You can rent a complete fishing outfit, a power boat with ski gear or party barge, head for open waters or slip into a quiet cove in search of game fish.

Record catches are a common occurrence at Greers Ferry which abounds with walleye, bream, crappie, channel catfish, rainbow trout and the tail-twisting, lure-shaking largemouth and white bass.

The areas surrounding the lake yield deer, quail, duck, geese, squirrel, rabbit and wild turkey in ample supply during hunting seasons.

You'll discover riding stables, hiking trails, interesting natural formations like the Indian Rock House, swimming pools, miniature golf, teen center and children's playgrounds inside Fairfield Bay.

After a hard day of play, it's time to relax with friends, partake of the epicurean delights of the Racquet Club, or enjoy casual, family-style dining at the Wild Boar Restaurant.

Then, live bands and entertainers generate swinging rhythms and mystic moods for dancing. A perfect combination of good music and your favorite beverages turn an exciting day of play into a quiet whisper at night.

For information and lodging reservations phone 501-884-3333 or 1-800-643-9790 or write Indian Rock Resort, Box 3008, Fairfield Bay, Arkansas 72088.

The Lue R. Spencer Library, housed in the Edith Abbott Memorial Library, 211 N. Washington Street, Grand Island, Nebraska is one of the greatest assets of the Nebraska DAR. It was started about 40 years ago when Lue R. Spencer, a Nebraska native and for many years the genealogical editor of the DAR Magazine, gave her collection to the State Society. She designated it as a “travelling” library, and for years it was carried in boxes to every state and district meeting. Members borrowed the books and returned them by mail to the state librarian. As the collection grew, boxes became inadequate, and the library was housed in first one public library and then another throughout the state, thus maintaining its “travelling” status. Today the collection contains about a thousand books. The library is maintained by contributions of books and money from Chapters, and all work is done by volunteers.

It is available to the public during regular library hours, but only Nebraska DAR members may borrow books for home use. During the last two years the collection has been re-cataloged, and a printed catalog issued. Increase in the use of the books has been phenomenal; no doubt due to the increased interest of the general public in “roots” and to the relocation of the library in the central part of the state.
Kate Baker Busey (1855-1934) was a woman with a strong social conscience. In the 1880s Kate Baker travelled from Cobden, Illinois, to Virginia where she taught wood carving to the Blacks at Hampton Institute. Later she became a teacher at Colorado River Indian Reservation in Arizona. As regent of Alliance Chapter, Mrs. Busey convinced chapters in the area and eventually the Illinois State Organization to mark the Circuit of the Old Eighth Judicial District travelled by Lincoln. Markers at county court houses and boundary lines can be seen today. In Urbana, she organized the first P.T.A. The first kindergarten with a hired teacher was held in her home. She involved herself in the work of building good county roads in order to make better education accessible to the children. Woman's suffrage was close to her heart. She spent countless hours promoting the movement.

Coming To Minnesota This Summer?

Don't miss touring two historical homes of 1835 era where Minnesota history was first shaped and fashioned. These homes are shown under the auspices of Minnesota Daughters of the American Revolution.

Sibley House, a 2½ story stone building was Minnesota’s first private residence and was constructed by voyageurs and trappers. Sibley was Minnesota’s first governor and his home was also his office, store and center of pioneer life in this region. Here settlers and Indians met peaceably and an outside stairway to the attic let the Indians have warm housing without disturbing the Sibley family. This home is filled with period pieces in keeping with pre-Civil War era and many are original family belongings. Five of the Sibley children were born in one of the bedrooms and yet each birth was in a different state or territory since boundary lines changed so frequently in those days. Three additional buildings on the property include a carriage house, Sibleys Secretary home, now a tea house and a laundry.

Sibley’s neighbor was Jean Baptiste Faribault, a spirited frontiersman and skillful fur trader.

Faribault House is an imposing yellow sandstone colonial style home; today a fitting museum of very fine Indian artifacts, which are well exhibited.

Fort Snelling State Park is on the opposite side of the river junction of the Minnesota and Mississippi and Pike Island links the two historic locations.

AMERICAN REVOLUTION COLLECTIBLE

This limited edition offer commemorates the 200th anniversary of Molly Pitcher's history making event. It has been exclusively handcrafted for American Bison Corporation.

Molly Hays went to war with her artilleryman husband. During the historic battle of Monmouth (June 28, 1778 — a fiercely hot day), she carried water to thirsty soldiers in the pitcher that was to change her name in history books.

Never before has a commemorative been more symbolic. Plates, coins, bottles have been issued to commemorate people and events, but this collectible is truly unique, since the pitcher alone, commemorates both person and event. This limited edition pitcher is mouth blown, as evidenced by the pontil mark.* It is hand crafted by the famed Clevenger Bros. Glass Works of Clayton, N.J.

The front scene (illustrated), depicts Molly Pitcher manning her fallen husband's cannon. The reverse side represents General George Washington at the battle of Monmouth with Major Gen. Marquis de la Fayette and Lieut. Col. Alexander Hamilton close behind on horseback. Both scenes are embossed in the glass of this hand made mouth blown pitcher.

Because each pitcher is hand made, no two are identical; each one possesses a unique characteristic of its own.

We've chosen to make this pitcher in the original formula of "Jersey Green," that being the color of the first hand blown glass in the United States. You will appreciate the excellent quality of this pitcher when it is in your hands.

Enclosed with your order, you will find a certificate of authenticity with your pitcher's serial number and a short history of Molly Pitcher. Each pitcher ordered will be registered in your name or name of your choice.

Gift cards enclosed according to your instructions.

NOTICE:

DUE TO NUMEROUS REQUESTS FROM DAR MEMBERS WE WILL CONTINUE TO MAKE THIS SPECIAL EDITION OF THE "MOLLY PITCHER" PITCHER AVAILABLE TO YOU. IF YOU WISH TO OWN THIS FINE COLLECTIBLE WE URGE YOU TO PLACE YOUR ORDER IMMEDIATELY. WE WILL STRICTLY ADHERE TO THE LIMITED EDITION OF 5000 PITCHERS. PLEASE NOTE THAT WE WILL BE SHOWING THIS FINE COLLECTIBLE AT YOUR ANNUAL DAR CONGRESS IN WASHINGTON, D.C., APRIL 16-19, 1979.

*Each pitcher must be broken off the metal rod which holds it during the process of blowing. This leaves a “pontil” mark which is the trademark of a mouth-blown pitcher. Each pitcher bears the pontil mark.
