Since 1891, J.E. Caldwell has supplied insignia for the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution. As your society approaches its hundredth anniversary, J.E. Caldwell is proud to offer you this gold-filled Century of Service pin, priced at $35. Please add $3.00 for shipping and handling; Pennsylvania residents also add 6% sales tax.

For every purchase you make, we'll contribute $5.00 to the J.E. Caldwell Scholarship Fund, administered by the National Society of the DAR.
On July 3-4, 1986, Lady Liberty will witness the grandest celebration that America has staged since the Bicentennial of the United States of America in 1976. Liberty Weekend will begin with a gala Opening Ceremony on July 3rd. A parade of naval vessels and tall ships will follow on the 4th. During that evening an Americana Music Concert will precede the most dramatic Fireworks Extravaganza ever created.

This wonderful statue, now completely restored for her 100th birthday, was the gift of France to the United States during America’s Centennial Celebration in 1876. NSDAR will be represented at Liberty Weekend by the President General, Mrs. Raymond F. Fleck, and Mrs. Walter Hughey King, Honorary President General. DAR members throughout the world contributed over $500,000 toward Lady Liberty’s restoration.

The 95th Continental Congress saw the election of a new President General of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution and a new Honorary President General. Mrs. Walter Hughey King, Honorary President General (left) is shown with the new President General, Mrs. Raymond Franklin Fleck, following the installation of all newly elected National Officers.
DEAR DAUGHTERS:

Let me express our thanks to you for your confidence in us, your new Executive Officers. You know and I know that we cannot do well in the work that lies ahead without God's help and your help.

As we approach the Bicentennial of the United States Constitution and the centennial of our own Society, we are grateful for all the accomplishments of those who have guided us so well in the past. Now, as we move forward, there is much work to be done to plan meaningful events for September 1987 and October 1990.

As we move forward together, we want to be a forceful power of good and great volunteerism. We do want to reach out to make a difference. We want fewer words and more action. "Be ye doers, not just hearers." In this three-year administration we have 1,095 days to serve you. We will take one day at a time and keep in mind these appropriate words by an unknown author—

Forget each kindness that you do as soon as you have done it;
Forget the praise that falls to you the moment you have won it;
Forget the slander that you hear before you can repeat it;
Forget each slight, each spite, each sneer, whenever you may meet it.
Remember every kindness done to you what'er its measure;
Remember praise by others won and pass it on with pleasure;
Remember every promise made and keep it to the letter;
Remember those who lend you aid and be a grateful debtor.
Remember all the happiness that comes your way in living:
Forget each worry and distress, be hopeful and forgiving.

"There are new horizons waiting, unknown challenges to meet, goals to set and discoveries to make. There are magical adventures, different wonders to explore, opportunities for each of us to take. There are endless possibilities in every present moment and the promise of success with each new day. There's no limit to the joy and rich fulfillment we can have if we only let our visions lead the way." (Bradley)

We, at this time are ready for new beginnings, new challenges, and let us all renew right spirits within us. With God's help and yours, we will move forward together with dependability, diligence and devotion.

Sincerely,

Congress attracts Daughters from all over the world! Some highlights: Representatives of N.S.C.A.R.; installation of new State Regents; and recognition of Members who served in the Armed Forces, especially a WWI veteran.
Our Junior members proudly serve as Pages to add beauty and color to each opening ceremony as they present the Flag of the United States of America, the DAR Banner and the Flags of each of our DAR State Organizations.
Opening Night speaker was the Hon. Philip Crane (with Mrs. King and Mrs. Schlafly). Dr. Rhea Seddon, DAR member and Astronaut, also spoke. Mrs. Raymond Fleck was installed as President General by Mrs. Walter Hughey King.
UPON THIS

Sloop WASP, one of several vessels used to transport granite from John Beattie Granite Works in Leetes Island, Connecticut to Bedloe’s Island.
SOME came by way of Boston, Philadelphia or New York; others came though Halifax and drifted south into the United States seeking an opportunity to ply their trade or to obtain employment in the granite quarries on the East Coast. They were Finns, Swedes, Irish and Scots who had a working knowledge of blasting, stone cutting, stone setting, and water transportation. Some had no specific training but were quick—for one reason or another—to develop the ability to work along with those who knew the stone trade. These 19th century immigrants would leave their mark, as others before them, on the doorway to a new life.

It was the early 1880s and the John Beattie quarries in Leetes Island, Connecticut were in a period of rapid development. Following the Civil War, steel and black powder, so necessary in quarrying and cutting granite, became more readily available and granite became a commodity for a wide range of uses. The demand grew with the years as the federal government embarked upon a public works program using great amounts of granite in the process. Competent “navigators” in the political and business fields were adept at acquiring government contracts and recognized the opportunities afforded in the expanding economy for the use of granite. Immigrant stone workers supplied the materials for many ambitious government programs. The building of post offices, court houses, libraries, river and harbor improvements, lighthouses, bridges and street paving quickly absorbed the newly arrived labor force seeking new opportunities in a land that had recently found a renewed sense of purpose following the bleak days of 1860-65.

The French sought expression for our national spirit in a successful attempt to present a giant symbolic statue to be placed at the Gateway to the New World. Reception and cooperative efforts to prepare a suitable foundation on this side of the Atlantic were not as enthusiastic. The philosophical idealism of the French took time and effort to blend with the more pragmatic pursuits of the Americans. From 1883 until 1885 editor Joseph Pulitzer waged a relentless attack upon readers of the New York World to come forth with needed funds. The editors finally saw fruition in the topping off of the pedestal fund in August 1885.

The long, drawn out attempt to collect funds for Liberty’s pedestal is illustrated in the 1885 diary of 13-year-old Peter Beattie, son of John Beattie of Leetes Island, Connecticut, who was to supply the granite for the pedestal. Peter’s entry for “Monday, Feb. 9, 1885. . . . It began to rain about eight o’clock and it made water come out of the overflow on the pond, the green was all flooded with water. General Stone came in from New York in the evening on the seven (o’clock) train. It was very rough all night.” Several months later, “Tuesday, April 14, 1885. . . . The John and (the) Mary (vessels) came in from Saybrook about five o’clock. General Stone did not come. . . .” Peter’s entries for August until the beginning of school were simply, “work.” Contract work in the Quarry for the Liberty project often stopped due to the lack of funds—other contracts paid regularly.

Major General Charles P. Stone (1824-1887), chief engineer on the American Committee, was a frequent visitor at the Beattie home during the pedestal construction period. He had searched for a suitable granite site and finally selected the Connecticut location because of its particularly fine deposits of high quality building granite. General Stone and John Beattie (1820-1899) became friends in the process.

Leetes Island granite was quarried and transported by stone sloops and schooners for breakwaters, bridge work and monuments principally along the East Coast. Abutments for the Madison Avenue Bridge across the Harlem River, anchorages for Brooklyn Bridge, Battery Wharf, Statue of Liberty pedestal, and bridges for the Harlem Railroad are but a few examples of contracts completed by John Beattie in the New York City area alone.

The Leetes Island quarries were awarded the contract for Liberty’s granite pedestal for specific reasons. The Connecticut shorelines shows evidence of both marine deposits and erosional forms of coastline. Erosion is especially evident between East River and New Haven Harbor where beaches are fairly rare. Where they do appear they are the pocket types—short stretches of sand between projecting masses of exposed granite. The Leetes Island quarries located just east of Branford and New Haven provided a very dense granite capable of taking an excellent polish. The locally called “West Quarry” where much of the Statue of Liberty pedestal granite was loaded onto vessels furnished a biotite granite gneiss of medium to dark reddish gray color. Numerous other veins in the area provided a granite gneiss of warm gray tint while still others produced a warm pinkish gray color of fine texture. The quarries, several in number, consisted of openings running 1,500-2,000 feet east to west and 400-800 feet across providing a work area approximately 10-70 feet above sea level. Color, texture and density made the granite very popular on the competitive market.

Relative ease of transportation was another factor that enabled John Beattie to outbid many of his competitors. Stone, sometimes 1,500 tons at one blast was quarried right out of the hillside, worked in huge open-air cutting sheds and loaded onto his own vessels within a very short distance on the shoreline. As many as 400 workmen, mostly immigrants extracted the stone for huge government as well as private contracts.

General Stone and Richard M. Hunt, chief American archihigh, 91 feet square at the bottom and 65 feet square at the top. Twenty-nine feet above the positioning of the granite walls four girders were built into the walls forming a square across the inside. Fifty-five feet higher more girders were set. Both sets were then connected by means of iron tie beams which in turn continued on up to become part of the Statue framework. As a result, any wind or outside force exerted upon the Statue would be carried down to the 29 foot level, thus combining the weight of concrete, iron and granite to that of the copper sections of the Statue. 4

The combined efforts of French engineer Alexandre Gustave Eiffel, French sculptor Frederic Auguste Bartholdi, American architect Richard M. Hunt and American engineer Major General Charles P. Stone devised the method of anchorage and support that has stood the test of time in New York Harbor. Upon completion of the entire project Ferdinand de Lesseps, chairman of the French Committee upon de Laboulaye’s death was to comment; “It has surpassed my expectations. I was prepared for a work of art, but this is sublime.”

The idea initiated in 1865 around the dinner table of Edouard de Laboulaye near Versailles, France saw its final completion in New York Harbor through the combined efforts of both French and Americans in 1886. Typical of the spirit of this country a Scottish immigrant granite contractor and hundreds of Irish, Swedish and Finnish quarrymen furnished the foundation upon which the Symbol of Freedom in the New World would cast her light to others.

Freedom Versus Government Spending

By the Honorable Phil Gramm, U.S. Senator from Texas
Address at the National Defense Luncheon, April 14, 1986

You have read in the newspapers and heard on radio and television about how the Gramm-Rudman Law cuts, slashes, denies, and hurts. Have you ever read the headline “Gramm-Rudman Saves” or the full headline “Gramm-Rudman Saves Taxpayers Money To Guarantee Bright Future For The People Who Do The Work and Pay The Taxes and Make America Work?”

You have not seen that headline because headlines are written as if the money that government spends comes from heaven, that those who receive it are net beneficiaries and nobody pays for it, and that if government does not spend the money because of some tightfisted Congressman or Senator, that money is lost.

Did you ever stop to think about what happens to the money that Gramm-Rudman saves? That money is not lost. That money goes back to families to invest in the American dream. That’s what the Gramm-Rudman Law is all about.

The Gramm-Rudman Law is a simple idea. It sets out a five-year program to balance the Federal budget. It is not a matter of small import that the average working family today, which has two children, earns $28,500, and pays $965 a year in taxes just for interest on the Federal debt. The Federal debt has doubled in the last five years as Congress has refused to say “No” to all the organized special-interest groups in the country.

In 1980, we set out to change America by changing the policies of Federal Government, and we have done that. In 1980 the inflation rate had reached 13½ percent, and inflation was the Number One problem in America, the scourge of a whole generation. It had destroyed the nest egg of our senior citizens, and it had made it impossible for people to save to provide for their future and the future of their children.

We set a goal to control spending and to reduce taxes in order to provide an incentive for people to work. We have been so successful in reducing inflation that, three months ago when the inflation rate reached the lowest level in 17 years, it wasn’t a front-page news item in any major daily newspaper in the country. That’s how successful we have been!

In 1980, the American people were burdened by high tax levels that crushed the incentive of people to work, save, and invest. We cut marginal taxes across the board by 25 percent, and we took 98 percent of the American families off the inheritance tax rolls. That is an unfair tax which taxes income twice—once when you save it and then again when you save to build up your business or farm and pass it on to your children at your death. Thanks to the Reagan tax program, that won’t happen again.

The American people have responded by working and saving and investing. In fact, the new figure as of last month is that, in the last six years, 1.02 million more Americans have gone to work in permanent, productive taxpaying jobs with a future. That’s more jobs in the private sector than all the dead-end, make-work government jobs programs that have ever been adopted in the history of the Republic put together.

In 1980, the average inductee into the military services had the lowest IQ level since we started keeping data in 1911. We had a smaller percentage who were high school graduates than in any year in the postwar period. Our planes didn’t fly and our ships didn’t sail because we didn’t have spare parts, and we didn’t have mechanics to repair those weapons. Americans stood on guard for freedom all over the world with weapons older than our servicemen and, as a result, Communism was on the move around the world. All that has now changed.

Today we have the finest young men and women who have ever worn our country’s uniform, and they wear it with pride all over the world. Last year the average new inductee had the highest IQ level in American history for new inductees, and 94 percent of them were high school graduates. That is the highest level in the history of the country.

We have rebuilt our strategic Triad, we have built new weapons, and the peace is more secure today than it was six years ago because America is stronger today than it was six years ago. The Soviets came back to the bargaining table not because we offered concessions and certainly not because we were weak, but because we were strong. Only from a position of strength can peace be arrived at and preserved in this world.

In 1980, the Social Security Trust Fund was rapidly being used up. It went broke in 1982, but today it is back in the black and the Trust Fund is growing. If the economy stays healthy, it will be in the black until the war-year babies, who were born in 1941, turn 65 years old. At that point, we will again have an actuarial problem.

But there is one promise that we made...
We will soon begin to write a new budget in the Senate. You're going to hear every special-interest group in the country scream and shout about how they can't make the cuts in their program. You're going to hear members of the Congress say we must raise taxes because we can not control spending. Let me set the problem out in perspective.

Revenues are growing by $72 billion as a result of the fact that 2.2 million Americans are going to work this year in new jobs. That's $72 billion more revenues than we had last year-and without a tax increase! Depending on the state of the economy, how high interest rates are, and how high the inflation rate is, between $50 and $60 billion of that $72 billion has to go to reduce the deficit to meet the requirements of Gramm-Rudman.

That means that Congress will still be able to spend between $10 and $20 billion more next year than it spent this year and still meet the requirements of the Gramm-Rudman Law. In other words, under the Gramm-Rudman Law, Federal spending without a tax increase will grow between one and two percent a year, every year, for five years. That will be difficult when Federal spending has been growing at 12 percent a year, but it is not cruel or unusual punishment to limit the right of growth in government to one or two percent.

When you next hear about all these spending cuts, remember, under Gramm-Rudman there will be no reduction in the total level of Federal spending. If Congress lets some program grow faster than two percent a year, some program will have to grow slower, but there will not be a reduction in the total level of Federal outlays.

Those who want to raise taxes are really saying that we don't want to control spending, that we don't want to be forced to cut the fat out of the federal budget, that instead we want to raise taxes and cut the heart out of the family budget and the business budget.

What they are saying is: they don't want to make the hard choices, and they want to raise your taxes and force you to make those hard choices. They want to go back to the policies of the 1970s. In the 1970s Federal spending grew so rapidly that the average American—after taxes, after inflation, after high interest rates, and after all the Federal borrowing that occurred—was worse off in 1980 than that worker was in 1970 in terms of what he could buy with what he took home from his paycheck.

How did that happen? Well, it happened because, in the decade of the 1970s, government used up the entire growth potential of the American economy. All the growth in the decade of the 1970s went to government, not to the working people of America. Those who want to raise taxes want to go back to that policy. The choice we make about the deficit, and about the programs we institute to control it, is not just a choice about whether we control spending or raise taxes. It is a choice about what kind of America we want.

Do you want an America that is dominated by government? Is your vision for America's future a vision of government growing and providing more and more expensive services to more people? That vision dominated U.S. government in the 1970s. Or, is your vision a vision of America where opportunity is growing and where more people have more access to it?

I believe that the American people want opportunity. The conflict in the budget comes because you can't have unlimited opportunity and unlimited government at the same time. Our Founding Fathers understood that, and it is a lesson that we have tended to forget in the last few decades as government has become bigger, more expensive, and more powerful.

The real success of the Reagan program, beginning in 1981, was not a new idea. It was a reaffirmation of an old idea. It was based on a reaffirmation of the concept that the American people are productive when we have incentives for people to be productive.

America is not a great nation just because the best people in the world came to live here. The truth is that, along with the adventurous and the brave, also came the losers of the Old World, the people who didn't make it under the old system. What made America great was not just the people who came to live here, but our system that provided incentives and opportunity, a system that drew from plain old ordinary people, like most of us, extraordinary results.

All during the 1950s and '60s and '70s, most Americans knew something was wrong. They knew that big government was not working, but they didn't know what to do about it. I remember when I first came to this city, some eight years ago, to testify before the two Energy Committees of the House and Senate on the so-called oil crisis. I had written a book on the subject and a series of articles for the Wall Street Journal.

I went back home and, with the kind of expertise one has after being somewhere for four days, I made up an analogy to explain to my wife what the problem was in Washington. I said, Wendy, it's as if a giant piece of paper has blown into the nation's Capitol and affixed itself to the Capitol dome blotting out the sun; and Congress, assuming that whatever happens on Capitol Hill is happening all over the world, recognizes that there is a problem. So the liberal rushes forth with the most powerful words ever spoken in political debate. Those words are: I have an idea.

The idea presented in the 1960s and '70s was always the same. In fact, it is still the same; it is just cloaked in a different garb. That idea was: Let's have government set up a program to deal with it. That was the same idea that dominated the world when our forefathers left the Old World. They came to the New World to get away from that approach to problems.

During the 1960s and '70s, the conservatives, who were trying to espouse the same ideas as our revolutionary fathers, stepped forward with the weakest words ever uttered in a political debate. Those words were: I don't have an idea. In fact, I haven't had an idea in 30 years. I am opposed to the liberal's idea but I'm reasonable, so I'll compromise. He wants to spend $60 billion to build an artificial sun to shine on government. Instead, let's spend $40 billion, and build it through free enterprise, and then we'll regulate it.

As I told my wife, no one in Washington was saying, why don't we tear the piece of paper off the Capitol dome. Those of us who share the vision of our Founding Fathers today have the ideas. Congressmen Tip O'Neill and Jim Wright can't point to a single achievement of their philosophy in the last decade in America. As a little boy, I lived near a railroad track. I used to go out and put a penny on the track to see what it would do to the train. Those of you who have done the same experiment know that this doesn't do much to the train, but it does a lot to the penny.

Well, all during the 1960s and '70s we were trying to hold the train back. Today we are the train. We are the train because we have the ideas that dominate the political debate. Those ideas are making America work again because they are the ideas that built America in the first place.

There is one simple secret of America's success. Of course there are other factors, but there is one most important secret. Liberty has been the key to our progress in the past, and liberty is the key to our progress in the future. If we can preserve freedom in all of its essentials, I don't believe there is any limit to the future of the American people. I have ultimate faith in the people so long as we let them exercise their liberties in investing their time, their talents and their money in trying to advance their families and their loved ones. That is what makes this great system of ours work and advances our great nation.

I want to conclude by thanking the DAR for your good work, for keeping alive the memories of those revolutionaries who built this country. Thank you for reminding each of us that we live in an old house built over two hundred years ago by master craftsmen, but that we have to continue to invest in tearing out rotten timber, scraping the old paint off, and putting on new paint. In the process, you remind us not just of the great work done in the past, but the great work that must be done in the future.

The other day, I took my young son into the reception room on the Senate side in the Capitol. Those of you who have been there know that there are five cameo paintings of the five men who were voted about 30 years ago as the five greatest Senators. There are also some empty cameos and, as ten-year-olds will do, my little boy asked me which one of these cameos is the most important. I thought for a minute, was it Webster, was it Calhoun, was it Taft, was it La Follette? Then suddenly I realized that the most important cameo was the empty cameo, because it still reminds each of us that there is work to be done, that we can do that work, and in doing so we can contribute to the great work of those who went before us.
In response to your requests, the Centennial Jubilee NSDAR Committee, Mrs. William Henry Sullivan, Chairman, is pleased to publish the Charter Members of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution. At the organizational meeting which formed the National Society on October 11, 1890, the names of 18 women were enrolled for membership with 11 paying dues. These signatures are preserved in the NSDAR Archives. When the Charter membership list closed on October 11, 1891, the last National Number was 818.

Subsequent issues of DAR Magazine will publish the complete list of Charter Members in National Number order with Revolutionary Ancestor and brief description of the service rendered.

(To Be Continued)
The regular meeting of the National Board of Management of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution convened in the Board Room of Memorial Continental Hall, Washington, D.C., at 9:30 a.m., Mrs. Walter Hughey King, President General, presiding.

The invocation was given by the Chaplain General, Mrs. James Louis Robertson, followed by the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, led by Mrs. Eldred Martin Yochim, First Vice President General.

The Recording Secretary General, Mrs. Raymond Franklin Fleck, called the roll. The following were recorded present: National Officers: Executive Officers: Mrs. King, Mrs. Yochim, Mrs. Robertson, Mrs. Fleck, Mrs. Clyde, Mrs. Creedon, Mrs. Hamm, Mrs. Long, Mrs. Gauthier, Mrs. Saavedra. State Vice Regent: Mrs. Thornton, Nevada.

The First Vice President General, Mrs. Yochim, took the chair and the President General, Mrs. King, read her report.

Report of President General

The President General returned home following the meetings of the February National Board of Management prior to her official tour of State Conferences. She began her official visits in Phoenix, Arizona, Mrs. Robert C. Smith, Jr., State Regent, February 13-15. She was in Honolulu for the Hawaii State Conference on February 22, Mrs. Robert Rigler, State Regent. February 27-March 1, the California State Conference was held in Los Angeles, Mrs. Charles K. Kemper, State Regent. March 2-3, the Nevada State Conference was held in Reno, Mrs. L. John Heenan, State Regent. March 9-12, the Oklahoma State Conference was held in Oklahoma City, Mrs. F. Don Foresee, State Regent. March 12-14, the Montana State Conference was held in Great Falls, Mrs. James E. Stephenson, State Regent. She was in Salt Lake City March 14-16 for the Utah State Conference, Mrs. Verdi R. White, State Regent. March 17-19, the Virginia State Conference was held in Richmond, Mrs. George E. Honts, State Regent. March 19-21, she attended the Kansas State Conference in Overland Park, Kansas, Mrs. Billy P. Compton, State Regent. March 21-22, the Iowa State Conference was held in Des Moines, Mrs. W. E. Ebert, State Regent. March 24-26, she was in Tacoma for the Washington State Conference, Mrs. Stanley Bills, State Regent. March 27-29, the Idaho State Conference was held in Nampa, Mrs. Ivan L. Skinner, State Regent.

In 1973, a brass plaque was placed at the USS Arizona Memorial, Pearl Harbor. This plaque, over the years, became discolored and unattractive. While in Hawaii, the President General participated in rededication ceremonies of a new bronze tablet.

On March 3, Mrs. Fred J. Fricke, Vice Chairman, DAR Museum Committee, gave a lovely party for the President General while she was in Reno.

The 6th and 7th of March, she attended her own Tennessee State Conference held in Knoxville, Mrs. Dan C. Gary, State Regent. On Saturday, March 8, three chapters located in the Knoxville area—Lydia RussellBean, Spencer Clark and Great Smokies, hosted a luncheon honoring the President General.

Shortly after arriving in Oklahoma City, the President General learned of the serious illness and subsequent death of the Corresponding Secretary General. Prior to attending the Montana State Conference, she drove with the Kansas State Regent, Mrs. Billy P. Compton to Wichita to spend time with the family of Mrs. Decker. In Salt Lake City, it was her privilege to attend the Sunday broadcast of the Mormon Tabernacle Choir as the guest of the State Regent. She was also given a tour of the Genealogical Library of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints. On March 22, she returned to Washington, D.C., where she attended the 40th Anniversary Concert of the United States Army Field Band at DAR Constitution Hall. The Band presented a stirring American musical salute to the Bicentennial of the United States of America, and the President General was introduced. The next morning she had lunch with members of the Executive staff of the Francis Scott Key Park Foundation Inc. to discuss future plans for the establishment of a park commemorating the author of the National Anthem. That afternoon, the President General attended the United States Air Force Band Concert in Constitution Hall. The program was presented in honor of the DAR and of Constitution Hall upon its designation as a National Historic Landmark. The President General was presented with a special plaque by the Commander of the Band, Major James M. Bankhead. Following the concert, a lovely reception was held at Boling Air Force Base hosted by Brig. General Edward N. Giddings, Commander, Headquarters Air Force District of Columbia and Mrs. Giddings. Bright and early the next morning she was at the airport to continue her meteoric tour of the United States.

The original date set for the official visit of the President General with the Oregon Daughters had to be changed by the State Regent and it was not possible for her to be in Oregon at the time of the new dates. Thus, a special meeting was set up by the members in Portland for the President General to meet with them unofficially. A delicious luncheon was planned and a large number of Daughters, including several State Officers, State Vice Regents, and Honorary State Regents from the State of Oregon, were in attendance.

The President General spent the Easter weekend at home. She returned to Washington on the first of April and on the 2nd participated in the pinning of 17 new Museum Docents and was a guest at the Museum Docents Committee luncheon which was held in the Banquet Hall.

April 3 she was present at the General Federation of Women's Clubs History and Resource Center upon the acceptance of the "Decade for Women" archives collection from Good Housekeeping Magazine.

April 4 she was a guest at a reception at The District Building hosted by the Mayor of the District of Columbia, and Mrs. Barry, honoring the President of Fisk University, Dr. Henry Ponder.

April 5, the Ambassador to the League of Arab States, Dr. Clovis Matsoud, and Mrs. Matsoud, hosted a reception at the Hotel Washington in honor of Dr. Ponder and the Fisk Benefict, which the President General attended.

Later that day the President General, accompanied by the First Vice President General and the Chaplain General, joined other guests at a reception held by Fisk University in the DAR Museum Gallery prior to the Benefit Concert for Fisk held in Constitution Hall. David Clarke, Chairman of the City Council of the District of Columbia, sat in the President General's box with her, Mrs. Yochim and Mrs. Robertson.
April 7, she had lunch with General Hazel Johnson-Brown at the Mayflower Hotel and discussed future plans for the American Nurses' Association and possible support for the George Mason University Doctoral program in nursing.

That evening she joined members of the Resolutions Committee for a Buffet Supper at the Capital Hilton Hotel.

April 9, as the guest of Ede Fraser, she attended a dinner honoring Donald Regan at the J. W. Marriott Hotel.

The President General chaired the meetings of the Executive Committee, April 8-10.

The morning of April 11, the President General greeted the members of the National Officers Club during its Annual Meeting and that evening she attended the Annual Dinner of the Executive Club at the Capital Hilton Hotel.

The first phase of Climate-Control has been completed and the second phase has begun. The O'Byrne Room has a new look and the Mail Room has a new location. Following adjournment of Continental Congress, phase 2 will be continued. The professional maintenance crew has endeavored to keep the buildings clean despite the fact that every morning the dust from the old concrete being broken up was over everything. Please bear with us as you go about the business of Continental Congress next week.

These past three years have been filled with challenge, opportunity and a remarkable amount of work! The President General wishes to extend to each of you her deep appreciation for your loyalty and dedication. You have provided the spark needed to propel the Society forward, toward new goals. Without your interest and your enthusiasm, we could not have accomplished so much. She had a magnificent celebration in Paris for the bicentennial of the Treaty of Paris and Versailles; we witnessed the organization of two new units Overseas; we have watched one of our own soar into the heavens and return safely; a beautiful book has been published on the DAR Museum; a new book on the Society, Pillars of Patriotism, is available as Volume III of the DAR Patriot Index which covers the spouse of Patriots. Our major accomplishment is the funding of Climate-Control.

We have acquired 212 Life Members.

In closing this report, appreciation is expressed to the following who have represented the President General on occasions when it was not possible for her to be present.

February 12, the First Vice President General, Mrs. Eldred Martin Yochim, participated in the wreath-laying ceremony at the Lincoln Memorial commemorating the birthday-anniversary of President Abraham Lincoln.

On the 26th of February, she also attended a business luncheon of the Women's National Bank at the Columbia Society Headquarters.

That evening she attended a reception hosted by the Board of Trustees, Paralyzed Veterans of America saluting the 95th Congress, at the Dirksen Senate Office Building.

On March 13, the Chaplain General, Mrs. James Louis Robertson, at the invitation of the White House represented the Society in viewing a special display of arms captured in Central America.

Tomorrow, Mrs. Charles A. Bloedorn, Vice President General from Maryland, on behalf of the Society will place a wreath during ceremonies commemorating the 243rd anniversary of the birth of Thomas Jefferson.

The days during the short interval since returning from State Conference visits and Continental Congress have been filled with appointments and meetings.

The President General again takes this opportunity to express her grateful appreciation to all members of the National Board as well as to the staff for their loyalty and service extended to the President General. We hope you consider these three years of the Independence Jubilee Administration as having been productive and constructive and that you will have happy memories of your association on this Board.

This President General expresses her appreciation for the dedication, the cooperation and support given her by the staff serving her office: Jean Jacobs, Ruth Niedzielak and Sandra Johnson, and she is most grateful for the continuous efforts in support of this administration given by General Willis D. Crittenden, Jr.

Sarah M. King, President General

The President General resumed the chair. The First Vice President General, Mrs. Eldred M. Yochim, read her report.

Report of First Vice President General

Since my last report to you at the February Board, a very short time ago, your First Vice President General represented the National Society at the Lincoln Memorial on February 12 for the 177th Anniversary of the Birth of President Abraham Lincoln; and presented a wreath.

She attended on February 22, the Old Dominion Chapter's 63rd Wreath Laying Ceremony, commemorating the Birthday of General George Washington, in the Rotunda of the Capitol of Richmond, Virginia, followed by The Regents' Club of Richmond's George Washington Birthday Luncheon at The Country Club of Virginia.

She represented the National Society at a luncheon hosted by the Women's National Bank, Washington, D.C., on February 26.

The Virginia C.A.R. State Convention was attended on March 1 in Fredericksburg. On March 4 attended the 75th Anniversary of the Ruth Brewster Chapter at the DC Chapter House.

She enjoyed an overnight trip to Williamsburg with the DAR Museum Docents on March 5.

Was guest speaker at the Kentucky State Conference in Lexington March 11-14, Mrs. Tracy Neal, State Regent.

Attended the Virginia State Conference March 17-19, Mrs. G. E. Honts, State Regent. It was an honor for me to introduce our President General who was the Opening Night Speaker. She, this officer, and other Virginia Daughters participated in a Fashion Show preceding the Opening Night Session. The historic and colonial costumes were impressive and added to our Virginia DAR 90th Birthday.

Was guest speaker at the Maryland State Conference in Baltimore, March 20-22, Mrs. David Hawkins, State Regent.

Flew to Seattle, Washington the afternoon of March 22 to attend the Washington State Conference March 24-26 in Tacoma. Spoke at a luncheon meeting on "Our DAR Buildings," Mrs. Stanley Bills, State Regent.

On March 27, attended a Special Forum in Portland, Oregon, in honor of our President General, by the Oregon Lewis and Clark Chapter.

During the two month period of this report, besides attending various functions mentioned, your First Vice President General also was at National Headquarters for 20 days carrying out various duties. It has been a real pleasure to have served with all of you during this Independence Jubilee Administration.

Marie H. Yochim, First Vice President General

The Chaplain General, Mrs. James Louis Robertson read her report.

Report of Chaplain General

The Chaplain General has provided Scripture and prayer at all Executive Committee meetings, National Board of Management and other occasions as requested. She planned a service of remembrance for those who lost their lives in the Challenger disaster. The service was in the NOC Assembly Room and the Staff attended as well as a few visitors who were in the building.

The Chaplain General's project for the past year was a Hymnwriting contest using the Scripture, "Blessed Is the Nation whose God Is the Lord." Winners will be announced at the Brunch on April 13. The Chaplain General was a guest at the District of Columbia State Conference, March 20-22, 1986.

She attended the United States Air Force Band Concert at which special tribute was paid to our National Society. She attended a special program at the State Department to which representatives from 42 organizations had been invited by the President of the United States. The program was called "Citizens For Action" and urged citizens to rally behind our President. She attended the Fisk University Gala on April 5 in Constitution Hall. She also attended the reception in the Museum prior to the Gala. The past few weeks have been spent in finalizing plans for April 13—Memorial Sunday. It has been an honor and a pleasure to serve with my fellow Executive members.

Sarah M. King, President General
The Recording Secretary General, Mrs. Raymond Franklin Fleck, read her report.

Report of Recording Secretary General

The Office of the Recording Secretary General is dependent on the fine work of Mrs. Frances Holland, Administrative Assistant, Mrs. Erma Kirkman, Mrs. Helen Ball, Miss Isabel Allmond, Miss Tam Phu, and our stenotypist, Mrs. Floy Swanson. Their dedication and great efforts are truly appreciated.

This office continues to do much research and provides information in regard to membership certificates. The February National Board of Management minutes were prepared for publication in the DAR Magazine. All National Board rulings were typed and indexed for the permanent records. Executive Officers and the National Board of Management were notified of the April meetings.

Since February, 1,893 membership certificates and one commission were issued. The word processor is still busy indexing Executive rulings. It is an on-going project and never finished. Topics being covered are all Committees—National, Administrative, State and Congress; Printing and Publications—books, booklets, bylaws, magazine, print shop; Buildings—interior, exterior, security, grounds; plus rulings on applications, Historic sites, Insignia, markers, museum, etc. Also work is beginning on the preparation of Congress reports for printing in the Annual Proceedings.

This officer was thrilled to have the opportunity to speak at the following State Conferences with the respective State Regent presiding: Delaware, Mrs. Winfield C. Llewellyn; Mississippi, Mrs. William E. O'Hare; Mexico, Mrs. William A. Watson; Florida, Mrs. Anthony Dobrzaniki; Georgia, Mrs. A. C. Earl Shepherd; Illinois, Mrs. Howard F. Lee; Ohio, Mrs. Donald S. Blair; Wisconsin, Mrs. Ivan M. Niedling; Missouri, Mrs. Joe H. Capps; Massachusetts, Mrs. Robert H. Lubker. Also had the pleasure of speaking at many chapters in Connecticut, Massachusetts and Texas. The warmth, friendship and gracious hospitality shown to this officer during these visits was greatly appreciated. Thank you.

The statistical report for the Office of Corresponding Secretary General was filed.

Report of the Office of the Corresponding Secretary General

This report covers January and February 1986. During these two months 4,966 pieces of mail were received; and 1,983 orders have been processed. Sales from the Office of the Corresponding Secretary General totaled $41,148.33.

One mailing by first class was sent during this period, the Proposed Amendments to the By-laws.

Membership packets were sent in answer to all inquiries relative to membership; and information forwarded to the respective State Regents so that contact could be made with these prospective members. The work in this office is up to date, due to the fact that all orders are processed on the day received.

The Treasurer General, Mrs. Richard Osborn Creedon, read her report.

Report of Treasurer General

Since the February Board of Management meeting, this officer has enjoyed visiting the State Conferences of Mexico, Mrs. William A. Watson, State Regent; Florida, Mrs. Anthony Dobrzaniki, State Regent; Arkansas, Mrs. John H. Harp, State Regent; Iowa, Mrs. Wayne E. Ebert, State Regent; Colorado, Mrs. Perley W. Prior, State Regent; and Massachusetts, Mrs. Robert H. Lubker, State Regent. Programs and/or Treasurers' Workshops were given at all except the Mexico Conference. The kindnesses shown by the State Regents and Daughters are deeply appreciated.

The Membership Office is to be congratulated for preparing the official count earlier than ever before, thus allowing many States to have the membership count prior to their conferences.

More work has been done on the Budget that will be presented today. This officer wishes to congratulate the employees of the offices that were underbudget for the past year. The Finance Committee predicted an excess of receipts over disbursements in the Current Fund of $223,800 and we have $234,212 remaining in the Current Fund at the close of the fiscal year.

The Accounting Office prepared all material for the annual Audit. Miss Anne Dressler, Administrative Supervisor, and all Accounting Office employees have my deepest gratitude for their hard work and cooperation.

Packetts have been prepared for the State Treasurers to be presented at the Treasurer General's Workshop Monday, April 14 at 8:30 a.m. Regents, please have your State and Chapter Treasurers attend the meeting or, if they are not at Congress, please send a representative. We hope it will be an informative meeting.

The Data Processing Office has instigated a new program for the Magazine Advertising Office, run all membership print-outs, labels and implemented a new payroll program. Miss Hatfield, Mr. Kane and the operators deserve thanks for their hard work.

The Membership Office has been busy preparing the delinquent dues notices for Members at Large as well as the chapter delinquent lists. These will be mailed shortly with a letter from the Treasurer General urging the members to pay their dues before they are dropped on June 1, 1986. They are also working on the refund vouchers to be sent to chapters that overpaid their dues. Rachel Clarke, Supervisor, and the Membership employees are helpful and try to solve the chapters' many membership problems. Mrs. Anne Kane works tirelessly for the Membership Office as well as doing my secretarial work and periodically helping the President General. Without her this officer would not be able to help the numerous chapters that have so many problems.

The Current Fund income this year is up from last year in the following categories: Annual dues, by $607,343.43; Applicants' dues, by $7,379; Applicants' fees, by $27,961.50. Even the income for reinstatement fees is up by $371. The interest income in the Current Fund is down by $28,367.63 due to the low interest rates. But the interest income in the Current Fund is up by $30,411.87 in spite of the low rates, due to the increase in principal of $178,114.30 and good investments. The contributions to the schools increased by $7,379; Applicants' fees, by $27,961.50. Even the income for rein-

Our Life Membership Fund has increased by $75,053. Our total balance in Restricted Special Funds is up $2,070,581.70. This is a 53 percent increase in one year. To learn the increase for the three years of this administration, please listen to my report at Continental Congress. The amounts of new monies generated is staggering. The National Society is in the best financial position it has ever been.

During the period from January 21, 1986 to April 4, 1986, there were 820 deaths, 172 resignations and 449 transfers.

Madam President General and Members of the National Board of Management: I hereby submit the Summary Statement of Current and Special Funds for the Fiscal Year Ended February 28, 1986, and the Supplementary Schedules thereto.

Mrs. Creeden moved that 98 members be reinstated. Seconded by Mrs. Hawkins. Adopted.

Mrs. Catherine Clem Clark, Chairman, read the report of the Finance Committee.

Report of Finance Committee

The Finance Committee met Tuesday, February 4, 1986. Members attending were Mesdames Catherine Clem Clark, Chairman, Eldred M. Yochim, Richard O. Creeden, James J. Hamm, Owen V. Gauthier, Dick J. Polley and Mr. Edward Burns, Auditor for the National Society.

The proposed budget for 1986-87 was drafted on February 5, 1986, after the Executive Committee and National Chairmen submitted budget requests for their respective offices for consideration. This budget was based on actual figures for the first ten months of the fiscal year and an estimate of two months based on experience. The final budget for the entire fiscal year has now been updated and presented to the Executive Committee for recommendation to the National Board of Management.

For 1985-86 the National Society has operated well within the proposed budget with excess receipts over disbursements of $234,212.00.

The Investment Trust Fund has now materialized into almost one half of our second million as a result of contributions and prudent investments.

As estimated in the February report and now confirmed by the February 28, 1986, Financial Statement this Society is now in the strongest financial position in its history.

A more detailed and comparative report will be given at Continental Congress with a short explanation of the increase in subscription price for the DAR Magazine.

Catherine Clem Clark, Chairman

Mrs. Martin A. Mason, Chairman, read the Auditor’s Report.

National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution
Washington, D.C.

We have examined the financial statements of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution listed below:

Statement of Current and Unrestricted Special Funds (Page 1) for the year ended February 28, 1986

Statement of Restricted Funds (Pages 2 and 3) for the year ended February 28, 1986

Supporting statements of Current Fund cash receipts and disbursements (Pages 4 to 6) for the year ended February 28, 1986

Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included confirmations from depositories and custodians of cash and investments held at February 28, 1986, and such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The financial statements have been prepared generally on the cash receipts and disbursements basis and therefore do not purport to present the results of operations as they would appear had generally accepted accrual basis accounting principles been applied. Cash receipts and disbursements do not include dispositions and acquisitions of securities, respectively, except for gains and losses thereon.

In our opinion, the aforementioned statements and supporting schedules present fairly the cash balances and investments at February 28, 1986, and the information set forth therein for the year then ended on the basis indicated which is consistent with that of the preceding year.

DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION
The Registrar General, Mrs. James Justin Hamm, read her report.

Report of Registrar General

The National Society has accepted its 700,000th member, which is an average of more than 7,000 members accepted each year for almost 96 years. This special new member is Miss Nellie Beamann, a Genealogist in the Registrar General’s Office.

During the three years of this Independence Jubilee Administration, the Genealogy Staff has verified a total of 36,575 papers; 26,737 applications and 9,838 supplementals. The Registrar General is grateful to each member of her staff who made this incredible report possible; Belva Geist, Head Genealogist; Ann Wellhouse, Assistant; Rita Souther, Supplementals, and the entire Staff. This is 5,407 more supplementals than were verified during the last administration and my report to the Congress will be even better. You will recall that we began verifying 1979 supplementals and made great progress until the fee increase proposed in 1984 did us in. We are still working on 1984 supplementals.

A new publication Is That Service Right? is available at this Congress for $2 from the Office of Corresponding Secretary General. Proposed in 1983 by the late Martha Henley, Corrections Genealogist, this booklet clearly defines military, civil and patriotic service acceptable to the National Society. Gratitude is expressed to members of the Genealogy Staff for sharing their expertise and for the preparation of excellent bibliographies for each colony. This guide is a tool each chapter must have, therefore, a copy for the Chapter Registrar will be included in the post Congress mailing to each chapter. We can more easily verify a correctly prepared, well documented application paper. Please take home a supply of Is That Service Right?

Our Record Searcher has received requests for assistance from many areas of the world. Please note that the service for which there is a fee is for research within the holdings of the National Society and does not include compiling a family lineage. You may obtain application forms for Record Search from the Office of Registrar General.

Requests for photocopies of DAR applications or supplementals should be mailed to the Office of Registrar General—Record Copy, with check for $4.00 for each paper, payable to Treasurer General, NSDAR.

Appreciation is expressed to the individuals, chapters and State Societies for $200 or more contributions to the Registrar General’s Project. The more than 500 drawers and boxes of Revolutionary ancestor data, A to Z have been filmed on microfiche. The master fiche are stored off premises in a humidity controlled environment until the completion of climate control installation in the Registrar General’s vault. Appreciation is also expressed for the $500.00 contributions to the Membership Challenge Fund. These funds are expended for the Volunteer Genealogist program which assists with the verification of supplementals. One of our highest ranking volunteers is Mrs. Everett C. Lamson, Jr., State Regent of Vermont, who was pressed into service this week.

The Registrar General has attended all meetings of the Executive Committee and the National Board of Management, returning to her office at the end of February to work with the staff on completion of Is That Service Right? This officer has spent 214 days of ten to twelve hours each in her office during this Administration. On March 13-16 D. Tiner, Vice President General, was my hostess.

Mrs. Hamm moved that 1,636 applicants whose records have been verified by the Registrar General be elected to membership in the National Society. Seconded by Mrs. Smith. Adopted.

The Organizing Secretary General, Mrs. James Edward Clyde, read her report.

Report of Organizing Secretary General

All meetings of the Executive and National Board meetings have been attended, with the exception of December, 1985 and February 1986, during which time the activities of this Officer were greatly curtailed due to a broken hip. Attending the Finance Committee meeting in October was a special pleasure, hearing that our Society is in top financial condition due to our wise investments and your loyal cooperation.

During this year, conversion of our files to Microfiche was completed, the offices were re-decorated and changes in personnel were achieved. Two days each week were spent in the office during the summer months.

We now have 3,153 chapters in the National Society. A total of 671 permits were issued authorizing the purchase of DAR Pins, including Twenty-five and Fifty Year Pins.

We have issued 222 Twenty-five, Fifty and Seventy-five Year Certificates.

There have been 900 applications and supplementals processed through this office this year. Out of this total there have been 56 letters and papers returned to have corrections completed.

The deepest appreciation is extended to her Administrative Assistant, Mrs. Pierce Acor, her office staff, Elba Rivera, Jerice Wilson and Rose Gasdon.

This Officer wishes to pay special tribute to her own daughter, Virginia, who gave several weeks of volunteer service to the Office of the Organizing Secretary General during her mother’s forced absence.

Through their respective State Regents the following Members At Large are now presented for confirmation as Organizing Regents:

- Mrs. Sara Hollowell Beams, Newnan, Georgia;
- Mrs. Bonnie Nelson Paszkiewicz, Pickneyville, Illinois;
- Mrs. Mary Ella Brennan Gober, Waterloo, Illinois;
- Mrs. Barbara Lewis Choiniere, Abbeville, South Carolina;
- Mrs. Martha Nan Lovett Jacob, Sealy, Texas;
- Mrs. Pearl Frances Louderback Lyons Womack, Shenandoah, Virginia.

Through the State Regent the following Organizing Regent has presented her resignation:

Through the State Regent the Rebecca Wells Heald Chapter has requested their location be changed from Harvey to South Holland, Illinois.

Through the State Regent the St. Anthony Falls Chapter has requested their location be changed from Minneapolis to St. Louis Park, Minnesota.

Through the State Regent the proposed chapter for Watertown has requested their location be changed to Clark, South Dakota.

The following chapters are now presented for official disbandment:

- Eli Porter, Leitchfield, Kentucky;
- Pierce Verendyre, Minot, North Dakota.

The following chapters have met all the requirements according to the National Bylaws and are now presented for confirmation:

- Neshoba, Philadelphia, Mississippi;
- John McKenzie, McKenzie, Tennessee;
- Drucilla Pitts, Pittsburg, Texas;
- Carter’s Fort, Gate City, Virginia; Shawano, Shawano, Wisconsin.

Mrs. Clyde moved the confirmation of six Organizing Regents; resignation of one Organizing Regent; location change of three chapters;

Statistical Report:

RUTH THORNE CLYDE, Organizing Secretary General

RUTH BITTING HAMM, Registrar General
official disbandment of two chapters; and confirmation of five chapters provided notice is received by 4 p.m. Seconded by Mrs. Creedon. Adopted.

The Historian General, Mrs. Paul Howard Long, read her report.

Report of Historian General

It is with a grateful heart that I acknowledge the service of personnel in the Office of the Historian General, because they are genuinely interested in the affairs of the National Society. Elvia Crawford, Archivist, is directing research of our collections for the book which will be published to commemorate our first 100 years. The research is in addition to her otherwise busy schedule. Michael Spangler, who joined the staff as Archival Assistant, is a great asset. Betty Stickles, Office Assistant, continues to send out the increasing numbers of American History Month medals and the other supplies for that national committee, as well as sorting mail for replies by the Historian General, the archivists, and those she answers herself. Tonya Cook, the newest member of the staff, is a welcome assistant to Mrs. Stickles.

This officer attended all regularly scheduled meetings of the Executive Committee and the National Board of Management in February, as well as the preparatory Executive Committee meetings for this 95th Continental Congress. On February 3, this officer and the Executive enjoyed the evening party hosted by the staff of the Capital Hilton Hotel.

It was a thrill of a lifetime to be in our own Constitution Hall when President Reagan presented the Administration Executive Forum on February 6, the President’s 75th birthday. Those in attendance were Vice President Bush, Donald Regan, Chief of Staff to the President, and the President’s entire Cabinet. Nancy Reagan, accompanied by the President’s daughter Maureen, made a surprise visit to present a huge birthday cake. It was a moment to remember.

During the afternoon of February 6, this officer was entertained by the District of Columbia Daughters at a tea to honor the President General and the Executive Officers.

Following the Board meetings, this officer, accompanied by Mrs. R. Hugh Reid, National Parliamentarian, flew to Savannah, Georgia, and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Space at their lovely country home. On February 11, Mrs. Space, Regent of Savannah Chapter, presided at luncheon to honor chapter member, Adrienne Gantt Roberts. Mrs. Roberts, historian and civic leader, saved for posterity the site of Savannah’s Founder. On February 11, Mrs. Space, Regent of Savannah Chapter, pre-sides at luncheon to honor chapter member, Adrienne Gantt Roberts. Mrs. Roberts, historian and civic leader, saved for posterity the site of the Siege of Savannah which took place in the autumn 1779. It was a special privilege for this officer to be present with chapter members and guests to pay tribute to Mrs. Roberts, and to honor her with the History Award Medal of the National Society. Leila Sandlin made arrangements for the day’s festivities.

The celebration of February 12, Georgia Day, began with a parade of hundreds of Savannah school children. When Mayor Rousakis, accompanied by gentlemen dressed as James Edward Oglethorpe, the Founder of Savannah, Rev. George Whitefield, and Indian Chief Tomochichi, reached the statue of Oglethorpe in Chippewa Square on the parade route, Mrs. Space and this officer placed a wreath of magnolia leaves to honor the memory of Savannah’s Founder.

On February 22, this officer enjoyed a Colonial Tea to honor George Washington at Omaha Chapter, Mrs. Kenneth Nimmo, Regent. On March 13, this officer made a sad journey to Wichita, Kansas, to bid a fond farewell to Constance R. Decker, Corresponding Secretary General, NSDAR, and Mrs. J. E. Caldwell and Co., Philadelphia. From Mrs. Thomas J. Fitzgerald, Indiana State Chairman, Centennial Jubilee Committee, NSDAR.

4. DAR Honor Roll Records. “Texas DAR Honor Roll Records for World War I—Genealogical Information on Revolutionary War Ancestors and Members of the San Antonio de Bexar Chapter—1922,” compiled by Mrs. John C. Lee, Chapter Regent. These are original records from W.W.I containing information on soldiers related to DAR members. From Mrs. V. H. Mason, San Antonio de Bexar Chapter, DAR, Texas.

10. Seating charts, tally sheets. Seating charts and official tally sheets for elections at the 53rd Continental Congress held in New York City in 1944. Also seating charts for the 55th Continental Congress held in Atlantic City, 1946. Transfer from the Office of the President General, NSDAR.

12. Transcript of letters (xeroxed copies). Transcript of letters describing the 8th Continental Congress (1900). The original letters were written by Helen Marion Smart Skinner, member of the Alexander McComb Chapter, Mt. Clemens, Michigan, while she attended this congress. From Mrs. Dorothy F. McMullin, Regent, Grand Canyon Chapter, Arizona.

15. Original manuscript account of the NSDAR Continental Congress held in 1910, written by Helen Marion Smart Skinner, a member of the Alexander Macomb Chapter, who attended that Congress. From Mrs. D. W. Dougherty, Grand Canyon Chapter, Arizona.

The following offices and officers of the NSDAR are also to be recognized for their active part in making contributions to the NSDAR Archives and Special Collections: Office of the Historian General, Mrs. Pamela N. Long, Historian General; the Magazine Office; the Corresponding Secretary General’s Office; the DAR Library; the Office of the Historical Researcher, Mollie Somerville; the Office of the President General; Eunice Haden, Editor of the Patriot Index; the Public Relations Office; the Office of the Registrar General; the Committees Office; and the Office of the Curator General.

This officer is pleased to announce that one letter from the American Collection of the NSDAR has just been published in Volume 12 of the multi-volume series. Letters of Delegates to Congress, 1774-1789, issued by the Library of Congress under the editorship of Paul H. Smith. The letter is: Gouverneur Morris to unknown, dated 20 May, 1779. This letter appears on page 497 of Volume 12.

Madam President General, it has been an honor to serve in this office and work with the dedicated ladies of the Executive. Thanks for the memories of these three years!

PAMELLA NELSON LONG,
Historian General

The Librarian General, Mrs. Owen Vincent Gauthier, read her report.

Report of Librarian General

The staff performed all of the final work towards the publication of DAR Library Catalog, Volume Two. A great deal of editing and checking was needed before the final version was approved for printing. The book is now available and will be on sale during Continental Congress. Orders placed since late 1985 are being mailed by the publisher from Baltimore. The final publication costs will total about $70,000 for the entire printing of 3,000 copies. The completion of this set of catalogs represents the final phase of the Reclassification Project.

Use of the Library remains steady. Nearly 2000 people have used the facilities in January, February and March 1986. Use on Sundays continues to fluctuate but has averaged 25 researchers each day. The Sunday staff continues to be supplemented by local Daughters who volunteer and provide much needed assistance to the regular staff and users.

Activities in the Library have otherwise concentrated on the routine responsibilities of processing book donations (399 new titles), book purchasing (162 titles), and the arrangement of file material. The Library’s analytical index continues to grow with additions from Bookworm volunteers and staff.

The Office of the Curator General is responsible not only for maintaining the Museum Gallery, but is also responsible for the 34 Period Rooms, most of which are housed in Memorial Continental Hall. Director, Christine Minter-Dowd, and Mrs. Allen are in frequent contact with each of the State Period Room Chairmen, as well as their State Regent regarding interpretation, donations and purchases of objects for rooms, as well as general maintenance.

The Curator General has traveled widely and attended many meetings during the months of February through April. On February 17, she attended a meeting of the John Edwards Chapter, Mexico City, Dr. Susanne Curn Escobar, Regent, during which she assisted in the installation of the new officers. On the 22nd she joined Mrs. William A. Watson, State Regent of Mexico, for the wreath laying ceremony at the statue of George Washington in Mexico City. Two days later, it was her pleasure to greet 24 out-of-country visitors at the 10th annual Mexico State Conference. She was privileged to install the newly elected State officers during the meeting.

The Curator General returned to her home in Annapolis in early March. She was pleased to attend the 75th Anniversary meeting and reception of the Ruth Brewer Chapter, DC, Mrs. Thomas W. Simons, Regent. The next day, she accepted the gracious invitation of Mrs. David C. Russell, National Chairman, Museum Docents, to stay at her home the evening prior to the early departure of the Docent trip to the new Dewitt Wallace Gallery. On the afternoon of the 5th of March, the Williamsburg Chapter, Mrs. Francis A. Cherry, Regent, entertained the Docents at the Alumni House of the College of William and Mary.

The Curator General brought greetings and words of appreciation to the DAR Museum Docent Board at their meeting on March 10. March 12-14, she traveled into the Antebellum era to receive at "Rosalie" in Natchez as a guest of the Mississippi DAR, Mrs. William Edwin O'Hare, State Regent. Later in the month, she spent a delightful evening at the home of Christine Minter-Dowd, Director, with all of the Museum staff invited. On March 23, she accompanied Mrs. Walter Hughey King, President General, to the United States Air Force Band concert in Constitution Hall for a special tribute to the DAR. A lovely reception followed at the home of Brigadier General Edward N. Giddings, Bolling Air Force Base. It was a pleasure and a privilege for the Curator General to speak on "The DAR Museum, 96 Years Young" to the Falls Church Chapter, Virginia, Mrs. William E. Youngs, Regent.

At the annual Museum Docent awards ceremony, 17 new Docents were pinned and 24 Docents received the 300-Hours Bar, recognizing those who have contributed 300 hours or more during this administration. These volunteers exemplify enthusiasm, dedication and service. Special thanks and appreciation go to the National Chairman, the Committee's Vice Chairmen, and every Docent for honoring me with the lovely Chinese export porcelain platter which was presented to the collection in my honor. It is a beautiful addition to the Museum's holdings; you are very thoughtful and generous.

The Curator General attended all Personnel, Executive and National Board of Management meetings during the week of April 6-12. On Monday, April 14, she chaired the Annual DAR Museum Committee meeting which was well attended. This National Chairman and most National Vice Chairmen awarded certificates of appreciation to deserving States and individuals who have promoted the work of the Committee. She also extends her thanks for the presentation of the colored engravings entitled The Four Seasons which were purchased in her honor by the Friends of the Museum. The Curator General attended all sessions of the 1986 Continental Congress.

Staff members maintained busy schedules throughout the period. Mrs. Minter-Dowd accompanied the Museum Docents to the White House one snowy morning in early February. The group was given a special viewing of restricted areas by Betty Monkman, Associate Curator. She and Mrs. Allen attended the Maryland Historical Society and Hunt Valley Antique Shows in order to select objects for purchase for the State Period Rooms, with Friends of the Museum Funds and Museum Docent gifts.

Staff members attended the annual DAR Museum Reception hosted by the Curator General on April 13. This lovely reception served as the formal opening for the exhibition "Generations of Giving: A Celebration of Donations from Central Division States."

During the reception, a superb portrait of President Franklin Pierce, a New Hampshire native, was presented by the New Hampshire State Society to the DAR Museum collection. This generous gift is greatly appreciated.

A very special brunch was hosted in the Museum Gallery by Mrs. Guy M. Rucker, national Vice Chairman in charge of Correspondent Docents, the morning of April 13. The brunch honored the Curator General, Correspondent Docent State Chairmen, and the Correspondent Docents. The Curator General and all staff members were honored to be invited to attend. A handsome portrait of John Mustin of Philadelphia was given to the Museum in honor of Shelley Rucker by the Mary Isham Keith Chapter, Texas, Correspondent Docent team. The Curator General was honored by the lovely watercolor picture entitled Spring. Your generosity and thoughtfulness are especially appreciated. In addition, the outstanding accomplishments and continuing service of the Correspondent Docents were recognized and praised by all in attendance at the Brunch. My sincere appreciation to Shelley and each Correspondent Docent for their generous contribution and marvelous work in this administration. Under Mrs. Rucker's guidance, this program has grown in membership and importance. Not only have the Correspondent Docents given thousands of lectures about our Museum to interested groups throughout the country, but they have been directly responsible for many, many donations to the Museum’s collection. Their support and enthusiasm is greatly appreciated by each of us associated with the Museum. Enrollment in the Correspondent Docent program has increased with 36 new members this year and 518 active members.

We were saddened to learn of the sudden death of the husband of Mrs. Guy M. Rucker, National Vice Chairman in Charge of Correspondent Docents. Our thoughts are with her and her family.

Mrs. Allen continued to lecture to interested groups including the Junior League of Washington, on our State Period Rooms; and on textiles and ceramics to George Washington University graduate students of American culture. She also presented papers entitled “Quantity,
Quality and Quakers: A case study of Kent County, Maryland 1720-
1820” and “Plain and Ornamental Needlework, from the Young La-adies Academy of Georgetown, 1790-1840.”

An article entitled “Mary, Remember Me: American Quilts in the DAR Museum” was published in the April DAR Magazine and another “The Dotz Collection of Delftware” is in the April issue of The Mag-zine Antiques. Mrs. Allen helped plan, and also joined, the DAR Museum Docents’ trip to Colonial Williamsburg, Virginia. The グループ heard lectures by members of the curatorial staff.

Susanne Dawson, Associate Curator, has performed extensive research and lectured widely during the early months of 1986. From February 17-25, she and Susan Barger traveled throughout New Eng land examining and recording portraits by the Massachusetts artist, Ruth Henshaw Bascom. Their research has uncovered much new information concerning Bascom’s techniques; findings will be published in late 1986. Miss Dawson has also worked closely with a consortium of neighboring museums developing a brochure on the sites, planning special events, and a trolley car tour route of the area—all of which should serve to raise visitation to the Museum. Miss Dawson also worked with a photography crew from Colonial Homes magazine for a forthcoming article, lectured to a D.C. Chapter and gave a quilt tour to a group of gifted 5th, 6th and 7th graders. She also worked closely with Ellen Miles, a colleague from the National Portrait Galtery who visited the collection to study pastels, silhouettes and our portrait by John Wollaston. Moreover, Miss Dawson instructed 13 children’s school groups, amounting to 315 students. Docent Coordinator Eleanor Merica assisted by scheduling the Museum Docents who take the children to see the period rooms.

Jean Martin, our Registrar, has given quilt tours to the following groups in addition to individual tours to families from Australia, Eng land, Oregon, Minnesota and Louisiana, Fauquier County Needlework and ceramics to George Washington University graduates of American culture. She also presented papers entitled “Quantity,
Quality and Quakers: A case study of Kent County, Maryland 1720-
1820” and “Plain and Ornamental Needlework, from the Young La-
adies Academy of Georgetown, 1790-1840.”

On February 21, 1986, Jean Martin, Registrar, attended Susan B.
Swan’s lecture on American Samplers which was held at the Baltimore Antique Show, sponsored by the Maryland Historical Society.
On March 21, Jean attended the afternoon sessions on “The Arts of Social Living in 18th Century America” sponsored by the U.S. Capitol Historical Society. Jean has researched and installed the exhibition in the back of the Museum Gallery titled, “Paisley Shawls, 1805-1880, and Present Storage, 1886.” She hopes visitors will appreciate our Paisley shawls and costumes and also learn how to store valuable textiles in their own care.

Objects on temporary loan are at the following museums: National Museum of American History, Smithsonian Institution; Alexandria, VA, Lyceum; Museum of American Folk Art; National Archives; and the Winterthur Museum and Gardens.

Extensive conservation work was completed during April 1983-April 1986. Conservation to textiles, musical instruments, silver, furniture, ceramics and glass cost a total of $28,725.20. This figure does not include the upholstery of furniture with reproduction fabrics. Nor does it include the cost for cleaning and restoring a total of 83 pieces of pewter which were processed by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Young as a gift for the National Society. These conservation measures were undertaken to extend the life of our objects and to make them more exhibitable.

It is with sincere regret that the Office of the Curator General an-ounces the resignation of Katherine McAulay, Business Manager for the Museum. Kathy has joined the staff of the National Trust for Historic Preservation in mid-April. Her competent help and delightful presence will be greatly missed by each of us.

Prior to Congress, the Curator General invited each member of the Museum staff to join her for lunch. All thoroughly enjoyed being with her and appreciated her kind generosity.

My heartfelt thanks, appreciation and gratitude go to each member of the Museum staff for their professional expertise and valued service to the Office of the Curator General during this administration.

The report of the Reporter General, Mrs. LeRoy Conrad Kaump, was filed.

Report of Reporter General

In serving as a liaison officer between the Executive Committee and the Office of the Committees, this officer has endeavored to perform her duties as prescribed in the National Bylaws. She is deeply appreciative to Mrs. Raymond Franklin Fleck, Recording Secretary General, and Mrs. Gabriel O. Saavedra, Curator General who in the absence of the Reporter General, presented the necessary copies of the Annual Proceedings to the Under Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, in compliance with the provision of Section 3, of the Act of Incorporation of the National Society, as such report has been required since the National Society was chartered by an act of the United States Congress in 1896.

It is a pleasure to submit the Annual Statistical Report from the Office of the Committees as it proves that materials which are sent from this office to the various chairmen and chapters are vital to the continuing success of their various programs.

Total Scholarship applications, which include American History 313; Nursing Scholarships 1,400; Occupational Therapy 491; Enid Hall Griswold applications 237; and Lillian and Arthur Dunn appliand the D Street garden glows with begonias in bloom. Construction work on climate-control is finished, they will be well-kept buildings again.

Junior American Citizens, being a popular committee, required considerable mailings which included 439 Thatcher awards; Contest Citations 10,262; President Pins 2,335; Director Pins 2,379; Member Pins 49,044; member cards 48,401; motto leaflets 35,114; and handbooks 2,789. Also, Registration cards in colors included: blue 6,754; yellow 6,754; white cards 6,754, and 3,989 Information Bulletins with Fact Sheets totaled 3,806 mailed. Contest Instructions included 3,200 sheets, and contest entry sheets were 3,806. JAC Banners and Stands were shipped. Also requested were 59 "The a-b-c's of Parliamentary Procedure" and 345 American Heritage booklets.

Under the Good Citizen Committee 38 State pins; 10,419 Good Citizen pins; 10,846 Good Citizen Certificates; 4,495 Good Citizen pamphlets; 4,277 Good Citizen posters and 5,665 Good Citizen wallet cards were mailed. 66 American Indian Scholarship Fund vouchers were approved and seven are still pending.

This Officer is most appreciative to June Saylor and her staff members for compiling the statistics needed for this report.

This Officer, in having been appointed as a member of the National Bylaws Committee, has kept in touch through correspondence with the National Chairman, Mrs. Tom Werner, and has endeavored to assist the committee as much as possible.

This Officer is grateful for having been granted the privilege, as Reporter General, to serve the National Society under the capable leadership of the President General, Mrs. Walter Hughey King, and the opportunity of becoming acquainted with the other members of the Executive Committee during this outstanding Independence Jubilee Administration. Following the President General's personal expressions of thanks and commendation, the Executive Officers were given a standing vote of appreciation by the members of the Board of Management.

The President General presented the National Parliamentary Officer, in having been appointed as a member of the National Bylaws Committee, has kept in touch through correspondence with the National Chairman, Mrs. Tom Werner, and has endeavored to assist the committee as much as possible.

The Pages Room in Constitution Hall has been plastered and painted and fluorescent lights installed. The alcove in the Lounge has also been painted and wallpaper in the Ladies Lounge glued in place.

The tulips are blooming in profusion, the pansy bed is in blossom and the D Street garden glows with begonias in bloom. Construction work on climate-control is finished, they will be well-kept buildings again.

Mrs. Clinton Carroll Sisson, Chairman of the DAR Magazine Committee, read her report.

Report of DAR Magazine Committee

During the third year of the Independence Jubilee Administration, this Chairman and the Magazine Staff made every effort to stimulate growth in the subscriptions to the Magazine and to continue improvement in the quality of its content.

Each National Vice Chairman, State and Chapter Regent and Chapter Chairman was sent a letter of information including honor roll requirements after the 94th Continental Congress and the members followed through with an all-out effort to show an increase of subscribers for the year. Congratulations to the 1,971 chapters receiving honor roll credit. 3,126 chapters across this land have members who enjoy our Magazine.

In addition to the sales efforts by the members, the Magazine Office sent sales promotion letters to thousands of members who had never subscribed. The results of these promotions have been successful and this project probably was our most outstanding achievement. It produced 7,740 subscribers and $54,108.00. This Chairman hopes that this project continues until the remaining 100,000 members have been contacted. I'd like to quote Mr. Willis M. Rivinus, a publishing consultant: "Circulation is the primary measure of editorial vitality. Is it growing? A ninety percent renewal rate may sound good but in the face of negligible new-reader promotion, it may mean that the publication is slowly dying. A non-profit publication should be working to build and to hold circulation just as diligently as a profit-making one.

Whatever the reasons, a non-profit organization must charge realistically for its product. If the audience values the publication, it will pay. If it does not, no price breaks will save the business."

The latest mailings of the Magazine totaled 57,380, an increase of 1,160 this past year and an increase of 1,975 during this administration. This year's total income showed an increase of almost $93,000.00. Printing costs increased by over $193,000.00 and postage increased by over $27,000.00, making it necessary for the National Board of Management, at its February meeting, to increase the subscription price of DAR Magazine effective June 1, 1986.

The following states are to be congratulated as 1986 winners for having the greatest percentage of subscription increase in their membership group:

Illinois: Mrs. Howard F. Lee, State Regent; Mrs. Ralph Wilson, State Magazine Chairman;
Ohio: Mrs. Donald S. Blair, State Regent; Mrs. Donald E. Begley, State Magazine Chairman;
Kentucky: Mrs. Tracy W. Neal, State Regent; Mrs. James Broadway, State Magazine Chairman;
Michigan: Mrs. John F. Weaver, Sr., State Regent; Mrs. Robert W. Sawyer, Jr., State Magazine Chairman;
Wisconsin: Mrs. Ivan M. Niedling, State Regent; Mrs. Crofton E. Thorp, Jr., State Magazine Chairman;
Minnesota: Mrs. Adolph J. Doering, State Regent; Mrs. Martin W. Erhardt, State Magazine Chairman;
North Dakota: Mrs. Harry O. Jevne, State Regent; Mrs. C.C. Collins, State Magazine Chairman.

Chapters winning by division with the greatest percentage of subscriptions are:

Northeastern Division: Major William Taggart Chapter, Rhode Island—60%;
Eastern Division: Goshen Mills Chapter, Maryland—115%;
Southeastern Division: Coweta Town Chapter, Alabama, 113%;
East Central Division: Olentangy Chapter, Ohio—92%;
North Central Division: Willmar Chapter, Minnesota—80%; South Central Division: A Tie: Colonel Theunis Dey Chapter, Texas and Mission Hills Chapter, Kansas—both at 102%; Western Division: Alhambra-San Gabriel Chapter, California—128%; Foreign Division: Heritage Chapter, Canada—35%.

The National Vice Chairmen of DAR Magazine Committee have been most cooperative and loyal. This Chairman greatly appreciates their continued support during their service in this administration. They are: Mrs. Frank L. Harris, Sr., our Advisor, and Vice Chairmen:

Mrs. Robert Sloan, Northeastern Division;
Mrs. Ernest Dickerson, Eastern Division;
Mrs. Fred Bragiance, Southeastern Division;
Miss Sara M. Hall, East Central Division;
Mrs. Ralph Lehman, North Central Division;
Mrs. J. Trigg Wood, Jr., South Central Division;
Mrs. Grant Schaumburg, Western Division.

This Chairman commends the Magazine Staff for its good work and stability under pressure.

Rose Hall, Editor; Cheryl Estancona, Art Director; Oretha Barbour, Circulation Director; Kathryn Cook, Bertha Hale and Martha Jackson, Circulation Staff; Karen Plunkett, Advertising Associate; Rachel Vinner, Editorial Assistant.

It has been a stimulating and wonderful experience serving as DAR Magazine Chairman. Thank you, Madam President General, for your many kindnesses. It has been an honor and a privilege to serve during this outstanding Independence Jubilee Administration.

GRACE D. SISON,
Chairman

Report of Magazine Advertising Committee

We know all Daughters are pleased with the April 1986 issue of our Magazine. Total advertising pages for state sponsored ads amounted to over $25,000 from the State of California. We really didn't plan it this way, but we saved the best for last! The total state sponsored ads for just this one issue amounted to over $46,000. We are proud to announce that the grand total of advertising revenue of both state sponsored and miscellaneous ads for this last quarter was a spectacular $100,149.00!!

One of my goals when assuming the National Chairmanship of this committee was to have computer programming completed and a computer terminal for this department, thus ensuring modern office techniques, staff efficiency and productivity freeing them to take full advantage of their abilities, designs and creativity. We are pleased to report these goals are on the way to fruition. This legacy of programming we bequeath to our successor with the certain knowledge that our more efficient department will be a joy to nurture and expand with higher expectations than before.

The Honor Roll for the first time was completed on the NSDAR computer. Our program was designed by Karen Plunkett from the Magazine Advertising staff after in-depth consultations with Mr. Tom Day who finally implemented the final computer programming. Last year Karen was gracious enough to use her own home computer for your Honor Roll. This new advertising program will reflect in faster service, accuracy, and, most important, free the staff to do other tasks that never before were accomplished.

Cheryl Estancona of our Magazine Advertising staff is very busy working on a computer program for your advertising with consultant Mr. Tom Day. When in practical use on our computer we will be able to have instant access to records, designs and monies in the Advertising Department with the flick of the computer terminal keys. Cheryl has spent untold hours of service planning this comprehensive in-depth futuristic program. This, of course, is bound to produce expertise and efficiency in our department. We extend to Cheryl our gratitude for her successful endeavor.

To be recognized by one's peers is always a tribute. With your permission, we would like the State Regent of California to stand. It is my pleasure to congratulate Mrs. Kemper for her guidance and assistance to California Daughters with magazine advertising for the April 1986 issue of over $25,000.00. To the best of our knowledge this is a gigantic first for our department and this administration. This proves that increased advertising really truly can be done. In addition, California had over $10,000.00 in other advertising appearing in other issues. This makes a grand total of over $35,000.00 for magazine advertising from the State of California. Mrs. Kemper and her California Daughters deserve your thanks for a magnificent task completed with positive results beyond expectations. She deserves your tribute and applause. My thanks and gratitude and congratulations to you Mrs. Kemper, to your State Chairman of Magazine Advertising and to the California Daughters.

To you, Madam President General, members of the Executive Committee, and the members of the National Board of Management go my heartfelt thanks for your assistance, cooperation, and support of this committee during the past three years. It has meant much to this chairman and your magazine advertising staff. We are grateful to each one of you for the opportunity to serve you and the National Society. It truly has been an honor. We extend our thanks to Rose Hall and the entire magazine staff and my National Vice Chairman for their understanding, guidance and cooperation and helpful suggestions during the past three years. We will long remember this administration and chairmanship. We ask God's blessing on all your future endeavors.

Our gratitude to the following states contributing to their state sponsored issues:

GEORGIANNA M. ANDERSON, Chairman

Mrs. Richard P. Taylor, Chairman of the DAR School Committee, presented her report.

Report of DAR School Committee

FLORENCE M. CASE KORB BEQUEST: Under the terms of the will of the late Florence M. Case Korb, a member of the Jared Mansfield Chapter, Mansfield, Ohio (National #357485) from 1946 until her death in 1985, Kate Duncan Smith and Tamassee DAR Schools each received a bequest for their respective Endowment Funds. While the total amount of this bequest has yet to be determined, checks from the estate were sent to the schools earlier this year which totaled more than a quarter million dollars. The final total will be approximately $300,000. Mrs. Korb was the daughter of James W. Case and Georgiana Johns Case. Born on August 27, 1900 in Mansfield, Ohio, she married Harry S. Korb on October 21, 1950 in DuBois, Pennsylvania. Mrs. Korb was an accountant with the Mansfield Tire and Rubber Company for 43 years. She was also a loyal, dedicated and patriotic member of her chapter for 39 years and served her chapter and the State Society actively in several capacities. Active in church, civic and community affairs, Mrs. Korb was a lifelong member of the First Christian Church and the Mansfield Federation of Business and Professional Women’s Clubs.

KATE DUNCAN SMITH DAR SCHOOL. February and March signal time for awards and rewards for KDS DAR students as well as for the campus spring cleaning and project completion before Graduation and Awards Day to be held on the 25th and 26th of May.

The KDS Patriot Basketball Team won second place in the class 2A school category during the Alabama State Basketball Tournament in Auburn. Two of the students on the team, Patrick Harding and Charles Edmonds, were selected for the All-State Basketball Team. Patrick was selected by the Birmingham News as the most valuable player in the State of Alabama. Both of the boys have received Athletic Scholarships from Snead State College in Boaz, Alabama.

The KDS Band received much deserved recognition in State competition by winning three over-all superior ratings. Members will participate in the Tennessee Music Festival in Gatlinburg in early May.

For the first time in recent years, a KDS sixth grader is the spelling champion in Marshall County—Mikki Ryan. Mikki spelled the words “denominator” and “deception” to win the championship. She will now compete for the State title with others in grades 5-9.

Miss Gina Dendy, a talented graduating senior, was recently named Miss Marshall County at Guntersville, Alabama. Gina plays the flute with the Huntsville Youth Symphony Orchestra. She also won the talent contest in Guntersville.

Zan Edmonds, a tenth grader, received special recognition by having her drawing chosen for the cover of this year’s Marshall County School Directory in a county-wide competition. Jason Hodges, a first grader, won first place in the County Superintendent’s Award Art Show. Both students are taught by Miss Debbie McBride, a full-time Arts and Crafts teacher, whose salary is paid for by DAR contributions from Juniors and other members.

The eighth grade math team won second place out of a 16 school competition in the district competition which included representatives from schools in Huntsville, Decatur and Florence.

KDS received over 185,000 Campbell Soup labels from DAR members nationwide during this term. With the labels, the school purchased two Apple II E Computers, and a computer table for the elementary school computer center.

KDS is pleased and honored that Southern Living Magazine will have a feature story with pictures of the school in its October or November 1986 issue.

The faculty, staff and administration at KDS are very proud of the accomplishments of the entire student body this term and look forward to recognizing these and other achievements during the Awards Day Program. All DAR members are invited to attend the May 25 and May 26 events.

In addition, the campus is in good condition and numerous projects in maintenance and upkeep have been completed or are in progress.

A new addition to the Helen Pouch Lunch Room was completed just recently and contains a new large freezer-cooler which permits a more flexible lunch program with more variety of menu. On the drawing board as a planned project is the addition of new carpet and vinyl wall covering for the hallways of the Mrs. Henry Grady Jacobs Building. This project is sponsored by the Alabama State Society DAR, Mrs. Walter Byars, State Regent, in honor of Mrs. Jacobs, Honorary Life Chairman, KDS DAR School Board of Trustees. This project will provide an improved teaching environment for all the young people who use the building now and for many years to come.

Some additional campus projects which are now in progress or will be started soon are the replacement of woodworking and gutters at the Illinois Cottage and replacement of carpet for Munson Cottage—both projects of the Illinois State Society DAR; a new roof for Cuff Cottage—New York State Society DAR; a replacement lighting system for the Doris Pike White gymnasium to provide adequate lighting for night events—California State Society DAR.

TAMASSEE DAR SCHOOL. The Tamassee campus has been a most lively campus for the past few weeks. The first signs of spring have generated enthusiasm in every department of the school. Potatoes, corn, beans, tomatoes, carrots and much more have gone into the ground with the promise of an abundance of fresh vegetables for Tamassee students. This is a sincere effort to teach the School’s young people the valuable traits of helping themselves to a better life. DAR members are invited to visit the school later in the summer and share in its bountiful harvest.

The Tamassee maintenance crew has been working long hours to accomplish many needed repairs on buildings. These include but are not limited to the following: Indiana All-States Cottage—enclosing the stairwells; Ohio-Hobart Dining Hall—storage area for dry goods; Illinois Cottage—enclosing stairwells; Michigan Mooney-Goddard Cottage—new linen closet/curtains; South Carolina Cottage—repaired for porch; Waste Treatment Plant—major repairs.

Additional gifts include: Missouri State Society—new washer and dryer for the boys of Groves Cottage; South Carolina State Society—new dryer for the girls of the South Carolina Cottage; Michigan State Society—new stove for boys of Michigan Mooney-Goddard Cottage; Hollywood, California Chapter DAR—a loving and generous gift to the general fund of $25,000; New York State Society—new living room furniture for the girls in the New York Cottage.

At the California State Conference in February, the Conference approved adoption of the POUCH Cottage by the California State Society for a minimum annual amount of $5,000.00 for maintenance and upkeep.

Many activities keep Tamassee children busy: The school has two choirs—a Junior Choir of 15 members and a Senior of 25 members. Both groups assist in weekly worship services. Junior ROTC students are preparing for a Military Ball to be held April 19. Ken Clarke, Illinois Cottage sophomore, is the second highest ranking student officer in the Junior ROTC program at Tamassee-Salem High School. A recent student vs. staff basketball game left many staff members with sore muscles and students demanding a rematch!

Tamassee currently serves 92 boarding students, 85 pre-schoolers and 130 day students. The school is growing and DAR members can be proud of the School’s growth to young people and the Tamassee community.

BERRY COLLEGE. Berry received a bequest of approximately $10,000.00 from the estate of the late Helen Bass Barker who died in Arizona on May 12, 1970. Mrs. Barker was a past Chaplain General, (1950-1953), member of the Abahawagam Chapter since 1937 and Honorary State Regent of Wisconsin. (She served as state vice regent, 1946-1948 and state regent, 1948-1950.) The corpus of the bequest was invested in Berry’s Endowment Fund.

Berry students assisted the College recently in its Annual Giving Campaign by conducting a phonathon of parents. This work effort resulted in a substantial increase in parent contributions to the School.

The College will soon embark on a major Capital Fundraising Campaign to replace corroded sewer lines, rebuild roads, purchase much needed and up-to-date scientific and classroom equipment, build an addition to the gymnasium and a new wing for the library.

Proposed New Library Wing for Berry. The 35,000 square feet of expansion planned for the Berry library will provide necessary study and seating space. The new facility will also house the Martha Berry papers in its Special Collections Room. At the present time, Miss Berry’s papers are scattered in several buildings and files in various departments of the College campus. Much work needs to be done to identify, catalog and preserve all of the Berry papers and house them properly in a climate-controlled archival environment. Mr. David Estes, a Berry graduate who recently retired as Curator of Special Collections at Emory University, will supervise and coordinate the project. Mr. Estes recently received lavish praise from author, Eugenia Price, for his invaluable research assistance to her in the preparation of her latest novel, To See Your Face Again, a sequel to her earlier, Savannah.

CROSSNORE SCHOOL. Crossnore children had a delightful Easter party with their “adopted grandparents.” They worked for hours on Easter baskets to take as a treat and each student also decorated a hat to wear to the party. Prizes were given for the three most imaginative Easter baskets to take as a treat and each student also decorated a hat. Everyone including the residents and staff at the Regency Health Care and Nursing Home facility had a grand time. Crossnore Student Council members are very active and the enthusiasm is contagious. Among its many activities, the Council sponsors a monthly Student Assembly to which graduates of the School are invited to return and share their memories of campus life.

Crossnore students continue to reach out to help others and are sponsoring a “bikethon” to raise funds for the research on children’s terminal illnesses at St. Jude’s Children’s Hospital in Memphis. On February 23, friends and neighbors joined the school for a ceremony celebrating the installation of Mr. Joseph H. Mitchell as Executive Director. Participating were students and staff, pastors of three local churches, Mr. Hugh Fields, Chairman of Crossnore’s Board of Trustees, and Dr. Emma Sloop Fink, Vice Chairman of the Crossnore Board of Trustees, Regent of the Crossnore DAR Chapter and daughter of the Drs. Sloop, founders of Crossnore School, Inc.

Construction has begun on the expansion of the Weaving Room. The purpose of this major project is to provide a more suitable work area for the weavers and to increase the size of the gift shop. The Sales Store is back on summer hours. Sales are great. The recent remodeling of the interior is refreshing and cheerful and adds to the overall appearance of the store. The School is currently computerizing the Business Department and the Development Office which will make these offices much more efficient and productive.

A new color brochure on Crossnore School, Inc., has been developed and is available in any quantity for DAR chapters and state societies. Members of the Crossnore staff attended the DAR North Carolina State Conference in Pinehurst and were present when North Carolina members voted to place the School on the State Honor Roll.

Seven of Crossnore’s talented young people will present a short musical program at the DAR School Supper to be held on April 17 in the Presidential Ballroom of the Capital Hilton Hotel. Mr. David Gillespie will be the narrator of the program which will focus on the story of Crossnore and how much the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution has done for the School since its early days.

HILLSIDE SCHOOL. With warm weather finally reaching the Northeast, the Hillside community is now fully engrossed in the Spring term. Signs of spring include 12 new baby pigs and two baby goats at the school farm as well as newly plowed fields for upcoming plantings.

As of April 1, over $49,000.00 in gifts and pledges was received since July 1 of 1985 from DAR members around the country. In addition, Hillside has been notified that it will receive bequests totaling about $40,000.00 from two former friends of the School and members of the DAR: Mrs. F. Roscoe Webber of Wellesley, Massachusetts, a former member of the Lucy Jackson Chapter and Mrs. Ethyl M. Garriish of Orlando, Florida (formerly of Concord, New Hampshire). Hillside and the National Society are very grateful for this important concern for the future, as well as for the present, of this unique school.

During this month of April there are 43 students enrolled at Hillside. All are hard at work on various crafts which will be on display at Continental Congress.

Hillside looks forward to welcoming many DAR members to the School on June 5, 1986 for the School’s Annual DAR Day activities.

HINDMAN SETTLEMENT SCHOOL. The Hindman Dyslexia Tutoring Program, which had been affiliated with the Charles L. Shedd Kentucky Association in Louisville, has now developed into an independent program. Formerly, the Louisville Association handled screening of applicants and parents, monitoring of tutors, evaluating progress reports, renting books to parents, and sending faculty and staff members to the School for the above purposes at Hindman’s expense. Since there are now many trained tutors for dyslexics in the Eastern Kentucky area who were trained at the Charles Shedd Academy in Maysville, it is no longer necessary for Hindman to bear the additional financial and administrative burdens such a distant relationship entails. From a cost-effective standpoint, Hindman parents and students will benefit greatly from the new organizational framework.

Henrietta Conley, a trained professional in the Dyslexia field, will coordinate the Eastern Kentucky program for the Settlement. In this way, more students and parents in the five county area served by Hindman will benefit from local control of the program.

The Settlement also reported a bequest in the amount of $9,000.00 from the estate of the late Ruth B. Newcomb, of New London, Connecticut, a member of the Jonathan Hatch Chapter in Massachusetts.

NOTE OF APPRECIATION: This spring, this Chairman was a guest speaker at the State Conferences of Mississippi, California, Mexico, North Carolina, and Louisiana. She was also a speaker at the Col. James McCall, Col. John Washington, Margaret Whetten and Dorothy Hancock Chapters of the District of Columbia; the Marlborough Towne Chapter, Maryland DAR and the Columbus Chapter, Ohio DAR. She regretted that conflicts in scheduling prevented her from accepting speaking engagements in five additional states and wishes to express her appreciation to the State Regents of those states, as well as to the State Regents in the States where she was able to speak on behalf of the DAR schools and other educational matters; to the Regents of the DAR local chapters where she spoke; and to all the members of those chapters and state societies who were most gracious and hospitable to her on her visits. She also wishes to express her appreciation to the President General, all the members of the DAR School Benefit Committee and to the Chairman and members of the School Supper Committee who worked so hard on behalf of the DAR Schools during this Independence Jubilee Administration.

The Recording Secretary General, Mrs. Fleck, moved to authorize payment of the bill for Fire Department personnel during the 95th Continental Congress; money to come from the Continental Congress Fund. Seconded by Mrs. Saavedra. Adopted.

The Recording Secretary General, Mrs. Fleck, read the following recommendations of the Executive Committee and moved their adoption:

- That J. E. Caldwell Co. be given permission to design a pin for the Washington State Chapter Regents Club. Adopted.
- That the ruling adopted 29 April 1981, which states, "That all funds received by the National Society through bequests, the distribution of which is not specifically designated, shall be put in the Investment Trust Fund," be amended by striking, "put in the Investment Trust Fund," and substituting "Divided equally between the Investment Trust Fund and the NSDAR Endowment Fund." The ruling then will read: That all funds received by the National Society through bequests, the distribution of which is not specifically designated, shall be divided equally between the Investment Trust Fund and the NSDAR Endowment Fund. Adopted.
- That funds received by the NSDAR Endowment Fund be invested in a separate trust account at American Security Bank, Washington, D.C., and that funds received by the NSDAR Endowment Fund be... transmitted to American Security Bank as they accumulate; and, on 31 August and 28 February each year the income from the NSDAR Endowment Fund shall be transferred to the Current Fund. Adopted.

That the bonbon dish in celebration of the Bicentennial of the Constitution of the United States of America sell for $20.00 each plus $3.00 postage. Funds to come from the Bicentennial of the Constitution Committee and profit returned to same. Adopted.

That the single copy price of the DAR Magazine be increased from $1.00 in office to $2.00; the single copy price by mail be increased from $2.00 to $3.00; to become effective same date as increase in subscription price of DAR Magazine. Adopted.

That the following students be awarded Caroline E. Holt (Nursing) Scholarships in the amount of $300 each: Julie Ann Avery, Troy, MI; Nhu Le, Fullerton, CA; Diane Elaine Luley, Fort Wayne, IN; Karen Lee Morgan, Port Orchard, WA. Adopted.

That the proposed budget for the fiscal year 1986-1987, as presented by the Finance Committee, be adopted. Adopted.

To recommend to Continental Congress that $45,665.00 be transferred from the Current Fund to the Americanism and DAR Manual for Citizenship Committee. Adopted.

To recommend to Continental Congress that $89,015.00 be transferred from the Current Fund to the Public Relations Committee. Adopted.

To recommend to Continental Congress that $5,000.00 be transferred from the Current Fund to the Junior American Citizens Committee. Adopted.

“Lord, Look Upon Our Nation”

Esther York Burkholder

Tune: “The Church’s One Foundation”
Chapter: Hollywood Chapter
California

Lord, look upon our nation,
Whose people look to Thee,
You are her sure foundation,
Her rock of liberty.
From early days You blest her;
O, lead her still today!
Tho' storm and turmoil test her,
Lord, keep her in Thy way.

Grant wisdom to her leaders
To own no other Lord.
May they be faithful readers
And doers of Thy Word.
Guide them in all relations
With this and other lands,
That peace among the nations
May be the truth that stands.

JUNE-JULY 1986 579
State Activities

District of Columbia

The “Capital Party” given by the District of Columbia Daughters to honor Mrs. Walter Hughey King and the members of the National Board of Management of the Independence Jubilee Administration was the highlight of our 1985-86 year. The gala reception planned by State Vice Regent, Mrs. May Day Taylor, followed the long-established custom of the District of Columbia Society of giving a special tribute to the work of the outgoing National Administration.

“Capital” was the keynote of the day, as Mrs. King received a check to cover the capital improvements, i.e. Climate Control, at Memorial Continental Hall, along with a waterford crystal candy jar shaped like the United States Capitol. The tea table was graced with a cake in the form of the United States Capitol which was almost too beautiful to eat. The photo shows Mrs. King with Mrs. James H. Cox, State Regent, cutting the cake.

This party was a fitting climax to a year devoted to achieving DAR goals. Because of the deep interest of the State Regent in the education and welfare of children, much has been done in this area of endeavor. High schools in the District of Columbia received Auditorium and classroom flags, books on Black History and posters on the Bicentennial of the Constitution.

Proceeds of a card party were sent to the DAR schools, along with generous chapter contributions and gifts of clothing and other articles for the thriftshops there. State contributions sent Indian children to summer camp. State, chapter and individual contributions supported the State Regent’s Project, nursing scholarships at Bacone College.

The committees of the District of Columbia Society improved their effectiveness this year with increased levels of cooperation. Joining forces, American Heritage and Historians worked well together, as did Chaplains and Service to Veteran Patients. Membership gained momentum through the combined efforts of the Registrar, Genealogical Records, Lineage Research and Seimes Microfilm Center. The State Librarian, her State Committee and the Chapter librarians worked diligently to staff the DAR Library on Sunday afternoons.

A splendid fund-raiser was organized by the Statue of Liberty Restoration Committee, and others by the C.A.R. Societies of the District, as well as the American Indians and the Conservation Committees. The Juniors had a Christmas Bazaar. The Celebration of George Washington’s Birthday was truly outstanding. In short, every committee worked; and working around, over, under and in between, were those essential but often taken for granted ones—telephone, public relations, transportation and safety, giving service at all times. The Transportation and Safety Committee in particular established an outstanding record in coordinating transportation to State and committee functions throughout the year. In addition, this committee organized a safe-driving course at the Chapter House for our older members.

We have enjoyed our year, from its beginning to its Capital Conclusion. We have, throughout, kept in mind our National Administration theme, “Duty, Honor, Country.” We have worked toward our goals of peace and friendship in observing our State motto, “Strength United is Stronger” and we have pursued—with enthusiasm—our State theme, “Neglect Not the Gift That Is In Thee.” It has been, for us, a Capital Year.—Margaret M. Cox

Delaware

At “Buena Vista,” a state owned mansion, a welcoming tea for new members and a gift presentation to the State of Delaware was held.

On this occasion, Mrs. Winfield G. Llewellyn, the State Regent, presented to Dean Nelson, Bureau Chief of Museums and Historic Sites, State of Delaware, the conservation project which the Society members had underwritten as part of the State Regent’s Project. This was the restoration of the John Middleton Clayton portrait which hangs at the mansion.

In Mr. Nelson’s talk, several historical facts concerning Senator Clayton and “Buena Vista” were touched upon. John Middleton Clayton was a former United States Senator from Delaware and the Secretary of State under President Zachary Taylor. He built “Buena Vista” in 1840 as a model for other Delaware farms.

Because the State Regent’s Project was oversubscribed, the conservation of the John Dickinson portrait and frame hanging in the parlor at John Dickinson Mansion at Kitts Hummock, Delaware has also been undertaken.

Four volumes on early Delaware law were also presented to the National Society Library through funds from this project.

At this reception, the State Regent announced the donation to the State Archives of 17 rolls of microfilm from the National Archives containing the records of soldiers from Delaware who participated in the Revolution.

New members present at the tea were Carolyn Abbot, Frances Alter, Christine Bailey, Lillian Centrell, Geraldine Conklin, Virginia Franta, Frances Ganous, Barbara Gullet, Virginia Hardwick, Michelle Homan, Bonnie Klinger, Mary Jan Mathewson, Doris Moore, Carol Smat, and Barbara Hayy Wilson. These are members of the group of 65 admitted during this administration.—Mary Ann S. Llewellyn

INDIANA STATE REGENT
Miriam Miller receives congratulations from Harrison Home Director Dorothy Sallee upon being named first recipient of the Landgraf award.

Mrs. M.H. Miller was the first volunteer selected to receive the prestigious Landgraf award for outstanding service to the President Benjamin Harrison Home.

This award was instituted to honor both Mr. and Mrs. Mayburn Landgraf for their long association on behalf of the Harrison Home. Mrs. Miller was chosen for her tireless efforts in creating and then training a volunteer organization to assist at the Harrison Home.

Dear Diary,

Today Indiana DAR School chairman Mrs. Frederick Bennett left South Bend with Mr. Donal Bolinger and DAR Mrs. Bolinger to make stops throughout Indiana to pick up clothing, furniture, toys, bedding, Christmas gifts and household articles for the DAR schools.

Mr. Bolinger has graciously consented to give his time and truck, Perkins Furniture Transport, Inc. has agreed to furnish a trailer and we Indiana Daughters want to take advantage of this rare opportunity to transport items to Tamassee and Kate Duncan Smith DAR Schools.

Our first stop was Plymouth, followed by Rochester, Peru and Kokomo. Thank goodness for lunch. It was a long morning. The welcome DAR faces were a pleasant change from the driving. Then Indianapolis and finally Martinsville by evening. We're spending the night here in Martinsville.

Dear Diary,

After an early start, we stopped at Taylorville and then Seymour, Scottsburg, Salem, Paoli, Jasper and this evening, Evansville. It was a long day, but great to see the DAR’s and have their assistance loading. Ethel Egan met us here and took us to dinner.

Sun., Dec. 1, 1985

Dear Diary,

Already December!
And we’re in the south with our 10,000 pounds of goods for the schools. First stop is Kate Duncan Smith, where we went to church with some of the staff. After dinner we unloaded about half the truck for the thrift shop. We couldn’t stay as long as we would have liked, but pressed on to Tamassee. We still have half a truck load to deliver.

INDIANA DAUGHTERS ON THE MOVE To DAR Schools
Dear Diary,

What a Reception!
The students and staff here at Tamassee were so appreciative of the furniture and bedding for the Indiana All-States Dormitory. I know they will enjoy the Christmas gifts when the time comes. Our contributions helped swell the thrift shop, too. Janice Bollinger, Tammy Bennett and I worked around the All-States Dormitory until evening. We'll get up early and help tomorrow before we leave for home in the middle of the day.

The Hibbard Tavern, listed on the Michigan State Register of Historic Sites, is very probably Milford's oldest frame building. Built sometime in the mid-1830's it served as a stage coach stop. The house is in remarkably original condition. Possibly the porch extended the full width of the building at one time, but the east end must have been enclosed very early because it contains the greenhouse room, which was used to grow vegetables for use in the tavern.

In 1982 Tom and Jane Watkins bought the tavern and spent the first year restoring the woodwork, doors and floors and in redecorating the entire first floor. The tavern has been on tour several times as a benefit to the Milford Historical Society and will probably be on tour again in 1987 as Michigan celebrates its Sesquicentennial.

In 1984, after much careful and painstaking thought and planning an addition was added to the west end of the house, closing in the porch with another greenhouse room and restoring the house to the architecture it was in 1860. At this time other architectural restorations were accomplished including uncovering the original eyebrow windows in front of the house on the second floor.

A favorite story concerning the home is quoted from Mrs. E. S. DeGarmo, whose family owned the tavern building after it had become a home. This quote is taken from Milford's history book "Ten Minutes Ahead of the Rest of the World," published in 1983. "It was one of the first houses that was built in Milford. The land it sits on was taken over from the government by Aaron Phelps on March 13, 1833, and two years later he built this house. In 1845, he resold the house and half the land to Mr. (William) Bradford Hibbard. There were three of the Hibbard men—Bradford, Ira and Sterling, and they were all carpenters. The story was that the man who kept the tavern was an especially fine landlord and that he had the very spirit of the profession. He was jovial, hospitable and served good food and the house was very cleanly, and that the traveling public at that time always made it a point to make Hibbard Tavern. The road to Pontiac came down to the pond, up over the hill, over Catholic Hill (St. Mary's Cemetery) and then to Pontiac. Mr. Hibbard heard talk about the road being changed and made his hospitality all the more enjoyable in order to keep the road where it was. A stage ran from Pontiac to Lansing, and was driven by a man named Deacon. When he would get to the top of what is now Gillick's Hill (just west of the Burns and Commerce Road intersection), he tooted his horn and then all the children and the families who received newspapers would get out on the street and get their newspapers. I like to think on windy nights that these old gentlemen and the men of the town who used to gather to hear the news and tell stories still gather and tell Indian stories and, having been born in that house, I feel that I have a claim on it and I think that maybe when I am a spectre, they will let me join the crowd."

Milford, Michigan is the home of the newly organized Grand River Trail Chapter “Friends, that’s what it is all about!” A warm smile and friendly greeting always welcomes members and guests to Piety Hill Chapter meetings. All funding of these many national, state and local goals and projects for the Daughters of the American Revolution’s Society is derived from proceeds of an annual antique show, the first in the area and now in its 36th year.

Piety Hill has always met all commitments to the National Society and to the State Society of Michigan. Local support goes to our Libraries, the Birmingham Community House, Nationally Registered Historical Hunter House, the Oakland County Historical Wisner House, the Detroit Zoo, Common Ground, a short-term interest-free student loan fund at Oakland University in Rochester, Restoration of Orchestra Hall in Detroit, Good Citizens Program, American History Month, Foreign Exchange Students, and provides Flags of the United States of America to Schools and Public Buildings.

WAUKAZOO WOODS
In 1833 an Ottawa Indian village of about 300 lived on Black Lake, now Lake Macatawa. The village was led by Chief Waukazoo, recognized by his followers as a prophet and by local settlers as an orator. The Indians in this area adopted many of the customs of the whites, such as dress and the use of oxen, carts, plows and axes. They built log buildings, generally used for storage, preferring to live in their traditional wigwams. Many of the Indians converted to Christianity. In 1839, the protestants within the village established the "Old Wing Mission" about four miles southeast of here. The Catholics chose a site on the south side of Black Lake, built a church and consecrated a cemetery in 1841. In 1849, Peter, the son of Chief Waukazoo, moved his followers to the Grand Traverse Bay area, founding the village of Waukazooville, which was annexed by Northport in 1852.

Taking part in the program were Mrs. Gerald Nagelkirk, Regent, Elizabeth Schuyler Hamilton Chapter; Mr. John Paul, President & owner of the Allegan County Abstract Office; Mr. Charles J. Lorenze, Indian Historian & Innkeeper of Old Wing Inn; Mr. Jay Van Nieren, Park Township Supervisor; Mr. Willard C. Orlando Brown House 202 Wilkinson St.

On the National Register. Built in 1835 by Senator John Brown for his younger son Orlando on the southern grounds of his own home, Liberty Hall. Designed by Gideon Shryock, architect of Kentucky’s Old State Capitol. The style of the house reflects the transition from Federal to Greek Revival. The house contains the handsome original furniture and oil portraits of the prominent family which occupied it continuously for nearly 120 years, making it a remarkable testimony to their character and taste.

Liberty Hall 218 Wilkinson St.

A National Historic Landmark. It was begun in 1796 by John Brown, one of Kentucky’s first United States Senators, and occupied by his descendants until 1937. Completed in 1801, the L-shaped Georgian house with its beautiful pediment, noble portal, and handsome Palladian window has a facade as fine as any in America. The house contains many fine examples of early 19th Century furniture as well as family portraits, china and silver, and an extensive Library. A period garden behind the house extends to the Kentucky River.

610 DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION
Samuel Langhorne Clemens, better known by his pen name, Mark Twain, came very close to being a native of Columbia, Adair County, Kentucky. His mother, Jane Lampton Clemens, was a native of Adair County, the daughter of Peggy Casey Lampton and Benjamin Lampton. She was the granddaughter of Colonel William Casey, a Revolutionary soldier and one of the early settlers of Adair County. Samuel Langhorne Clemens's father, John Marshall Clemens, came to Adair County as a small boy with his widowed mother and several other children. His mother met her former sweetheart, Simon Hancock, and after a few years, they were married.

Jane Lampton was a beautiful young girl considered one of the beauties of her town. John Marshall Clemens grew up in his step-father's home on a farm near Columbia, Kentucky. He studied law and assisted with the farm chores. Upon completing his study of law he began to practice his profession in one of the rooms of the house which is shown in the picture. He and the beautiful Miss Lampton began seeing each other and soon were engaged and married. Not wishing to live with either of their parents, Clemens arranged for them to live either in an adjoining room or in one part of the large room that he used as a law office.

After residing in Columbia for a short while, Mr. & Mrs. John Marshall Clemens migrated to Tennessee. Their family grew and later they moved to Florida, Missouri. It was here that Samuel Langhorne Clemens, one of America's greatest humorists, was born. Thus Columbia and Adair County, Kentucky, although not able to claim him as a son, they may claim him as a grandson. Mr. & Mrs. John Marshall Clemens never forgot their friends and relatives in Adair County, Kentucky, and returned a few times to visit.

The stately old home, built in 1812, known as the Field House is well preserved and still standing in Columbia, Kentucky. The marriage bond of John Marshall Clemens and Jane Lampton Casey was found in old records of the court house and is being carefully preserved by the members of the Jane Lampton Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution.

\textit{The services of Mr. Lewis Hankins, the gentleman posing as Mark Twain, were secured through his courtesy and interest in the great humorist. The lady is the new State Regent of KY, Mrs. Martin F. Thompson.}

Mrs. Stebbins is pictured holding a flag made from the Braille flag kits which she has designed and supplies to anyone interested in making one. Each stripe is made from a cloth of a different texture, as is the blue field. The stars are embroidered so that our country's beloved flag can be "seen" with fingers.

More than 1500 Braille Flags have been presented to persons whose diminished eyesight prevents them from seeing Old Glory.

Patricia Stebbins has served the California State Society as Librarian and as Registrar. She has been Regent of El Palo Chapter twice, serving two consecutive terms each time. She is now serving as Chapter Treasurer. She has held many chairmanships, on every level, and in almost every area of DAR activity.

Is it any wonder that we are so very proud of her?

Evangeline Davey Smith
Berensce Smith Hardy
Diantha Smith Harris
Letitia Smith Manley
Cecil Davey Giltz

John Davey started caring for trees in Kent, Ohio. He planted many of the trees that still flourish in the "Tree City" today, including this 90-year-old copper beech on the grounds of the Kent family for whom the town was named.

Davey protects America's living treasures: your trees.

The "Keep America Beautiful" movement really began in 1880. That's when John Davey set out to save America's trees.
John Davey was the first to see the possibilities of shade tree care. He saw trees as responsive living things. He saw the appalling neglect of America's magnificent heritage of trees. So he made it his lifework to save trees scientifically and to promote their care.
John Davey sold America the new idea that shade trees could be saved and kept healthy by scientific processes. He was the first to make tree service available to the public.
The work pioneered by John Davey's dedication is now carried on by the original and largest tree-care service in the world, The Davey Tree Expert Company.
Today, more than 1,000 trained, conscientious craftsmen provide year-round residential tree care and landscape planting. They protect America's trees from coast to coast.
In these days of improving environmental control, healthy trees are one of nature's best fighters against air pollution, exhaling life-giving oxygen into the environment.
Let Davey keep your living treasures luxuriant, healthy and beautiful.

New from The Order of the Founders and Patriots of America!

Revised Edition—Founders of Early American Families
Edited by Meredith B. Colket, Jr.

The original 370-page edition of Founders of Early American Families, published in 1975, was rapidly sold out. It contained historical information about some 3,500 male heads of families who emigrated to the 13 original colonies from 1607-1657.

The revised edition of nearly 470 pages features data on about 4,400 emigrants—plus a history of The Order of the Founders and Patriots of America, a roster of current members, eligibility requirements, an interesting discussion of where early colonists came from, illustrations of prominent colonists and early residences that may be visited today, data on coats of arms and a valuable guide to further genealogical research. The volume is priced at $30, including shipping and handling.

LIBERTY MINT Presents
The Limited Edition

STATUE OF LIBERTY CENTENNIAL LETTER OPENER

Liberty Mint is proud to pay tribute to "Lady Liberty's one hundredth birthday by issuing this fine pewter letter opener in honor of this once in a lifetime event.

"Miss Liberty is reproduced in all her splendor as a solid pewter sculpture and serves as the handle of the letter opener. The Intricate details of "Miss Liberty" have been beautifully captured by our craftsmen. Once in your possession, you will appreciate the attention given to detail.

The letter opener blade is crafted of pewter-toned stainless steel. This allows for the engineering and design of a thin and properly shaped, but strong blade often lacking in many letter openers.

Most "Statue of Liberty" memorabilia will be stored away and forgotten, but the "Lady Liberty" letter opener offers her Purchaser a truly "day-to-day" usable high quality commemorative of America's cherished symbol of freedom.

Included with every letter opener will be a certificate of authenticity and a history of the Statue of Liberty. You will also find that each letter opener comes to you in an attractive gift box.

Each letter opener is available to you for $15.00 plus $2.00 for shipping, handling and insurance. You must be completely satisfied with your letter opener or you can return it anytime and receive a full refund.

As illustrated, each letter opener is embossed with "Centennial 1886-1986." This letter opener will become an invaluable collector's item as it is a Limited Edition and will only be available through 1986.

Please send me ________ Statue of Liberty letter opener(s) at $15.00 each plus $2.00 shipping and handling. Note, if ordering 2 or more we will pay shipping.

Dear Daughters,
While we anticipate the announcement of the new Magazine Advertising Chairman, Cheryl and I would like to take this chance to greet all of you and let you know a few important facts. On page 621 you will find the breakdown of State Sponsored Issues. This list explains just which issue each state is responsible for, and shows a new division for the October issue. The Western Division has been divided into the Southwestern and Northwestern Divisions with the latter moving to the October issue. Also please note, the Units Overseas Division has been assigned January as its State Sponsored Issue.

Remember! There is a minimum $35.00 Authors Alteration charge for any changes made in advertising copy once it has been sent to the printer. This charge applies only when a change is made from the original copy. Please read your copy carefully before sending it to avoid any charges!

A complete sample ad kit will be mailed this summer along with other information from National. Please contact your State or Chapter Regent as she is the one who will be responsible for providing this valuable information to you. Study the "Ad Answers" sheet contained in this kit before contacting us with questions. Most questions are answered on this sheet, and you may even get some good ideas for advertising!

The Magazine Advertising Office operates under a series of very strict deadlines. It is for this reason you should never wait to send materials, return proofs or ask questions. We are here to help, and welcome your inquiries!

Sincerely,

Karen Plunkett
