Join us for Continental Congress

Dear Daughters,

We hope you will join us for the 111th Continental Congress. Exciting plans are well underway to make your Congress experience informative and enjoyable. As you are aware, the security within the District of Columbia has increased since September 11th, especially in locations near the White House. In order to prevent unauthorized persons from entering our buildings, we will require all Daughters and their guests to register. All members should be prepared to show a government-issued picture ID (driver's license, passport, etc.).

Each registered person will be given an official Continental Congress name badge that must be worn in order to gain entrance to the buildings, including the DAR Library and DAR Museum. Guests, including spouses and children will receive an official Congress name badge, but will not be required to pay a registration fee. Because there will be no on-site registration during the evening events, Daughters and guests are urged to register during the day in order to receive your official Congress name badges.

Congress attendees will receive a temporary "pass-card" at the door that will allow entry to the O'Byrne room for registration. Temporary "pass-cards" will be exchanged for full-access official Congress name badges upon complete registration. Several high-profile guests have been planned for our events, which will also merit the need for increased security. The hotels will be monitoring those who enter by requiring proof of a room key or access card. If you plan to attend events held at the Headquarters Hotel, the J.W. Marriott, you must wear your official Congress name badge to gain entrance.

All that being said, Washington is probably one of the safest places in the nation. Your National Society will provide extra security police to ensure your safety and well being during the Congress week. Anyone having a pace-maker or similar device that is sensitive to security wands should be prepared to show your appliance card in order to waive screening.

Due to the limited seating space in the DAR Library during Continental Congress, admittance for non-members will be granted based upon "space-available" conditions. Use of the DAR Library is free to Daughters; non-members will pay a nominal fee of $5.00 per day.

Because of air-conditioning needs in July, the system will be stepped up to adequately cool the upper tiers of Constitution Hall. This may cause the main floor, platform and box areas to be cooler. You are advised to bring a shawl or light wrap.

Your National Executive Committee and the DAR Headquarters staff look forward to welcoming each Daughter and her guests for this great patriotic celebration!

Faithfully,

Linda Tinker Watkins
President General, NSDAR

TALKBACK DAR!

This month's column of Talkback DAR again highlights some of the frequently asked questions submitted to various departments. Answers have been provided by Executive Officers and Department Directors. If you have a question that you feel would be of interest to the general membership, please write to us at newsletter@dar.org.

FOR THE LIBRARIAN GENERAL
(Charlotte Porter Bayliss Edson)

Q: Is it true that the DAR Library and Museum will be open on Saturdays instead of Sundays?
A: Yes. Beginning Saturday, June 1, 2002, NSDAR Headquarters will be open Saturdays instead of Sunday afternoons. Saturday hours will be 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M., since the Metro system does not open until 8:00 A.M. on Saturdays. Some Saturdays will be affected by holiday closings, so if planning a visit, please be sure to verify the hours for a specific date.

Q: How do I participate in the indexing project for the Genealogical Records Committee Reports?
A: Some states have already started their indexing, so it would be best to contact your State Regent or State GRC Chairman to determine this. Otherwise, please contact Elizabeth Hopkins at the GRC Office for additional information. She may be reached Monday–Wednesday at (202) 879-3259 or by e-mail at ehopkins@dar.org. Pat Mayer, National Chairman, Genealogical Records Committee, is another good source for information. E-mail her at pmayer@juno.com.

FOR THE DIRECTOR OF DEVELOPMENT
(Merry Ann T. Wright)

Q: I've received a mailing from a company that identifies me as a DAR member in the address. I thought that DAR wasn't supposed to share our membership list with anyone. How could this have happened?
A: DAR does not share its list nor do we place an identifier in the address of a member that would indicate her affiliation with NSDAR. We have very strict mailing agreements with the printing contractors for our fundraising mailings. These same stringent agreements are in force with both MBNA and RKI Insurance who provide the royalty programs for NSDAR credit card and CD/Money Market programs and the NSDAR Insurance program. Both are companies of high integrity who adhere to these list agreements to the letter.

Most instances where a member has received mailings identifying them in some way as members of DAR have occurred when the person has been associated with DAR through their local chapter as a Chapter Treasurer or Chapter Regent. Many banks sell their lists of depositors, identified by category. Then our members are put on what is known to list brokers as a “patriotic list.” In nine out of ten researched complaints, the member has been a Chapter Treasurer.

Others have been added to compiled lists through inappropriate dissemination of chapter and state directories and yearbooks. This is an excellent reason why these publications should not be placed in the public domain.

If you have a question about a mailing, please e-mail development @dar.org or call (202) 879-3343.

CONSTITUTION HALL

Independence Gallery Opens

NSDAR celebrated the opening of Independence Gallery, which debuted on Monday, April 8, with a gala reception and book signing. This new exhibition space, located in historic DAR Constitution Hall, will showcase photography from the National Geographic Society (NGS) Book Division and other collections.

"The Daughters of the American Revolution is very pleased to renew the relationship with the National Geographic Society," says DAR President General Linda Tinker Watkins. "We anticipate that this will be the beginning of many collaborative exhibits displaying portraits from America's history."

The opening exhibit features the new NGS publication, I Dwell in Possibility: Women Build a Nation, 1600–1920, by award-winning author Donna M. Lucey. "Donna Lucey turns our attention to the pioneering, innovative and enduring ways in which women influenced the building of America before they had the right to vote," says Barbara Brownell, Executive Editor at National Geographic Books.

The exhibit, which features period photographs from the book, depicts the contributions of women in the founding of America. Included in the collection are photographs from Evelyn Cameron, Montana's first documentary photographer at the turn of the 20th century, and Alice Austen, who revealed in capturing on film daring women of the Gilded Age.

Susan Norton, Director of Explorers Hall, the museum of the National Geographic Society, adds, "We are looking forward to expanding the mission of the National Geographic Society by creating photographic exhibits for Independence Gallery. Our two organizations have a long and productive history of working together and this project takes this relationship in a new direction that we feel will have great appeal to the many visitors to DAR Constitution Hall each year."

The gallery is open to the public from 11:00 A.M. until 2:00 P.M. Monday–Friday and during performances at DAR Constitution Hall. Entrance to Independence Gallery is through 1776 D Street, NW. I Dwell in Possibility: Women Build a Nation, 1600–1920, will be on display through September 2002.

OFFICE OF THE ORGANIZING SECRETARY GENERAL

Office Reorganization

In order to more efficiently serve our members and the chapters, the Office of the Organizing Secretary General has been reorganized into two departments: Chapter Services and Membership Services. The Chapter Services Department will principally take care of all chapter matters, such as the organizing, merging, maintaining and the disbandment of chapters, as well as credentials and new and used pins. The Membership Services Department will handle all member services and data entry, dues processing and certificates. New forms will reflect the changes.

NSDAR Official Statement of Policy for Purchase and Sale of Used DAR Pins and Insignia.

The NSDAR offers for sale to DAR members a variety of used DAR pins and Insignia through the Office of the Organizing Secretary General. Detailed lists of items for sale can be found on the DAR Members' Web Site under Forms in the Organizing Secretary General's section. A list of sale items can also be obtained by calling the office at (202) 879-3325.

Used DAR pins and Insignia are often found on sale in various venues, including estate sales, jewelry and pawnshops, Internet auction sites, etc. Due to the growth and popularity of online auction sites, NSDAR has created a new subcommittee of the News From DAR Headquarters

Insignia Committee called Internet Purchasing to help monitor these sites. The new subcommittee is comprised of five National Vice Chairmen who are authorized to purchase used DAR pins and Insignia to be resold to DAR members. In all cases, these NSDAR purchases from eBay or other Internet sites are strictly in accordance with site-specific bidding requirements and applicable fair trade and other laws.

In order to keep DAR pins and Insignia from being purchased by non-members, Daughters can help the Insignia Committee by purchasing items when they find them. DAR members will be recompensed for the costs incurred from such purchases, but only at a “reasonable price,” which is considered no more than 50% of the current J.E. Caldwell selling price for a new pin or Insignia. For example:

- 14-karat gold Insignia: J.E. Caldwell’s current price is $335.00. NSDAR will pay up to $167.50 for its procurement.
- Gold-filled (GF) Insignia: J.E. Caldwell’s current price is $75.00. NSDAR will pay up to $37.50 for its procurement.

DAR pins and Insignia offered for sale through NSDAR will be sold to members for cost plus a slight markup to cover handling, administrative and shipping expenses.

GENEALOGY

- Patriot Index Online
  The online edition of the Patriot Index is a wonderful tool for members and researchers, but there are some issues that should be taken into account. The online Patriot Index includes information from the Centennial Edition of the DAR Patriot Index and the New Ancestor Records added before 1994. Corrections made since January 1994 are not reflected in the online edition. These corrections are currently being added to our offline version. Once all changes have been entered, they will be uploaded to the online version, which will then be kept current.

Existing Bylaw
“Section 3. A secondary chapter may be organized in a city, town, village, or unincorporated area where there is already a chapter provided that each secondary chapter shall have at least twenty-five members of whom twelve or more have never been members of a chapter and provided that the existing chapter or chapters in that locality have been given at least a thirty days’ notice of the proposed organization in writing by the State Regent and the Organizing Secretary General, and further provided that the organization of the chapter is approved by the State Regent, the Organizing Secretary General, and the National Board of Management. Where a chapter, or chapters, which have not reached a membership of fifty already exist, the Organizing Secretary General shall inform the National Board of Management of the reasons or conditions which make an additional chapter desirable in that locality. The reasons shall be set forth in writing by the State Regent and submitted with request for authorization.”

Rationale: To provide accommodation for the Society’s changing membership.

ARTICLE XIII - Chapters
Section 9. (b): Amend by substitution.

Existing Bylaw
Section 9. (b) Each chapter of at least twelve members, or if overseas at least eight members resident in country where chapter is located, and each other chapter of at least twenty-five members, organized in a locality where a chapter already exists, shall be entitled to be represented by the Regent, or in her absence by the First Vice Regent or alternate, provided it has dues of at least twelve, eight, or twenty-five members, as required under Sections 2, 3, and 20 of this Article, credited for the current year upon the books of the Treasurer General the first day of December and also provided that credentials have been completed in accordance with Article VIII, Meetings Section 2 (e).

The new Section 9. (b) would then read:
Section 9. (b): Each chapter of at least twelve members, or if overseas at least eight members resident in country where chapter is located, shall be entitled to be represented by the Regent, or in her absence by the First Vice Regent or alternate, provided it has dues of at least twelve or eight members as required under Sections 2 and 19 of this Article, credited for the current year upon the books of the Treasurer General the first day of December and also provided that credentials have been completed in accordance with Article VIII, Meetings Section 2 (e).

Sections 4 through 20 would be renumbered, becoming Sections 3 through 19.

Rationale: To clarify intent of bylaws to be consistent with the amendment of Article XIII, Chapters, Section 3.

ARTICLE XIII - Chapters
Section 2. Amend by striking out “primary.” The new sentence would then read:

A chapter may be organized with not fewer than twelve (12) members, or if overseas, see Section 20.

Rationale: To eliminate reference to a primary chapter to coincide with the striking out of Section 3, if adopted.

ARTICLE XIII - Chapters
Section 4. (b): First sentence, strike out “primary or secondary.” The sentence would then read:

At the request of the State Regent, the National Board of Management may authorize a group of members who have met the requirement for a chapter to organize.

Rationale: To coincide with the striking out of Section 3, if adopted.

Editorial Changes required by previous amendments:
These section numbers are provided for your information.

ARTICLE XIII - Sections 4 through 20 will be renumbered, becoming Sections 3 through 19:
Section numbers used as reference in the following sections will be corrected:
ARTICLE XIII - Chapters
Section 9. (e)
Section 15
Section 20. (c)
ARTICLE VII - Duties of Officers
Section 7. (g)

ARTICLE VIII - Meetings of the National Society
Section 3
ARTICLE IX - National Board of Management
Section 3. (j)

The Chairman of the DAR Magazine Committee, Beth Bugbee, reported.

By general consent, editorial changes were made to the “Chapter Achievement Award” form.

9. To amend 6B of the Chapter Achievement Award to read “to increase required percentage to 25% for 25 points toward award.” Adopted.

10. To amend 6A of the 2002-2003 Chapter Achievement Awards to indicate that with an additional contribution of $10 or more, above the required amount for newsletter ads, score 5 additional points. Amended by #11.

11. To amend by striking out 5 additional points and inserting 10 additional points. Adopted.

12. To amend 6A of the 2002-2003 Chapter Achievement Awards to indicate that with an additional contribution of $10 or more above the required amount for newsletter ads, score 10 additional points. Adopted as amended.

13. That the National Board of Management accept the proposed “2002-2003 Chapter Achievement Award” form. Adopted.

14. That $150,000 in principle be withdrawn from the Heritage Fund to purchase special equipment for the Print Shop (including first year maintenance contract). Rationale: It is estimated that approximately $85,000 per year can be saved in outside printing. Adopted.

The Chairman of the Building and Grounds Committee, Julia Rogers, reported.

The Chairman of the DAR School Committee, Georganne Marty, reported.

The Co-Chairman of the Membership Committee, Karin Lund, reported.

During the remainder of the Millennium Administration, there will be different contest themes.

- Arts and crafts contests will reflect the theme “My Family Tree: Roots of My Heritage,” through the remainder of the administration. We are doing this to allow artists and artisans who are creating large or complex items sufficient time to complete their projects.

- The theme for all writing contests (including poetry, drama, short story and music) will change each year. The 2002–2003 theme is “My America.”

Information about both contests can be found on the Committee Web page at members.dar.org/committees/amerher/amhe.htm.

Deborah Gaudier National Chairman

Chapter Revitalization Committee

This committee’s goal is to work with established chapters, nurturing struggling chapters back to growth and productivity through leadership and training. We are available to help you save your existing chapter. At the February 2002 National Board Meeting, six chapters were disbanded. If you have any chapters with low membership, low chapter achievement scores, chapters not turning in master questionnaires, not attending state and district meetings or not participating in national projects or activities, they may be candidates for assistance from our committee.

Our committee can work with you and your chapters to:

- gain new members
- create active, contributing chapters
- provide leadership training
- provide guidance
- introduce motivational techniques
- exchange program ideas
- resolve chapter problems.

Change is up to all of us. If you have a chapter who may be in trouble, e-mail me at ruthkeysclark@yahoo.com or Elizabeth Stoddard, National Chairman, at egstoddard@aol.com. Please know that all matters will be kept confidential.

September 11 remains foremost in our minds. The attack on America provoked all of us to show our colors in support of our nation. Many of you have entered the National Defense contest for Best Editorial or Best Letter to the Editor. Certificates will be awarded at the National Defense luncheon at noon on July 3, 2002 at the J.W. Marriott Hotel. The winning editorials and letters will be published in the National Defender this fall. Do plan to attend the luncheon for our patriotic pre-Fourth of July celebration.

Patriotism continues at record levels as Americans respond to terrorism and anti-American sentiments and support the defense policies of the Bush Administration. The National Defense Committee encourages you to stay well informed.

Ann A. Hunter National Chairman

Children of the American Revolution Committee

You are invited to attend the C.A.R. Workshop on Wednesday, July 3, where you will learn about C.A.R. activities and programs for the year. If you have thought about organizing a C.A.R. Society or would like ideas to strengthen a Society you already sponsor, please plan to attend. We will meet at 1 P.M. in the President General’s Assembly Room, Second Floor, DAR Administration Building.

Pam Johnston National Chairman

National Defense Committee

The National Defender is published nine times a year, September through May. Therefore the familiar blue and white folder will not appear in your mailbox this month, nor in July or August. Look for your next issue in September 2002. If you do not already receive the National Defender as Chapter Regent, member of the Board of Management or through subscription, now is a good time to ensure that you receive every copy of the next volume. Send a check for $4.00 payable to the Treasurer General, NSDAR, to the National Defense Committee, 1776 D Street NW, Washington, D.C. 20006-5303. Please include your name, national number and address.

Volunteer Information Specialists

VIS Needs You!

Anyone who uses a computer can volunteer to assist the Volunteer Information Specialists Committee—you don’t need to be a chapter or state VIS Chairman to lend a hand. You may volunteer on the chapter level and help with printed programs, name tags, posters, invitations, brochures, newsletters, Web pages and more. You may also volunteer on the state level, assisting the state VIS chairman by volunteering to do data entry work for the state society, or to create Web pages for other chapters within your state. On the national level, there are many opportunities for computer users to volunteer. We currently have the following projects underway and new projects are always in the works:

- All Member Index Project
- National Forms Writeable PDF Project
- Patriot Index Lookup Service, National Site
- Patriot Index Lookup Service, Other Internet Sites
- Web Page Review
- Webmasters

Volunteers are compensated for their efforts with participation certificates, and the diligent volunteer can be eligible for a VIS pin, a rider bar with stars and eventually an enamel bar! And of course all volunteers receive our utmost thanks and respect. Diverse opportunities are available for all skill levels. If you own a computer you can be a volunteer. Please e-mail me at stillman@dar.org to receive more information.

Junior Membership Committee

Branching Out to Juniors

"This is a most opportune moment for the Junior Membership Committee to work, because leadership is of prime importance at this time for the youth of the country, considering many nations where the youth are never allowed an opinion of their own, much less the privilege of expressing themselves. Leaders are the results of a process of growth.

The opportunity of molding the youth of today into the potential leaders of tomorrow is a great challenge for the National Junior Membership Committee."

Deanne Van Landingham
Junior Membership National Chairman, April 1938

Junior Membership was vital to the DAR of 1938 because everyone knew those Juniors would be the new leaders of the DAR. In the past 60 years, many of them did become leaders and shaped the Society for the better. Some things have changed over the years, but not the role of the Junior Membership. If you are a Junior, you're probably a busy, multi-faceted woman. Since 1937, Juniors have been busy with their studies, their careers and their families. And just like Juniors today, you have always believed in your country and your duties as Americans—especially during times of uncertainty. DAR needs its Juniors. DAR needs you—we need your leadership! Here are some encouraging words from Junior members who have continued their vital and significant work with the DAR:

"I joined as a Junior because I recognized that it was a unique opportunity to learn DAR from a younger vantage point. I was able to network with other Juniors on the state and local levels, which gave me some insight into how DAR worked and how it could better relate to the membership. Today, I find I am still drawing from those experiences. My hope is that we will initiate a program that provides feedback and solid communication so that our members feel that they are part of the forward vision and purpose for the National Society."

Linda Tinker Watkins
President General, NSDAR

"I did not really know much about DAR so I joined because my mother wanted me to. As a Junior I learned a lot about the history of our country and wrote a booklet about the famous pioneer trails in Missouri. The project was to raise money for Tamassee DAR School, and my interest in the children at this school has enriched my DAR experience for 29 years."

Rolfe Toule Teague
Curator General, NSDAR

"My Grandmother said, “Sign here!” as I was getting married and moving to New York City. A few years later, I was a “chapter DAR” holding almost every office and chapter chairmanship. In 1981, my chapter could find absolutely no one to be regent and they asked me. I said yes, attended State Conference and had fun. I then informed my husband I was going to Continental Congress. He thought this was a one shot deal. I have not missed one since."

Jane T. Moulthrop
Vice President General, Michigan

"I joined DAR so my children would know about their American heritage, their ancestors and family genealogy, especially while living in a foreign country. Since I have joined, communication and knowledge of the organization has improved among the members. I would tell today's Junior that one must get involved to appreciate the lasting friendships made within our beloved National Society. In today's busy world, try to find time to be continuously active in DAR and you will be rewarded."

Mary Lu James Saavedra
Advisor, DAR School, Museum and Units Overseas Committees, Mexico

Today is one of the best times to become active in DAR. If you are a Junior interested in becoming more active, please contact your State Junior Membership Chairmen. If you are a member who would like to provide more opportunities for Juniors to be active, please contact your State Regent or the National Junior Membership Chairman. For more information on the Junior Membership Committee and their activities, visit their Web page under the Committees section of the Members' Web Site at members.dar.org.

Membership Committee

Do you want to know the easiest way to gain at least one member by the end of the year? It's simple. The easiest members to recruit are those with a family connection to a member who has already proved her lineage. This means your daughter, granddaughter, great-granddaughter, niece, mother, sister, aunt or cousin may be eligible for membership. Have you approached any of your relatives in the past year? NSDAR has nearly 2,950 chapters. If each chapter recruited even one relative for membership, we could make up nearly 10% of the members lost over the past 17 years. The Membership Committee would like to help you recruit relatives (see sidebar). We have created a sample letter that you may edit to fit your needs and send to all of your relatives. You may be surprised at the warm responses you receive.

At your next chapter meeting, encourage your members to bring the names and addresses of their relatives. Send the letters and DAR booklets, and then follow up with them in a few weeks. At the end of the year tell your state membership chairman if you have successfully recruited a relative by using this letter. Even if you get only one member it was well worth it. The Membership Committee will be providing tools through the next few years to help you recruit more members, keep members active and retain your current members. (special thanks to Joan Davi and Peggy Boyd for their contributions to this article.)

Dear Aunt Emily,

Are you aware that our ancestor, Benjamin Gilbert, served in the Revolutionary War? His service to this country during the war enables all of his female descendants to join the NSDAR, National Society Daughters of the American Revolution.

DAR was founded on October 11, 1890 to promote education, historical preservation and patriotism. As a service organization, DAR has provided scholarships in diverse fields including nursing, occupational therapy and history. We also present awards to our community service leaders and outstanding high school students. These are just a few of the many things we can take pride in.

Encompassing an entire city block, our headquarters is the world's largest building complex of its kind owned and maintained exclusively by women. Our DAR museum is "one of the best showcases for decorative arts in the city; the real treats here are the museum's 33 period rooms" (Washington Post). Our DAR Library houses an extensive array of genealogical resources: 140,000 books, 250,000 research files and thousands of manuscripts. Our DAR Constitution Hall is a world-renowned concert venue with a diverse lineup where "it's not unusual to hear rock bands singing to sons and daughters about revolutions" (Washington Post).

I would love to assist you in your application to DAR. As a member, I have all the necessary documentation needed for your membership. Please join me in honoring our courageous ancestor by becoming a member. I am enclosing the brochure, "Getting to Know the DAR," for your reading enjoyment.

My chapter's current fee is $XX, which includes the first year's dues. Annual dues thereafter are $XX. I would like to invite you to our next meeting and I would be pleased to sponsor you in our chapter, or to help you find a chapter near you. I will provide any assistance you need to complete your application and will answer any questions you may have.

I hope your feelings of patriotism and the desire to link to your past will inspire you to join the DAR!

Sincerely,

Your niece, Susan

Independence Day Parade, Washington, D.C.

The event organizer for the Independence Day parade in Washington, D.C. has invited DAR to return for a second year. Approximately 100 DAR volunteers will be needed for the Flag of the USA float and to carry the state and territorial flags that are used traditionally on opening night. The length of the parade is approximately 1.5 miles. With possible conditions of 90-degree heat and humidity, this will be a strenuous yet fun march. Members who are interested in participating and who feel that they are physically able are invited to send their names to:

As airplanes flew into the World Trade Center towers and the Pentagon, America watched in horror. As yet another hijacked airplane crashed in Pennsylvania and Washington, D.C. evacuated its buildings, America watched in horror. All of us watched the news reports on that now infamous day, September 11, 2001, with a feeling of complete helplessness. As the horror unfolded, America rose to defend herself. As citizens, we rescued the victims, protected our communities and comforted the grieving. We asked, "What can I do to help?"

Following September 11, NSDAR began working with the Department of the Navy to sponsor the crew of an aircraft carrier as our way of showing support for Operation Enduring Freedom. (At the time of the NSDAR request, aircraft carriers sent to the Arabian Sea were used as a base of operations for all branches of the armed services and special forces.) The Department of the Navy notified NSDAR on February 26, 2002 that the Commanding Officer of the USS John C. Stennis (CVN 74) and the ship, would greatly appreciate NSDAR sponsorship. PROJECT PATRIOT was activated as the official NSDAR-approved special committee to organize and coordinate DAR support for the war against terrorism and the crew of the USS Stennis.

How Can I Participate?

🌟 For just $25.00, you can send a DAR patriot package with your personal thank you card enclosed to one of the 5,100 crew members, for delivery by Memorial Day 2002.
🌟 Send a donation of any amount to help support PROJECT PATRIOT.
🌟 Write a personal "Dear Patriot" letter of thanks. Due to security threats involving Anthrax, all mail must be forwarded to NSDAR for shipment to the USS Stennis. Do not attempt to send mail directly to the ship.
🌟 While each patriot package costs $25.00, any amount will be appreciated and will be used towards purchasing needed items for the ship's personnel.

Is This Project Limited to DAR Members?

No. Tell your friends and family about your support of PROJECT PATRIOT and encourage their donations to this worthy cause. Children from the DAR Schools will be participating with letters and drawings.

How Do I Send a Contribution?

Send your monetary donation, along with your personal thank you card or letter, to: NSDAR: PROJECT PATRIOT, Treasurer General, 1776 D Street, NW; Washington, D.C. 20006-5303. Checks should be made payable to Treasurer General, NSDAR, and are tax deductible. Please be sure to note PROJECT PATRIOT on the check. (If you send a thank you card or letter without a donation included, please address your mail to: NSDAR: PROJECT PATRIOT, Public Relations Office, 1776 D Street NW, Washington, D.C. 20006-5303).

EUROPEAN TOUR 2002:
The First Envoys

The President General plans to lead a DAR delegation to Europe in late 2002 to recognize the contributions of the first envoys, John Adams and Benjamin Franklin, to the formation of the United States.

In addition to commemorating specific historical events, activities in each country will include visits to beautiful homes, museums and other areas of interest. Countries to be visited include the Netherlands, England and Scotland.

The delegation will be limited to about 55-60 members. The estimated cost will be under $3,000 per person, double occupancy, which includes hotels, most meals and transportation. Flights to Amsterdam and returning home from London are not included. Depending on interest, a visit extension to Ireland will be planned for November 1-4, 2002.

Please advise Merry Ann Wright, Vice Chairman of the Special Projects and Events Committee if you are interested in joining this delegation. You may contact her at:

AMBERLY ISLAND CHAPTER, Fernandina Beach, FL could not have had a more perfect day for a Revolutionary War camp demonstration. The Southeastern Personas and Trade (SEPT) from Georgia was engaged to reenact the life of a Revolutionary War unit and its camp followers. The public was invited to join the chapter for this demonstration. After Regent Winkie Robinson conducted a short chapter meeting, members and guests gathered outside on an expanse of lawn where a tent and displays had been set up. The hostesses served warm mulled cider, homemade gingerbread and cornbread. Vice Regent Gloria Toomey set up a table of her beautiful hand-quilted coverlets, a table of genealogical sources was available for visitors to browse through, and Claudette Sovilla displayed her skill at rug hooking. Adults and children were given a hands-on lesson on how 18th-century soldiers coped under harsh conditions in Florida and southern Georgia. Unit members demonstrated how their tools, weapons and cooking utensils were carved from bone, horn, stone, wood or any other natural substance they could find. They showed how deerskin was used for leggings and buffalo hide used for shoe soles. One young boy, impressed by the shoes, said, “They wouldn’t have found those at Wal-Mart!” This program was an excellent way for members of this young chapter to honor their ancestors and interact with their community.

ARLINGTON HOUSE CHAPTER, Arlington, VA focused its activities this year on honoring and serving America’s veterans. The greatest accomplishment was the donation, by the Chapter’s Junior Membership Committee, of a heavy-duty washing machine to the U.S. Veterans Affairs Medical Center in Washington, D.C. The D.C. VAMC is the closest facility to Northern Virginia and has been serving the chapter’s veteran members for many years. The gift replaced a washing machine that broke after only two years of use and was the only washing available to patients in the psychiatric ward.

Celebrating the installation of the washer are (left to right) Mrs. Linda Corbitt, Chief Nurse; Mrs. Fran Carlisle, a veteran chapter member; Mrs. Eloise G. Brooks, Regent; Mr. Sanford Garfunkel, Director of the D.C. VAMC and Mrs. Elise Chawaga, Chairman, DAR Service for Veterans Committee.

CLARENCE CHAPTER, Clarence, MO held their monthly meeting on January 11, 2002. After the business part of the meeting concluded, three seventh grade boys from Shelby County Middle School gave a presentation about their time at Space Camp. They were introduced by their teacher, Ginger Wood, who said Joseph Langhammer and Logan Wood attended Space Camp at the U.S. Space and Rocket Center in Huntsville, Alabama, and Jamie Parmer took part in the program at Cape Canaveral, Florida, where he saw the space shuttle Atlantis launched at daybreak. The three boys included posters in their presentation, read from a “rocket book,” played a game, showed a video and spoke about different aspects of their training. At the end of the presentation, the three boys and all the ladies in attendance went out to the yard and launched a toy rocket. The boys presented each DAR member with a “Space Rookie” certificate. It was a most enjoyable program. Clarence Chapter also supports a teacher, Mary Jo Kattelman of Clarence Elementary School, who has received a grant from the National Geographic Foundation to teach school next year to students in Madagascar. Members are collecting U.S. patriotic stickers, note pads and pencils for her to take with her and distribute to her students. One member has donated a quilt for the school to sell and the money raised will be put towards her traveling expenses.

ELIZABETH PEYRE RICHARDSON MANNING CHAPTER, Manning, SC is proud to have been instrumental in having the historical old Richardson Waltz named as the Official Waltz of South Carolina. This tune, handed down by ear since the 1700s was finally written and copyrighted in 1985 by Mary Richardson Briggs, a member of the chapter. Mrs. Briggs and Regent Laura Legrand appeared in Columbia at the legislative council with State Representative Alex Harvin who sponsored Bill 4277, which named the historic tune as the official state waltz. Supported by other South Carolina chapters, the bill was signed into law by Governor Jim Hodges in the rotunda of the State House in front of about 200 people. Mrs. Briggs played the waltz as her niece and the governor’s speechwriter performed the dance. Elizabeth Peyre Richardson Manning Chapter was named for the lady credited in an edition of Ripley’s Believe it Or Not as being related to more governors than any other lady in history. She was the daughter, wife, mother, sister, aunt, niece and grandmother to six Richardson and Manning governors of South Carolina. In signing the bill into law, Governor Hodges commented, “To think that one family could produce that many statesmen and leaders who helped shape the course of South Carolina is remarkable and it is appropriate that we honor that family, not only for what the Richardsons have done for South Carolina over the years, but for contributing to the culture of our state as well with their Richardson Waltz.” Mrs. Briggs generously donated a portion of the proceeds from sheet music sales to the EPRM Chapter to be used as an annual music scholarship for a high school student.

FRAMINGHAM CHAPTER, Framingham, MA observed the town’s tercentennial year by presenting a bronze plaque at the historic Old Burying Ground Cemetery, established 1698. At the dedication, Sgt. Nick Paganella, Veterans Council President, formally accepted the plaque from Regent Ellen Harwood and Chairman Andrea Crossman. The Framingham Chapter also restored the grave of Revolutionary hero Peter Salem, a Framingham slave who was granted his freedom to fight for the patriot cause and marched to Concord on April 19, 1775. National Park Ranger Bruce Harris described how the former slave served at the Battle of Bunker Hill where he mortally wounded Major Pitcairn, the British commander at Lexington and Concord. In commemoration of the Battle of Lexington and Concord, the plaque lists Framingham’s 41 Minutemen and Militiamen who marched on April 19, 1775. Town Historian Steve Herring researched the 89 Revolutionary War veterans interred in the Old Burying Ground. Her monument was cleaned, marked with a bronze DAR Insignia and identified as Founding Chapter Regent.

HANNAH CALDWELL CHAPTER, Davenport, IA has a rich history of participation in the life of the Davenport/Bettendorf area of the Iowa Quad Cities. They are beginning their 105th year, having been organized on January 18, 1897. In the early years of the chapter, an effort was made to locate and mark historical sites in the area. Between 1917 and 1979 the chapter placed ten markers commemorating events and persons of historical significance. During their annual inspection tour of the markers, Regent Barbara Halpin planned several outings during the Chapter’s inactive summer months. They visited the 1840s Swedish settlement of Bishop Hill, Illinois, enjoyed a water taxi ride on the Mississippi, had lunch at Deere Run Golf Club in Moline, Illinois and visited the Iowa Welcome Center at LeClaire, Iowa. All trips included luncheon stops and a favorite DAR pastime: shopping at unique gift shops. The relaxed atmosphere and fellowship on these trips resulted in an eagerness to work together and further the objectives of DAR. This spring the chapter will install and dedicate a DAR grave marker at the West Liberty grave of Isabelle Gardner Kimberly, Iowa State Regent from 1956-1958. Mrs. Kimberly was Chapter Regent from 1949-1951. Hannah Caldwell Chapter was honored that their member, Past Vice President General and Honorary State Regent Nola Gottschalk, received the Unity of Spirit Award for outstanding service and achievement presented by President General Dale Kelly Love at the 110th NSDAR Continental Congress in April 2001. Another distinguished member, Iowa State Vice Regent Michelle Juehring, is the candidate for Iowa State Regent.

Steve Herring was presented with the prestigious DAR History Award by the Framingham Chapter. This chapter also recently honored Sarah White, their Founding Regent, whose Revolutionary ancestor is also interred in the Old Burying Ground. Her monument was cleaned, marked with a bronze DAR Insignia and identified as Founding Chapter Regent.

COLORADO STATE SOCIETY NSDAR
Anita Bishop, Colorado's State Regent, is responding to historic preservation with her State Regent's project, the restoration of the Madonna of the Trail located in Lamar, Colorado. The statue has cracks and is in need of general cleaning and repair. This beautiful statue, representing those countless women whose courage and fortitude settled the west, is a most fitting project as we enter the 21st century. Located along U.S. 50 in southeastern Colorado, the Lamar Madonna was the fifth of the 12 statues commemorating the National Old Trails, this one located on the Old Santa Fe Trail. The statue was dedicated on September 24, 1928 and was sculpted by A. Leimbach of St. Louis, Missouri. Standing ten feet tall on a six foot base, the Madonna gazes across the vast prairie, and is today still a symbol of strength, determination and a look towards the future.

All Colorado chapters are supporting the project with full enthusiasm and Colorado, along with the 12 other states who possess the Madonna of the Trail, is pleased to offer 2003 Madonna of the Trail calendars. Please contact Kathy Self at 762 W 5th Street, Springfield, Colorado 81073, phone (719) 523-4177 or Carol Beam at 10362 County Road 120, Kiowa, Colorado 80117-8801, phone (303) 621-2088, e-mail: candtbeam@aol.com for more information on how to acquire these special calendars.

Chapters' associate members are invited to attend the conference, making it an annual celebratory occasion. Guests included Vicky T. Zuverink (Indiana), Elizabeth R. Gibson (North Carolina), Martha V. Hilton (D.C.) and Linda B. Wetzel (Ohio). Highlights included approval of an MXSS Bylaw Revision and the declaration of support for Mary Lu Saavedra as a candidate for Honorary Vice President General. Children from elementary schools brought flowers and gifts to DAR ladies prior to the luncheon; Mexico members and associates gave donations for their school uniforms, shoes and supplies during the last administration. The State Regent's project, "DAR Para los Ninos" ("Give to the Children") is an education outreach to the six DAR schools and children in Mexico. A Mexican fiesta was held Saturday evening, complete with mariachis and fireworks that spelled out DAR. Fifty members and their spouses toured cities and countryside through the states of Jalisco and Michoacan on a four-day post-conference bus trip. The MXSS was saddened to learn of the passing of Honorary State Regent Irma F. Watson on February 20, 2002.

Ruth, to the right of Arkansas State Regent Susan Page Veal, visits Caddo District and the Pioneer Cemetery at Old Washington State Park in Hempstead County, Arkansas.

“Building for the Future, with Membership” was Ruth’s theme. She sponsored many projects benefitting DAR schools, and is currently serving as National Vice Chairman, South Central District, DAR Schools. The Arkansas DAR Room at the Old State House was refurbished. A memorial to the Civil War veterans who were lost aboard the steamboat Sultana in the worst maritime disaster in American history was established. Due largely to her encouragement, Arkansas’ 53 chapters were among the first to go on line with their web pages. Prior to moving to Arkansas, Ruth had a distinguished history of DAR service in the state of Illinois. Caddo District feels privileged to have had Ruth as our State Regent.

Cornelia Cole Fairbanks served the National Society as President General from 1901-1905. During her term of office, a contest was held for architects to submit designs for Memorial Continental Hall. Seventy architects presented plans with Edward Pearce Casey of New York being awarded the contract. In April, 1904, ground breaking ceremonies were held. In 1905, Continental Congress took place in the new building.

The dedication of the Madonna of the Trail in Indiana was held on October 28, 1928. This was the ninth Madonna to be dedicated.

A committee composed of NSDAR representatives, members of the Richmond, Indiana Chapter, members of the National Old Trails Road Association as well as civic leaders selected the west entrance of Glenn Miller Park in Richmond as the most appropriate site for the Indiana memorial. Richmond, the "Gateway to the West," is the first city west of the state line and is at the end of the Cumberland Road.

In 1988, President General Mrs. Raymond Franklin Fleck requested all statues be rededicated. Mrs. Robert P. Rehl, who was State Regent of Indiana, after seeing the poor condition of the monument, undertook its restoration as her state project. Work was done by Scott Boyce and Company of Muncie at a cost of $12,284. Following the restoration, a rededication ceremony was held on October 29, 1988. Mrs. Edgar Weir, Historian General, accepted the restoration project for the National Society. A plaque telling of the restoration was placed at the front of the Madonna.

Following the 1988 restoration, a maintenance fund was established for periodic cleaning and re-sealing.

The inscriptions on the Indiana Madonna read: "NSDAR Memorial to the Pioneer Mothers of the Covered Wagon Days" and "A Nations Highway once a Wilderness Trail over which Hardy Pioneers made their perilous way. Seeking new homes in the dense forests of the great North-West."

In commemoration of the 75th anniversary of the Madonna of the Trail which will be celebrated in 2003, Indiana Daughters are offering a beautiful "Madonna Ornament" exclusively designed for Indiana by ChemArt.

The gold ornament is available for $15 plus postage ($ .75) with check payable to State Treasurer, Indiana DAR. Orders should be sent to:

Indiana Daughters have promoted and contributed to both Kate Duncan Smith and Tamases DAR Schools as well as Berry College, Crossnore, Hillside and Hindman.

One major school project for 2001 was a truck trip to Tamasesee. Over 10,000 pounds of used clothing and household items were donated by Indiana Daughters and taken to Tamasesee DAR School for the thrift shop.

The first truck trip by Indiana Daughters was in 1983 to both KDS and Tamasesee. Two additional trips to Tamasesee followed in 1992 and 1995. July, 2001 was trip number four!

Monument located near Pueblo ruins

The inscription on the monument reads,
"This marks the site of the Picurie Indian Pueblo 1604 which became an outpost of Spanish Civilization, also a rendezvous for French traders prior to 1720. Erected by the Kansas Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution - 1925."

Ruins of ancient stone buildings

The history of El Cuartelejo (or El Quartelejo) predates the settlement of white Europeans in Kansas. The name means "distant quarters." According to various accounts, two Indian tribes from the Southwest fled onto the plains to escape Spanish rule in New Mexico.

The first tribe of Taos Indians ventured into Kansas and settled with a band of Plains Apaches about 1604. They became known as the Cuartilejo band of Apaches and lived in El Cuartelejo until 1696 when the Picurie joined them.

All were "pueblo" dwellers and built El Cuartelejo to resemble dwellings in New Mexico. To date, only one site, in Scott County, Kansas, has revealed evidence of pueblo dwellers on the High Plains.

"Madonna of the Trail"

MONUMENT INSCRIPTION:
South Side: Here, "East Met West" when the "Old Santa Fe Trail" was established August 10, 1825, at a council between the United States Commissioners and Osage Indians.
North Side: 1825-1866 Trailsmen camped on this spot.
1847-1873 Kaw Indians Lived Here. 1847 - First white settler, Seth Hays. 1847 - Council Grove - A trading post

On September 7, 1928, this "Madonna of the Trail" was placed in Council Grove, Kansas, to mark the National Old Trails of which the Santa Fe Trail is a part. Council Grove is where, on August 10, 1825, a treaty between United States Commissioners and the Osage Indians was signed granting the right-of-way of the Santa Fe Trail.

The old camp ground of the freighters and trailsmen was chosen for the location of the statue. It was here at this famous meeting point that parties assembled, organized their caravans of wagons and pack animals, elected their trail bosses and other officers to manage their journey and enforce the "Code of the Plains" which they had adopted and which governed.

The old campground is now known as Madonna Park with the beautiful "Madonna of the Trail" standing in the center as a tribute to the pioneer mother whose courage and faith, strength and love aided so greatly in conquering the wilderness, and to the adventurers and merchants of yester-year and a reminder that all progress in civilization is the result of faith and hope of a free people. As one travels the Santa Fe Trail through Kansas, the statue of the Madonna looms as a tribute to the past and a promise of the future. Generations will come and go, but the Madonnas' marking the "Old Trails Road" from coast to coast reminds us of our rightful heritage.

The American's Creed
by William Tyler Page

"I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed,
a democracy in a republic, a sovereign Nation of many sovereign States; a perfect union, one and inseparable;
established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice, and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.
"I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it, to support its Constitution, to obey its laws to respect its flag, and to defend it against all enemies."

Staying Warm in 1894 at Roslyn Heights

Carole Temple Farmer (Mrs. John), Missouri State Regent, with the parlor fireplace, which is enhanced with the oval beveled mirrors.

STAYING WARM IN 1894

There are eight fireplaces which helped to keep the occupants of Roslyn Heights toasty warm in 1894. The fireplace in the foyer of the Missouri State DAR Headquarters, Roslyn Heights, was filled with soot when the Missouri Daughters bought the house in 1983. After a careful cleaning a copper lion's head fireback was discovered. The swinging firebasket was used for coal. Each fireplace is made of a different wood in a unique style and with distinct tiles. All of the mantles are original to the house. From the decorative pink tiles with mahogany in the parlor to the cast iron fireplace in the ballroom it is difficult to select a favorite fireplace.

Florence Windsor Hillyard (Mrs. Chester), Roslyn Heights Docent and Building and Grounds Committee Member points out the beautiful tiles in the second parlor fireplace.

The copper lion's head fireplace is a favorite of docents Ann Freese Bozarth and Florence Windsor Hillyard, and the Missouri State Curator, Gretchen Heddesheimer Shackleford (Mrs. Sydney).

The fruit tiles on the dining room fireplace are shown by Ann Freese Bozarth (Mrs. John V.), Roslyn Heights Docent and Building and Grounds Committee Member.
MISSOURI DAR
Hair Wreath Collection
at Missouri State Headquarters, Roslyn Heights, in Historic Boonville, Missouri

MISSOURI HAIR WREATH COLLECTION
Located at Roslyn Heights, Missouri DAR's State Headquarters, is a collection of Hair Wreaths. During the 18th and 19th centuries, one art form was making hair wreaths from human hair. Instructions for making them were printed in Godey's Lady's Book, and it was common for ladies during Victorian times to make hair jewelry or wreaths as a momento for a loved one. Each hair wreath had a story behind it. The hair wreaths on display are formed by "stitching" the hair with fine wire over a rod, which formed a series of loops, which are then formed into different flower shapes. These hair wreaths were formed into horseshoe shapes that were place on a silk or velvet background into the frame. When memorial wreaths were made hair was collected from the deceased and added to the wreath whenever anyone died. The top of the wreath was always kept open at the top-ascending heavenward. The newest addition would be placed in the center and then moved to the side to become part of the large wreath when the next person passed away. The hair wreath pictures at Roslyn Heights were donated by a member of the oldest Chapter in the state of Missouri, the Elizabeth Benton Chapter. The hair wreath in the large shadow box depicts family members hair in the center wreath, the hair in the outer wreath was from friends. It was made by a devoted mother and lover of nature and shows flowers, birds and her babies hand.

Ann Bozarth and Florence Hillyard, Roslyn Heights Building and Grounds Committee members, displaying the hair wreath with Gretchen Shackleford, the Missouri State Curator, who coordinates all Roslyn Heights activities.

Gretchen Shackleford, Missouri State Curator, and Carole Farmer, Missouri State Regent are delighted to present these hair wreath pictures.
WHERE WILL THIS SHOE TAKE YOU?
Tucked into the four large display cases in the Missouri State DAR Headquarters, Roslyn Heights, ballroom is a wonderful collection of shoes, which were donated by Missouri DAR, Mrs. Maurice Chambers, Past State Vice Regent and Protocol Chairman. Mrs. Chamber’s husband was the head of a large shoe company in St. Louis. The display presents a walk through the history of footwear. The shoes at Roslyn Heights include shoes made for a wedding, burial, baby, high top, button closure, theatrical and a pair of shoes made for Cardinal Glennon of St. Louis. A well worn cobblers bench and tools are also exhibited.

Carole Farmer, Missouri State Regent, presents wedding slippers from 1904, which are a part of the Roslyn Heights shoe collection.

Florence Hillyard, Ann Bozarth, Roslyn Heights Docents and Gretchen Shackleford, Missouri State Curator, by the display cases which exhibit the variety of shoes in the ballroom.

MISSOURI DAR’S COMMEMORATE THE LEWIS AND CLARK CORPS OF DISCOVERY EXPEDITION

On April 21 at 2:00 p.m., Missourians rang bells at the 33 Lewis and Clark Campsites in Missouri. This Prelude To The Lewis and Clark Corps of Discovery Expedition was sponsored and promoted by Missouri DAR’s to raise the public awareness of the Lewis and Clark expedition. The story of Lewis and Clark is a story for all Americans, but it is one of added significance for Missourians, as Missouri was the setting for the opening and closing miles of the Lewis and Clark journey. Chapters notified their schools, historical societies, C.A.R., S.A.R., community groups and local townspeople so they could participate. Each Chapter’s Event featured a brief history of their Lewis and Clark Campsite, how the expedition’s visit impacted the area and how the site is different today from 1804. Many local churches, city/town halls were asked to participate. All Missouri DAR’s have become more knowledgeable about Lewis and Clark through this Prelude to the Lewis and Clark Corps of Discovery Commemoration.
No other state has a past like Oklahoma's, the land that was once Indian Territory. The very name "Oklahoma" comes from two Choctaw words meaning Red People. The clues of prehistory and the pages of history tell a story that spans from ancient times to Indian settlement; to the era of great cattle drives and cowboys; to pioneer homesteaders and years of oil boom and prosperity. These many influences made an indelible impression on Oklahoma, and shaped an identity of perseverance and tradition that holds fast today.

Oklahoma Daughters are proud of their land of diverse cultures and this proud spirit extends to the accomplishments of many of our citizens: humorist Will Rogers, Cherokee alphabet inventor Sequoyah, Olympian Jim Thorpe, cowboy actors Gene Autry and Tom Mix, and astronaut Thomas P. Stafford.

Museums are windows of the past and they educate, interpret, inspire and remind us of this important heritage. The National Cowboy Hall of Fame and Western Heritage Center in Oklahoma City is a showcase of the American West and features renowned and rare art and artifacts that includes "End of the Trail" sculpture. Red Earth Museum, also located in Oklahoma City, features America's largest Native American Festival in June of each year at the Myriad Center. Native Americans from more than 87 tribes call Oklahoma their home and participate in the festival. The Pioneer Woman Museum located in Ponca City, honors the courageous women who braved danger and hardships to settle in Oklahoma. A reconstructed 1829 Cherokee courthouse stands in the Gore community and a feature of the Gilcrease Museum in Tulsa is the "Frontier Woman" bronze statue. Har-Ber Village is located at Grove and its many buildings contain items and artifacts that re-create all the aspects of the area's early settlement. The Chisholm Trail Statue in Duncan is a bronze depiction of a cattle drive and the museum contains trail artifacts and an animated likeness of Jesse Chisholm.
It is a land of diversified beauty formed by lofty mountain ranges, sparkling lakes, rolling plains and dense forests. Oklahoma’s unique history is told in museums and echoed in battlefields, frontier forts, missions and other historically significant places throughout our state.

(Mrs. William Thomas Bruce, Jr.)
Regent 2000-2002

Jane Douglas Chapter is grateful for the leadership of Regent Dorothy Odom Bruce. This Regent has led the Chapter in community involvement at Fannie C. Harris Elementary School; in supporting and honoring veterans of all wars; promoting American history and patriotism; promoting membership; organizing and preserving Chapter records and reference books. Recognizing the important heritage of the Chapter’s Continental DAR House in the Historic Fair Park District, this Regent has moved forward with restoration projects designed to ensure future preservation. Librarians and volunteers have computer catalogued 2500 books making the card catalog available on the Internet. Chapter excelled in Press Book Public Relations, Chapter Fact Sheet, and Yearbook. Computers and technology were important to this Regent, with many uses encouraged and taught. A Memorial Service was held in September 2001, at the Texas State Fair with The Black Patriot Foundation from Washington D.C. participating in honoring all Revolutionary War Patriots, but especially the little known African American Patriots.

Pearl Harbor Remembered
7 December 1941 —— 7 December 2001

On behalf of Arizona Daughters. Peggy Hurd, State Regent, dedicated a memorial wreath in memory of the heroes of Pearl Harbor on the occasion of the battle's 60th Anniversary.

Weighing nearly 10 tons, this anchor is one of two used on the USS Arizona. The first is on the tour boat landing at the USS Arizona Memorial in Pearl Harbor. This, the second anchor, was brought to Arizona from Navy storage in 1972 and is located on the Arizona Capitol Mall. The signal or "pig tail" mast, the tallest point on the ship, is also located on the Mall. The mast was removed shortly after the attack and was later used as a training device. Finally destined for salvage, it was saved and brought to Arizona in 1990. The plaques below the anchor give the names of the sailors and Marines who died when the ship went down. Sinking 8:10 a.m., the USS Arizona was the first ship destroyed by the Japanese during the attack.

2002 Rededication of the Pioneer Child’s Marker

May 22, 1955, the Columbia Society C.A.R. placed a marker in memory of an unknown 11-year old girl who died just one day short of completing the grueling journey along the Oregon Trail in 1849.

May 22, 1990, the Oregon State Society C.A.R. rededicated that same marker and presented a descriptive plaque to the State of Oregon, thus saving a site doomed for destruction when the route of Highway I-84 was changed.

January 10, 2002: a rededication was held at Wilkes Elementary School by the Rotary Club who repaired the recently damaged site of the marker. Pictured here (back) are three individuals who were members of the Columbia Society C.A.R. in 1955: Lyle Howard; Lee Matthews, Society President in 1955 and instigator of the original marking; and Shirley Howard, now Regent of Willamette Chapter DAR. In front are three DAR and C.A.R. leaders: Mae Huston, Senior Treasurer of Oregon Trail Society; Joan Froehlich, Senior President of Kalapooia Society; and Donna Vaughan, Senior President of Donald McKenzie Society.

Dear Daughters,

As we near the end of our first year of publishing American Spirit magazine and its supplement, Daughters of the American Revolution Newsletter, and begin our second year, the DAR Magazine Committee and Staff would like to express our appreciation to all of you for spreading the American Spirit to your chapter members, friends and family. Subscriptions have increased by nearly 6,000 since the introduction of these two publications; however, we all know we cannot become complacent and let our subscriptions lapse as it is this continued support—that helps sustain your DAR magazine. From the beginning in 1892, the DAR magazine was intended to be self-supporting and you can make this happen! In order to ensure your magazine subscription is always current:

- Note your expiration date on the magazine mailing label. Renewals should be sent to the magazine office two months before expiration to ensure uninterrupted mailings. For gift subscriptions and new subscriptions, check the cut-off dates shown in the newsletter to determine which will be the first issue received.

- Address changes, including summer and winter residences, should be sent to the DAR Magazine Office six weeks before each scheduled move. With address changes send your full name, DAR national number, old and new address, and phone number.

- To expedite renewals and new subscriptions, it is recommended you go directly through the magazine office and not your chapter; all subscription credit still is given in the NSDAR computer to your chapter. For answers to your subscription questions, contact Oretha Barbour at magazinesubscriptions@dar.org or (202) 879-3248.

Chapter and state advertising help support the newsletter and the “Ad Excellence Award” recognizes one ad in each newsletter that makes the best point of historical, patriotic or educational interest. All ads should be sent to the magazine office no later than the published deadline date, which is a month and a half before the publication date desired. For example, if your ad will run in the Oct issue of the newsletter, it must be received by Aug 15. To discuss the deadline date for your state sponsored issue, contact Bob Fones at magazineadvertising@dar.org or (202) 879-3284.

- The magazine office prefers to receive all layouts of ads in digital format, preferably a MAC-friendly Quark file. Include a proof copy of your ad with the disk or CD. Scanning of camera ready art and conversion of film to digital format is costly. Sending ads camera ready is no longer considered the least expensive way of printing them. With new technology available to us, digital format is the most cost effective way and will save the National Society time and money. Before sending layouts, ensure all files are correct, including fonts and artwork, as this will help cut down on correction costs.

- For more information on page specifications and advertising submission, please refer to the 2002-2003 Newsletter Media Kit available on the DAR Members’ Web Site. Let’s have another successful year in 2002-2003!
